An Act with respect to the constitution and functions of the Charles Sturt University; to make consequential amendments to certain other Acts; and for other purposes. [Assented to 2 June 1989]
The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title
1. This Act may be cited as the Charles Sturt University Act 1989.

Commencement
2. This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Definitions
3. (1) In this Act—
   “Board” means the Board of Governors of the University;
   “network member” means a member of the University network;
   “University” means the Charles Sturt University established by this Act;
   “University network” means the University network for the time being established under section 6.

   (2) In this Act, a reference to a graduate of the University is a reference to a person who is the recipient of a degree or diploma, or of such other award or certificate as may be prescribed by the by-laws, conferred or awarded—
      (a) by the University;
      (b) by or on behalf of any former institution that has, pursuant to this Act or otherwise, become a network member of, or a part of, the University; or
      (c) by any predecessor of any such institution.

   (3) In this Act—
      (a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty; and
      (b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, where the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

PART 2—CONSTITUTION AND FUNCTIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Establishment of University
4. A University, consisting of—
   (a) the Board of Governors;
   (b) Convocation;
(c) the professors and full-time members of the academic staff of the University and such other members or classes of members of the staff of the University as the by-laws may prescribe; and
(d) the graduates and students of the University, is established by this Act.

Incorporation of University
5. The University is a body corporate under the name of the Charles Sturt University.

University network
6. (1) The University network is a federation of—
(a) the Charles Sturt University, Riverina;
(b) the Charles Sturt University, Mitchell;
(c) the Charles Sturt University, Murray; and
(d) such other network members as may be established from time to time under this section.
(2) The Governor may, by order published in the Gazette, establish—
(a) an educational institution set up by the University;
(b) any other public educational institution or body; or
(c) any part of any such institution or body, as a member of the University network.

Functions of University
7. (1) The functions of the University (within the limits of its resources) include—
(a) the provision of educational facilities at university standard for persons attending it, having particular regard to the needs and aspirations of the residents of western and south-western New South Wales;
(b) the provision of distance education for students within New South Wales and elsewhere;
(c) the dissemination and increase of knowledge, the undertaking and promotion of research and scholarship and the contribution to the intellectual life of the regions of New South Wales served by the University;
(d) the development of consultancy and entrepreneurial activities, including research and development initiatives, especially those that will contribute to the development of western and south-western New South Wales; and
(c) the conferring of the degrees of Bachelor, Master and Doctor and the awarding of diplomas and other certificates.

(2) The University has such other functions as are conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act.

(3) The University shall collaborate with the University of New South Wales in the development of the academic programs to be offered by the University, especially those concerned with post-graduate education and research.

Facilities to be provided for students

8. The University may, for the purpose of exercising its functions, provide such facilities for its students as it considers desirable.

PART 3—THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS, AUTHORITIES AND OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

The Board

9. (1) There shall be a Board of Governors of the University.

(2) The Board shall consist of—
(a) parliamentary members;
(b) official members;
(c) appointed members; and
(d) elected members.

(3) The parliamentary members comprise—
(a) one Member of the Legislative Council elected by that Council—
   (i) as soon as practicable after the commencement of this section and thereafter as soon as practicable after each periodic Council election within the meaning of section 3 of the Constitution Act 1902; or
   (ii) if there is a casual vacancy in the office of that member of the Board, as soon as practicable after that office becomes vacant; and
(b) one Member of the Legislative Assembly elected by that Assembly—
   (i) as soon as practicable after the commencement of this section and thereafter as soon as practicable after each general election of Members of the Legislative Assembly; or
   (ii) if there is a casual vacancy in the office of that member of the Board, as soon as practicable after that office becomes vacant.

(4) The official members comprise—
(a) the Chancellor (if the Chancellor is not otherwise a member of the Board):
(b) the Vice-Chancellor;
(c) each of the chief executive officers of the network members; and
(d) the person for the time being holding the office of—
   (i) presiding member of the Academic Senate (if that person is not the Vice-Chancellor); or (ii) deputy presiding member of the Academic Senate (if the presiding member is the Vice-Chancellor).

(5) The appointed members comprise—
(a) 4 persons appointed by the Minister, being persons who have, in the opinion of the Minister, an association with western and southwestern New South Wales; and
(b) 4 persons appointed by the Minister, being persons nominated by the Council of the University of New South Wales.

(6) The elected members comprise—
(a) 2 persons—
   (i) who are members of the academic staff of the University;
   (ii) who have such qualifications as may be prescribed by the by-laws; and
   (iii) who are elected in the manner prescribed by the by-laws;
(b) one person—
   (i) who is a member of the non-academic staff of the University;
   (ii) who has such qualifications as may be prescribed by the by-laws; and
   (iii) who is elected in the manner prescribed by the by-laws; and
(c) one person—
   (i) who is a student of the University but who is not a member of the academic or non-academic staff of the University;
   (ii) who has such qualifications as may be prescribed by the by-laws; and
   (iii) who is elected in the manner prescribed by the by-laws.

