ANNO TERTIO ET QUARTO GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for the limitation of Actions and Suits relating to Real Property and for simplifying the Remedies for trying the Rights thereto. [24th July, 1833.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same That the words and expressions hereinafter mentioned which in their ordinary signification have a more confined or a different meaning of the words in the Act.
different meaning shall in this Act except where the nature of the provision or the context of the Act shall exclude such construction be interpreted as follows (that is to say) the word "Land" shall extend to manors messuages and all other corporeal hereditaments whatsoever and also to tithes (other than tithes belonging to a spiritual or eleemosynary corporation sole) and also to any share estate or interest in them or any of them whether the same shall be a freehold or chattel interest and whether freehold or copyhold or held according to any other tenure and the word "Rent" shall extend to all heriots and to all services and suits for which a distress may be made and to all annuities and periodical sums of money charged upon or payable out of any land (except moduses or compositions belonging to a spiritual or eleemosynary corporation sole) and the person through whom another person is said to claim shall mean any person by through or under or by the act of whom the person so claiming became entitled to the estate or interest claimed as heir issue in tail tenant by the courtesy of England tenant in dower successor special or general occupant executor administrator legatee husband assignee appointee devisee or otherwise and also any person who was entitled to an estate or interest to which the person so claiming or some person through whom he claims became entitled as lord by escheat and the word "Person" shall extend to a body politic corporate or collegiate and to a class of creditors or other persons as well as an individual and every word importing the singular number only shall extend and be applied to several persons or things as well as one person or thing and every word importing the masculine gender only shall extend and be applied to a female as well as a male.

2. And be it further enacted That after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no person shall make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover any land or rent but within twenty years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress or to bring such action shall have first accrued to some person through whom he claims or if such right shall not have accrued to any person through whom he claims then within twenty years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress or to bring such action shall have first accrued to the person making or bringing the same.

3. And be it further enacted That in the construction of this Act the right to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover any land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued at such time as hereinafter is mentioned (that is to say) when the person claiming such land or rent or some person through whom he claims shall in respect of the estate or interest claimed have been in possession or in receipt of the profits of such land or in receipt of such rent and shall while entitled thereto have been dispossessed or have discontinued such possession or receipt then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time of such dispossession or discontinuance of possession or at the last time at which any such profits or rent were or was so received and when the person claiming such land or rent shall claim the estate or interest of some deceased person who shall have continued in such possession or receipt in respect of the same estate or interest until the time of his death and shall have been the last person entitled to such estate or interest who shall have been in such possession or receipt then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time of such death and when the person claiming such land or rent shall claim in respect of an estate or interest in possession granted appointed or otherwise assured by any instrument (other than a will) to him or some person through whom he claims by a person being in respect of the same estate or interest in the possession or receipt of the profits of the land or in the receipt of the rent and no person entitled under such instrument shall have been in such possession or receipt then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time at which the person claiming as aforesaid or the person through whom he claims became entitled to such possession or receipt by virtue of such instrument and when the estate or interest claimed shall have been an estate or interest in reversion or remainder or other future estate or interest and no person shall have obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of such land or the receipt of such rent in respect of such estate or interest then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time at which such estate or interest became an estate or interest in possession and when the person claiming such land or rent or the person through whom he claims shall have become entitled by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition then such right shall be deemed to have first accrued when such forfeiture was incurred or such condition was broken.

4. Provided always that when any right to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover any land or rent by reason of any forfeiture or breach of condition shall have first accrued in respect of any estate or interest in reversion or remainder and the land or rent shall not have been recovered by virtue of such right the right to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued in respect of such estate or interest at the time when the same shall have become an estate or interest in possession as if no such forfeiture or breach of condition had happened.

5. Provided also that a right to make an entry or distress or the possession or in receipt of the profits of any land or in receipt of any rent as tenant-at-will the right of the person entitled subject thereto or of the person through whom he claims to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued either at the determination of such tenancy or at the expiration of one year next after the commencement of such tenancy at which time such tenancy shall be deemed to have determined Provided always that no mortgagor or cestui-que-trust shall be deemed or breach of condition

6. And be it further enacted That for the purposes of this Act an administrator claiming the estate or interest of the deceased person of whose chattels he shall be appointed administrator shall be deemed to claim as if there had been no interval of time between the death of such deceased person and the grant of the letters of administration.

7. And be it further enacted That when any person shall be in possession or in receipt of the profits of any land or in receipt of any rent as tenant-at-will the right of the person entitled subject thereto
or of the person through whom he claims to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued either at the determination of such tenancy or at the expiration of one year next after the commencement of such
tenancy at which time such tenancy shall be deemed to have determined Provided always that no mortgagor or cestui-que-trust shall be deemed to be a tenant-at-will within the meaning of this clause to his mortgagee or trustee.

