

New South Wales

Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Bill 2016

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are as follows:

- (a) to align employment arrangements for senior executives in the NSW Health Service, the NSW Police Force and the Transport Service of NSW generally with the new employment arrangements for Public Service senior executives under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 (the GSE Act),
- (b) to align employment arrangements for employees of the NSW Police Force who are not police officers (ie administrative employees) generally with the new employment arrangements for non-executive employees of the Public Service under the GSE Act,
- (c) to amend the GSE Act to make further provision with respect to misconduct and other matters,
- (d) to make amendments of a minor or consequential nature to certain other legislation.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Government Sector Employment Act 2013 No 40

The Government Sector Employment Act 2013 is amended as follows:

- (a) to enable Public Service, NSW Health Service, NSW Police Force or Transport Service senior executives whose employment has been terminated for making a public interest disclosure to be reinstated to their former roles (or to be re-employed in a government sector agency if reinstatement to the former role is impracticable),
- (b) to provide for the Secretary of the Treasury (or the Secretary's nominee) to be a member of the Public Service Commission Advisory Board,
- (c) to enable the transfer and assignment of Public Service senior executives to the NSW Health Service, the NSW Police Force (other than as police officers) or the Transport Service (noting that other amendments made by the proposed Act provide for the transfer of senior executives from those other services to the Public Service),
- (d) to clarify provisions relating to the termination of employment of Public Service senior executives and the payment of compensation for termination of employment,
- (e) to clarify provisions relating to the transfer or secondment of government sector employees between agencies and to other bodies,
- (f) to extend the misconduct provisions of the GSE Act to findings of guilt for offences in addition to convictions and to interstate offences,
- (g) to expressly exclude statutory Crown law officers from provisions of the GSE Act that enable the summary removal of those statutory officers from office,
- (h) to provide that the Public Service Commissioner or the Secretary of the Department of Premier and Cabinet may appoint persons to act on behalf of the Commissioner or the Secretary for the purposes of conducting inquiries into the administration or management of a government sector agency,
- (i) to make other amendments of a minor or consequential nature.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Health Services Act 1997 No 154

The Health Services Act 1997 is amended as follows:

- (a) to align employment arrangements for senior executives in the NSW Health Service generally with the new employment arrangements for senior executives in the Public Service under the GSE Act,
- (b) to ensure that existing Health Service senior executives will be employed as senior executives under the new employment arrangements and will retain their existing remuneration packages and allowances,
- (c) to transfer employer functions for chief executives of local health districts and specialty network governed health corporations from the Secretary of the Ministry of Health to the board of those districts and specialty networks and transfer the employer functions for senior executives in those districts and specialty networks from that Secretary to the chief executives of those districts and specialty networks,
- (d) to enable the Secretary of the Ministry of Health to give directions to statutory health organisations, and to attach conditions to the payment of subsidies to such organisations, that relate to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives,
- (e) to make other amendments of a minor or consequential nature.

Schedule 3 Amendment of Police Act 1990 No 47

The Police Act 1990 is amended as follows:

- (a) to align employment arrangements for the Commissioner of Police and senior police and administrative executives in the NSW Police Force generally with the new employment arrangements for senior executives in the Public Service under the GSE Act,
- (b) to align employment arrangements for administrative employees of the NSW Police Force generally with the new employment arrangements for Public Service non-executive employees under the GSE Act,
- (c) to provide that existing police senior executives will be employed as NSW Police Force senior executives under the new employment arrangements and to include transitional arrangements for existing senior executives or senior managers who are administrative employees.

Schedule 4 Amendment of Transport Administration Act 1988 No 109

The Transport Administration Act 1988 is amended as follows:

- (a) to provide for the following 3 classifications of employment in the Transport Service:
 - (i) Transport Service senior executives (who are Transport Service employees employed in a Public Service senior executive band),
 - (ii) Transport Service senior managers (who are Transport Service employees designated by the Transport Secretary and whose remuneration level is generally less than the level for Transport Service senior executives but higher than that for clerk (grade 12) in the Public Service),
 - (iii) Transport Service non-executive employees (who are Transport Service employees other than senior executives or senior managers),
- (b) to align employment arrangements for Transport Service senior executives generally with the new employment arrangements for senior executives in the Public Service under the GSE Act,
- (c) to continue the current employment arrangements for Transport Service senior managers and non-executive employees,
- (d) to include transitional arrangements for existing Transport Service employees.

Schedule 5 Amendment of other legislation

Schedule 5.1 amends the Annual Reports (Departments) Act 1985 to provide that the annual report of a Public Service agency that is related to a Department under the GSE Act may be included in that Department's annual report.

Schedule 5.2 amends the Constitution Act 1902:

- (a) to make it clear that Parliamentary officers and staff may continue to be appointed and employed outside of the GSE Act, and
- (b) to provide that when a Public Service agency is abolished by an administrative arrangements order under Part 7 of the Act, the Public Service agency to which the parts of the abolished agency are transferred is taken to be the successor of the abolished agency.

Schedule 5.3 amends the Government Sector Employment Regulation 2014 to provide that allowances for Public Service senior executives are subject to any determination by the Public Service Commissioner as to the circumstances in which such allowances may be paid and the amount of such allowances.

Schedule 5.4 amends the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 to enable the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal:

- (a) to determine remuneration packages for NSW Health Service senior executives, NSW Police Force senior executives (including the Commissioner of Police) and Transport Service senior executives in addition to existing arrangements relating to Public Service senior executives, and
- (b) to fix remuneration packages for particular executives or classes of executives, or for particular roles, offices or positions, that are higher than the remuneration range otherwise determined for the band in which the executives concerned are employed, and
- (c) to make a determination in relation to a particular role, office or position even though no person is assigned to the role, or holds the office or position, for the time being.

Schedule 5.5 amends the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Act 1978:

- (a) to authorise the Sydney Cricket and Sports Ground Trust to employ its own staff (including a chief executive officer) outside of the GSE Act, and
- (b) to enable the Trust to delegate its functions.

Schedule 5.6 amends the Transport Administration (Staff) Regulation 2012 to remove a provision that currently enables the Transport Secretary to create groups of staff in the Transport Service (the same provision is to be inserted into the Transport Administration Act 1988 by Schedule 4 to the proposed Act).

83A	Reinstatement of senior executives whose employment has been terminated for making public interest disclosure	27 28
	(1) This section applies in relation to a person whose employment as a senior executive has been terminated by the person’s employer (the former employer).	29 30 31
	(2) If the Commissioner is satisfied that:	32
	(a) the person’s employment was terminated substantially in reprisal for the person making a public interest disclosure, and	33 34
	(b) the person wishes to be reinstated or otherwise re-employed as a senior executive,	35 36
	the person may be reinstated by the former employer to the role assigned to the person immediately before the termination of employment (the former role).	37 38
	(3) If reinstatement to the person’s former role is considered to be impracticable, the person may be re-employed (whether in the same government sector	39 40

- agency in which the former role was located or in another government sector agency) in some other similar or appropriate role: 1
- (a) that is within the same band (or, in the case of a senior executive who is not employed in a band, within the same level of work) as the former role, and 3
- (b) that has a level of remuneration no less than the remuneration payable to the person in the former role. 6
- (4) The Commissioner may give a direction under section 13 to the head of a government sector agency that a person be reinstated or re-employed under this section. In the case where the person's employer is the Minister, the Commissioner may make a recommendation to the Minister that the person be reinstated or re-employed under this section. 8
10
11
12
Note. Section 13 (2) requires the Commissioner to consult the agency head before giving any such direction. 13
14
- (5) If a person is reinstated or re-employed under this section, the person is entitled to such salary and other employment benefits as if the person had continued to be employed during the period following the termination of employment. However any such entitlement is subject to the repayment of any compensation or other amount paid to the person on the termination of employment. 15
16
17
18
19
20
- (6) The reinstatement or re-employment of a person under this section is not subject to the provisions of the government sector employment rules relating to the recruitment of employees. 21
22
23
- (7) The re-employment of a person under this section in a role other than the person's former role is not for any purpose to be regarded as a continuation of the reprisal action that resulted in the person's employment being terminated. 24
25
26

	(1) Persons who are employed in the NSW Health Service in a Public Service senior executive band are NSW Health Service senior executives . For that purpose, the Public Service senior executive bands under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 apply to employment in the NSW Health Service.	20 21 22 23 24
	(2) The following chief executives are to be employed as NSW Health Service senior executives:	25 26
	(a) chief executives of local health districts,	27
	(b) chief executives of specialty network governed health corporations,	28
	(c) the chief executive of the Ambulance Service of NSW.	29
	Note. See section 23 (2) in the case of the chief executive of a local health district, section 52G (1A) in the case of the chief executive of a specialty network governed health corporation and section 67A (3) in the case of the chief executive of the Ambulance Service.	30 31 32 33
	(3) The chief executive of a statutory health corporation (other than a specialty network governed health corporation) may, but need not, be employed as a NSW Health Service senior executive.	34 35 36
	(4) Persons who are employed under Part 4 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 and assigned to roles to enable a Council established under section 41B of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NSW) to exercise its functions may be designated by the Health Secretary as NSW Health Service senior executives. Any such person, if so designated, ceases to be employed under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 and becomes employed in the NSW Health Service as a NSW Health Service senior executive.	37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44

