The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1995.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the date of assent, except as provided in Schedules 1, 2 and 4.

3 Amendments

Each Act specified in Schedules 1–4 is amended as set out in those Schedules.

4 Repeals

Each Act and Regulation specified in Schedule 5 is repealed.

5 General savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 6 has effect.

6 Explanatory notes

The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in any of the Schedules does not form part of this Act.
Schedule 1 Minor amendments

1.1 Animal Research Act 1985 No 123

Section 4 Code of Practice

Insert at the end of the section:

(2) For the purposes of prescribing such a Code, the regulations may apply, adopt or incorporate by reference, wholly or in part and with or without modification, any standards, rules, codes, specifications or methods as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time, prescribed or published by any authority or body, whether or not it is a New South Wales authority or body.

Commencement
The amendment to the Animal Research Act 1985 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note
Section 42 of the Interpretation Act 1987 provides that if an Act authorises or requires provision to be made for or with respect to any matter by a regulation, the regulation may make provision for or with respect to the matter by applying, adopting or incorporating (with or without modification) the provisions of any publication. Under section 69 of that Act, such a publication may be applied, adopted or incorporated as in force on a particular day, on the day the regulation took effect, or, if the Act authorising or requiring provision to be made specifically provides, as in force from time to time.

Section 4 of the Animal Research Act 1985 permits the regulations to prescribe a Code of Practice with respect to the conduct of animal research and the supply of animals for use in connection with animal research.

The proposed amendment empowers the regulations, for the purpose of prescribing such a Code, to apply, adopt or incorporate by reference any standards etc of other bodies (such as the Commonwealth) as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time. There are similar provisions in other Acts (eg section 45C (4) of the Poisons Act 1966 and section 90 (3) of the Food Act 1989).
1.2 Arbitration (Civil Actions) Act 1983 No 43

[1] Section 18 Rehearing

Insert “and no person other than the applicant or a person who consented to the discontinuance applies, within the prescribed period after the filing of that notice, for such an order” after “action” in section 18 (5) (a).

[2] Section 18 (5) (b)

Insert “and no person present at the rehearing requests the court to proceed with the rehearing” after “rehearing”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Arbitration (Civil Actions) Act 1983 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments ensure that a person aggrieved by an award of an arbitrator under the Act may obtain a rehearing of the action concerned even if a previous applicant for a rehearing files a notice of discontinuance of the rehearing or fails to attend the rehearing. (The Act currently provides that, in those circumstances, the order for the rehearing ceases to have effect and the award is deemed to be a judgment or order of the court.)

1.3 Drug Offensive Act 1987 No 119

Section 9 Functions of the Director

Omit “prescribed organisations” from section 9 (2) (c). Insert instead “the organisations that the Minister, by order published in the Gazette, designates for the purposes of this paragraph”.

Commencement

The amendment to the Drug Offensive Act 1987 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Repeal

On the commencement of the amendment to the Drug Offensive Act 1987 made by this Act, the Drug Offensive Regulation 1987 is repealed.
Explanatory note
At present, section 9 (2) (c) of the Act empowers the Director of the Drug and Alcohol Directorate to co-ordinate, monitor and evaluate, and provide an overview of, drug or alcohol services provided throughout New South Wales by “prescribed organisations”.

The proposed amendment removes the requirement that the organisations concerned be prescribed by regulation. Instead, it permits the Minister to designate the organisations by order published in the Gazette.

The Regulation currently prescribing organisations for the purpose of section 9 (2) (c) is repealed on the commencement of the amendment.

1.4 Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986 No 123

Section 22 Persons to be authorised to exhibit animals

Insert “, or at a preschool, school, TAFE establishment, university or other place of education,” after “place of public entertainment” in section 22 (2).