(7) Schedule 1 has effect in relation to the members and procedure of the Board.

Chancellor

10. (1) The Board shall—
    (a) at its first meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter; and
    (b) whenever a vacancy in the office of Chancellor occurs, elect a person (whether or not a member of the Board) to be Chancellor of the University.
(2) The Chancellor, unless he or she sooner resigns as Chancellor or ceases to be a member of the Board, holds office for such period (not exceeding 4 years), and on such conditions, as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

(3) The Chancellor has such functions as are conferred or imposed on the Chancellor by or under this or any other Act.

Deputy Chancellor

11. (1) The Board shall—
   (a) at its first meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter; and
   (b) whenever a vacancy in the office of Deputy Chancellor occurs, elect one of its members to be Deputy Chancellor of the University.

(2) The Deputy Chancellor, unless he or she sooner resigns as Deputy Chancellor or ceases to be a member of the Board, holds office for 2 years from the date of election and on such conditions as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

(3) In the absence of the Chancellor, or during a vacancy in the office of Chancellor or during the inability of the Chancellor to act, the Deputy Chancellor has all the functions of the Chancellor.

Vice-Chancellor

12. (1) The Board shall—
   (a) at its first meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter; and
   (b) whenever a vacancy in the office of Vice-Chancellor occurs, appoint a person (whether or not a member of the Board) to be Vice-Chancellor of the University.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor holds office for such period, and on such conditions, as the Board determines.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor is the principal executive officer of the University and has such functions as are conferred or imposed on the Vice-Chancellor by or under this or any other Act.

Chief executive officers of network members

13. (1) The Board shall, whenever—
   (a) a new member of the University network is established; or
   (b) a vacancy in the office of chief executive officer of a member of the University network occurs, appoint a person (whether or not a member of the Board) to be the chief executive officer of the network member concerned.
(2) A chief executive officer holds office for such period, and on such conditions, as the Board determines.

(3) A chief executive officer is responsible to the Board, through the Vice-Chancellor, for the day-to-day management of the network member and has such other functions as are conferred or imposed on the officer by or under this or any other Act.

Visitor

14. The Governor is the Visitor of the University with full authority and jurisdiction to exercise all functions pertaining to the office of Visitor.

Convocation

15. (1) Convocation shall consist of—

(a) the members and past members of the Board;
(b) the graduates of the University;
(c) the professors and full-time members of the academic staff of the University and such other members or classes of members of the staff of the University as the by-laws may prescribe; and
(d) such graduates of other universities, or other persons, as are, in accordance with the by-laws, admitted as members of Convocation.

(2) The first meeting of Convocation shall be convened by the Vice-Chancellor.

(3) Subject to the by-laws, meetings of Convocation shall be convened and the business at the meetings shall be as determined by Convocation.

(4) A quorum at any meeting of Convocation shall be such number of members as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

(5) Convocation has such functions as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

(6) The Board may establish a Standing Committee and such other committees of Convocation as it considers necessary.

Academic Senate

16. (1) There shall be an Academic Senate of the University, consisting of—

(a) the Vice-Chancellor;
(b) each of the chief executive officers of the network members;
(c) such members of the academic staff of the University, and of other universities, as the Board may appoint; and
(d) such other persons as the Board may, in accordance with the by-laws, determine.
(2) Subject to subsection (1), the constitution and functions of the Academic Senate shall be as prescribed by the by-laws.

Advisory councils

17. (1) The Board shall establish an advisory council for each network member.

(2) An advisory council shall consist of—
   (a) the chief executive officer of the network member; and
   (b) no fewer than 10, but no more than 20, persons representing—
      (i) the members of the academic and non-academic staff of the network member;
      (ii) the students of the network member; and
      (iii) the community.

(3) Subject to the by-laws—
   (a) the qualifications for appointment to an advisory council;
   (b) the manner in which a member of an advisory council is appointed;
   (c) the term for which a member of an advisory council holds office; and
   (d) the circumstances in which—
      (i) the appointment of a member of an advisory council shall be taken to have been terminated; or
      (ii) the office of a member of an advisory council shall be taken to have been vacated, shall be as determined by the Board.

(4) Subject to the by-laws, the procedure of an advisory council shall be as determined by the council.

(5) An advisory council shall advise the Board, through the chief executive officer, on matters relating to the network member in respect of which the council is established and shall exercise such of the Board’s functions as may be delegated to it by the Board.

PART 4—FUNCTIONS OF BOARD

Division 1—General

Functions of Board

18. (1) The Board is the governing authority of the University and is responsible for—
   (a) the co-ordination of the use of the University’s resources, including the monitoring of the efficiency and effectiveness of network members in their use of resources;
(b) the distribution, among the network members, of the income of the University;
(c) the development of broad policies with respect to academic planning and the nature and standards of academic awards and generally defining the educational profile of the University;
(d) the definition of the areas and responsibilities of the network members with respect to teaching, research and consultancy;
(e) the development of administrative and teaching facilities for the University;
(f) liaison with government in relation to the overall resource needs of the University; and
(g) representation of the University as occasion requires.