121B	Employer of senior executives	1
	For the purposes of this Part, the person who is authorised to exercise the employer functions of the Government of New South Wales in relation to a NSW Health Service senior executive is referred to in this Part as the employer of the executive.	2 3 4 5
	Note. The Health Secretary is the employer of Health Service senior executives, except that:	6 7
	(a) the employer of the chief executive of a local health district or of a specialty network governed health corporation is the board of the district or corporation, and	8 9 10
	(b) the employer of the other senior executives of any such district or corporation is the chief executive of the district or corporation.	11 12
121C	Kinds of employment	13
(1)	Employment as a NSW Health Service senior executive may be any one of the following kinds of employment:	14 15
	(a) ongoing employment,	16
	(b) term employment.	17
(2)	Ongoing employment is employment that continues until the executive resigns or his or her employment is terminated.	18 19
(3)	Term employment is employment for a specified period or for the duration of a specified task (unless the executive sooner resigns or his or her employment is terminated).	20 21 22
121D	Employment in bands and assignment to roles	23
(1)	A NSW Health Service senior executive is to be employed in the Public Service senior executive band that the employer of the executive considers appropriate for the role of the executive.	24 25 26
(2)	In determining the number of NSW Health Service senior executives and the appropriate band in which they are employed, the employer is to apply the applicable work level standards and have regard to any guidance provided by the Public Service Commissioner.	27 28 29 30
(3)	In the case of a local health district or specialty network governed health corporation, the number of NSW Health Service senior executives, the bands in which they are employed and the roles they perform are required to be approved by the Health Secretary.	31 32 33 34
(4)	A NSW Health Service senior executive may, from time to time, be assigned to a role in any division of the NSW Health Service in the band in which the executive is employed.	35 36 37
(5)	A NSW Health Service senior executive may be assigned to a role (in the band in which the executive is employed) by the employer of the executive within the relevant division of the NSW Health Service for which the employer exercises employer functions.	38 39 40 41
(6)	A NSW Health Service senior executive employed in a division of the NSW Health Service may, subject to this section, be assigned to a role (in the band in which the executive is employed) by the Health Secretary in another division of the NSW Health Service.	42 43 44 45
(7)	If a NSW Health Service senior executive is assigned to a role in or from a division of the NSW Health Service for which the Health Secretary does not exercise employer functions in relation to the Health Service senior executives	46 47 48

- employed in that division, the Health Secretary is to consult the person or body that exercises or will exercise employer functions in relation to the executive. 1
- (8) A NSW Health Service senior executive may not be assigned to the role of chief executive of a local health district or specialty network governed health corporation without the concurrence of the board of the local health district or specialty network governed health corporation to which the executive is to be assigned. 3
- (9) A NSW Health Service senior executive may: 8
- (a) be transferred by the Health Secretary to the Public Service of New South Wales and assigned to a role in any Public Service agency in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the head of that agency), or 9

121E	Government sector employment rules and employment directions and conditions	1 2
(1)	The Public Service Commissioner may make government sector employment rules under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 on any matter relating to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives (including, without limitation, matters of the kind referred to in section 36 of that Act).	3 4 5 6 7
(2)	The Public Service Commissioner must consult the Health Secretary before making any such rules.	8 9
(3)	This section does not limit any direction, or any condition referred to in section 122 (2), that the Health Secretary is otherwise authorised to give or impose in relation to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives. However, if any such direction or condition is inconsistent with the applicable government sector employment rules:	10 11 12 13 14
(a)	the direction or condition does not have any effect unless the Public Service Commissioner has agreed to the inconsistency (unless it is a direction or condition referred to in paragraph (b)), or	15 16 17
(b)	if the direction or condition relates to the health or safety of any person or persons or the provision of essential health services—the Health Secretary is to consult the Public Service Commissioner about the inconsistency (whether before or after the direction or condition is given or attached).	18 19 20 21 22
121F	Contract of employment	23
(1)	A NSW Health Service senior executive is to be employed under a written contract of employment signed by the executive and by the employer of the executive on behalf of the Government.	24 25 26
(2)	Without limiting section 121E (1), the government sector employment rules made under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may prescribe model contracts of employment for NSW Health Service senior executives and may specify any model provisions that are mandatory and that prevail in the event of any inconsistency with the provisions of a contract of employment.	27 28 29 30 31 32
(3)	Subject to this Part, the government sector employment rules and any direction issued by the Public Service Commissioner under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 , a contract of employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive is to deal with the following matters:	33 34 35 36
(a)	the band in which the executive is employed,	37
(b)	the duration of the contract if the executive is not employed in ongoing employment,	38 39
(c)	the total remuneration package of the executive (comprising monetary remuneration and employment benefits) and any allowances,	40 41
(d)	performance obligations, and reviews of performance, of the executive,	42
(e)	progression in the total remuneration package of the executive based on performance,	43 44
(f)	leave and other conditions of employment of the executive,	45
(g)	the compensation for any termination of employment of the executive by the Health Secretary or other employer of the executive (including the period to which the compensation relates),	46 47 48

(h)	any other matter prescribed by the regulations under section 39 (4) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	1 2
(4)	The contract of employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive may, subject to this Act, include conditions of engagement.	3 4
(5)	The contract of employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive does not limit, and is not terminated or otherwise affected by:	5 6
(a)	the transfer of the executive under section 121D (9) to the Public Service of New South Wales, the NSW Police Force or the Transport Service of New South Wales, or	7 8 9
(b)	the assignment of the executive to a different role or any other change to the title, place of work or duties of the executive.	10 11
(6)	A contract of employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive may, subject to this section, be varied at any time in accordance with the contract or by further agreement.	12 13 14
(7)	The regulations under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may make provision with respect to the compensation to which a NSW Health Service senior executive whose employment is terminated is entitled under his or her contract of employment.	15 16 17 18
121G	Remuneration, benefits and allowances	19
(1)	The remuneration package of a NSW Health Service senior executive must be within the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive is employed, except as provided by subsection (2).	20 21 22 23
	Note. See also section 24R (3) of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 .	24 25
(2)	The Health Secretary may, in accordance with parameters agreed on by the Health Secretary and the Public Service Commissioner, determine a remuneration package for a NSW Health Service senior executive or class of NSW Health Service senior executives that is within a range higher than the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive or class of executives is employed.	26 27 28 29 30 31 32
(3)	The kinds and value of employment benefits and the allowances for a NSW Health Service senior executive are to be determined by the Health Secretary. In making any such determination, the Health Secretary is to have regard to any similar determinations that apply to Public Service senior executives.	33 34 35 36
(4)	A NSW Health Service senior executive is only entitled to the remuneration, employment benefits or allowances provided in the executive's contract of employment.	37 38 39
(5)	For the purposes of this section, employment benefits for a NSW Health Service senior executive are:	40 41
(a)	contributions by the executive's employer to a superannuation scheme or fund of the executive, and	42 43
(b)	other benefits provided to the executive at the cost of the executive's employer that are of a private nature.	44 45
121H	Termination of employment	46
(1)	The employer of a NSW Health Service senior executive, or the Health Secretary if the Health Secretary is not the employer, may terminate the	47 48

employment of the executive at any time, for any or no stated reason and without notice.	1 2
Note. The termination of employment of a senior executive may also be effected by other means (for example under Part 2 of this Chapter or under section 68 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013).	3 4 5
(2) A NSW Health Service senior executive whose employment is terminated under this section is entitled to such compensation (if any) as may be provided in the contract of employment of the executive (and to no other compensation or entitlement for the termination of employment other than superannuation entitlements).	6 7 8 9 10
(3) A NSW Health Service senior executive whose employment is so terminated is not to be employed in the public sector during the period specified in the contract of employment to which any such compensation relates unless arrangements have been made for a refund of the proportionate amount of the compensation.	11 12 13 14 15
(4) The regulations under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may make provision relating to the calculation of the proportionate amount of a payment to be refunded under subsection (3).	16 17 18
(5) The employment of the chief executive of a local health district or of a specialty network governed health corporation may not be terminated under this section without the concurrence of the Health Secretary.	19 20 21
(6) For the purposes of this section, employment of a former executive in the public sector and public sector have the same meanings as in section 41 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	22 23 24
1211 Acting in executive roles	25
(1) A NSW Health Service senior executive or other employee of the NSW Health Service may be assigned to act in the role of a NSW Health Service senior executive if:	26 27 28
(a) the person who is usually assigned to that other role is unavailable for any reason, or	29 30
(b) there is no person performing duties in that other role for the time being.	31
(2) An assignment to act in the role of a NSW Health Service senior executive under this section may be made:	32 33
(a) in any case—by the Health Secretary, or	34
(b) in the case of a NSW Health Service senior executive being assigned to act in the role of another such executive—by the employer of the executive assigned to act (but only if the employer is also the employer of the other executive).	35 36 37 38
If the Health Secretary assigns an executive to act in the role of an executive for whom the Health Secretary is not the employer, the Health Secretary is to consult the employer of that executive.	39 40 41
(3) While assigned to act in the role of a NSW Health Service senior executive the person has all the functions of the executive, but does not thereby become a NSW Health Service senior executive if not already such an executive.	42 43 44
(4) An assignment to act in the role of a NSW Health Service senior executive under this section may be terminated at any time by a person authorised to make the assignment.	45 46 47

(5)	This Part does not prevent the payment of an applicable allowance to a person when assigned to act in the role of a NSW Health Service senior executive under this section.	1 2 3
121J	Industrial or legal proceedings excluded	4
(1)	The employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive, or any matter, question or dispute relating to any such employment, is not an industrial matter for the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 .	5 6 7
(2)	Parts 6, 7 and 9 of Chapter 2 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 do not apply to or in respect of the employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive.	8 9
(3)	Any State industrial instrument (whether made before or after the commencement of this section) does not have effect in so far as it relates to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives. This subsection does not prevent the provisions of any such industrial instrument being adopted by reference in the conditions of employment of any such executive.	10 11 12 13 14
(4)	No proceedings for an order in the nature of prohibition, certiorari or mandamus or for a declaration or injunction or for any other relief, lie in respect of a matter that is declared by this section not to be an industrial matter for the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 .	15 16 17 18
(5)	In this section, a reference to the employment of a NSW Health Service senior executive is a reference to:	19 20
(a)	the engagement of, or failure to engage, a person as such an executive, or	21 22
(b)	the assignment or re-assignment of the executive to a role in a band, or	23
(c)	the removal, retirement, termination of employment or other cessation of employment of the executive, or	24 25
(d)	any disciplinary proceedings or action taken against the executive, or	26
(e)	the remuneration or other conditions of employment of the executive.	27
121K	Delegation of employer functions	28
(1)	If the employer of a NSW Health Service senior executive is a board, the employer functions of the board under this Chapter in relation to the executive (other than the function of employing or terminating the employment of the executive) may be delegated by the board to the chairperson or any other member of the board.	29 30 31 32 33
(2)	If the employer of a NSW Health Service senior executive is a chief executive, the employer functions of the chief executive under this Chapter in relation to the senior executive may be delegated by the chief executive to any member of the NSW Health Service (other than the senior executive) or to any person employed in the Public Service.	34 35 36 37 38
[21]	Section 122 Functions of the Health Secretary	39
	Insert “, including (subject to section 121E (3)) directions relating to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives” after “directions to statutory health organisations” in section 122 (f1).	40 41 42
[22]	Section 122 (2)	43
	Insert at the end of section 122:	44
(2)	Without limiting subsection (1) (f1), the Health Secretary may, in exercising any power delegated by the Minister to attach conditions under section 127 (4)	45 46 to the payment of a subsidy under that section to a statutory health organisation, attach conditions relating to the employment of NSW Health Service senior executives who are employed to enable the statutory health organisation to exercise its functions. Any such condition is subject to section 121E (3).

