25 Driver must be licensed

(1) A person must not, unless exempted by the regulations:

(a) drive a motor vehicle on any road or road related area without being licensed for that purpose, or

(b) employ or permit any person not so licensed to drive a motor vehicle on any road or road related area.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units.
(2) A person who has never been licensed must not, unless exempted by the regulations, drive a motor vehicle on any road or road related area without being licensed for that purpose.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units (in the case of a first offence) or 30 penalty units or imprisonment for a period 18 months or both (in the case of a second or subsequent offence).

(3) If a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (2) (being a second or subsequent offence), the person is disqualified by the conviction (and without any specific order) for a period of 3 years from holding a driver licence. The disqualification is in addition to any penalty imposed for the offence.

Note. Section 26 of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 provides for the effect of a disqualification (whether or not by order of a court).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person has not been licensed in connection with an offence if the person has not held a driver licence (or equivalent) of any kind in Australia for the period of at least 5 years immediately before being convicted of the offence.

(5) An offence under this section is a second or subsequent offence for the purposes of this section if:

(a) it is the second or subsequent occasion on which the person is convicted of an offence against this section within the period of 5 years immediately before the person is convicted of the offence, or

(b) within the period of 5 years immediately before the person is convicted of the offence, the person was convicted of:

(i) an offence under section 6 (1C) or 7A of the Traffic Act 1909 (as in force before its repeal), or

(ii) an offence under section 25 (2).
(6) A person who has never been licensed cannot be convicted under both this section and section 25A in respect of driving on the same occasion. However, nothing in this section prevents the person from being convicted of an offence under section 25A in respect of driving that constitutes an offence under this section.

(7) A person cannot be convicted under both subsection (1) (a) and (2) in respect of driving on the same occasion. A person charged with an offence under subsection (2) can be convicted instead of an offence under subsection (1) (a), but a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) (a) cannot be convicted instead of an offence under subsection (2).

(8) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in respect of a light rail vehicle within the meaning of the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999.

25A Offences committed by disqualified drivers or drivers whose licences are suspended or cancelled

(1) A person who is disqualified by or under any Act from holding or obtaining a driver licence must not:

(a) drive a motor vehicle on a road or road related area during the period of disqualification, or

(b) make an application for a driver licence during the period of disqualification and in respect of the application state his or her name falsely or incorrectly or omit to mention the disqualification.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 months or both (in the case of a first offence) or 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or both (in the case of a second or subsequent offence).

(2) A person whose driver licence is suspended must not:

(a) drive on a road or road related area a motor vehicle of the class to which the suspended driver licence relates, or
(b) make an application for a driver licence during the period of suspension for a motor vehicle of the class to which the suspended driver licence relates and in respect of such an application state his or her name falsely or incorrectly or omit to mention the suspension.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 months or both (in the case of a first offence) or 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or both (in the case of a second or subsequent offence).

(3) A person whose application for a driver licence is refused or whose driver licence is cancelled must not:

(a) drive on a road or road related area a motor vehicle of the class to which the cancelled licence or the refused application related without having subsequently obtained a driver licence for a motor vehicle of that class, or

(b) make an application for a driver licence for a motor vehicle of the class to which the cancelled licence or the refused application related and in respect of the application state his or her name falsely or incorrectly or omit to mention the cancellation or refusal.

Maximum penalty: 30 penalty units or imprisonment for 18 months or both (in the case of a first offence) or 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years or both (in the case of a second or subsequent offence).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) (b), a person who applies for a driver licence for a class of motor vehicle need not mention a previous cancellation of a driver licence (or refusal of an application for a driver licence) for that class of motor vehicle if the person has obtained a driver licence after any such cancellation or refusal by means of an application that stated his or her name correctly and mentioned the cancellation or refusal.

(5) Subsections (1) and (3) (a) do not apply to the driving of a motor vehicle in circumstances prescribed by the regulations.

(6) An offence under this section is a second or subsequent offence for the purposes of this section if:
(a) it is the second or subsequent occasion on which the person is convicted of an offence against this section within the period of 5 years immediately before the person is convicted of the offence, or

(b) within the period of 5 years immediately before the person is convicted of the offence, the person was convicted of:

(i) a major offence within the meaning of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999, or

(ii) an offence under section 6 (1C) of the Traffic Act 1909 (as in force before its repeal), or

(iii) an offence under section 25 (2).