(2) The Board has such other functions as are conferred or imposed on it by or under this or any other Act.

Powers of Board

19. (1) The Board—
(a) may provide such courses, and may confer such degrees and award such diplomas and other certificates, as it thinks fit;
(b) may appoint and terminate the appointment of academic and other staff of the University;
(c) has the control and management of the affairs and concerns of the University and may act in all matters concerning the University in such manner as appears to it to be best calculated to promote the objects and interests of the University;
(d) may borrow money for the purpose of exercising any of its functions, for the renewal of loans or for the discharge or partial discharge of any indebtedness to the Treasurer or to any bank, within such limits, to such extent and on such conditions as to security or otherwise as the Governor, on the recommendation of the Treasurer, may approve;
(e) may invest any funds belonging to or vested in the University;
(f) may establish or participate in such trusts, companies or other incorporated bodies as it considers appropriate to promote the objects and interests of the University;
(g) may engage in the commercial development of any discovery or invention, or any intellectual property, in which the University has a right or interest;
(h) may establish and maintain branches and colleges of the University, within the University and elsewhere;
(i) may make loans and grants to students; and
(j) may impose fees, charges and fines.
(2) The powers of the Board under this section shall be exercised subject to the by-laws.

(3) Schedule 2 has effect in relation to the investment of funds by the Board.

Delegation by Board

20. The Board may, in relation to any matter or class of matters or in relation to any activity or function of the University, by resolution, delegate all or any of its functions (except this power of delegation) to any member or committee of the Board or to any authority or officer of the University or to any other person prescribed by the by-laws.

Division 2—Property

Powers of Board relating to property

21. (1) The Board—

(a) may acquire by gift, bequest or devise any property for the purposes of this Act and may agree to carry out the conditions of any such gift, bequest or devise; and

(b) has the control and management of all property at any time vested in or acquired by the University and may, subject to this section, dispose of property in the name and on behalf of the University.

(2) The Board shall not, except with the approval of the Minister, alienate, mortgage, charge or demise any lands of the University.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Board may, without the approval of the Minister, lease any lands of the University if—

(a) the term of the lease does not exceed 21 years; and

(b) (except where the lessee is a residential college affiliated with the University) there is reserved for the whole of the term the highest rent that can reasonably be obtained.

(4) In the case of a lease of any lands of the University, or any renewal of the lease, to a residential college affiliated with the University, the lease—

(a) shall be for a term not exceeding 99 years; and

(b) shall be at a nominal rent; and

(c) shall contain a condition that the lease shall not be assigned and such other conditions as the Board thinks fit.

(5) The rule of law against remoteness of vesting does not apply to or in respect of any condition of a gift, bequest or devise to which the University has agreed.
Powers of Board over certain property vested in Crown

22. (1) Where any property used for the conduct of the University is vested in the Crown or a Minister of the Crown (whether as Constructing Authority or otherwise), the Board has the control and management of that property and is responsible for its maintenance.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) enables the Board to alienate, mortgage, charge or demise any land vested in the Crown or a Minister of the Crown (whether as Constructing Authority or otherwise).

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Board may (on behalf of the Crown or a Minister of the Crown) lease land of which it has, pursuant to this section, the control and management.

(4) Such a lease—

(a) shall be for a term not exceeding 21 years; and

(b) shall contain a condition that the lease shall not be assigned and such other conditions as the Board thinks fit.

(5) The Board is, in the exercise of its functions under this section, subject to the control and direction of the Minister.

Acquisition of land

23. (1) For the purposes of this Act, the Governor may, on the recommendation of the Minister, resume or appropriate any land under Division 1 of Part 5 of the Public Works Act 1912.

(2) The Minister shall not make a recommendation for the purposes of this section unless satisfied that adequate provision has been or will be made for the payment by the University of compensation for the resumption or appropriation and of all necessary charges and expenses incidental to the resumption or appropriation.

(3) A resumption or appropriation effected pursuant to this section shall be taken to be for an authorised work within the meaning of the Public Works Act 1912 and the Minister shall, in relation to that authorised work, be taken to be the Constructing Authority within the meaning of that Act.

(4) Sections 34, 35, 36 and 37 of the Public Works Act 1912 do not, but section 38 of that Act does, apply in relation to a resumption or appropriation under this section.

Grant or transfer of certain land to University

24. (1) If land on which the University is conducted is vested in the Crown or a Minister of the Crown (whether as Constructing Authority or otherwise), the land may—

(a) if it is vested in the Crown—be transferred to the University subject to such trusts, conditions, covenants, provisions, exceptions and reservations as the Minister for Natural Resources thinks fit; or
(b) if it is vested in a Minister of the Crown—be conveyed or transferred to the University for such estate, and subject to such trusts and rights of way or other easements, as the Minister in whom the land is vested thinks fit.