Part Provisions consequent on enactment of Government Sector Employment Legislation
Amendment Act 2016

Definitions

In this Part:

amending Act means the Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016.

existing Health Service senior executive means a member of the NSW Health Service who was, immediately before the substitution of Part 3 of Chapter 9 of this Act by the amending Act, employed in an executive position under the former senior executive provisions, and includes any such member of the NSW Health Service holding office as a chief executive under section 23, 51, 52A, 52G or 67A of this Act.

former senior executive provisions means the provisions of Part 3 of Chapter 9 of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that Part), as in force immediately before the substitution of that Part by the amending Act.

new senior executive provisions means the provisions of Part 3 of Chapter 9 of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that Part), as amended by the amending Act, and the provisions of Part 3B of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975.

Application of new senior executive provisions to existing Health Service senior executives

- (1) On the commencement of the new senior executive provisions, the following provisions apply in relation to an existing Health Service senior executive:
 - (a) the executive is taken to be employed in ongoing employment as a Health Service senior executive under the new senior executive provisions,
 - (b) for that purpose, a contract of employment under the new senior executive provisions is taken to have been entered into in relation to employment of the executive,
 - (c) the terms and conditions of that contract are taken to be those contained in the model contract of employment for NSW Health Service senior executives that is prescribed by the government sector employment rules as at the date of commencement of the new senior executive provisions,
 - (d) the executive is taken to be employed in the band under the Public Service senior executive band determination that:
 - (i) the employer of the executive considers appropriate for the role of the executive, and

(ii)	is approved by the Health Secretary (in the case where the Health Secretary is not the employer),	1 2
(e)	the executive is to be assigned to the same (or a similar) role to the role in which the executive was employed immediately before the commencement of the new senior executive provisions,	3 4 5
(f)	the executive has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the executive's remuneration package under the former senior executive provisions (unless the remuneration package is increased as a result of arrangements in force under those provisions) even if it exceeds the band in which the person is employed,	6 7 8 9 10
(g)	the executive continues to be entitled to any recruitment or other allowance payable to the executive under the former senior executive provisions immediately before the commencement of the new senior executive provisions.	11 12 13 14
(2)	Subclause (1) (f) and (g) apply in relation to a NSW Health Service senior executive until such time as the executive:	15 16
(a)	is assigned to a role in the NSW Health Service that has a remuneration package exceeding the remuneration package paid to the executive immediately before the assignment to the new role, or	17 18 19
(b)	ceases to be employed in the NSW Health Service.	20
	Savings and transitional regulations	21
(1)	The provisions of any regulation made under Part 1 of this Schedule consequent on the enactment of the amending Act have effect despite anything to the contrary in this Part.	22 23 24
(2)	The regulations made under Part 1 of this Schedule consequent on the enactment of the amending Act may make separate savings and transitional provisions or amend this Part to consolidate the savings and transitional provisions.	25 26 27 28

Part 5 NSW Police Force senior executives	33
32 NSW Police Force senior executives	34
(1) Persons who are employed in the NSW Police Force in a Public Service senior executive band, whether as police officers or as administrative employees, are NSW Police Force senior executives . For that purpose, the Public Service senior executive bands under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 apply to employment in the NSW Police Force.	35 36 37 38 39
(2) The Commissioner is not a NSW Police Force senior executive.	40

(3)	Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners are to be employed as NSW Police Force senior executives.	1 2
(4)	A police officer is not to be employed as a NSW Police Force senior executive unless the police officer is above the rank of superintendent.	3 4
(5)	The Commissioner may, subject to this and any other Act or law, exercise employer functions in relation to persons employed as NSW Police Force senior executives.	5 6 7
33	Appointment of senior executives	8
(1)	Deputy Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners are to be appointed by the Governor. The persons appointed are to be persons recommended to the Minister by the Commissioner and approved by the Minister.	9 10 11
(2)	Other NSW Police Force senior executives are to be appointed by the Commissioner.	12 13
(3)	The appointment of a person under this section to a position in the NSW Police Force is to be based on an assessment of the capabilities, experience and knowledge of the person against the pre-established standards for the position to determine the person best suited to the requirements of the position and the needs of the NSW Police Force.	14 15 16 17 18
(4)	It does not matter whether a person appointed under this section is or is not already a member of the NSW Police Force, and it does not matter that a person appointed to a position designated as a position to be held by a police officer is not a police officer at the time of appointment.	19 20 21 22
(5)	The Commissioner may appoint a member of the NSW Police Force to act as a Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner or other NSW Police Force senior executive if the executive is suspended, sick or absent or has vacated office, and may terminate the appointment at any time.	23 24 25 26
(6)	A person, while so acting as a NSW Police Force senior executive, has all the functions of the executive, but does not thereby become a NSW Police Force senior executive if not already such an executive.	27 28 29
34	Integrity matters	30
(1)	It is the duty of the Commissioner, before recommending the appointment of, or appointing, a person as a NSW Police Force senior executive:	31 32
(a)	to make inquiries (from the Police Integrity Commission, and the Commander, Professional Standards Command, and from any other person or body the Commissioner considers appropriate) as to the person's integrity, and	33 34 35 36
(b)	to have regard to any information that comes to the Commissioner's attention (whether as a result of inquiries under paragraph (a) or otherwise) as to the person's integrity.	37 38 39
(2)	The Police Integrity Commission, subject to the Police Integrity Commission Act 1996 , and the Commander, Professional Standards Command, are required to furnish a report to the Commissioner (on the basis of the information available to the Commission or the Commander and without the need for any special investigation or inquiry) on the person the subject of an inquiry by the Commissioner.	40 41 42 43 44 45
(3)	As soon as practicable after a person is appointed as a NSW Police Force senior executive, the Commissioner is required to notify the Police Integrity Commission of the identity of the person so appointed.	46 47 48

- (4) The Commissioner must, before recommending the appointment of, or appointing, a person as a NSW Police Force senior executive: 1
(a) require the person to provide a statutory declaration, in such form (if 3
any) as may be prescribed by the regulations, that the person has not 4 knowingly engaged in specified misconduct or any other misconduct, 5 and 6
(b) have regard to the statutory declaration so provided. 7
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a person who is not, and has never been, a 8
police officer (whether a member of the NSW Police Force, or the Police 9 Force, by whatever name described, of another State or Territory, or of another 10 country). 11
- (6) A person who does not provide a statutory declaration in accordance with a 12 requirement under subsection (4) is ineligible for appointment. 13
- (7) The fact that a person does not provide a statutory declaration in accordance 14 with such a requirement is not to be taken into consideration for a purpose 15 other than the assessment of the person's eligibility to be appointed as a NSW 16
Police Force senior executive. 17
- (8) In the case of the appointment of a person as the Commander, Professional 18
Standards Command, the functions of that Commander under this section are 19 to be exercised by a Deputy Commissioner nominated by the Commissioner. 20
- 35 Kinds of employment 21
- (1) Employment as a NSW Police Force senior executive may be any one of the 22 following kinds of employment: 23
(a) ongoing employment, 24
(b) term employment. 25
- (2) Ongoing employment is employment that continues until the executive resigns 26 or his or her employment is terminated. 27
- (3) Term employment is employment for a specified period or for the duration of 28 a specified task (unless the executive sooner resigns or his or her employment 29 is terminated). 30
- 36 Employment in bands and assignment to roles 31
- (1) A NSW Police Force senior executive is to be employed in the Public Service 32
senior executive band that the Commissioner considers appropriate for the role 33 of the executive. 34
- (2) In determining the number of NSW Police Force senior executives and the 35 appropriate band in which they are employed, the Commissioner is to apply 36 the applicable work level standards and have regard to any guidance provided 37
by the Public Service Commissioner. 38
- (3) A NSW Police Force senior executive may, from time to time, be assigned to 39
a role in any part of the NSW Police Force in the band in which the executive 40 is employed. 41
- (4) A NSW Police Force senior executive may be assigned to a role by the 42
Commissioner. 43
- (5) A NSW Police Force senior executive (other than a police officer) may: 44
(a) be transferred by the Commissioner to the Public Service of New South 45
Wales and assigned to a role in any Public Service agency in the band 46