Commencement

The amendment to the Exhibited Animals Protection Act 1986 commences on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Explanatory note
At present, section 24 of the Act prohibits a person from exhibiting animals of a prescribed species unless the person is the holder (or is supervised by the holder) of a permit authorising the exhibition. Section 22 makes the same provision in relation to animals that are not of a species prescribed for the purposes of section 24, but it is limited to exhibitions held “on premises occupied by temporary or movable structures used for the purposes of a circus, fair, fun-fair, amusement park or similar place of public entertainment”. The proposed amendment extends the ambit of section 22 to cover exhibitions held at schools and other places of education.

1.5 Fish River Water Supply Administration Act 1945 No 16

[1] Section 12 Allocation of moneys

Omit the paragraph commencing “Thirdly,” from section 12 (2) (b).
[2] Section 12 (2) (b)

Omit “Fourthly,”. Insert instead “Thirdly,”.

[3] Section 13 Fish River Water Supply Renewal Reserve Account

Omit the section.

[4] Section 13A Accounts to be kept in Special Deposits Account

Omit “and the Renewal Reserve Account”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Fish River Water Supply Administration Act 1945 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

On the repeal of section 13 of the Fish River Water Supply Administration Act 1945, the balance in the Fish River Water Supply Renewal Reserve Account established under that section is to be transferred to the Fish River Water Supply Working Account established under section 12 of that Act.

Explanatory note

At present, section 13 requires the keeping of a Renewal Reserve Account to fund the renewal and replacement of the capital assets of the Fish River Water Supply. Maintenance of such accounts is regarded as an outdated accounting practice. Current practice is for asset renewals to be provided for in normal business planning, rather than through a specific account. Further, the rate of the interest earned on the funds in the Renewal Reserve Account is less than the interest-rate applicable to the debts of the Fish River Water Supply. In view of these factors, item (3) of the proposed amendments repeals the requirement that the Renewal Reserve Account be kept.

Items (1), (2) and (4) of the proposed amendments are consequential on item (3). Similar amendments to the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Administration Act 1941 are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.6 Interpretation Act 1987 No 15

[1] Section 3 Definitions

Omit the definition of statutory rule from section 3 (1).
[2] Section 21 Meaning of commonly used words and expressions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 21 (1):

statutory rule means:

(a) a regulation, by-law, rule or ordinance:

   (i) that is made by the Governor, or
   (ii) that is made by a person or body other than the Governor, but is required by law to be approved or confirmed by the Governor, or

(b) a rule of court.

[3] Sections 23 Commencement of Acts and 66 Citation of particular Acts

Insert “(or name)” after “short title” wherever occurring in sections 23 (6) and 66 (1) (a), (2) (a), (3) (a) and (4) (a).

[4] Section 30A

Insert after section 30:

30A Transferred provisions

(1) This section applies where a provision is transferred from an Act or statutory rule to another Act and an Act states that the provision is a transferred provision to which this section applies.

(2) The transfer does not affect the operation (if any) or meaning of the provision, and accordingly the provision is to be construed as if it had not been so transferred.

(3) This section applies whether or not the provision is modified, but has effect subject to any such modification.
Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1995 No 16

Schedule 1 Minor amendments

[5] Section 35 Headings etc

Insert after section 35 (4):

(4A) The number of a section, subsection, clause or subclause of an Act or instrument is taken to be part of the Act or instrument even though it appears in a heading to the section, subsection, clause or subclause.

[6] Section 39 The making of statutory rules

Insert after section 39 (2):

(2A) Neither the whole nor any part of a statutory rule is invalid merely because (without statutory authority) the statutory rule is published in the Gazette after the day on which one or more of its provisions is or are expressed to take effect. In that case, that or those provisions take effect from the day the statutory rule is published in the Gazette, instead of from the earlier day.

[7] Section 39 (3)

Omit “subsection (1) does”.
Insert instead “subsections (1) and (2A) do”.