(2) A conveyance, transfer or other instrument executed for the purposes of this section—
(a) is not liable to stamp duty under the Stamp Duties Act 1920; and
(b) may be registered under any Act without fee.

PART 5—GENERAL

Advance by Treasurer
25. The Treasurer may, with the approval of the Governor, advance to the Board money for the temporary accommodation of the University on such terms and conditions in relation to repayment and interest as may be agreed upon.

Financial year
26. The financial year of the University is—
(a) if no period is prescribed as referred to in paragraph (b)—the year commencing on 1 January; or
(b) the period prescribed by the by-laws for the purposes of this section.

No religious test or political discrimination
27. A person shall not, because of his or her religious or political affiliations, views or beliefs, be denied admission as a student of the University or be ineligible to hold office in, to graduate from or to enjoy any benefit, advantage or privilege of the University.

Exemption from membership of body corporate or Convocation
28. A student or graduate of the University or a member of staff of the University is entitled to be exempted by the Board, on grounds of conscience, from membership of the body corporate of the University or of Convocation, or both.

Re-appointment or re-election
29. Nothing in this Act prevents any person from being re-appointed or re-elected to any office under this Act if the person is eligible and otherwise qualified to hold that office.

Seal of University
30. The seal of the University shall be kept in such custody as the Board may direct and shall only be affixed to a document pursuant to a resolution of the Board.
By-laws

31. (1) The Board may make by-laws, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act and, in particular, for or with respect to—

(a) the management, good government and discipline of the University;
(b) the method of election of members of the Board (other than the parliamentary members) who are to be elected;
(c) the manner and time of convening, holding and adjourning the meetings of the Board or Academic Senate;
(d) the manner of voting (including postal voting or voting by proxy) at meetings of the Board or Academic Senate;
(e) the functions of the presiding member of the Board or Academic Senate;
(f) the conduct and record of business of the Board or Academic Senate;
(g) the appointment of committees of the Board or Academic Senate;
(h) the quorum and functions of committees of the Board or Academic Senate;
(i) the resignation of members of the Board, the Chancellor, the Deputy Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor;
(j) the tenure of office, stipend and functions of the Vice-Chancellor;
(k) the designation of members of staff of the University as academic staff, non-academic staff, full-time staff, part-time staff or otherwise;
(l) the number, stipend, manner of appointment and dismissal of officers and employees of the University;
(m) admission to, enrolment in and exclusion from courses of studies;
(n) the payment of such fees and charges, including fines, as the Board considers necessary, including fees and charges to be paid in respect of—

(i) entrance to the University;
(ii) tuition;
(iii) lectures and classes;
(iv) examinations;
(v) residence;
(vi) the conferring of degrees and the awarding of diplomas and other certificates;
(vii) the provision of amenities and services, whether or not of an academic nature; and (viii) an organisation of students or of students and other persons;
(o) the exemption from, or deferment of, payment of fees and charges, including fines;
(p) without limiting the operation of paragraphs (n) and (o), the imposition and payment of penalties for parking and traffic infringements;
(q) the courses of lectures or studies for, the assessments for, and the granting of, degrees, diplomas, certificates and honours and the attendance of candidates for degrees, diplomas, certificates and honours;
(r) the assessments for, and the granting of, fellowships, scholarships, exhibitions, bursaries and prizes;
(s) the admission of students and former students of other universities and institutions of higher education to any status within the University or the granting to graduates of such universities or institutions, or to other persons, of degrees or diplomas without examination;
(t) the establishment and conduct of places of accommodation for students (including residential colleges and halls of residence within the University) and the affiliation of residential colleges;
(u) the affiliation with the University of any educational or research establishment;
(v) the creation of faculties, schools, departments, centres or other entities within the University;
(w) the provision of schemes of superannuation for the officers and employees of the University;
(x) the form and use of academic costume;
(y) the form and use of an emblem of the University or of any network member or other body within or associated with the University; and
(z) the use of the seal of the University.

(2) A by-law has no effect unless it has been approved by the Governor.

Rules

32. (1) The by-laws may empower any authority (including the Board) or officer of the University to make rules (not inconsistent with this Act or the by-laws) for regulating, or providing for the regulation of, any specified matter with respect to which by-laws may be made.

(2) Any such rule—
(a) shall have the same force and effect as a by-law; and
(b) may, from time to time, be ended or repealed by the Board or by the authority or officer of the University empowered to make such a rule.
Recovery of charges, fees and other money

33. Any charge, fee or money due to the University under this Act may be recovered as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Amendments

34. Each Act referred to in Schedule 3 is amended as set out in that Schedule.

Savings and transitional provisions

35. Schedule 4 has effect.

SCHEDULE 1—PROVISIONS RELATING TO MEMBERS AND PROCEDURE OF THE BOARD

Term of office

1. Subject to this Act, a member of the Board holds office—
   (a) in the case of a parliamentary member, until a member of the House of Parliament that elected the member is elected as a replacement;
   (b) in the case of an official member, while the member holds the office by virtue of which he or she is a member;
   (c) in the case of an appointed member, for such term (not exceeding 4 years) as may be specified in the member's instrument of appointment; and
   (d) in the case of an elected member, for such term (not exceeding 2 years) as may be prescribed by the by-laws.