- in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the head of that agency), or 1
- (b) be transferred by the Commissioner to the NSW Health Service and assigned to a role in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the Secretary of the Ministry of Health), or 3
- Note. A Police Force senior executive may not be assigned to the role of chief executive of a local health district or specialty network governed health corporation except with the concurrence of the board of the organisation concerned—see section 121D (11) of the Health Services Act 1997. 6
- (c) be transferred by the Commissioner to the Transport Service of New South Wales and assigned to a role in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the Secretary of the Department of Transport). 10
11
13
- Note. See also section 95A which enables a police officer to be seconded to other government agencies. While seconded, the police officer retains his or her rank, seniority and remuneration and may continue to act as a police officer of that rank. 14
15
16
- (6) NSW Police Force senior executives may be assigned to roles under this section to enable the flexible deployment of staff resources and to develop the capabilities of staff. 17
19
- (7) A NSW Police Force senior executive is not to be assigned to a different role under this section unless the executive has been consulted. The remuneration payable to the executive is not to be reduced because of the assignment to the different role without the consent of the executive. This subsection extends to a transfer under subsection (5). 20 21
23
24
- (8) In this section:
assign to a role includes assign to a different role. 25
26
- 37 Government sector employment rules and employment directions 27
- (1) The Public Service Commissioner may make government sector employment rules under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 on any matter relating to the employment of NSW Police Force senior executives (including, without limitation, matters of the kind referred to in section 36 of that Act and the application of the principle of employment on merit). 28
29
30
31
32
- (2) The Public Service Commissioner must consult the Commissioner of Police before making any such rules. 33
34
- (3) This section does not limit any direction that the Commissioner is otherwise authorised to give in relation to the management or control of the NSW Police Force (including employment arrangements). The Commissioner is to consult with the Public Service Commissioner on any inconsistency between any such directions given and applicable government sector employment rules. 35
36
38
39
- 38 Contract of employment 40
- (1) A NSW Police Force senior executive is to be employed under a written contract of employment signed by the executive and by the Commissioner on behalf of the Government. 41
43
- (2) Without limiting section 37 (1), the government sector employment rules made under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may prescribe model contracts of employment for NSW Police Force senior executives and may specify any model provisions that are mandatory and that prevail in the event of any inconsistency with the provisions of a contract of employment. 44
45
47
48
49

- (3) Subject to this Part, the government sector employment rules and any direction issued by the Public Service Commissioner under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013, a contract of employment of a NSW Police Force senior executive is to deal with the following matters:
- (a) the band in which the executive is employed,
 - (b) the duration of the contract if the executive is not employed in ongoing employment,
 - (c) the total remuneration package of the executive (comprising monetary remuneration and employment benefits) and any allowances,
 - (d) performance obligations, and reviews of performance, of the executive,
 - (e) progression in the total remuneration package of the executive based on performance,
 - (f) leave and other conditions of employment of the executive,
 - (g) the compensation for any termination of employment of the executive by the Commissioner (including the period to which the compensation relates),
 - (h) any other matter prescribed by the regulations under section 39 (4) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013.
- (4) The contract of employment of a NSW Police Force senior executive may, subject to this Act, include conditions of engagement.
- (5) The contract of employment of a NSW Police Force senior executive does not limit, and is not terminated or otherwise affected by:
- (a) the transfer of the executive under section 36 (5) to the Public Service of New South Wales, the NSW Health Service or the Transport Service of New South Wales, or
 - (b) the assignment of the executive to a different role or any other change to the title, place of work or duties of the executive.
- (6) A contract of employment of a NSW Police Force senior executive may, subject to this section, be varied at any time in accordance with the contract or by further agreement.
- (7) The regulations under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may make provision with respect to the compensation to which a NSW Police Force senior executive whose employment is terminated is entitled under his or her contract of employment.
- 39 Remuneration, benefits and allowances
- (1) The remuneration package of a NSW Police Force senior executive must be within the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive is employed, except as provided by subsection (2).
- Note. See also section 24R (3) of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975.
- (2) The Commissioner may, in accordance with parameters agreed on by the Commissioner and the Public Service Commissioner, determine a remuneration package for a NSW Police Force senior executive or class of NSW Police Force senior executives that is within a range higher than the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive or class of executives is employed.

- (3) The kinds and value of employment benefits and the allowances for a NSW Police Force senior executive are to be determined by the Commissioner. In making any such determination, the Commissioner is to have regard to any similar determinations that apply to Public Service senior executives. 1
- (4) A NSW Police Force senior executive is only entitled to the remuneration, employment benefits or allowances provided in the executive's contract of employment. 5
- (5) For the purposes of this section, employment benefits for a NSW Police Force senior executive are: 8
- (a) contributions by the executive's employer to a superannuation scheme or fund of the executive, and 10 11
- (b) other benefits provided to the executive at the cost of the executive's employer that are of a private nature. 12
13
- 40 Termination of employment 14
- (1) The Governor may terminate the appointment of a person as Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner at any time, for any or no stated reason and without notice. The Governor is not to do so unless the termination is recommended to the Minister by the Commissioner and the Minister approves the recommendation. 15
18
19
- (2) The Commissioner may terminate the employment of any other NSW Police Force senior executive at any time, for any or no stated reason and without notice. 20 21
22
- (3) The Commissioner: 23
- (a) may declare a person whose appointment is terminated under subsection (1) to be an unattached officer in the NSW Police Force (an unattached declaration), and 24
26
- (b) may revoke an unattached declaration. 27
- (4) While an unattached declaration is in force, the person to whom the declaration relates: 28
29
- (a) is to be regarded as a NSW Police Force senior executive (although not as the holder of any position), and 30 31
- (b) is entitled to remuneration and employment benefits as if the person's appointment had not been terminated. 32
33
- (5) If, in the case of a person whose appointment has been terminated under subsection (1), an unattached declaration is not made or is revoked by the Commissioner, the employment of the person as a NSW Police Force senior executive is to be terminated by the Commissioner unless the person is appointed to another position in the NSW Police Force (including a position as a non-executive police officer). 34 35
37
38
39
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents: 40
- (a) a NSW Police Force senior executive who is a police officer being removed from the NSW Police Force under section 181D, or 41 42
- (b) a NSW Police Force senior executive who is an administrative employee from having his or her employment terminated under section 68 or 69 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013. 43

Part 6A Non-executive administrative employees	26
81 Application of Part	27
This Part applies to non-executive administrative employees.	28
81A Kinds of employment	29
(1) Employment in the NSW Police Force as a non-executive administrative employee may be any one of the following kinds of employment:	30
	31
(a) ongoing employment,	32
(b) temporary employment,	33
(c) casual employment.	34
(2) Ongoing employment is employment that continues until the employee resigns or his or her employment is terminated.	35
	36
(3) Temporary employment is employment for a temporary purpose.	37

(4)	Casual employment is employment to carry out irregular, intermittent, short-term, urgent or other work as and when required.	1 2
81B	Integrity matters	3
(1)	It is the duty of the Commissioner before employing a non-executive administrative employee, to make inquiries (from any person or body the Commissioner thinks appropriate), as to the person's integrity.	4 5 6
(2)	It is the duty of the Commissioner to have regard to any information that comes to the Commissioner's attention (whether as a result of inquiries under subsection (1) or otherwise) as to the integrity of a person referred to in that subsection.	7 8 9 10
(3)	The Police Integrity Commission is authorised (but not required) to furnish a report to the Commissioner on any person the subject of an inquiry under this section.	11 12 13
(4)	The Commissioner is required to notify the Police Integrity Commission of the identity of each person employed as a non-executive administrative employee as soon as practicable after the person is so employed.	14 15 16
81C	Employment in classifications of work	17
(1)	Non-executive administrative employees are to be employed in a classification of work determined by the Commissioner in which the person is employed in accordance with this and any other Act or law.	18 19 20
(2)	A classification of work extends to any kind of work and any grade of that work.	21 22
81D	Assignment of roles in work classifications	23
(1)	In this section: assign to a role includes assign to a different role.	24 25
(2)	The Commissioner may from time to time assign non-executive administrative employees to roles in the NSW Police Force in the classification of work in which the employees are employed.	26 27 28
(3)	Non-executive administrative employees may be assigned to roles to enable the flexible deployment of staff resources within the NSW Police Force and to develop the capabilities of staff.	29 30 31
(4)	A non-executive administrative employee is not to be assigned to a different role unless the employee has been consulted. The remuneration payable to the employee is not to be reduced because of the assignment to the different role without the consent of the employee.	32 33 34 35
(5)	The Commissioner may also transfer a non-executive administrative employee to a non-executive police officer position.	36 37
81E	Termination of employment	38
(1)	The Commissioner may, by instrument in writing, terminate the employment of a non-executive administrative employee on any of the following grounds if the employment is ongoing employment:	39 40 41
(a)	the employee has failed to meet a condition of engagement as an employee imposed under Part 8,	42 43
(b)	the employee lacks, or has lost, an essential qualification for performing the duties of the role assigned to the employee,	44 45

(c)	the performance of the employee is determined under section 68 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to be unsatisfactory,	1 2
(d)	the employee is unable to perform the duties of the role assigned to the employee because of physical or mental incapacity,	3 4
(e)	the employee is retired on medical grounds under section 94B,	5
(f)	the employee has refused to perform duties to which the employee has been duly assigned,	6 7
(g)	the employee has abandoned his or her employment,	8
(h)	a finding of misconduct has been made against the employee under section 69 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 ,	9 10
(i)	the employee is determined in accordance with the government sector employment rules under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 or the regulations under that Act to be excess to the requirements of the NSW Police Force,	11 12 13 14
(j)	on any other ground prescribed by the regulations under this Act or by the regulations under section 47 (1) (k) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	15 16 17
	The instrument is to set out the ground or grounds on which the employment is terminated.	18 19
(2)	The Commissioner may, by instrument in writing, terminate the employment of a non-executive administrative employee at any time if the employment is not ongoing employment.	20 21 22
81F	Government sector employment rules relating to employment of non-executive administrative employees	23 24
(1)	The Public Service Commissioner may make government sector employment rules under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 on any matter relating to the employment of NSW Police Force non-executive administrative employees (including, without limitation, matters of the kind referred to in section 48 of that Act).	25 26 27 28 29
(2)	The Public Service Commissioner must consult the Commissioner of Police before making any such rules.	30 31
(3)	This section does not limit any direction that the Commissioner is otherwise authorised to give in relation to the management or control of the NSW Police Force (including employment arrangements). The Commissioner is to consult with the Public Service Commissioner on any inconsistency between directions given and applicable government sector employment rules.	32 33 34 35 36
81G	Employment of special constables	37
(1)	The Commissioner may employ a person under this Part as a non-executive administrative employee (special constable). A person so employed is a special constable .	38 39 40
(2)	Employment as a special constable may be made subject to such conditions as the Commissioner determines, including (but not limited to) conditions as to the kinds of functions conferred or imposed and the purposes for and circumstances in which such functions may be exercised.	41 42 43 44
(3)	Without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Commissioner may confer or impose on a special constable any of the functions of a police officer	45 46

of the rank of constable, including any of the functions of a police officer that are specified in the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 .	1
Note. Accordingly, section 13 of this Act, for example, would apply to any such special constable.	2
(4) Sections 207A and 211A–211AB apply to a special constable who is authorised to exercise functions of a police officer in the same way as those sections apply to a police officer.	3
(5) Part 15 of the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 (Safeguards relating to powers) applies to a special constable who is authorised to exercise functions of a police officer in the same way as that Part applies to a police officer.	4
(6) Part 4 of the Law Reform (Vicarious Liability) Act 1983 applies to a special constable who is authorised to exercise functions of a police officer in the same way as that Part applies to a police officer.	5

