SCHEDULE 1—PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

(Sec. 6)

Definition

1. In this Schedule—

“appointed member” means a member appointed by the Governor;

“member” means a member of the Advisory Committee.

Chairperson of the Advisory Committee

2. The Chairperson of the Advisory Committee is the officer of the Department of Health nominated by the Minister under section 6 (2) as a member.

Acting appointed members

3. (1) The Governor may, from time to time, appoint a person to act in the office of an appointed member and the person, while so acting, has all the functions of a member and shall be deemed to be an appointed member.

(2) The Governor may remove from office a person appointed under subclause (1).

(3) A person while acting in the office of an appointed member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the person.
SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS RELATING TO THE POISONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE—continued

Term of office

4. Subject to this Schedule, an appointed member holds office for such period not exceeding 3 years as is specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-appointment.

Remuneration

5. A member is entitled to be paid such remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the member.

Vacancy in office of appointed member

6. (1) The office of an appointed member becomes vacant if the member—
   (a) dies;
   (b) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed;
   (c) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister;
   (d) is removed from office by the Governor under this clause;
   (e) is absent from 4 consecutive meetings of the Advisory Committee of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or by post, except on leave granted by the Secretary or unless, before the expiration of 4 weeks after the last of those meetings, the member is excused by the Secretary for having been absent from those meetings;
   (f) becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
   (g) becomes a temporary patient or a continued treatment patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1958, a forensic patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 or a protected person within the meaning of the Protected Estates Act 1983; or
   (h) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted in New South Wales or elsewhere of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable.

   (2) The Governor may remove an appointed member from office at any time.

Filling of vacancy in office of member

7. If the office of an appointed member becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act, be appointed to fill the vacancy.

Effect of certain other Acts

8. (1) The Public Service Act 1979 does not apply to the appointment of an appointed member and an appointed member is not, as a member, subject to that Act.

   (2) If by or under any other Act provision is made—
   (a) requiring a person who is the holder of a specified office to devote the whole of his or her time to the duties of that office;
   (b) prohibiting the person from engaging in employment outside the duties of that office,
the provision does not operate to disqualify the person from holding that office and also the office of a member or from accepting and retaining any remuneration payable to the person under this Act as a member.

SCHEDULE 2—PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE PROCEDURE OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

(Sec. 6)

General procedure
1. The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Advisory Committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Act and the regulations, be as determined by the Advisory Committee.

Quorum
2. The quorum for a meeting of the Advisory Committee shall be as prescribed by the regulations.

Presiding member
3. (1) The Chairperson of the Advisory Committee or, in the absence of the Chairperson, another member elected to chair the meeting by the members present shall preside at a meeting of the Advisory Committee.

(2) The person presiding at a meeting of the Advisory Committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, a second or casting vote.

Voting
4. A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Advisory Committee at which a quorum is present is a decision of the Advisory Committee.

Minutes
5. The Advisory Committee must cause full and accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings at each meeting of the Advisory Committee.

(c) Section 43 (4) (b)—

Omit “books, documents”, insert instead “record”.

(7) Schedule—

Omit the Schedule.

SCHEDULE 6—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

(Sec. 4)

Definitions

1. In this Schedule—

“appointed day” means the day on which Schedule 1 commences;

“new Advisory Committee” means the Poisons Advisory Committee constituted by the Poisons Act 1966 as amended by this Act;

“old Advisory Committee” means the Poisons Advisory Committee constituted by the Poisons Act 1966, before the appointed day.
Members holding office before appointed day

2. (1) A person who, immediately before the appointed day, held office as a member of the old Advisory Committee—

   (a) ceases to hold office as such on that day; and

   (b) is eligible (if otherwise qualified) to be nominated or appointed as a member of the new Advisory Committee.

   (2) A person who ceases to hold office as a member of the old Advisory Committee because of the amendments made by this Act is not entitled to be paid any remuneration or compensation because of ceasing to hold that office.

Nominations and appointments before appointed day

3. For the purpose only of enabling the new Advisory Committee to be constituted on or after (but not before) the appointed day, nominations and appointments may be made, and any other act, matter or thing may be done, before that day as if Schedule 1, and section 3 in its application to that Schedule, commenced on the date of assent to this Act, but so that no nomination or appointment as a member of the new Advisory Committee takes effect before the appointed day.

Licence to continue in force

4. A licence in force under section 10 of the Poisons Act 1966 immediately before the repeal of that section by this Act continues in force until its expiration as if it were a licence issued under the regulations.

Approved prescribers of drugs of addiction

5. If, during the period of 2 months that next succeeds the commencement of section 28A of the Poisons Act 1966, a medical practitioner applies under that section to be an approved prescriber of drugs of addiction, he or she shall, for the purposes of section 29 (2) (b) of that Act, as so amended, and until a decision on the application is given effect, be deemed to be an approved prescriber.

Regulations

6. (1) The regulations under the Poisons Act 1966, as amended by this Act, may contain other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the amendment.

   (2) A provision referred to in sub-clause (1) may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the day of commencement of the amendment on which it is consequential or from a later day.

   (3) To the extent to which a provision referred to in sub-clause (1) takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate—

   (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication; or
(b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done, or omitted to be done, before the date of its publication.

(4) A provision referred to in subclause (1) shall, if the regulations so provide, have effect despite any other clause of this Schedule (clause 2 excepted).