[8] Section 45A

Insert after section 45:

45A Tabling of instruments

An instrument that, under any other Act, may or must be tabled in a House of Parliament (without any indication as to who is authorised or required to table it) may be laid before the House by a Minister or the Clerk of the House. This section does not affect any other way in which the instrument can be laid before the House.
[9] Section 67 Citation of instruments etc

Insert “(or name)” after “citation” wherever occurring in section 67 (1) (a), (2) (a), (3) (a) and (4) (a).

[10] Section 70 References to changed short titles, names and citations

Insert “, name” after “short title” wherever occurring.

Commencement

The amendments to the Interpretation Act 1987 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

Definition of statutory rule (items (1) and (2))

At present, the Interpretation Act 1987 provides a definition of the term statutory rule in section 3, a section that defines terms for the purposes of that Act. Items (1) and (2) of the proposed amendments ensure that the definition applies in any Act or instrument in which the term is used. They do this by transferring the definition from section 3 to a section that usually applies to all Acts and instruments.

Redesign of legislation (items (3), (5), (9) and (10))

The recent redesign of legislation in New South Wales involved, among other things, the following:

• changing the provision naming an Act from “This Act may be cited as the XYZ Act” to “This Act is the XYZ Act” (involving a consequential change to the heading of that provision from “Short title” to “Name of Act”)
• moving section numbers into the relevant section headings (which do not form part of an Act).

Item (3) of the proposed amendments is consequential on the change of heading, allowing an Act (including an Act of another jurisdiction) to be referred to or cited by its “name”, which is another description of its short title. Item (9) is a similar provision in relation to instruments. Item (10) makes a consequential amendment in relation to both Acts and instruments. Item (5) ensures that section, subsection, clause and subclause numbers remain part of an Act or instrument.

Transferred provisions (item (4))

Schedule 4 to this Act transfers to the relevant Principal Acts various savings and transitional and other provisions from certain amending Acts and statutory rules, the other provisions of which have been incorporated in reprints or are spent. The consolidation of the transferred provisions in the Principal Acts permits the repeal (by Schedule 5 to this Act) of the otherwise obsolete amending Acts and statutory rules.
Item (4) of the proposed amendments provides a mechanism for ensuring that any such transfers do not affect the operation (if any) or meaning of the provisions concerned.

Validity of statutory rules (items (6) and (7))
Item (6) of the proposed amendments makes it clear that publication of a statutory rule in the Gazette after the day on which any of its provisions is expressed to take effect does not invalidate any of those provisions. The provision concerned takes effect from the date of Gazettal.
Item (7) is a consequential amendment.

Tabling of instruments (item (8))
Item (8) of the proposed amendments empowers a Minister or the Clerk of the House to table an instrument that another Act requires or permits to be tabled in a House of Parliament if the enabling Act does not specify the person required or authorised to table the instrument.

1.7 Law Foundation Act 1979 No 32

[1] Schedule 1 Constitution and procedure of Board of Governors

Clause 4 (1)
Omit “for a period of 3 years”. Insert instead “for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as is specified in the member’s instrument of appointment”.

[2] Schedule 1, clause 4 (4)
Insert after clause 4 (3):

(4) On the expiry of the term of office of an appointed member (other than a member appointed under clause 2 (2) (d)):
(a) the person who held the office concerned immediately before the expiry of that term is to act in that office until the person’s successor is appointed (or the person is reappointed) or until the expiration of a period of 3 months from that expiry, whichever occurs first, and
(b) while so acting, the person has and may perform all the functions of a member and is taken to be an appointed member.

[3] Schedule 1, clause 8 (c)
Insert “, except in the case of a member appointed under clause 2 (2) (d),” after “if”.

[4] Schedule 1, clause 9 (2)
Omit the subclause.

Commencement
The amendments to the Law Foundation Act 1979 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Transitional
Clause 9 of Schedule 1 to the Law Foundation Act 1979, as amended by this Act, extends to a vacancy in the office of an appointed member of the Board of Governors of the Law Foundation:

(a) that occurred before the commencement of that amendment, and
(b) that has not been filled.