(b) the person’s unfitness or incapacity:	26
(i) appears likely to be of a permanent nature, and	27
(ii) has not arisen from actual misconduct on the part of the person, or from causes within the person’s control.	28 29
94C Resignation or retirement	30
(1) A member of the NSW Police Force may resign from the NSW Police Force by written notice to the Commissioner.	31 32
(2) The resignation of a member of the NSW Police Force does not take effect until:	33 34
(a) the Commissioner accepts the resignation, or	35
(b) the member has given the Commissioner at least 4 weeks’ notice in writing of the day on which the member intends to resign and the member is not under suspension from duty on that day.	36 37 38
(3) In this section, resignation includes retirement and member of the NSW Police Force does not include the Commissioner.	39 40

Part 32 Provisions consequent on enactment of Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016	19 20 21
88 Definitions	22
In this Part:	23
amending Act means the Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016 .	24 25
former senior executive provisions means:	26
(a) the provisions of Part 5 of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that Part) as in force immediately before the substitution of that Part by the amending Act, and	27 28 29
(b) the provisions of Part 3A of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 as in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments made by the amending Act to that Part.	30 31 32 33
implementation date for a transitional police senior executive or transitional administrative senior executive—see clause 90.	34 35
new senior executive provisions means the provisions of Part 5 of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that Part), as substituted by the amending Act, and the provisions of Part 3B of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 .	36 37 38 39
senior executive bands determination has the same meaning as in the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	40 41

transitional administrative senior executive means a person (other than a police officer):

- (a) who, immediately before the substitution of Part 5 of this Act by the amending Act, was employed as an executive officer under the former senior executive provisions (such a person is referred to in this Part as a transitional administrative SES executive), or
- (b) who, immediately before the substitution of Part 6A of this Act by the amending Act, was employed under that Part in the NSW Police Force as an administrative officer in the classification or grade of senior officer (or in any equivalent classification or grade determined by the Commissioner for the purposes of this definition) and whose salary was more than the maximum salary for a clerk (Grade 12) in the Public Service (such a person is referred to in this Part as a transitional administrative SO executive).

transitional police senior executive means a police officer who, immediately before the substitution of Part 5 of this Act by the amending Act, was employed as an executive officer under the former senior executive provisions.

89 Existing Police Commissioner

- (1) The person holding office as Commissioner on the commencement of the amendment made to section 27 of this Act by the amending Act continues in office as Commissioner for the balance of the person's existing term of office. However, the person ceases to hold office as Commissioner under this clause if the person vacates that office in accordance with Part 4 of this Act or if the person is subsequently appointed as Commissioner under Part 4 of this Act (as amended by the amending Act).
- (2) A person who continues in office as Commissioner under this clause:
 - (a) is taken to be employed in accordance with this Act (as amended by the amending Act) in the Public Service senior executive band determined in respect of that office, and
 - (b) is not required to enter into a contract of employment under the new senior executive provisions for the purposes of the period of continued employment, and
 - (c) has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the remuneration package of the person immediately before the commencement of this clause (unless the remuneration package is increased in accordance with the former senior executive provisions or as a result of progression within the applicable remuneration range), and
 - (d) is, if the person is removed from office under this Act (as amended by the amending Act) on or after the commencement of this clause, entitled to the compensation (if any) provided under and in accordance with section 28 (7) of this Act (as in force immediately before the repeal of that subsection by the amending Act).

90 Review of senior executive structure for implementation of new senior executive provisions

- (1) The Commissioner is to review the senior executive structure of the NSW Police Force in order to transition senior executive employment in the NSW Police Force to the arrangements under the new senior executive provisions.
- (2) The Commissioner is, in consultation with the Public Service Commissioner, to prepare an implementation schedule for the staged implementation of the

- new senior executive provisions to the extent they relate to transitional police senior executives and transitional administrative senior executives. 1
- (3) The implementation schedule is to set out the date on which the new senior executive provisions will apply to transitional police senior executives and transitional administrative senior executives. Different dates may be set for different transitional senior executives. 3
6
- (4) The date so set is the implementation date for the transitional senior executive concerned. 7 8
- (5) The implementation date for a transitional police senior executive or transitional administrative senior executive may be changed by the Commissioner in consultation with the Public Service Commissioner. 9 10
11
- (6) The implementation date for a transitional police senior executive cannot be earlier than the end of the person's term of office under the former senior executive provisions. 12
13
14
- 91 Police senior executives—transitional arrangements 15
- (1) Until the implementation date for a transitional police senior executive, the new senior executive provisions apply to the executive subject to the following: 16
17
18
- (a) the executive is employed under the new senior executive provisions in term employment in the band under the senior executive bands determination that includes the remuneration package to which the executive continues to be entitled under this subclause, 19 20
22
- (b) the term for which the executive is taken to be so employed is (subject to this subclause): 23 24
- (i) the balance of the person's term of office as a transitional police senior executive, and 25
26
- (ii) any additional period before the implementation date that the Commissioner may approve, 27
28
- (c) the executive is not required to enter into a contract of employment under the new senior executive provisions for the purposes of that period of continued employment, 29
30
31
- (d) the executive has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the remuneration package of the person under the former senior executive provisions (unless the remuneration package is increased in accordance with those provisions or as a result of progression within the applicable remuneration range), 32
33
34
35
36
- (e) if the executive's employment is terminated under section 40 of this Act (as inserted by the amending Act), the executive is entitled to the compensation provided under the former senior executive provisions (and is subject to any requirements under those provisions relating to the refund of that compensation) as if the termination had been a removal of the executive from office under those former provisions. 37
38
40
41
42
- (2) On the implementation date for a transitional police senior executive, the person: 43
44
- (a) ceases to be a transitional police senior executive, and 45
- (b) is employed as a NSW Police Force senior executive under the new senior executive provisions. 46
47

92 Administrative senior executives—transitional arrangements	1
(1) Until the implementation date for a transitional administrative SES executive, the new senior executive provisions apply to the executive subject to the following:	2
(a) the executive is taken to be employed in the band under the Public Service senior executive bands determination that the Commissioner considers appropriate for the role of the executive,	5
(b) the term for which the executive is taken to be so employed is (subject to this clause):	8
(i) the balance of the person’s term of office as a transitional administrative SES executive, and	10
	11
(ii) any additional period before the implementation date that the Commissioner may approve,	12
	13
(c) the executive is not required to enter into a contract of employment under the new senior executive provisions for the purposes of that period of continued employment,	14
	15
	16
(d) the executive has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the remuneration package of the person under the former senior executive provisions even if it exceeds the band in which the executive is employed,	17
	18
	20
(e) if the executive’s employment is terminated under section 40 of this Act (as inserted by the amending Act), the executive is entitled to the compensation provided under the former senior executive provisions (and is subject to any requirements under those provisions relating to the refund of that compensation) as if the termination had been a removal of the executive from office under the former senior executive provisions.	21
	22
	23
	24
	25
	26
	27
(2) The following provisions apply in relation to a person who is a transitional administrative SO executive until the person’s implementation date:	28
	29
(a) the person is employed under Part 6A of this Act (as substituted by the amending Act) in ongoing employment,	30
	31
(b) the person is not employed in a band under the senior executive bands determination,	32
	33
(c) the conditions of employment applying to the person immediately before the commencement of this clause continue to apply to the person, subject to this clause,	34
	35
	36
(d) if the person’s employment is terminated under section 81E of this Act (as inserted by the amending Act), the person is entitled to the compensation that the person would have received had the person’s employment been terminated immediately before the commencement of this clause.	37
	38
	40
	41
(3) If a transitional administrative senior executive is assigned to a different role in the NSW Police Force:	42
	43
(a) the person does not cease to be a transitional administrative senior executive, and	44
	45
(b) the remuneration package of the transitional administrative senior executive is, despite subclause (1) (d) and subject to section 36 (7) of	46
	47