Vacation of office

2. The office of a member of the Board becomes vacant if the member—
   (a) dies;
   (b) declines to act;
   (c) resigns the office by writing under his or her hand addressed—
      (i) in the case of the parliamentary member who is a Member of the Legislative Council, to the President of the Legislative Council;
      (ii) in the case of the parliamentary member who is a Member of the Legislative Assembly, to the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly;
      (iii) in the case of an appointed member, to the Minister; or
      (iv) in the case of an elected member, to the Vice-Chancellor;
   (d) in the case of an appointed or elected member, becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes any assignment of his or her remuneration for their benefit;
   (e) in the case of an appointed or elected member, becomes a temporary patient or a continued treatment patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1958, a forensic patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 or a protected person within the meaning of the Protected Estates Act 1983;
SCHEDULE I—PROVISIONS RELATING TO MEMBERS AND PROCEDURE OF THE BOARD—continued

(f) is convicted in New South Wales of an offence that is punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more or is convicted elsewhere than in New South Wales of an offence that, if committed in New South Wales, would be an offence so punishable;

(g) in the case of an appointed or elected member, is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of the Board of which reasonable notice has been given to the member personally or in the ordinary course of post and is not, within 6 weeks after the last of those meetings, excused by the Board for his or her absence;

(h) in the case of the parliamentary member elected by the Legislative Council—

(i) ceases to be a Member of that Council otherwise than by reason of section 22A (1) (c) of the Constitution Act 1902; or

(ii) ceases to be a Member of that Council by reason of section 22A (1) (c) of that Act and does not become a candidate at the next periodic Council election within the meaning of section 3 of that Act or, as the case may be, becomes a candidate but is not elected;

(i) in the case of the parliamentary member elected by the Legislative Assembly—

(i) ceases to be a Member of that Assembly otherwise than by reason of its dissolution or its expiration by effluxion of time; or

(ii) ceases to be a Member of that Assembly by reason of its dissolution or its expiration by effluxion of time and does not become a candidate at the next general election of Members of that Assembly or, as the case may be, becomes a candidate but is not elected;

(j) in the case of an elected member, ceases to be qualified for election; or

(k) in the case of an appointed member, is removed from office by the Minister.

Filling of vacancy in office of member

3. (1) If the office of an appointed or elected member of the Board becomes vacant, a person shall, subject to this Act and the by-laws, be appointed or elected to fill the vacancy.

(2) The by-laws may provide that, in such circumstances (other than expiration of term of office) as may be prescribed, a person shall be appointed or elected (otherwise than to fill the office of a parliamentary member) in such manner as may be prescribed instead of in the manner provided for by this Act.

Committees of the Board

4. (1) The Board may establish committees to assist it in connection with the exercise of any of its functions.

(2) It does not matter that any or all of the members of a committee are not members of the Board.

(3) The procedure for the calling of meetings of a committee and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall be as determined by the Board or (subject to any determination of the Board) by the committee.

Liability of Board members and others

5. No matter or thing done by—

(a) the University, the Board or a member of the Board; or SCHEDULE 1—PROVISIONS RELATING TO MEMBERS AND PROCEDURE OF

(b) any person acting under the direction of the University or the Board, shall, if the matter or thing was done in good faith for the purpose of executing this or any other Act, subject a member of the Board or a person so acting personally to any action, liability, claim or demand.

General procedure
6. The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Board and for the conduct of business at those meetings shall, subject to this Act and the by-laws, be as determined by the Board.

Presiding member
7. (1) The Chancellor shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which the Chancellor is present.

(2) At any meeting of the Board at which the Chancellor is not present, the Deputy Chancellor shall preside and, in the absence of both the Chancellor and the Deputy Chancellor, a member elected by and from the members present shall preside.

(3) Except as provided by subclause (4), at the meetings of a committee constituted by the Board a member appointed by the Board (or, if no member is so appointed, a member elected by and from the members present) shall preside.

(4) At any meeting of a committee constituted by the Board at which the Chancellor is present, the Chancellor is entitled, if he or she so desires, to preside at that meeting.

Quorum
8. At any meeting of the Board, a majority of the total number of members for the time being of the Board constitutes a quorum.

Voting
9. A decision supported by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present is the decision of the Board.

"securities" means debentures, stocks, shares, bonds and notes.

Terms of trust to prevail
2. The terms of—
(a) in the case of a private gift—any instrument creating a trust with respect to that private gift;
(b) in the case of a grant—the instrument of grant; and
(c) in the case of property, other than money, given to the University—any instrument creating a trust with respect to that property, have effect despite clauses 3, 4 and 5.