Explanatory note

Term of office of members of Board (item (1))
At present, clause 4 (1) of Schedule 1 provides that appointed members of the Board of Governors of the Law Foundation (other than the member appointed on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly) hold office for a period of 3 years.

Because the appointed members were not all appointed at the same time, their terms of office do not expire simultaneously. Item (1) of the proposed amendments allows members to be appointed for a term of less than 3 years. This will, over time, enable the terms of all the appointed members to be brought into alignment.

Holding over (item (2))
Because of the current variation in the expiry dates of the appointed members’ terms of office, it is conceivable that, on the expiry of some of those terms, the Board could consist of insufficient members to constitute a quorum. Accordingly, item (2) of the proposed amendments requires a member of the Board (other than the Leader of the Opposition’s nominee) whose term of office has expired to act in that office (for a period of up to 3 months) pending the appointment of his or her successor.
Exemption from automatic vacation of office (item (3))
Clause 8 (c) provides that a member of the Board is taken to have vacated office if (among other things) the member is absent without leave from 3 consecutive Board meetings. Item (3) of the proposed amendments exempts the member who is appointed on the nomination of the Leader of the Opposition from the operation of this provision.

Advertising of casual vacancies (item (4))
Clause 9 (2) requires the Attorney General to advertise certain casual vacancies on the Board before appointing persons to fill them. Item (4) of the proposed amendments abolishes that requirement.

1.8 Noxious Weeds Act 1993 No 11

[1] Section 31 Agricultural machines to be produced for inspection

Section 31 (1)
Omit “notifiable weeds”. Insert instead “notifiable weed material”.

[2] Section 31 (2) (a)
Omit “a weed that is a notifiable weed”. Insert instead “weed material that is notifiable weed material”.

[3] Section 31 (2) (a) and (b)
Omit “such weed” wherever occurring. Insert instead “such weed material”.

Commencement
The amendments to the Noxious Weeds Act 1993 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
At present, section 31 (1) of the Act requires a person who brings an agricultural machine from Queensland into New South Wales to produce the machine for inspection by a border inspector for “notifiable weeds”.

It is unlikely that weeds will actually be alive and growing on such machines. Accordingly, the proposed amendments replace references in the section to “notifiable weed” with references to “notifiable weed material”. That term is defined in the Act as including “notifiable weeds and any seed or other part of a notifiable weed”.

1.9 Real Estate Services Council Act 1990 No 14

Section 6 Membership of Council

Omit section 6 (3) (b). Insert instead:

(b) 1 is to be a public servant nominated by the Minister, being a public servant holding a position in an agency administered by the Minister,

Commencement

The amendment to the Real Estate Services Council Act 1990 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Transitional

The person (if any) who, on the commencement of the amendment made to section 6 (3) (b) of the Real Estate Services Council Act 1990 by this Act, was the member of the Real Estate Services Council appointed pursuant to a nomination made under that paragraph before that amendment commenced, is taken to have been appointed pursuant to a nomination made under that paragraph as so amended.

Explanatory note

At present, section 6 (3) (b) provides that one of the 9 part-time members of the Real Estate Services Council is to be an officer of the Department of Housing nominated by the Minister.

The proposed amendment replaces that member with a public servant (nominated by the Minister) whose position is within an agency administered by the Minister. (Because of section 97 (1) (b) of the Public Sector Management Act 1988, “public servant” in this context is to be read as a reference to an officer or temporary employee within the meaning of that Act.)

The proposed amendment is consequential on the separation of the Office of Real Estate Services from the Department of Housing.
1.10  Reprints Act 1972 No 48

[1]  Section 9G

Insert after section 9F:

9G  New styles

(1)  An Act may be reprinted under section 5 so as to conform to current styles of presentation regarding punctuation, layout, type and similar matters.

(2)  As a transitional matter, an amended Act may be reprinted under section 5 so as to conform to an earlier style, even though some or all of the amendments may have been enacted in a newer style.