- 1 this Act, the remuneration package for the role to which the executive 2 has been so assigned.
- 3 Note. See also subclause (7) for consequences of temporary assignments outside the 4 NSW Police Force.
- 5 (4) On the implementation date for a transitional administrative senior executive:
- 6 (a) the person ceases to be a transitional administrative senior executive,
7 and
- 8 (b) the employment of the person in the NSW Police Force is terminated
9 unless the person is employed in the NSW Police Force on and from the 10 implementation date in accordance with this Act (whether as a NSW
11 Police Force senior executive or as a non-executive administrative 12 employee, and whether following recruitment action or, in the case of a 13 transitional administrative SO executive, following redeployment as an 14 excess employee), and
- 15 (c) any such termination of the employment of a person who was a 16 transitional administrative SES executive is taken to be a termination
17 under section 40 of this Act to which subclause (1) (e) applies, and
- 18 (d) any such termination of the employment of a person who was a 19 transitional administrative SO executive is taken to be a termination
20 under section 81E of this Act to which this Act (including the conditions 21 of employment preserved by this clause) applies, and
- 22 (e) section 42 of this Act applies to any such termination of employment of 23 a person (whether an existing administrative SES executive or an 24 existing administrative SO executive) on the basis that the person is an 25 executive employee for the purposes of that section.
- 26 (5) The following applies to the creation of a role within the new senior executive 27 structure of the NSW Police Force (to the extent that it relates to administrative 28 employees) and to the initial recruitment action under this Act to fill that role:
- 29 (a) the work level and other employment arrangements relating to a new 30 role within that new structure are to be determined under this Act and 31 are not determined by the work level and other arrangements that 32 applied to roles in the former executive structure of the NSW Police
33 Force,
- 34 (b) transitional administrative senior executives may be recruited to any 35 such new role before or at the end of the period of their continued
36 employment as transitional administrative senior executives,
- 37 (c) the initial recruitment action to fill any such role is to be limited to the 38 following candidates (having regard to the type and level of the role and 39 any other relevant matter):
- 40 (i) any transitional administrative senior executives who occupy a 41 similar role in the NSW Police Force,
- 42 (ii) any NSW Police Force senior executives employed in a similar 43 role after the substitution of Part 5 of this Act by the amending 44 Act,
- 45 (iii) any other persons employed in the NSW Police Force whom the 46 Commissioner considers appropriate.
- 47 (6) Initial recruitment action to fill a role within the new senior executive structure 48 of the NSW Police Force Public Service agency (to the extent that it relates to

- administrative employees) is not required to be limited as referred to in subclause (5) (c) if:
- (a) there are no candidates of the kind referred to in subclause (5) (c) (i) or (ii) for the recruitment action concerned, or
 - (b) the role is not similar to any role in the former executive structure of the NSW Police Force.
- (7) If a transitional administrative senior executive is temporarily assigned to work outside the NSW Police Force:
- (a) the person does not cease to be a transitional administrative senior executive, and the implementation date for the executive does not change, because of that temporary assignment, and
 - (b) the person retains his or her eligibility under subclause (5) as a candidate for initial recruitment action in the NSW Police Force, and
 - (c) the person is also eligible under subclause (5) as a candidate for initial recruitment action in relation to a similar role in the other government sector agency to which the person is temporarily assigned.
- 93 Transitional provisions relating to remuneration of senior executives
- (1) For the purposes of clauses 91 and 92, the remuneration package of a person under the former senior executive provisions includes any of the following determined by the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal and payable to the person under those provisions:
- (a) a remuneration package that is payable to the person as the holder of the relevant position under the former senior executive provisions that exceeds the remuneration package otherwise determined for the senior executive level of the person,
 - (b) an additional amount payable as a recruitment allowance.
- (2) If a person referred to in subclause (1) to whom a recruitment allowance is payable is subsequently employed in accordance with the new senior executive provisions as a NSW Police Force senior executive, the person continues to be entitled to so much of that former recruitment allowance as will ensure that the remuneration payable after that subsequent employment is not less than the remuneration payable before that subsequent employment. Any general increase in remuneration packages to account for an annual determination of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal is to be excluded and does not operate to reduce the amount of recruitment allowance payable.
- (3) This subclause applies to a transitional administrative SES executive who is subsequently employed in accordance with the new senior executive provisions as a NSW Police Force senior executive and who is assigned to a new role (or subsequently assigned to a different role) that is of equivalent work value as the person's former position, office or role. The remuneration package of the person in any such new or different role is to be not less than the remuneration package of the person immediately before the person was so subsequently employed.
- (4) This subclause applies to a transitional administrative SO executive who is subsequently employed in accordance with the new senior executive provisions as a NSW Police Force senior executive and who is assigned to a role (when first so employed) that is of equivalent work value as the person's position immediately before the commencement of this clause. The person may be paid an allowance, determined by the Commissioner in accordance

- with guidance provided by the Public Service Commissioner, to avoid any financial disadvantage as a NSW Police Force senior executive in that role (or any other assigned role of equivalent work value) compared to the remuneration payable immediately before the person was so subsequently employed. 1
5
- (5) A retention allowance payable under the former senior executive provisions to a person to whom clause 91 or 92 applies is payable for completed years of service (or pro rata for completed parts of years of service) on the date the person ceases to be a person to whom that clause applies (otherwise than by resignation). 6
10
- 94 Existing non-executive administrative officers 11
- (1) A person (other than a transitional administrative SO executive) who was employed in the NSW Police Force as a non-executive administrative officer immediately before the substitution of Part 6A of this Act by the amending Act is, on that substitution, taken to be employed in ongoing employment as a non-executive administrative employee under that Part. 12
13
14
15
16
- (2) The application of the provisions of this Act, the regulations and the government sector employment rules to any such person is subject to the provisions of this Schedule. 17
18
19
- (3) The substitution of Part 6A of this Act does not affect the continuity of service of a person taken to be employed under this clause, any accrued rights to leave under the former Part 6A or any accrual of rights to leave under this Act. 20 21
22
- (4) A person who is taken to be employed under this clause is taken to be employed in a role or classification of work that corresponds to the kind and grade of work of the person's position or work on the substitution of Part 6A. 23
24
- 95 Existing temporary employees 26
- (1) A person who was employed in the NSW Police Force as a temporary employee immediately before the repeal of Part 7 of this Act by the amending Act (an existing temporary employee) is, on that repeal, taken to be employed in temporary employment as a non-executive administrative employee under Part 6A of this Act (as substituted by the amending Act). 27
28
29
30
31
- (2) The application of the provisions of this Act, the regulations and the government sector employment rules to an existing temporary employee is subject to the provisions of this Schedule. 32
33
34
- (3) The repeal of Part 7 of this Act (the repealed Part) does not affect the continuity of service of an existing temporary employee, any accrued rights to leave under the repealed Part or any accrual of rights to leave under this Act (as amended by the amending Act). 35
36
37
38
- (4) A person who is taken to be employed under this clause is taken to be employed in a role or classification of work that corresponds to the kind and grade of the person's work on the repeal of Part 7. 39
40
41
- (5) The Commissioner is to determine a date for the purposes of this clause in respect of each existing temporary employee (the determined date). 42
43
- (6) If the term of employment of an existing temporary employee is due to expire before the determined date, the person's temporary employment may be extended before it expires in accordance with the repealed Part as if that Part had not been repealed. However, if the temporary employment is to be extended beyond the determined date, the extension of the existing temporary 44
45

employee's employment must satisfy the requirements of the government sector employment rules relating to temporary employment.	1 2
(7) On and from the determined date, any extension of the temporary employee's employment must be made in accordance with the provisions of the government sector employment rules relating to temporary employment.	3 4 5
(8) Despite its repeal, section 91A of this Act continues to apply, until the determined date, in relation to an existing temporary employee who is a long-term temporary employee within the meaning of that section. Any appointment of the employee under that section as so continued by this clause is taken to be employment in ongoing employment under this Act in a relevant role.	6 7 8 9 10 11
(9) On and from the determined date, any conversion of an existing temporary employee's employment to ongoing employment must be made in accordance with the provisions of the government sector employment rules.	12 13 14
96 References to special constables	15
In any other Act, in any statutory or other instrument, or in any contract or agreement, a reference to a special constable within the meaning of section 82L of this Act is to be construed as a reference to a special constable within the meaning of section 81G of this Act.	16 17 18 19
97 Savings and transitional regulations	20
(1) The provisions of any regulation made under Part 1 of this Schedule consequent on the enactment of the amending Act have effect despite anything to the contrary in this Part.	21 22 23
(2) The regulations made under Part 1 of this Schedule consequent on the enactment of the amending Act may make separate savings and transitional provisions or amend this Part to consolidate the savings and transitional provisions.	24 25 26 27

[1] Part 7A		3
Omit the Part. Insert instead:		4
Part 7A The Transport Service		5
68B The Transport Service		6
(1) The Transport Service of New South Wales consists of those persons who are employed under this Part by the Government of New South Wales in the service of the Crown.		7 8 9
(2) Those persons are not employed in the Public Service of New South Wales.		10
68C Employment in the Transport Service		11
(1) The Government of New South Wales may employ persons in the Transport Service to enable the following bodies (and their public subsidiary corporations) to exercise their functions:		12 13 14
(a) TfNSW,		15
(b) State Transit Authority,		16
(c) RMS.		17
Note. Section 68Q (10) provides that the persons so employed may be referred to as officers or employees, or members of staff, of the body or corporation concerned. Section 47A of the Constitution Act 1902 precludes TfNSW, the State Transit Authority and RMS (and any of their public subsidiary corporations) from employing staff.		18 19 20 21
(2) The Government of New South Wales may also employ persons in the Transport Service to enable RailCorp (or a public subsidiary corporation of RailCorp) to exercise its functions.		22 23 24
Note. RailCorp also has the power to employ staff separately (see section 58A). Staff employed by RailCorp are not employed in the Transport Service.		25 26
(3) The Transport Secretary may, subject to this and any other Act or law, exercise on behalf of the Government of New South Wales the employer functions of the Government in relation to the persons employed in the Transport Service.		27 28 29
(4) The employer functions of the Government are all the functions of an employer in respect of employees, including (without limitation) the power to employ persons, to assign them to roles and to terminate their employment.		30 31 32
68D Transport Service senior executives, senior managers and non-executive employees		33 34
(1) Persons who are employed in the Transport Service in a Public Service senior executive band are Transport Service senior executives . For that purpose, the Public Service senior executive bands under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 apply to employment in the Transport Service.		35 36 37 38
(2) Persons who are employed in the Transport Service and designated by the Transport Secretary as senior managers are Transport Service senior managers .		39 40 41
(3) All other persons employed in the Transport Service who are not Transport Service senior executives or Transport Service senior managers are Transport Service non-executive employees .		42 43 44

