Caravan and Relocatable Home Park Industry Code of Practice Amendment Regulation 1997

under the

Fair Trading Act 1987

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Fair Trading Act 1987.

Faye Lo Po'

Minister for Fair Trading

Explanatory note

Section 78A of the Fair Trading Act 1987 allows a consumer, in certain circumstances, to apply to the Commercial Tribunal in respect of alleged contraventions of a code of practice for an order that the person who contravened the code of practice discontinue the contravention or take specified action to rectify the consequences of the contravention. However, section 78A applies in respect of a code of practice only if the regulations state, or the code itself states, that section 78A so applies.

The object of this Regulation is to apply section 78A to the Caravan and Relocatable Home Park Industry Code of Practice (set out in Schedule 1 to the Caravan and Relocatable Home Park Industry Code of Practice Regulation 1992).

This Regulation is made under the Fair Trading Act 1987, in particular section 78A (Orders on application of affected person).