[2]  Section 13 Application of certain provisions of this Act to certain instruments

Omit “9E and 9F”. Insert instead “9E, 9F and 9G”.

Commencement

The amendments to the Reprints Act 1972 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

The layout, type, punctuation and other aspects of New South Wales statutes have recently been redesigned. Item (1) of the proposed amendments allows existing Acts to be reprinted in the new style. It also permits, as a transitional matter, an amended Act to be reprinted in the earlier style even though the amendments may have been enacted in the new style. In neither case will the substantive text of the legislation be altered. Item (2) extends the amendment to statutory instruments.

The changes involve such matters as the following:

• the transfer of section and other provision numbers into the heading of the provision
• the omission of the stops after section numbers
• the printing of the short title, name or citation of any Act or instrument (whether of New South Wales or elsewhere) in italic type
• the omission of inverted commas around defined terms, the printing of defined terms in different type, and the printing of the first letter of defined terms in lower case type
• the spelling out in full (as “section”) of the abbreviation “sec.”
• the adjustment of the ranging of sections, subsections, clauses, subclauses and other parts of Acts.
1.11 Roads Act 1993 No 33

Section 54 Orders generally

Insert at the end of the section:

(4) In making an order under this Division, the Minister may include in the order a statement to the effect that specified land held by the RTA is dedicated as a public road and, in that event, the statement is taken to be a notice published by the RTA under section 10 (1), and section 10 (2) has effect accordingly.

Commencement

The amendment to the Roads Act 1993 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment empowers the Minister administering the provisions of the Act relating to the classification of roads to dedicate as a public road such land held by the Roads and Traffic Authority as is specified in the order. Such an order may not be made otherwise than on the recommendation of the RTA. (Ministerial power to “declare”, on the recommendation of the RTA, any land vested in the RTA “to be” a public road or public reserve existed under section 58 (5) of the repealed State Roads Act 1986.)

The proposed amendment will also allow the one instrument both to dedicate the land as a public road and to classify it (as, for example, a main road or a tourist road).

1.12 South-west Tablelands Water Supply Administration Act 1941 No 36

[1] Section 12 Allocation of money

Omit the paragraph commencing “Thirdly,” from section 12 (2) (b).

[2] Section 12 (2) (b)

Omit “Fourthly,”. Insert instead “Thirdly,”.
Schedule 1  Minor amendments

[3]  Section 13 South-west Tablelands Water Supply Renewal Reserve Account

Omit the section.

[4]  Section 13A Accounts to be kept in Special Deposits Account

Omit “and the Renewal Reserve Account”.

Commencement

The amendments to the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Administration Act 1941 commence on a day to be appointed by proclamation.

Transitional

On the repeal of section 13 of the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Administration Act 1947, the balance in the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Renewal Reserve Account established under that section is to be transferred to the South-west Tablelands Water Supply Working Account established under section 12 of that Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments are similar to the amendments to the Fish River Water Supply Administration Act 1945 proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule. The explanatory note to those amendments is also applicable to these amendments.

1.13  Traffic Act 1909 No 5

[1]  Section 10AA Effect of disqualification

Omit section 10AA (1). Insert instead:

(1)  If, as a consequence of being convicted of an offence by a court, a person is disqualified (whether or not by an order of the court) from holding a driver’s licence, the disqualification operates to cancel, permanently, any driver’s licence held by the person at the time of his or her disqualification.
Section 18C Cancellation of licence or registration in default of payment of penalty

Omit “shall be deemed to be cancelled” from section 18C (6). Insert instead “is cancelled”.

Commencement
The amendments to the Traffic Act 1909 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
Before the amendment made to section 10AA (1) by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 1990, that section provided that, when a person was disqualified from holding a driver’s licence as a consequence of being convicted of an offence by a court, any driver’s licence held by the person “shall be deemed to have been cancelled”. The section required the person concerned to deliver any such licence to the Roads and Traffic Authority immediately after being convicted.