8. And be it further enacted That when any person shall be in possession or in receipt of the profits of any land or in receipt of any rent as tenant from year to year or other period without any lease in writing the right of the person entitled subject thereto or of the person
person through whom he claims to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued at the determination of the first of such years or other periods or at the last time when any rent payable in respect of such tenancy shall have been received (which shall last happen).

9. And be it further enacted That when any person shall be in possession or in receipt of the profits of any land or in receipt of any rent by virtue of a lease in writing by which a rent amounting to the yearly sum of twenty shillings or upwards shall be reserved and the rent reserved by such lease shall have been received by some person wrongfully claiming to be entitled to such land or rent in reversion immediately expectant on the determination of such lease and no payment in respect of the rent reserved by such lease shall afterwards have been made to the person rightfully entitled thereto the right of the person entitled to such land or rent subject to such lease or of the person through whom he claims to make an entry or distress or to bring an action after the determination of such lease shall be deemed to have first accrued at the time at which the rent reserved by such lease was first so received by the person wrongfully claiming as aforesaid and no such right shall be deemed to have first accrued upon the determination of such lease to the person rightfully entitled.

10. And be it further enacted That no person shall be deemed to have been in possession of any land within the meaning of this Act merely by reason of having made an entry thereon.

11. And be it further enacted That no continual or other claim upon or near any land shall preserve any right of making an entry or distress or of bringing an action.

12. And be it further enacted That when any one or more of several persons entitled to any land or rent as coparceners joint-tenants or tenants-in-common shall have been in possession or receipt of the entirety or more than his or their undivided share or shares of such land or of the profits thereof or of such rent for his or their own benefit or for the benefit of any person or persons other than the person or persons entitled to the other share or shares of the same land or rent such possession or receipt shall not be deemed to have been the possession or receipt of or by such last-mentioned person or persons or any of them.

13. And be it further enacted That when a younger brother or other relation of the person entitled as heir to the possession or receipt of the profits of any land or to the receipt of any rent shall enter into the possession or receipt thereof such possession or receipt shall not be deemed to be the possession or receipt of or by the person entitled as heir.

14. Provided always and be it further enacted That when any acknowledgment of the title of the person entitled to any land or rent shall have been given to him or his agent in writing signed by the person in possession or in receipt of the profits of such land or in receipt of such rent then such possession or receipt of or by the person by whom such acknowledgment shall have been given shall be deemed according to the meaning of this Act to have been the possession or receipt of or by the person to whom or to whose agent such acknowledgment shall have been given at the time of giving the same and the right of such last-mentioned person or any person claiming through him to make any entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued at and not before the time at which such acknowledgment or the last of such acknowledgments if more than one was given.
15. Provided also and be it further enacted That when no such acknowledgment as aforesaid shall have been given before the passing of this Act and the possession or receipt of the profits of the land or the receipt of the rent shall not at the time of the passing of this Act have been adverse to the right or title of the person claiming to be entitled thereto then such person or the person claiming through him may notwithstanding the period of twenty years hereinbefore limited shall have expired make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or interest at any time within five years next after the passing of this Act.

16. Provided always and be it further enacted That if at the time at which the right of any person to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover any land or rent shall have first accrued as aforesaid such person shall have been under any of the disabilities hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) infancy coverture idiotcy lunacy unsoundness of mind or absence beyond seas then such person or the person claiming through him may notwithstanding the period of twenty years hereinbefore limited shall have expired make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent at any time within ten years next after the time at which the person to whom such right shall first have accrued as aforesaid shall have ceased to be under any such disability or shall have died (which shall have first happened).

17. Provided nevertheless and be it further enacted That no entry distress or action shall be made or brought by any person who at the time at which his right to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover any land or rent shall have first accrued shall be under any of the disabilities hereinafter mentioned or by any person claiming through him but within forty years next after the time at which such right shall have first accrued although the person under disability at such time may have remained under one or more of such disabilities during the whole of such forty years or although the term of ten years from the time at which he shall have ceased to be under any such disability or have died shall not have expired.

18. Provided always and be it further enacted That when any person shall be under any of the disabilities hereinafter mentioned at the time at which his right to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover any land or rent shall have first accrued and shall depart this life without having ceased to be under any such disability no time to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover such land or rent beyond the said period of twenty years next after the time at which the right of such person to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover such land or rent shall have first accrued or the said period of ten years next after the time at which such person shall have died shall be allowed by reason of any disability of any other person.