68E	Kinds of employment in the Transport Service	1
(1)	Employment in the Transport Service may be any one of the following kinds of employment:	2
(a)	ongoing employment,	4
(b)	term employment (in the case of Transport Service senior executives or senior managers),	5
(c)	temporary employment (in the case of Transport Service non-executive employees),	7
(d)	casual employment (in the case of Transport Service non-executive employees).	9
		10
(2)	Ongoing employment is employment that continues until the employee resigns or his or her employment is terminated.	11
		12
(3)	Term employment is employment for a specified period or for the duration of a specified task (unless the employee sooner resigns or his or her employment is terminated).	13
		14
		15
(4)	Temporary employment is employment for a temporary purpose.	16
(5)	Casual employment is employment to carry out irregular, intermittent, short-term, urgent or other work as and when required.	17
		18
68F	Senior executives—employment in bands and assignment to roles	19
(1)	A Transport Service senior executive is to be employed in the Public Service senior executive band that the Transport Secretary considers appropriate for the role of the executive.	20
		22
(2)	In determining the number of Transport Service senior executives and the appropriate band in which they are employed, the Transport Secretary is to apply the applicable work level standards and have regard to any guidance provided by the Public Service Commissioner.	23
		24
		26
(3)	A Transport Service senior executive may, from time to time, be assigned by the Transport Secretary to a role in any part of the Transport Service in the band in which the executive is employed.	27
		28
		29
(4)	A Transport Service senior executive may:	30
(a)	be transferred by the Transport Secretary to the Public Service of New South Wales and assigned to a role in any Public Service agency in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the head of that agency), or	31
		32
		33
		34
(b)	be transferred by the Transport Secretary to the NSW Police Force and assigned to a role (other than as a police officer) in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the Commissioner of Police), or	35
		36
		37
		38
(c)	be transferred by the Transport Secretary to the NSW Health Service and assigned to a role in the band in which the executive is employed (with the agreement of the Secretary of the Ministry of Health).	39
		40
	Note. A Transport Service senior executive may not be assigned to the role of chief executive of a local health district or specialty network governed health corporation except with the concurrence of the board of the organisation concerned—see section 121D (11) of the Health Services Act 1997 .	42
		43
		45
(5)	Transport Service senior executives may be assigned to roles under this section to enable the flexible deployment of staff resources and to develop the capabilities of staff.	46
		47
		48

(6)	A Transport Service senior executive is not to be assigned to a different role under this section unless the executive has been consulted. The remuneration payable to the executive is not to be reduced because of the assignment to the different role without the consent of the executive. This subsection extends to a transfer under subsection (4).	1 2 3 4 5
(7)	In this section: assign to a role includes assign to a different role. role of a Transport Service senior executive means the duties and responsibilities of the executive.	6 7 8 9
68G	Senior executives—government sector employment rules	10
(1)	The Public Service Commissioner may make government sector employment rules under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 on any matter relating to the employment of Transport Service senior executives (including, without limitation, matters of the kind referred to in section 36 of that Act).	11 12 13 14 15
(2)	The Public Service Commissioner must consult the Transport Secretary before making any such rules.	16 17
68H	Senior executives—contract of employment	18
(1)	A Transport Service senior executive is to be employed under a written contract of employment signed by the executive and by the Transport Secretary on behalf of the Government.	19 20 21
(2)	Without limiting section 68G (1), the government sector employment rules made under section 12 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may prescribe model contracts of employment for Transport Service senior executives and may specify any model provisions that are mandatory and that prevail in the event of any inconsistency with the provisions of a contract of employment.	22 23 24 25 26 27
(3)	Subject to this Part, the government sector employment rules and any direction issued by the Public Service Commissioner under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 , a contract of employment of a Transport Service senior executive is to deal with the following matters:	28 29 30 31
(a)	the band in which the executive is employed,	32
(b)	the duration of the contract if the executive is not employed in ongoing employment,	33 34
(c)	the total remuneration package of the executive (comprising monetary remuneration and employment benefits) and any allowances,	35 36
(d)	performance obligations, and reviews of performance, of the executive,	37
(e)	progression in the total remuneration package of the executive based on performance,	38 39
(f)	leave and other conditions of employment of the executive,	40
(g)	the compensation for any termination of employment of the executive by the Transport Secretary (including the period to which the compensation relates),	41 42 43
(h)	any other matter prescribed by the regulations under section 39 (4) of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	44 45
(4)	The contract of employment of a Transport Service senior executive may, subject to this Act, include conditions of engagement.	46 47

- (5) The contract of employment of a Transport Service senior executive does not limit, and is not terminated or otherwise affected by:
- (a) the transfer of the executive under section 68F (4) to the Public Service of New South Wales, the NSW Police Force or the NSW Health Service, or
 - (b) the assignment of the executive to a different role or any other change to the title, place of work or duties of the executive.
- (6) A contract of employment of a Transport Service senior executive may, subject to this section, be varied at any time in accordance with the contract or by further agreement.
- (7) The regulations under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may make provision with respect to the compensation to which a Transport Service senior executive whose employment is terminated is entitled under his or her contract of employment.
- 68I Senior executives—remuneration, benefits and allowances
- (1) The remuneration package of a Transport Service senior executive must be within the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive is employed (except as provided by subsection (2)).
- Note. See also section 24R (3) of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975.
- (2) The Transport Secretary may, in accordance with parameters agreed on by the Transport Secretary and the Public Service Commissioner, determine a remuneration package for a Transport Service senior executive or class of Transport Service senior executives that is within a range higher than the range determined under the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 for the band in which the executive or class of executives is employed.
- (3) The kinds and value of employment benefits and the allowances for a Transport Service senior executive are to be determined by the Transport Secretary. In making any such determination, the Transport Secretary is to have regard to any similar determinations that apply to Public Service senior executives.
- (4) A Transport Service senior executive is only entitled to the remuneration, employment benefits or allowances provided in the executive’s contract of employment.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, employment benefits for a Transport Service senior executive are:
- (a) contributions by the executive’s employer to a superannuation scheme or fund of the executive, and
 - (b) other benefits provided to the executive at the cost of the executive’s employer that are of a private nature.
- 68J Senior managers—remuneration level and conditions of employment
- (1) The remuneration level for Transport Service senior managers is to be less than that for any Transport Service senior executive and more than that for a clerk (grade 12) in the Public Service with general administrative duties.
- (2) However, the Transport Secretary may, in such cases as the Transport Secretary considers appropriate, determine a remuneration level for any particular Transport Service senior manager or class of senior managers that is above the range referred to in subsection (1).	1 2

	Note. See also the relevant savings and transitional provisions of Schedule 7 which provide that existing senior managers (ie members of the Transport Service who were designated as senior managers before the commencement of the substitution of this Part by the Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016) have on that commencement the same remuneration as paid to them under the former executive provisions.	3 4 5 6 7 8
(3)	The conditions of employment of Transport Service senior managers are the conditions set out in a written contract of employment between the Transport Secretary and the senior manager.	9 10 11
(4)	The contract of employment may adopt by reference conditions of employment applicable to Transport Service senior executives.	12 13
(5)	In this section: conditions of employment has the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act 1996 .	14 15 16
68K	Non-executive employees—conditions of employment	17
(1)	The Transport Secretary may fix the conditions of employment of Transport Service non-executive employees in so far as they are not fixed by or under any other law. Conditions of employment fixed under this subsection may adopt by reference conditions of employment applicable to Transport Service senior executives or senior managers.	18 19 20 21 22
(2)	The Transport Secretary may enter into an agreement with any association or organisation representing Transport Service non-executive employees with respect to the conditions of employment of those employees in so far as they are not fixed by or under any other law.	23 24 25 26
(3)	The Transport Secretary is, for the purposes of any proceedings relating to Transport Service non-executive employees held before a competent tribunal having jurisdiction to deal with industrial matters, taken to be the employer of those employees.	27 28 29 30
(4)	In this section: conditions of employment has the same meaning as in the Industrial Relations Act 1996 .	31 32 33
68L	Senior managers and non-executive employees—assignment to different roles within Transport Service	34 35
(1)	The Transport Secretary may, subject to this section, assign a person who is a Transport Service senior manager or non-executive employee to another role within the Transport Service following consultation with the person.	36 37 38
(2)	The following provisions apply to the assignment of a person under this section:	39 40
(a)	the assignment is to be made at the person’s existing level of remuneration, unless the person consents to the assignment at a lower level of remuneration,	41 42 43
(b)	the Transport Secretary must be satisfied that the person possesses the essential qualifications specified for the other role and the work assigned to the other role is appropriate to the skills and qualifications of the person,	44 45 46 47
(c)	the person is entitled, on the assignment date, to any conditions of employment applicable to that person under section 67 immediately	48 49

	before the assignment, until such time as further provision is made under this Act or any other law.	1 2
68M	Acting in senior executive or senior manager roles	3
(1)	The Transport Secretary may assign a Transport Service senior manager to act in the role of a Transport Service senior executive if:	4 5
(a)	the person who is usually assigned to that other role is unavailable for any reason, or	6 7
(b)	there is no person performing duties in that other role for the time being.	8
(2)	The Transport Secretary may assign a Transport Service non-executive employee to act in the role of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager if:	9 10 11
(a)	the person who is usually assigned to that other role is unavailable for any reason, or	12 13
(b)	there is no person performing duties in that other role for the time being.	14
(3)	While assigned to act in the role of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager the person has, subject to any determination by the Transport Secretary, all the functions of the executive or senior manager but does not thereby become a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager if not already such an executive or manager.	15 16 17 18 19
(4)	An assignment to act in the role of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager under this section may be terminated at any time by the Transport Secretary.	20 21 22
(5)	This Part does not prevent the payment of an applicable allowance to a person when assigned to act in the role of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager under this section.	23 24 25
68N	Senior executives and managers—termination of employment	26
(1)	The Transport Secretary may terminate the employment of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager at any time, for any or no stated reason and without notice.	27 28 29
	Note. The regulations also provide for the termination of the employment of members of the Transport Service senior executive on disciplinary grounds.	30 31
(2)	A Transport Service senior executive or senior manager whose employment is terminated under this section is entitled to such compensation (if any) as may be provided in the contract of employment of the executive or manager (and to no other compensation or entitlement for the termination of employment other than superannuation entitlements).	32 33 34 35 36
(3)	A Transport Service senior executive or senior manager whose employment is so terminated is not to be employed in the public sector during the period specified in the contract of employment to which any such compensation relates unless arrangements have been made for a refund of the proportionate amount of the compensation.	37 38 39 40 41
(4)	The regulations under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 may make provision relating to the calculation of the proportionate amount of a payment to be refunded under subsection (3).	42 43 44
(5)	A Transport Service senior executive or senior manager whose employment is terminated under the provisions of the regulations under this Part (or other statutory provisions) relating to the termination of the employment of persons employed in the Transport Service in connection with disciplinary action is not	45 46 47 48

	entitled to compensation under this section. Those provisions do not apply to a termination of employment under this section.	1 2
(6)	For the purposes of this section, employment of a former executive or manager in the public sector and public sector have the same meanings as in section 41 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	3 4 5
68O	Senior executives and managers—industrial or legal proceedings excluded	6