The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 1990 amended the section so as to require the convicted person, if present at the court with the licence, to surrender the licence to the court. If the person was not present at the court, or was present without the licence, the person was to surrender it to the Authority as soon as practicable.

As the amendment required the repeal and re-enactment of section 10AA, the opportunity was taken to replace the archaic expression “shall be deemed to have been cancelled” with “is to be regarded as being cancelled”. Some doubt has been expressed as to whether the licence that is “regarded as being cancelled is actually cancelled—that is, whether the cancellation continues beyond the expiry of the relevant period of the disqualification.

To remove that doubt, item (1) of the proposed amendments makes it clear that the disqualification effects a permanent cancellation of any licence concerned.

For the sake of consistency, item (2) of the proposed amendments replaces the phrase “shall be deemed to be cancelled” in section 18C (6) with the simple “is cancelled”.

Schedule 2 Amendments by way of statute law revision

2.1 Annual Reports (Departments) Act 1985 No 156

Section 6 Inclusion of other reports in annual reports
Omit “1988” from section 6 (2). Insert instead “1989”.

The proposed amendment inserts a missing word.

2.3 Bail Act 1978 No 161

Section 26 Power of District Court to grant bail
Omit “and” where secondly occurring in section 26 (1) (f). Insert instead “or”.

Commencement
The amendment to the Bail Act 1978 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
The proposed amendment corrects an incorrect conjunction.
2.4 Business Names Act 1962 No 11

[1] Section 7A Notice to be given of registration of certain names
Omit “it” wherever occurring in section 7A (1) and (3).
Insert instead “the Commissioner”.

[2] Section 10 Power to cancel registration of business names that are undesirable etc
Omit “its” from section 10 (2).
Insert instead “the Commissioner’s”.

Commencement
The amendments to the Business Names Act 1962 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
The proposed amendments correct incorrect grammar. (The impersonal pronoun “it” was correct in the past when the functions under the Business Names Act 1962 currently exercised by the Commissioner for Consumer Affairs were exercised by the Corporate Affairs Commission.)

2.5 Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act 1941 No 45

Section 2J Further extension of the definition of mine worker
Omit section 2J (14).

Commencement
The amendment to the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act 1947 is taken to have commenced on 1 February 1995.

Explanatory note

Explanatory note
Items (1) and (2) of the proposed amendments correct incorrect incorporating directions.
Item (3) repeals an amendment to section 2J (14) of the Coal and Oil Shale Mine Workers (Superannuation) Act 1941. (Section 2J (14) is repealed, with effect from the commencement of the amendment, elsewhere in this Schedule.)

2.7 Crimes Act 1900 No 40

[1] Section 52A Dangerous driving: substantive matters
Omit “grevious” from section 52A (5). Insert instead “grievous”.

[2] Section 52AA Dangerous driving: procedural matters
Omit “section” where secondly occurring in section 52AA (2). Insert instead “sections”.

2.8 Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Act 1989 No 7

Schedule 7 Purchase of land held under lease

Omit “, or formerly comprised,” from clause 4 of Part 2.

Commencement

The amendment to the Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Act 1989 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory Note

Item (9) (a) of the amendments to the Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Act 1989 in Schedule 3 to the Irrigation Corporations Act 1994 amended clause 1 of Schedule 4 (Subdivision of Holdings) to the Crown Lands (Continued Tenures) Act 1989 by omitting the words shown struck through below:

This Schedule applies to land comprised in any holding and to land in an irrigation area formerly comprised in a holding but, in either case, only if:

The proposed amendment is the consequential amendment required to be made to clause 4 of Part 2 of Schedule 7 to the Act. That clause provides that “Schedule 4 applies to and in respect of the land comprised, or formerly comprised, in an incomplete purchase under this Part”. Land formerly comprised in an incomplete purchase is not a “holding” for the purposes of the Act.