Investment of money
3. The Board may invest any class A funds or class B funds held by the University—
(a) in such manner as may be authorised by the Public Authorities (Financial Arrangements) Act 1987; or
(b) at any time at which the Public Authorities (Financial Arrangements) Act 1987 does not apply to the Board so as to authorise any such investment—
(i) in accordance with and subject to the Trustee Act 1925; or
(ii) in any other manner approved by the Minister with the concurrence of the Treasurer.

Investment pools
4. (1) The Board may establish and maintain one or more investment pools for the collective investment of property held by the University.
(2) The Board may from time to time—
(a) bring into or withdraw from an investment pool the whole or any part of any class A funds or class B funds held by the University; or
(b) bring into an investment pool—
(i) securities, other than securities in respect of which the donor has, in an instrument creating a trust in respect of those securities, specified that the income from those securities is to be applied for a purpose other than the general purposes of the University; or
(ii) real property, other than real property in respect of which the donor has, in an instrument creating a trust in respect of that real property, specified that the income from that real property is to be applied for a purpose other than the general purposes of the University, or withdraw money to the value attributed equitably to those securities or that real property by the Board at the date of withdrawal.

(3) The Board shall not bring into or retain in any investment pool the whole or any part of any class A funds if the investments in which the capital of the investment pool is invested are not investments made in accordance with and subject to the Trustee Act 1925.

Distribution of income of investment pools

5. (1) The Board shall, at least once a year, distribute the income of an investment pool.

(2) On the distribution of the income of an investment pool, the Board shall, in respect of—

(a) a pooled item being a private gift where the donor of the private gift has, in an instrument creating a trust in respect of the private gift—

(i) specified that the income from the investment of the private gift is to be applied for a purpose other than the general purposes of the University; or

(ii) specified that the private gift is to be applied for a purpose other than the general purposes of the University and the private gift is insufficient, without the addition of the income from the investment of the private gift, to achieve that purpose; and

(b) any other pooled item in respect of which the Board is otherwise required to do so, credit the income of the investment pool to the account kept by it in respect of the private gift or other pooled item proportionately according to—

(c) the value attributed equitably to the private gift or other pooled item by the Board at the date of distribution; and

(d) the period for which the private gift or other pooled item has formed part of the investment pool since the date of the last preceding distribution of the income of the investment pool.

(3) If the Board distributes the income of an investment pool, it may, in respect of a pooled item (other than a pooled item referred to in subclause (2) (a) or (b)) credit the income of the investment pool to any account kept by it.
Nature of private gift etc. not affected by pooling

6. (1) The inclusion in an investment pool of a pooled item (being a private gift, a grant, student tuition fees or class B funds) does not affect the identity of the pooled item as a private gift, a grant, student tuition fees or class B funds.

(2) The inclusion in an investment pool of a pooled item does not affect any trust to which the pooled item was subject immediately before its inclusion in the investment pool.

(3) On the withdrawal from an investment pool of a pooled item (being a private gift, a grant, student tuition fees or class B funds) the pooled item shall continue to be subject to any trust to which it was subject immediately before its inclusion in the investment pool.

(4) On the withdrawal from an investment pool of money to the value attributed to any securities or real property by the Board under clause 4 (2) (b), that money shall be subject to any trust to which those securities were subject, or to which that real property was subject, immediately before its inclusion in the investment pool.

Division 4—Transfer of staff

Definitions
8. In this Division—
"officer", in relation to a former institution, means a person who, immediately before the relevant commencement, held any salaried office or employment in the staff establishment of that institution otherwise than as a temporary staff member or a staff member employed on a fixed term contract;
"superannuation scheme" means a scheme, fund or arrangement under which any superannuation or retirement benefits are provided and which is established by or under an Act;
"temporary staff member", in relation to a former institution, means a person who, immediately before the relevant commencement, was employed in the staff establishment of that institution on terms and conditions that allowed for his or her services to be dispensed with at any time.

Transfer of staff generally
9. (1) Each officer of a former institution shall, on the relevant commencement, become an officer of the University.

(2) Except as otherwise provided by this Division or the regulations, the terms and conditions on which an officer of a former institution becomes an officer of the University shall be the same as those on which he or she was an officer of the former institution.

Remuneration and tenure
10. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Division, becomes an officer of the University shall become such an officer on the same terms and conditions as to remuneration, and duration of appointment, as those on which he or she was employed at the former institution immediately before the relevant commencement.

(2) Such part of the remuneration referred to in subclause (1) as is salary or wages is subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuation in the applicable basic wage in force under Part 5 of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 until the salary is, or the wages are, lawfully varied.
Superannuation
11. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Division, becomes an officer of the University—
   (a) may continue to contribute to any superannuation scheme to which the person was a contributor immediately before becoming an officer of the University; and
   (b) is entitled to receive any payment, pension or gratuity accrued or accruing to the person under any such scheme, as if he or she had continued to be such a contributor during his or her service as an officer of the University.

(2) Service by an officer of a former institution as an officer of the University shall be taken to be service as an officer of the former institution for the purposes of any law under which the officer continues to contribute to any such scheme or by which an entitlement under any such scheme is conferred.