(7) If a person is convicted by a court of an offence under subsection (1), (2) or (3) (a), the person:

(a) is disqualified by the conviction (and without any specific order) for the relevant disqualification period from the date of expiration of the existing disqualification or suspension or from the date of such conviction, whichever is the later, from holding a driver licence, and

(b) may also be disqualified, for such additional period as the court may order, from holding a driver licence.

Note. Section 26 of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 provides for the effect of a disqualification (whether or not by order of a court).

(8) The disqualification referred to in subsection (7) is in addition to any penalty imposed for the offence.

(9) Subsections (1)–(3) apply to a person who is disqualified from holding a licence, or whose licence is suspended or cancelled, by a court in Australia or under any law in this State or another State or Territory.

(10) In this section, the relevant disqualification period is:

(a) in the case of a first offence under subsection (1)—12 months, or

(b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence under subsection (1)—2 years.

(a) to review the traffic arrangements in the State (including arrangements in connection with the movement, regulation and control of traffic and the parking of vehicles),
(b) to formulate or adopt plans and proposals for the improvement of those arrangements,

(c) to establish general standards and principles in connection with:
   (i) the design, construction, erection, affixing, marking, maintenance, repair, alteration, operation or removal of traffic control facilities, and
   (ii) the design of intersections and the approaches to them or the approaches to railway level crossings, for purposes connected with traffic safety and the movement, regulation and control of traffic,

(d) to promote traffic safety,

(e) to co-ordinate the activities of public authorities so far as those activities relate to:
   (i) the carrying out of plans and proposals formulated or adopted by the Authority for the improvement of traffic arrangements, or
   (ii) the design, construction, erection, affixing, marking, maintenance, repair, alteration, operation or removal of traffic control facilities, or
   (iii) traffic safety, or
   (iv) any other matter connected with the Authority’s functions under this Part.

(2) The Authority may:

(a) promote traffic safety measures or activities, including measures or activities for:
   (i) the safety and protection of the public, including pedestrians, on roads or road related areas, and
   (ii) the prevention of accidents on roads or road related areas, and
   (iii) the minimising of the effect of accidents on roads or road related areas, and
   (iv) the protection of property from damage from accidents on roads or road related areas, and
(b) promote or engage in the dissemination and publication by suitable media of advice and information resulting from research or otherwise for the education and guidance of, and observance by, drivers of or persons travelling in vehicles, or persons on roads or road related areas, or manufacturers of, repairers of, or dealers in, vehicles or vehicle parts, and

(c) make reports or recommendations to the Minister for Roads, or any other person or body, in relation to the following:

(i) traffic arrangements, and the movement, regulation and control of traffic, on roads or road related areas,

(ii) traffic planning,

(iii) traffic safety,

(iv) the parking of vehicles,

(v) the operation, maintenance or alteration of traffic control facilities,

(d) carry out or promote research or investigations into matters connected with any of the Authority’s functions under this Part including research or investigations into:

(i) traffic control facilities, and

(ii) the cause of accidents, their incidence and the ways and means that may be adopted for their prevention or for controlling or mitigating their effects.
[5] Part 6, Division 1C

Insert after section 53:

Division 1C Directions and recommendations to public authorities

53A Directions to public authorities

(1) The Authority may, from time to time, direct public authorities to implement plans or proposals formulated or adopted, general standards or general principles established, or other decisions made, by the Authority in the exercise of the Authority’s functions under this Part.

(2) The Authority may communicate directions under this section to such public authorities, and in such manner, as it thinks fit.

(3) While a direction communicated to a public authority under this section and applicable to its functions is in force, it is the duty of the public authority, by the exercise of its functions in accordance with law, to comply with the direction, except if to do so:

(a) would be impracticable because of emergency, accident or other special circumstances, or

(b) would affect the functions of any person or body with respect to the laying or making of any information or complaint, the continuance or discontinuance of any proceedings for an alleged offence or any other manner of dealing with an alleged offence.