19. And be it further enacted That no part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland nor the Islands of Man Guernsey Jersey Alderney or Sark nor any Island adjacent to any of them (being part of the Dominions of His Majesty) shall be deemed to be beyond seas within the meaning of this Act.

20. And be it further enacted That when the right of any person to make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover any land or rent to which he may have been entitled for an estate or interest in possession shall have been barred by the determination of the period hereinbefore limited which shall be applicable in such case and such person shall at any time during the said period have been entitled... entitled to any other estate interest right or possibility in reversion remainder or otherwise in or to the same land or rent no entry distress or action shall be made or brought by such person or any person claiming through him to recover such land or rent in respect of such other estate interest right or possibility unless in the mean time such land or rent shall have been recovered by some person entitled to an estate interest or right which shall have been limited or taken effect after or in defeasance of such estate or interest in possession.

21. And be it further enacted That when the right of a tenant-in-tail of any land or rent to make an entry or distress or to bring an action to recover the same shall have been barred by reason of the same not having been made or brought within the period hereinbefore limited which shall be applicable in such case no such entry distress or action shall be made or brought by any person claiming any estate interest or right which such tenant-in-tail might lawfully have barred.

22. And be it further enacted That when a tenant-in-tail of any land or rent entitled to recover the same shall have died before the expiration of the period hereinbefore limited which shall be applicable in such case for making an entry or distress or bringing an action to recover such land or rent no person claiming any estate interest or right which such tenant-in-tail might lawfully have barred shall make an entry or distress or bring an action to recover such land or rent but within the period during which it such tenant-in-tail had so long continued to live he might have made such entry or distress or brought such action.

23. And be it further enacted That when a tenant-in-tail of any land or rent shall have made an assurance thereof which shall not operate to bar an estate or estates to take effect after or in defeasance of his estate tail and any person shall by virtue of such assurance at the time of the execution thereof or at any time afterwards be in possession or receipt of the profits of such land or in the receipt of such rent and the same person or any other person whatsoever (other than some person entitled to such possession or receipt in respect of an estate which shall have taken effect after or in defeasance of the estate tail) shall continue to be in such possession or receipt for the period of twenty years next after the commencement of the time at which such assurance if it had then been executed by such tenant-in-tail or the person who would have been entitled to his estate tail if such assurance had not been executed would without the consent of any other person have operated to bar such estate or estates as aforesaid then at the expiration of such period of twenty years such assurance shall be and be deemed to have been effectual as against any person claiming any estate interest or right to take effect after or in defeasance of such estate tail.

24. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no person claiming any land or rent in equity shall bring any suit to recover the same but within the period during which by virtue of the provisions hereinbefore contained he might have made an entry or distress or brought an action to recover the same respectively if he had been entitled at law to such estate interest or right in or to the same as he shall claim therein in equity.

25. Provided always and be it further enacted That when any land or rent shall be vested in a trustee upon any express trust the right of the cestui-que-trust or any person claiming through him to bring a suit against the trustee or any person claiming through him to recover such land or rent shall be deemed to have first accrued according accordance with the meaning of this Act at and not before the time at which such land or rent shall have been conveyed to a purchaser for a valuable consideration and shall then be deemed to have accrued only as against such purchaser and any person claiming through him.

20. And be it further enacted That in every case of a concealed fraud the right of any person to bring a suit in equity for the recovery of any land or rent of which he or any person through whom he claims may have been deprived by such fraud shall be deemed to have first accrued at and not before the time at which such fraud shall or with reasonable diligence might have been first known or discovered provided that nothing in this clause contained shall enable any owner of lands or rents to have a suit in equity for the recovery of such lands or rents or for setting aside any conveyance of such lands or rents on account of fraud against any bond fide purchaser for valuable consideration who has not assisted in the commission of such fraud and who at the time that he made the purchase did not know and had no reason to believe that any such fraud had been committed.

27. Provided always and be it further enacted That nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to interfere with any rule of jurisdiction of Courts of Equity in refusing relief on the ground of acquiescence or otherwise to any person whose right to bring a suit may not be barred by virtue of this Act.