2.9 Fish Marketing Act 1994 No 37

Section 21 Deregulation—repeal of relevant provisions of Fisheries Act

Omit section 21 (2).

Commencement

The amendment to the Fish Marketing Act 1994 commences on the date of assent to this Act.
Explanatory note
The proposed amendment omits a provision that is no longer necessary. The subsection concerned provides for the repeal, effectively on 31 October 1997, of the Fish Marketing Regulation 1980. That Regulation was repealed on 31 October 1994 as a consequence of the sale of the Fish Marketing Authority.

2.10 Impounding Act 1993 No 31

Dictionary, definition of area of operations

Omit “a place or class of places for which it is declared by the order to be” from the matter next to the last dot point. Insert instead “the place or class of places for which the public authority is prescribed by the regulations as”.

Commencement
The amendment to the Impounding Act 1993 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
The proposed amendment replaces an incorrect reference to an order with a reference to the regulations and makes the language of the relevant part of the definition of area of operations consistent with that of the definition of impounding authority. The proposed amendment alters the final paragraph of the definition of area of operations as follows (matter to be omitted is shown struck through, and matter to be inserted is shown in square brackets):

*• in the case of an impounding officer appointed by a public authority prescribed by the regulations as an impounding authority, the place or class of places for which it is declared by the order to be an impounding authority.

2.13 Justices Act 1902 No 27

Section 145B Short description of certain offences

Insert after section 145B (2):

(3) An expression referred to in subsection (2) (a) may be prescribed by a regulation made under this Act or under the Act creating the offence concerned. The regulation-making powers conferred by Acts other than this Act are extended accordingly.

Commencement
The amendment to the Justices Act 1902 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note
The proposed amendment is of a machinery nature. Short descriptions are used for the purpose of facilitating the description of offences in informations, complaints, summonses, warrants, notices, orders and other documents. In particular, they are used in connection with penalty notices. Generally speaking, the prescription of an offence that may be dealt with by a penalty notice, and the penalty for the offence that may be imposed by a penalty notice, is done by means of a regulation under the Act giving rise to the offence. However, the prescription of the short description of the offence is done by means of a regulation under the Justices Act 1902. The proposed amendment will enable the short description of an offence to be done by means of a regulation under the Act giving rise to the offence. In the case of a penalty notice offence, the amendments will enable all provisions relevant to the offence to be prescribed in a single regulation.

(g1) [appeals under] section 44 or 202 of the Fisheries Management Act 1994, [and]

Amendments not fully effective (item (2))

Items (16) and (17) (among others) of Schedule 3 to the Act increase the current pay-roll tax general exemption annual threshold from 1 January 1996 (the date on which those amendments commence). At present, the amendments substitute “$575,000” for “$525,000” and “$600,000” for “$550,000” wherever the lesser amounts occur in Schedule 1 and Schedule 2, respectively, to the Pay-roll Tax Act 1971. However, those figures appear elsewhere in the Schedules (in the formulas for calculating pay-roll tax liability) without the dollar sign. Item (2) of the amendments proposed to be made by this Act removes that sign from the amendments to be made to the Pay-roll Tax Act 1971 to ensure that the figures are replaced everywhere they occur in the Schedules, whether or not they are accompanied by the dollar sign.

Incorrect cross-reference (item (3))

Insert “or (cl) (ii)” after “paragraph (c) (ii)” in section 9 (5) (d) (i).

Omit “or (c)” from clause 1 (d). Insert instead “, (c) or (cl)”.

Commencement
The amendments to the University of Technology, Sydney, Act 1989 are taken to have commenced on 12 December 1994.

Explanatory note
Composition of Council and term of office of members
Before the amendments made to section 9 (5) by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 1994, the Council of the University of Technology, Sydney, included only one student member. Those amendments (among other things) increased the student membership to 2—one undergraduate student member and one postgraduate student member. They did so by altering section 9 (5) (c) to apply to the undergraduate student member only and by inserting a paragraph similar to that paragraph (section 9 (5) (cl)) to apply to the postgraduate student member.
The unintended consequence of those amendments is that section 9 (5) (d) (i), which deals with certain other members of the Council and excludes (among others) “students having the qualifications referred to in paragraph (c) (ii)”, now excludes only undergraduate students, instead of (as before) both undergraduate and postgraduate students. Item (1) of the proposed amendments deals with that unintended consequence.