(4) The failure of a public authority to comply with a direction of the Authority under this section does not invalidate any act, matter or thing to which the direction relates, and in particular does not invalidate the construction, erection, affixing or marking of any traffic control facility or any direction that is contained in or relates to the facility.

(5) A direction may be given under this section so as to apply generally or in any particular case or class of cases.

(6) The power to give a direction includes the power to amend or revoke a direction.
(7) The Authority may bring proceedings in the Supreme Court for an order to require a public authority to comply with a direction under this section.

(8) The Supreme Court may, in any such proceedings, make such order as it thinks fit.

53B Recommendations as to lighting of roads and road related areas

(1) The Authority may, for the purpose of promoting traffic safety, make recommendations to a public authority in relation to the public authority’s functions in connection with the lighting of roads or road related areas, including recommendations in relation to the following:

(a) general principles relating to the provision of lighting on roads or road related areas,

(b) the need for lighting on any particular road or road related area or part of a road or road related area,

(c) the need for the improvement of lighting on any particular road or road related area or part of a road or road related area.

(2) It is the duty of a public authority to which recommendations are made under this section to give them proper consideration and, as far as may be reasonably practicable, to carry them into effect.

53C Inter-relationship of Division with law relating to local government

(1) If the provisions of this Division are inconsistent with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1993 (or any statutory rule made under any Act), the provisions of this Division prevail.

(2) Nothing in this Division applies to or in respect of any sign, mark, structure or device containing or relating to a requirement or direction, contravention of which gives rise to an offence under the Local Government Act 1993 (or any regulation under that Act), but not under any other Act or regulation.
(3) Any person who or body which would not, but for this subsection, have the power to co-operate with, or do or perform any act or thing in conjunction with, the Authority is authorised by this section so to co-operate or do or perform the act or thing.

[6] Sections 80A–80C

Insert after section 80:

80A Payments of subsidies to councils for traffic route lighting

(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, grant annual subsidies to councils for the lighting, to a standard approved by the Authority, of traffic routes.

(2) Before granting any such subsidy the Authority may require a council to enter into an agreement with the Authority to secure the carrying out of the purposes for which, and the terms and conditions on and subject to which, the subsidy is granted.

80B Authority to make available money for subsidies

(1) In the period of 12 months commencing on 1 July each year, the Authority must make available the amount of subsidies that the Minister with the concurrence of the Treasurer estimates will be granted to councils under this Part in that period of 12 months.

(2) The Minister, before the commencement of each period of 12 months referred to in subsection (1), is to serve a notice on the Authority specifying the amount of the payment required.

(3) An amount payable under this section in any period of 12 months is to be paid in such sum or sums, at such time or times during that period and in such manner as the Minister may require in and by the notice referred to in subsection (2).

(4) The Authority may make the whole or any part of a payment required by this section out of the Roads and Traffic Authority Fund.
80C Payments of subsidies to electricity distributors for removal or relocation of electricity structures

(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, grant subsidies to an electricity distributor for or towards the cost of removing or relocating electricity structures erected, within the distribution district of the distributor, on or adjacent to public roads, being electricity structures which the Authority has determined require removal or relocation for the purposes of traffic safety.

(2) Before granting any such subsidy, the Authority may require an electricity distributor referred to in subsection (1) to enter into an agreement with the Authority to secure the carrying out of the purposes for which, and the terms and conditions upon and subject to which, the subsidy is granted.

80 Recommendations to public authorities under section 2H of repealed Act in respect of lighting

Any recommendation made by the Authority to a public authority under section 2H of the repealed Act that was in force immediately before the repeal of that Act is taken to be a recommendation made to the public authority under section 53B of this Act.

81 Subsidies granted but not paid under Part 3C or 3D of repealed Act

(1) Any subsidy granted to a council under Part 3C of the repealed Act that is still payable to the council immediately before the repeal of that Act is taken to be a subsidy granted and payable to the council under the corresponding provisions of Division 3 of Part 8 of this Act (as amended by the amending Act).

