An Act to amend the Royal Commissions Act, 1923, in relation to the production of documents and other things for the purposes of a Royal Commission: to apply certain provisions of that Act to the Honourable Donald Gerard Stewart in connection with certain inquiries under that Act; and for other purposes. [Assented to, 15th May, 1985.]
BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of New South Wales in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the “Royal Commissions (Amendment) Act, 1985”.

Amendment of Act No. 29, 1923.

2. The Royal Commissions Act, 1923, is amended in the manner set forth in Schedule 1.

Application of certain provisions of the Royal Commissions Act, 1923, to the Stewart Royal Commission.

3. (1) In this section—

“appointed Commissioner” means the Honourable Donald Gerard Stewart, being the person appointed by the Governor by letters patent dated 24th June, 1981, to be a commissioner to make inquiry into certain matters;

“Commission” means the commission issued to the Honourable Donald Gerard Stewart by the Governor by letters patent dated 24th June, 1981, and as affected by letters patent issued on 28th March, 1983, and as varied by letters patent issued on 3rd April, 1985, and as further affected or varied by any other letters patent (whether issued before or after the commencement of this Act).

(2) The provisions of Division 2 of Part II of the Royal Commissions Act, 1923, have effect in relation to the Commission as if—

(a) the appointed Commissioner were a Judge of the Supreme Court; and

(b) section 17 (4) of that Act had never been enacted, and, without affecting the generality of the foregoing, references in that Division to the “commissioner” shall accordingly be read and construed as including a reference to the appointed Commissioner.