28. And be it further enacted That when a mortgagee shall have obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of any land or the receipt of any rent comprised in his mortgage the mortgagor or any person claiming through him shall not bring a suit to redeem the mortgage but within twenty years next after the time at which the mortgagee obtained such possession or receipt unless in the meantime an acknowledgment of the title of the mortgagor or of his right of redemption shall have been given to the mortgagor or some person claiming his estate or to the agent of such mortgagor or person in writing signed by the mortgagee or the person claiming through him and in such case no such suit shall be brought but within twenty years next after the time at which such acknowledgment or the last of such acknowledgments if more than one was given and when there shall be more than one mortgagor or more than one person claiming through the mortgagee or mortgagors such acknowledgment if given to any of such mortgagors or persons or his or their agent shall be as effectual as if the same had been given to all such mortgagors or persons but where there shall be more than one mortgagee or more than one person claiming the estate or interest of the mortgagee or mortgagees such acknowledgment signed by one or more of such mortgagees or persons shall be effectual only as against the party or parties signing as aforesaid and the person or persons claiming any part of the mortgage money or land or rent by from or under him or them and any person or persons entitled to any estate or estates interest or interests to take effect after or in defeasance of his or their estate or estates interest or interests and shall not operate to give to the mortgagor or mortgagors a right to redeem the mortgage as against the person or persons entitled to any other undivided or divided part of the money or land or rent and where such of the mortgagors or persons aforesaid as shall have given such acknowledgment shall be entitled to a divided part of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage or some estate or interest therein and not to any ascertained part of the mortgaged money the mortgagor or mortgagors shall be entitled to redeem the same divided part of the land or rent on payment with interest interest of the part of the mortgage money which shall bear the same proportion to the whole of the mortgage money as the value of such divided part of the land or rent shall bear to the value of the whole of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage.

29. Provided always and be it further enacted That it shall be lawful for any Archbishop Bishop Dean Prebendary Parson Vicar Master of Hospital or other spiritual or eleemosynary corporation sole to make an entry or distress or to bring an action or suit to recover any land or rent within such period as hereinafter is mentioned next after the time at which the right of such corporation sole or of his predecessor to make such entry or distress or bring such action or suit shall first have accrued (that is to say) the period during which two persons in succession shall have held the office or benefice in respect whereof such land or rent shall be claimed and six years after a third person shall have been appointed thereto if the times of such two incumbencies and such term of six years taken together shall amount to the full period of sixty years and if such times taken together shall not amount to the full period of sixty years then during such further number of years in addition to such six years as will with the time of the holding of such two persons and such six years make up the full period of sixty years and after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no such entry distress action or suit shall be made or brought at any time beyond the determination of such period.

30. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no person shall bring any quare impedit or other action or any suit to enforce a right to present to or bestow any church vicarage or other ecclesiastical benefice as the patron thereof after the expiration of such period as hereinafter is mentioned (that is to say) the period during which three clerks in succession shall have held the same all of whom shall have obtained possession thereof adversely to the right of presentation or gift of such person or of some person through whom he claims if the times of such incumbencies taken together shall amount to the full period of sixty years and if the times of such incumbencies shall not together amount to the full period of sixty years then after the expiration of such further time as with the times of such incumbencies will make up the full period of sixty years.

31. Provided always and be it further enacted That when on the avoidance after a clerk shall have obtained possession of an ecclesiastical benefice adversely to the right of presentation or gift of the patron thereof a clerk shall be presented or collated thereto by His Majesty or the ordinary by reason of a lapse such last mentioned clerk shall be deemed to have obtained possession adversely to the right of presentation or gift of such person or of some person through whom he claims if the times of such incumbencies taken together shall amount to the full period of sixty years and if the times of such incumbencies shall not together amount to the full period of sixty years then after the expiration of such further time as with the times of such incumbencies will make up the full period of sixty years.

32. And be it further enacted That in the construction of this Act every person claiming a right to present to or bestow any ecclesiastical benefice as patron thereof by virtue of any estate interest or right which the owner of an estate tail in the advowson might have barred shall be deemed to be a person claiming through the person entitled to such estate tail and the right to bring any quare impedit action or suit shall be limited accordingly.
33. Provided always and be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no person shall bring any quare impedit or other action or any suit to enforce a right to present to or bestow any ecclesiastical benefice as the patron thereof after the expiration of one hundred years from the time at which a clerk shall have obtained possession of such benefice adversely to the right of presentation or gift of such person or of some person through whom he claims or of some person entitled to some preceding estate or interest or undivided share or alternate right of presentation or gift held or derived under the same title unless a clerk shall subsequently have obtained possession of such benefice on the presentation or gift of the person so claiming or of some person through whom he claims or of some other person entitled in respect of an estate share or right held or derived under the same title.

34. And be it further enacted That at the determination of the period limited by this Act to any person for making an entry or distress or bringing any writ of quare impedit or other action or suit the right and title of such person to the land rent or advowson for the recovery whereof such entry distress action or suit respectively might have been made or brought within such period shall be extinguished.