(2) Any subsidy granted to an electricity distributor under Part 3D of the repealed Act that is still payable to the council immediately before the repeal of that Act is taken to be a subsidy granted and payable to the electricity distributor under the corresponding provisions of Division 3 of Part 8 of this Act (as amended by the amending Act).
82 Running of subsidy periods under section 10Z of repealed Act

If a period of 12 months commencing on a 1 July commenced under section 10Z of the repealed Act had not expired immediately before the repeal of that section, section 80B applies to the unexpired period as if it had been in force when the period of 12 months first commenced.

4.1 Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 No 99

[1] Section 14 Demerit points register

Omit “who does not hold an Australian driver licence” from section 14 (3).
Insert instead “(whether or not a person holds an Australian driver licence)”.

[2] Section 14 (4)

Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), if a person applies for a driver licence (including for the renewal of a licence) having incurred 12 or more demerit points within a 3 year period ending on the day on which the applicant last committed an offence for which demerit points have been recorded against the applicant:

(a) the Authority may refuse the person’s application and take action under section 16A, or
(b) the Authority may grant the licence and take action under section 16 or 16A.

[3] Section 16 Consequences of incurring demerit points

Omit section 16 (3):

(3) Despite subsection (2), the Authority is not required to take action under that subsection if it is of the opinion:

(a) that it would be unreasonable to do so, having regard to the date when any relevant offence was committed, or
(b) it would be more appropriate for the person to be dealt with under section 14 (4) and 16A.
[4] Section 16 (8)

Omit “within 21 days after being served with a notice of licence suspension by the Authority, notify the Authority in writing”.

Insert instead “after being served with a notice of licence suspension by the Authority (but before the commencement of the period of suspension), notify the Authority in a form approved by the Authority”.

[5] Section 16A

Insert after section 16:

16A Ineligibility to apply for driver licences by persons incurring demerit points

   (1) Licence ineligibility for demerit points

   The Authority may give a notice of licence ineligibility to the applicant for a licence (not being a provisional licence or learner licence) who incurs 12 or more demerit points within the 3 year period ending on the day on which the person last committed an offence for which demerit points have been recorded against the person.

   Note. Provisional licence holders are dealt with in section 17.

   (2) However, the Authority may not give a person both a notice of licence ineligibility and a notice of licence suspension under section 16 in respect of the same 3 year period.

   (3) The notice of licence ineligibility must specify the date on which the ineligibility is to take effect (not being a date that is earlier than the date on which the notice is given) and must contain any other matters specified by the regulations. If the notice is delivered to the applicant personally, the specified date is taken to be the date on which it is so delivered unless the notice provides for a later date.
(4) The period of licence ineligibility under subsection (1) is the period applicable under the following table:

Table

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Licence ineligibility for demerit points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Column 1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Number of demerit points incurred within previous 3 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12 to 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16 to 19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20 or more</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

(5) If a person who has been served with a notice of licence ineligibility does not make an election under subsection (7), the person is not entitled:

(a) to be issued with a driver licence for the ineligibility period applicable under this section from the date specified in the notice, and

(b) to apply for a driver licence for that period.

(6) On the commencement of an ineligibility period or a period of good behaviour (see subsection (7)), all demerit points recorded in the demerit points register against the person at the date of the notice are taken to be deleted.

(7) Alternative to ineligibility

A person who incurs at least 12 demerit points within the 3 year period ending on the day on which the person last committed an offence for which demerit points have been recorded against the person may notify the Authority in a form approved by the Authority that he or she elects, as an alternative to undergoing the ineligibility period, to be of good behaviour for a period of 12 months from the day on which the licence ineligibility would otherwise have had effect.
(8) If a person who makes an election in accordance with subsection (7) incurs 2 or more demerit points during the 12 months’ good behaviour period:

(a) the Authority must give the person a notice suspending the person’s driver licence, commencing on a day specified in the notice, for twice the period that would have applied to the person under this section if the person had not made the election, and

(b) the person’s driver licence is suspended for that period from the date specified in the notice.

(9) On the commencement of the period of suspension referred to in subsection (8), all demerit points recorded in the demerit points register against the person at the date of the notice, and taken into account for the purpose of the notice, are taken to be deleted.