(3) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Division, becomes an officer of the University shall be regarded as an officer or employee, and the University shall be regarded as the employer, for the purposes of the superannuation scheme to which he or she is entitled to contribute under this clause.

(4) If a person would, but for this subclause, be entitled under subclause (1) to contribute to a superannuation scheme or to receive any payment, pension or gratuity under any such scheme—
   (a) the person is not so entitled on the person's becoming a contributor to any other superannuation scheme; and
   (b) the provisions of subclause (3) cease to apply to or in respect of the person and the University where the person becomes a contributor to any such other superannuation scheme.

(5) Subclause (4) does not prevent the payment to an officer of a former institution, on the officer’s ceasing to be a contributor to a superannuation scheme, of such amount as would have been payable to the officer if the officer had ceased, by reason of resignation, to be such a contributor.

Annual leave, long service leave and sick leave
12. (1) An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Division, becomes an officer of the University retains any rights to—
   (a) annual leave;
   (b) leave in the nature of long service leave; and
   (c) sick leave, accrued or accruing to the person as an officer of the former institution.

(2) A person's entitlement to any such leave shall be calculated—
   (a) for such part of any period during which that leave accrued or was accruing as occurred before the relevant commencement—at the rate for the time being applicable to the officer, as an officer of the former institution, before that commencement; and
   (b) for such part of that period as occurred after the relevant commencement—at the rate for the time being applicable to the officer, as an officer of the University, after that commencement.
No entitlement to dual benefits

13. An officer of a former institution who, pursuant to this Division, becomes an officer of the University is not entitled to claim, both under this Act and any other Act, dual benefits of the same kind in respect of the same period of service.

Temporary staff

14. (1) Each temporary staff member of a former institution shall, on the relevant commencement, become a temporary staff member of the University.

(2) A temporary staff member of a former institution who, pursuant to this clause, becomes a temporary staff member of the University shall become such a staff member on the same terms and conditions (including conditions as to remuneration) as those on which he or she was employed at the former institution immediately before the relevant commencement.

(3) Such part of the remuneration referred to in subclause (2) as is salary or wages is subject to any adjustment necessary to give effect to any fluctuation in the applicable basic wage in force under Part 5 of the Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 until the salary is, or the wages are, lawfully varied.

Fixed term contracts

15. A fixed term contract in force, immediately before the relevant commencement, between a person and a former institution (being a contract under which the person performed services for that institution)—

(a) shall be taken, for the remainder of its term, to be a contract in the same terms, between the person and the University, under which the University assumes the rights and obligations of the former institution; and

(b) may be arbitrated, terminated or renewed in any manner provided by the contract.

Operation of Industrial Arbitration Act 1940 unaffected

Division 5—Other matters consequent on the abolition of the former institutions

Transfer of assets etc.

17. Subject to this Act, on and from the relevant commencement, any assets, rights, liabilities or obligations of a former institution become assets, rights, liabilities or obligations of the University.

Determination of certain questions

18. (1) Any question arising in connection with the operation of this Part—

(a) as to which institution any particular item of property belongs or relates to;

(b) as to which land is under the control and management of any particular institution;

(c) as to which institution any assets, rights, liabilities or obligations belong or relate to; or

(d) as to which institution the employment of any staff pertains to,
shall be determined by the Minister.

(2) A certificate of the Minister as to a determination under this clause is, for any purpose, evidence of the matters contained in the certificate.

Students

19. (1) Each person who was, immediately before the relevant commencement, a student of a former institution enrolled in a course of study shall on that commencement (unless the student was a graduand in that course) become a student of the University and be enrolled in a course of study that is substantially the same as the course of study in which the student was enrolled at the former institution.

(2) The University shall (for such period as is necessary for the purposes of this clause and, in any case, until the end of the academic year next following the relevant commencement) provide such courses of study as are necessary for the purposes of this clause.

(3) If a student is enrolled in a course of study pursuant to this clause, the University shall, as far as it may practically do so, give the student credit in that course for any subject or work completed by the student in the course of study from which the student was transferred.

(4) Students so enrolled are entitled, on satisfactory completion of their courses, to appropriate awards conferred by the University but may, if they so desire, instead obtain awards conferred in the name of the former institution at which they were previously enrolled.

(5) For the purposes of subclause (4), the seal of a former institution may be affixed to any document pursuant to a resolution of the Board.

(6) The seal of a former institution shall, on and from the relevant commencement, be kept in the custody of the Vice-Chancellor.

Saving of delegations

20. Any delegation made by the governing body of a former institution and in force immediately before the relevant commencement continues to have effect as if it were a delegation made by the Board, but may be revoked at any time by the Board.

Instruments exempt from stamp duty etc.

21. Any instrument that is executed for the purposes of disposing of, or otherwise dealing with, property in accordance with this Part is exempt—

(a) from payment of stamp duty under the Stamp Duties Act 1920; and

(b) from payment of any other fee or charge that would otherwise be payable under any other Act in respect of the registration of any such instrument.