35. And be it further enacted That the receipt of the rent payable by any tenant from year to year or other lessee shall as against such lessee or any person claiming under him (but subject to the lease) be deemed to be the receipt of the profits of the land for the purposes of this Act.

36. And be it further enacted that no writ of right patent writ of right quia dominus remisit curiam writ of right in capite writ of right in London writ of right close writ of right de rationabili parte writ of right of advowson writ of right upon disclaimer writ de rationabilibus divisis writ of right of ward writ de consuetudinibus et servititis writ of cessavit writ of escheat writ of quo jure writ of secta ad molendinum writ de essendo quictum de theolonio writ of ne injuste vexes writ of mesne writ of quod permittat writ of formes in desceder in remainder or in reverter writ of assize of novel disseisin nuisanc darrein-presentment juris utrim or mort d’ancestor writ of entry sur disseisin in the quibus in the per in the per and cui or in the post writ of entry sur intrusion writ of entry sur alienation dum fuit non compos mentis dum fuit infra aetatem dum fuit in prisona ad communem legem in casu proviso in consimili casu cui in vita sur cui in vita cui ante divortium or sur cui ante divortium writ of entry sur abatement writ of entry quare ejector infra terminum or ad terminum qui praterit or causa matrimonii prae locuti writ of aiel besaial tresaial cosinage or nuper obit writ of waste writ of partition writ of disseip writ of quo ci deforceat writ of covenant real writ of warrantia chartse writ of curia claudenda or writ per quse servitia and no other action real or mixed (except a writ of right of dower or writ of dower unde nihil habet or a quare impedit or an ejectionment) and no plaint in the nature of any such writ or action (except a plaint for freebench or dower) shall be brought after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four.

37. Provided always and be it further enacted That when on the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four any person who shall not have a right of entry to any land shall be entitled to maintain any such writ or action as aforesaid in respect of such land such writ or action may be brought at any time before the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
in case the same might have been brought if this Act had not been made notwithstanding the period of twenty years hereinbefore limited shall have expired.

38. Provided also and be it further enacted That when on the said first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five any person whose right of entry to any land shall have been taken away by any descent cast discontinuance or warranty might maintain any such writ or action as aforesaid in respect of such land such writ or action may be brought after the said first day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five but only within the period during which by virtue of the provisions of this Act an entry might have been made upon the same land by the person bringing such writ or action if his right of entry had not been so taken away.

39. And be it further enacted That no descent cast discontinuance or warranty which may happen or be made after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three shall toll or defeat any right of entry or action for the recovery of land.

40. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no action or suit or other proceeding shall be brought to recover any sum of money secured by any mortgage judgment or lien or otherwise charged upon or payable out of any land or rent at law or in equity or any legacy but within twenty years next after a present right to receive the same shall have accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for or release of the same unless in the meantime some part of the principal money or some interest thereon shall have been paid or some acknowledgment of the right thereto shall have been given in writing signed by the person by whom the same shall be payable or his agent to the person entitled thereto or his agent and in such case no such action or suit or proceeding shall be brought but within twenty years after such payment or acknowledgment or the last of such payments or acknowledgments if more than one was given.

41. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no arrears of dower nor any damages on account of such arrears shall be recovered or obtained by any action or suit for a longer period than six years next before the commencement of such action or suit.

42. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no arrears of rent or of interest in respect of any sum of money charged upon or payable out of any land or rent or in respect of any legacy or any damages in respect of such arrears of rent or interest shall be recovered by any distress action or suit but within six years next after the same respectively shall have become due or next after an acknowledgment of the same in writing shall have been given to the person entitled thereto or his agent signed by the person by whom the same was payable or his agent Provided nevertheless that where any prior mortgagee or other incumbrancer shall have been in possession of any land or in the receipt of the profits thereof within one year next before an action or suit shall be brought by any person entitled to a subsequent mortgage or other incumbrance on the same land the person entitled to such subsequent mortgage or incumbrance may recover in such action or suit the arrears of interest which shall have become due during the whole time that such prior mortgagee or incumbrancer was in such possession or receipt as aforesaid although such time may have exceeded the said term of six years.

43. And be it further enacted That after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three no person claiming any tithes legacy or other property for the recovery of which he might bring an action or suit at law or in equity shall bring a suit or other proceeding in any Spiritual Court to recover the same but within the period during which he might bring such action or suit at law or in equity.

44. Provided always and be it further enacted That this Act shall not extend to Scotland and shall not so far as it relates to any property to permit to or bestow any church vicarage or other ecclesiastical benefice extend to Ireland.

45. And be it further enacted That this Act may be amended during this present Session of Parliament.