(10) Despite subsections (6) and (9), demerit points incurred by a person:

(a) after the person is served with a notice of licence ineligibility but before the licence ineligibility takes effect, or

(b) if the person makes an election in accordance with subsection (7), after the person is served with the notice of licence ineligibility and before the 12 months’ period of good behaviour begins, are not taken to be deleted under this section when the licence ineligibility takes effect or period of good behaviour begins and are to be taken into account for the purposes of subsection (1) from the end of the licence ineligibility or period of good behaviour.

(11) Nothing in subsection (7) or (10) prevents the Authority from retaining records of deleted demerit points incurred by any person.
[6] Section 33 Cancellation and suspension of driver licences by Authority in respect of speeding offences

Omit “cancelled” and “cancel” from section 33 (1) and (2) wherever occurring.
Insert instead “cancelled or suspended” and “cancel or suspend” respectively.

[7] Section 33 (3A)

Insert after section 33 (3):
(3A) If a person’s driver licence is suspended by the Authority under this section, the person’s licence is suspended for such period as may be determined by the Authority and specified in a notice served on the person by the Authority.

[8] Section 33 (5)

Insert “or (5BA)” after “(5B)” wherever occurring.

[9] Section 33A

Insert after section 33:

33A Effect of expiry of driver licence during a suspension period

If the driver licence of a person expires during a period of suspension for the licence imposed under section 16, 16A or 33:
(a) the person cannot apply to the Authority for another driver licence during the unexpired portion of the suspension period, and
(b) the person’s driver licence is taken to be suspended during the unexpired portion of the suspension period for the purposes of any offence provision under this Act or any other law in relation to driving a vehicle while a person’s driver licence is suspended.

[10] Section 34 Unpaid fees and charges

Insert “or charges” after “fees”.

Page 90

Insert after Part 2:

Part 3 Provisions consequent on enactment of Schedule 4 to Road Transport Legislation Amendment Act 1999

9 Validation—licence granted with good behaviour condition granted as alternative to licence refusal

Any election made by the holder of a driver licence before the commencement of Schedule 4.1 to the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998 to be of good behaviour for a specified period as an alternative to having his or her application for a licence refused by the Authority:

(a) is validated to the extent of any invalidity if the election would have been valid had section 14 (as amended) and 16A been in force at the time the election was made, and

(b) is taken for all purposes to have been an election made under section 16A.

4.2 Road Transport (Vehicle Registration) Act 1997 No 119

Section 15 Regulations to establish registration system

Insert after section 15 (2) (e):

(e1) provide for the waiver or postponement (or partial waiver or postponement), in accordance with the regulations, of the registration fees for a registrable vehicle under this Act or for fees for an unregistered vehicle permit, and
4.3 Subordinate Legislation Act 1989 No 146

[1] Section 10 Staged repeal of statutory rules

Omit “1 September 1999” from section 10 (4). Insert instead “1 December 1999”.

[2] Schedule 3 Matters not requiring regulatory impact statements

Insert after clause 4:

4A. Matters involving the substantial implementation of the Heavy Vehicles Agreement or the Light Vehicles Agreement set out in the National Road Transport Commission Act 1991 of the Commonwealth that have been the subject of regulatory assessment in accordance with the Agreement.

4.4 Traffic Act 1909 No 5

Section 10AA Effect of disqualification

Omit section 10AA (2). Insert instead:

(2) A disqualification to hold an Australian driver licence (within the meaning of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998) held under a law in force in another State or internal Territory by a person who holds a driver licence issued in this State is, for the purposes of subsection (1), to be treated as if it were a disqualification to hold the driver licence issued in this State.

(2A) A person who is so disqualified must:

(a) if present at the court (being a court in this State) and in possession of his or her driver licence—surrender the licence to the court immediately after being convicted, or

(b) if present at the court (being a court in this State) but not in possession of the licence or if not present at the court—surrender the licence to the Authority as soon as practicable after being convicted, or
(c) if the person is to be treated under subsection (2) as having been disqualified from holding a driver licence issued in this State—surrender the licence to the Authority as soon as practicable after being disqualified from holding the Australian driver licence referred to in that subsection.