A similar amendment to clause 1 (d) of Schedule 1 (which provides for the term of office of certain members of the Council) is required to ensure that provision is made for the term of office of the postgraduate student member. Item (2) of the proposed amendments inserts the necessary cross-reference.

4.1 Building Services Corporation Act 1989 No 147

Schedule 4 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert after clause 19:

19A References to the Corporation and abolished Boards in other Acts and in instruments

(1) This clause applies to the following instruments:

   (a) any Act (other than this Act) assented to before 24 November 1989,

   (b) a statutory instrument made before that date under an Act,

   (c) any other kind of instrument made, issued or executed before that date.

(2) In an instrument to which this clause applies, a reference to:

   (a) the Builders Licensing Board or the Plumbers, Gasfitters and Drainers Board, or

   (b) the Building Services Corporation constituted by the Building Services Corporation Act 1987, is taken to include a reference to the Corporation.

(3) This clause is taken to have commenced on 24 November 1989.

(4) Subclauses (1)–(3) re-enact (with minor modification) clauses 2 and 5 of the Building Services Corporation (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 1989. Subclauses (1)–(3) are transferred provisions to which section 30A of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies.
Commencement

The amendment to the Building Services Corporation Act 1989 commences on the date of assent to this Act.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment inserts in Schedule 4 (Savings and transitional provisions) to the Building Services Corporation Act 1989 the substance of a transitional provision (of possible on-going effect) that is contained in the Building Services Corporation (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 1989. The enactment of clause 19A enables the repeal, by Schedule 5 to this Act, of that Regulation. In accordance with section 30A of the Interpretation Act 1987 (as proposed to be inserted by an amendment in Schedule 1 to this Act), the transfer does not affect the operation (if any) or interpretation of the clause.

Explanatory Note

The repeals are explained in detail in the explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that, when an amending Act is repealed, no amendment made by the Act is affected. Section 30 (2) also ensures that the following matters are not affected:

(a) the proof of any past act or thing,

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act,

(c) any validation made by the Act.
Schedule 6  General savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 5)

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

(1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 or 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act is, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

(2) In this clause:

amending provision means a provision of an Act, or of any other instrument, being a provision that has commenced and that makes a direct amendment to an Act by:

(a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or

(b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or

(c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments correcting errors in the technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting defects (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter) will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.
2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

(a) amends a provision of an Act, or

(b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly otherwise provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

3 Amendments removing gender-specific language

(1) The amendments made to an Act by Schedule 3 are made for the purposes of replacing gender-specific language with gender-neutral language. The amendments contained in that Schedule do not affect the construction or meaning of any Act.

(2) A Notice that was a copy of the Notice set forth in the Schedule to the Innkeepers Act 1968 before the amendment made to that Schedule by Schedule 3 to this Act is taken to be a copy of the Notice as so amended.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that amendments that are made solely for the purposes of removing gender-specific language from an Act do not have any unintended consequences. A similar provision to clause (1) is included in the Reprints Act 1972 (section 11).

Clause (2) is in the nature of a transitional provision. An innkeeper’s liability with respect to guests’ property is limited in certain circumstances if the innkeeper displays “a copy” of the Notice set out in the Schedule to the Innkeepers Act 1968 in the places and manner specified by that Act. The Notice is amended by Schedule 3 to this Act. Accordingly, clause (2) provides that a notice that met the requirements of the Innkeepers Act 1968 before that amendment is taken also to meet its requirements after the amendment.
4 Regulations

(1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

   (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or any authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

   (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note
This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.
