WHEREAS since the passing of The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited, Act, hereinafter called "the Principal Act," the said The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") has been entrusted with the administration, and now administers a large number of trust estates: And whereas the company now possesses a paid-up capital of one hundred thousand pounds, of which twenty thousand pounds has long since been and now is invested in the manner provided by section seven of the Principal Act: And whereas it is desirable to amend the Principal Act so as to confer upon the company additional Preamble.

The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited (Amendment) Act.

George V. additional powers and privileges to enable the company more effectually and usefully to carry out its objects and so as to validate certain actions of the company in the past : Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited (Amendment) Act of 1919."

Incorporation with The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited, Act. 2. This Act shall be incorporated with and form part of the Principal Act, except so far as the Principal Act is repealed or amended by this Act.

Amendment of s. 4, Principal Act. 3. Section four of the Principal Act is amended by striking out the words "as his or her next of kin" after the word "intestate" where first used in such section.

Amendment of s. 6, Principal Act. 4. Section six of the Principal Act is amended by striking out the words "managing director, manager, or acting manager" and by inserting in place thereof the words "manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose."

Repeal of s. 8, Principal Act. 5. Section eight of the Principal Act is hereby repealed.

Company may be appointed trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian of estate. 6. (1) In all cases where any court of justice or judge thereof or person has power to appoint any person as—
(a) trustee ; or
(b) receiver ; or
(c) committee or manager of the estate of an insane person, insane patient, or incapable person, within the meaning of the Lunacy Act of 1893 ; or

(d) guardian of the estate of an infant,
the company may be so appointed.

(2) (a) Subject as hereinafter provided the company may be appointed or may continue to act as sole trustee in all cases notwithstanding that it is provided by the terms of the instrument (if any) creating the trust or of any power or otherwise that there shall be more than one trustee to perform the trust.

(b)

(b) Where the company and one or more individuals are co-trustees, any one or more of such individuals may retire, and the company shall for the purposes of any Act now or hereafter in force relating to the retirement of trustees and the vesting of the trust property be deemed to be equivalent to two trustees. George V.

(3) The company shall not be appointed in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power forbids the appointment of the company.

(4) The company shall not be appointed or be entitled to act as sole trustee in any case in which the instrument creating the trust or power expressly provides that there shall be another trustee in addition to the company or that the company shall not be appointed or act as sole trustee.

(5) In every case in which the company is appointed or acts in any of the offices in subsection one hereof mentioned all the capital of the company, both paid and unpaid, and all other assets of the company and the directors, manager, and assistant manager thereof and their respective estates shall be liable for the proper discharge of the duties of such office.

(6) No bond, recognizance, or other security for the proper discharge of such duties shall be required to be given by or on behalf of the company.

7. (1) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company was appointed new trustee in place of more than one trustee previously filling the office, such appointment shall be deemed to have been and to be as valid and effectual as if this Act had then been passed. Validation of prior appointments of company as sole trustee.

(2) In all cases where before the passing of this Act the company upon the retirement of one or more trustees continued to act as sole trustee, the company shall be deemed to have been and to be entitled to act as sole trustee.

(3) The trustees in whose place the company was so appointed or upon whose retirement the company continued to act as sole trustee, shall be deemed to have been and to be discharged from their trust.

8. (1) The company shall be capable of acquiring and holding any property in joint tenancy in the same manner as if it were an individual. Company may hold property as joint tenant.

(2)

The Union Trustee Company of Australia, Limited (Amendment) Act.

George V. (2) Where the company and an individual, or the company and another body corporate, become entitled to any property under circumstances or by virtue of any instrument which, if the company or other body corporate had been an individual, would have created a joint tenancy, they shall be entitled to the property as joint tenants.

(3) Where the company or other body corporate is a joint tenant of any property, then on its dissolution the property shall devolve on the other joint tenant.

Property vested in company and another as trustees, &c., to be held on joint tenancy.

9. Where any property is now or hereafter becomes vested in the company and an individual, or in the company and another body corporate, to the intent that they should hold the same jointly in any fiduciary capacity, or as mortgagees, they shall be deemed to be joint tenants thereof and not tenants in common unless otherwise expressly provided.

Amendment of s. 9, Principal Act.

10. Section nine of the Principal Act is amended by striking out the words "managing director, manager, acting manager," and by substituting therefor the words "manager, assistant manager, acting manager or secretary, or by such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose."

Amendment of s. 11, Principal Act.

11. Section eleven of the Principal Act is amended by striking out the words "managing director, manager, or acting manager, as the case may be," and by substituting in place thereof the words "manager, assistant manager."

13. (1) Every application under this Act to any court or judge shall be by motion.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, notice of the application and of the date on which the same is intended to be made shall be advertised once—

- (a) in a daily newspaper circulating in Sydney, and published at least seven days before such date; and
- (b) where the application is made by the executors or administrators of any person who died at any place in New South Wales situated more than than

than thirty miles from Sydney, also in a newspaper circulating in the district in which the deceased resided at the date of his death, and published within the time aforesaid.

George V.

(3) It shall not be necessary to advertise in any newspaper notice of any application for the appointment of the company as a trustee where all persons beneficially interested are before the court or have had notice of the intended application.

(4) The court or judge may in any case require notice to be served on any person residing in New South Wales and entitled to the immediate receipt of the whole or part of the income or corpus of the estate in respect of which the application is made.

(5) The court or judge may order the costs and expenses of and incident to any such application to be paid or raised out of the estate in respect whereof the same is made, or out of the income thereof, or to be borne and paid in such manner and by such persons as to the court or judge may seem just.

14. Section thirteen of the Principal Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of
s. 13,
Principal Act.

15. (1) In all cases in which the personal attendance of an executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, committee, or guardian is required in any court of justice or elsewhere, the company shall be entitled to make such attendance in the person of the manager, assistant manager, acting manager, or secretary, or such other officer of the company as may from time to time be appointed by the board of directors for that purpose.