Control and management of property

22. The transfer, by this Part, of the control and management of any property from a former institution to the University does not affect any power of the person or body by whom the control and management of that property has been conferred, or of any lawful successor of that person or body—

(a) to remove the control and management of that property from the University; or
(b) to vary the conditions subject to which the control and management of that property may be exercised by the University, that could have been exercised by that person or body, or by that lawful successor, in respect of the former institution had this Act not been enacted.

Existing investments

23. Nothing in this Part affects the validity of any investment made by or on behalf of a former institution before the relevant commencement.

Construction of certain references

24. In any other Act or in any statutory instrument (including any industrial award or industrial agreement) or other document, a reference to a former institution shall, on and from the relevant commencement, be read as a reference to the University.

Division 6—The interim Board, officers and authorities

Interim Board of the University

25. (1) Pending the commencement of section 9, the Board shall consist of—

(a) the Chancellor (if the Chancellor is not otherwise a member of the Board);
(b) the Vice-Chancellor;
(c) the person for the time being holding the office of—

(i) presiding member of the Academic Senate (if that person is not the Vice-Chancellor); or

(ii) deputy presiding member of the Academic Senate (if the presiding member is the Vice-Chancellor);
(d) the person who held office immediately before the commencement of this clause as the Principal of the Riverina-Murray Institute of Higher Education;
(e) the person who held office immediately before the commencement of this clause as the Principal of the Mitchell College of Advanced Education;
(f) the person who held office immediately before the commencement of this clause as the Director of the Riverina-Murray Institute of Higher Education (Murray campus); and

(g) not more than 15 persons appointed by the Minister.

(2) The members of the Board shall, subject to this Act, hold office until the Board is duly constituted under section 9.

(3) The Minister may call the first meeting of the Board in such manner as the Minister thinks fit.

(4) A member of the Board designated by the Minister shall preside at all meetings of the Board until the election of the first Chancellor of the University.

(5) The Board shall make all necessary by-laws and take all necessary steps to ensure, as far as possible, that a Board is duly constituted under section 9 so as to take office within 12 months after the commencement of this clause or within such extended time as is specified in a proclamation at any time during that period of 12 months.
(6) The provisions of this Act (except clause 1 of Schedule 1) applicable to the Board or the members of the Board apply to the Board as constituted in accordance with this clause or the members holding office under this clause.

(7) If the office of a member of the Board referred to in subclause (1) (d), (e) or (f) becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled—

(a) if the former institution referred to in that paragraph is still in existence—by the person who holds office as Principal or Director, as the case may be, of that institution; or

(b) if the former institution referred to in that paragraph has ceased to exist—by the person who holds office as chief executive officer of the corresponding network member.

Chancellor

26. (1) The Board constituted under this Division shall—

(a) at its first meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter; and

(b) whenever a vacancy in the office of Chancellor occurs, elect a person (whether or not a member of the Board) to be Chancellor of the University.

(2) The Chancellor elected under this clause shall, subject to this Act, hold office until a Chancellor is duly elected under section 10.

(3) Section 10 (1) and (2) do not apply to or in respect of the Chancellor elected under this clause.

Deputy Chancellor

27. (1) The Board constituted under this Division shall—

(a) at its first meeting or as soon as practicable thereafter; and

(b) whenever a vacancy in the office of Deputy Chancellor occurs, elect one of its members to be Deputy Chancellor of the University.

(2) The Deputy Chancellor elected under this clause shall, subject to this Act, hold office until a Deputy Chancellor is duly elected under section 11.

(3) Section 11 (1) and (2) do not apply to or in respect of the Deputy Chancellor elected under this clause.

Acting Vice-Chancellor

28. (1) If at its first meeting the Board does not appoint a person to be Vice-Chancellor, the Board may, at that meeting or subsequently, appoint a person to act as Vice-Chancellor pending the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor.
SCHEDULE 4—SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS—continued

(2) Until the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, a person appointed to act as Vice-Chancellor has all the functions of the Vice-Chancellor, except as provided by subclause (3).

(3) A person acting as Vice-Chancellor by appointment under this clause is not a member of the Board, and has none of the functions of a member of the Board.

(4) Until the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor of the University of New South Wales, or such other person as the Vice-Chancellor of that University may nominate, shall be an official member of the Board in addition to the members referred to in section 9 (4).

First chief executive officers of network members

29. The persons who, immediately before the commencement of this clause, held office as—

(a) the Principal of the Riverina-Murray Institute of Higher Education;
(b) the Principal of the Mitchell College of Advanced Education; and
(c) the Director of the Riverina-Murray Institute of Higher Education (Murray campus).

shall respectively be the chief executive officers of the corresponding members of the University network.

Convocation

30. (1) Convocation includes—

(a) past members of the governing body of any of the former institutions that have, pursuant to this Act or otherwise, become network members of, or a part of, the University; and
(b) graduates of any of those institutions.

(2) In this clause, a reference to a former institution includes a reference to any predecessor of the institution.