(2)	Parts 6, 7 and 9 of Chapter 2 of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 do not apply to or in respect of the employment of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager.	10 11 12
(3)	Any State industrial instrument (whether made before or after the commencement of this section) does not have effect in so far as it relates to the employment of Transport Service senior executives or senior managers. This subsection does not prevent the provisions of any such industrial instrument being adopted by reference in the conditions of employment of any such executive or manager.	13 14 15 16 17 18
(4)	No proceedings for an order in the nature of prohibition, certiorari or mandamus or for a declaration or injunction or for any other relief, lie in respect of a matter that is declared by this section not to be an industrial matter for the purposes of the Industrial Relations Act 1996 .	19 20 21 22
(5)	In this section, a reference to the employment of a Transport Service senior executive or senior manager is a reference to:	23 24
	(a) the engagement of, or failure to engage, a person as such an executive or manager, or	25 26
	(b) the assignment or re-assignment of the executive or manager to a role in a band or a classification, or	27 28
	(c) the removal, retirement, termination of employment or other cessation of employment of the executive or manager, or	29 30
	(d) any disciplinary proceedings or action taken against the executive or manager, or	31 32
	(e) the remuneration or other conditions of employment of the executive or manager.	33 34
68P	Regulations relating to employees in the Transport Service	35
(1)	The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the employment of persons in the Transport Service, including conditions of employment and disciplinary matters.	36 37 38
(2)	Any such regulations have effect:	39
	(a) despite any determination of the Transport Secretary under this Part, and	40 41
	(b) except in the case of Transport Service senior executives or senior managers—subject to any relevant award made by a competent industrial tribunal and to any industrial agreement to which the Transport Secretary is a party.	42 43 44 45

68Q	Miscellaneous provisions relating to the Transport Service	1
(1)	Groups of staff	2
	The Transport Secretary may create groups (however described) of staff and designate persons employed in the Transport Service to any such group.	3 4
(2)	Extended leave entitlements	5
	Persons employed in the Transport Service have the same entitlements to extended leave as Public Service employees under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	6 7 8
(3)	Retirement on medical grounds	9
	The Transport Secretary may retire a person employed in the Transport Service if:	10 11
	(a) the employee is found to be unfit to perform or incapable of performing the duties of the person's employment, and	12 13
	(b) the employee's unfitness or incapacity:	14
	(i) appears likely to be of a permanent nature, and	15
	(ii) has not arisen from actual misconduct on the part of the employee, or from causes within the employee's control.	16 17
(4)	Resignation of employment	18
	A person employed in the Transport Service may resign his or her employment by written notice to the Transport Secretary.	19 20
(5)	Civil liability with respect to employees	21

	(a) a person is employed in the Transport Service, and	23
	(b) the Government of New South Wales is, as the person's employer, proceeded against for any negligence or other tort of the person (whether the damages are recoverable in an action for tort or breach of contract or in any other action), and	24 25 26 27
	(c) TfNSW, the State Transit Authority, RMS or RailCorp, or a public subsidiary corporation of any such transport authority, is entitled under a policy of insurance or indemnity to be indemnified in respect of liability that it may incur in respect of that negligence or other tort,	28 29 30 31
	the Government is subrogated to the rights of TfNSW, the State Transit Authority, RMS, RailCorp or the public subsidiary corporation under that policy in respect of the liability incurred by the Government arising from that negligence or other tort.	32 33 34 35
(6)	Operation of privacy legislation	36
	The persons employed in the Transport Service to enable TfNSW, the State Transit Authority, RMS or RailCorp, or a public subsidiary corporation of any such transport authority, to exercise its functions are, for the purposes of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 , taken to be part of TfNSW, the State Transit Authority, RMS, RailCorp or the public subsidiary corporation, as the case requires.	37 38 39 40 41 42 43
(7)	Delegation of Transport Secretary's functions under this Part	44
	The Transport Secretary may delegate any of the Transport Secretary's functions under this Part (other than this power of delegation) to a person	45 46

employed in the Transport Service or to a person employed in the Department of Transport.	1 2
(8) Delegation of Transport Secretary's functions under GSE Act	3
The power of the Transport Secretary under section 27 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 to delegate a function referred to in that section extends to a delegation of the function to a person employed in the Transport Service.	4 5 6 7
(9) Acting Transport Secretary	8
A person employed in the Transport Service may also be appointed to act as the Transport Secretary under section 24 of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013 .	9 10 11
(10) Construction of references relating to transport employees	12
In this or any other Act, or in any instrument made under this or any other Act or in any other instrument of any kind, a reference to an officer or employee, or a member of staff, of:	13 14 15
(a) TfNSW or a public subsidiary corporation of TfNSW is to be read as a reference to a person employed in the Transport Service to enable TfNSW or the public subsidiary corporation to exercise its functions, or	16 17 18
(b) the State Transit Authority or a public subsidiary corporation of the Authority is to be read as a reference to a person employed in the Transport Service to enable the Authority or the public subsidiary corporation to exercise its functions, or	19 20 21 22
(c) RMS or a public subsidiary corporation of RMS is to be read as a reference to a person employed in the Transport Service to enable RMS or the public subsidiary corporation to exercise its functions, or	23 24 25
(d) RailCorp or a public subsidiary corporation of RailCorp is to be read as including a reference to a person employed in the Transport Service to enable RailCorp or the public subsidiary corporation to exercise its functions.	26 27 28 29
[2] Schedule 7 Savings, transitional and other provisions	30
Insert at the end of the Schedule with appropriate Part and clause numbering:	31
Part Provisions consequent on enactment of Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016	32 33 34
Definitions	35
In this Part:	36
amending Act means the Government Sector Employment Legislation Amendment Act 2016 .	37 38
existing senior executive means a person (other than an existing senior manager) who, immediately before the substitution of Part 7A of this Act by the amending Act, was employed as an executive officer under the former senior executive provisions.	39 40 41 42
existing senior manager means a person who, immediately before the substitution of Part 7A of this Act by the amending Act, was:	43 44
(a) employed as an executive officer under the former senior executive provisions, and	45 46

(b) designated as a senior manager by the Transport Secretary.	1
former senior executive provisions means the provisions of section 68G of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that section), as in force immediately before the repeal of that section by the amending Act.	2 3 4 5
new senior executive provisions means the provisions of Part 7A of this Act (and any other provisions of this Act that relate to the operation of that Part), as substituted by the amending Act, and the provisions of Part 3B of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 .	6 7 8 9
Continuation of public transport chief executives	10
The appointment and term of office of a person holding office as a Chief Executive to whom Schedule 2 applies, the Chief Executive of the ITSr or the Chief Investigator of the Office of Transport Safety Investigations on the commencement of the amendments made to this Act by the amending Act is not affected by the amending Act.	11 12 13 14 15
Existing senior executives—transitional arrangements	16
(1) The Transport Secretary is, in consultation with the Public Service Commissioner, to prepare an implementation schedule for the staged implementation of the new senior executive provisions in relation to existing senior executives.	17 18 19 20
(2) The implementation schedule is to set out the date on which the new senior executive provisions will apply to existing senior executives. Different dates may be set for different existing senior executives.	21 22 23
(3) The date so set is the implementation date for the existing senior executive concerned.	24 25
(4) The implementation date for an existing senior executive may be changed by the Transport Secretary in consultation with the Public Service Commissioner.	26 27
(5) Until the implementation date for an existing senior executive, the former senior executive provisions continue to apply, and the new senior executive provisions do not apply, to the person despite the repeal of the former senior executive provisions by the amending Act.	28 29 30 31
(6) On the implementation date for an existing senior executive, the person:	32
(a) ceases to be employed under the former senior executive provisions, and	33 34
(b) is employed as a Transport Service senior executive under the new senior executive provisions in the same kind of employment in which the person was employed as an existing senior executive.	35 36 37
(7) The employment of any such person as a Transport Service senior executive under the new senior executive provisions is subject to the following:	38 39
(a) the person has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the person's remuneration package under the former senior executive provisions even if it exceeds the band in which the person is employed,	40 41 42
Note. The band in which the person is employed is determined by the Transport Secretary in accordance with section 68F (1) and (2).	43 44
(b) the person's remuneration package may be increased in accordance with the former senior executive provisions whether or not the person remains within the band in which the person was employed on the implementation date,	45 46 47 48

- (c) the person is not required to enter into a contract of employment under the new senior executive provisions and section 68H (2) of this Act does not apply in relation to the person, 1
- (d) the person's contract of employment under the former senior executive provisions continues to apply to the person, 4
- (e) any such existing contract of employment may be extended or renewed, or varied, in accordance with the former senior executive provisions. 6

Existing senior managers—transitional arrangements 8

- (1) On the commencement of the new senior executive provisions, an existing senior manager is taken to be employed under those provisions as a Transport Service senior manager in the same kind of employment in which the person was employed as an existing senior manager. 9 10
12
- (2) The employment of any such senior manager under the new senior executive provisions is subject to the following: 13
14
 - (a) the person has a remuneration package that is equivalent to the person's remuneration package under the former senior executive provisions, 15 16
 - (b) any such remuneration package may be subsequently increased in accordance with the arrangements in force under the former senior executive provisions, 17
