Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment (Classification of Inmates) Regulation 2018

under the

Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

DAVID ELLIOTT, MP
Minister for Corrections

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Regulation 2014 to:

- (a) create a new security classification (Category Life) for all inmates serving a sentence of imprisonment for life, and
- (b) require the Commissioner of Corrective Services, in determining the correctional centre in which a Category Life inmate is to be placed, to take into account that such inmates should be confined at all times by a secure physical barrier unless extraordinary circumstances exist.

This Regulation is made under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999, including sections 79 and 271 (the general regulation-making power).
