

LIMITATION (AMENDMENT) BILL 1993

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

This Bill is cognate with the Choice of Law (Limitation Periods) Bill 1993.

The object of this Act is to amend the Limitation Act 1969 by inserting a provision that will characterise laws relating to limitation periods for actions as part of the substantive law of the State, so that, when the law of the State is applied in another jurisdiction as the law governing the proceedings, New South Wales limitation laws will also be applied.

Clause 1 specifies the short title of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Clause 3 makes the amendment described above.
