An Act to amend the Real Property Act 1900 and other legislation to make further provision with respect to indefeasibility of title, compensation, identification requirements and duties of mortgagees; and for other purposes. [Assented to 13 May 2009]
The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Real Property and Conveyancing Legislation Amendment Act 2009.

2 Commencement

(1) This Act commences on the date of assent to this Act, except as provided by subsection (2).

(2) The following provisions commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation:

(a) Schedule 1 [4], [6] and [7],

(b) Schedule 2 [4].
Schedule 1  Amendment of Real Property Act 1900 No 25

[1] Section 12D
Insert after section 12C:

12D Registrar-General’s Directions
(1) For the purposes of this Act, the Registrar-General may provide information and guidance with respect to the following (to be known as the Registrar-General’s Directions):
   (a) the completion of approved forms,
   (b) the preparation and lodgment of documents and plans for registration or recording,
   (c) any other matters that the Registrar-General considers appropriate.

(2) The Registrar-General’s Directions are to be published on the internet or made available through any other means determined by the Registrar-General.

[2] Section 42 Estate of registered proprietor paramount
Insert after section 42 (2):

(3) This section prevails over any inconsistent provision of any other Act or law unless the inconsistent provision expressly provides that it is to have effect despite anything contained in this section.

[3] Section 49 Cancellation of recordings of easements after abandonment, consolidation of tenements or release
Omit section 49 (4). Insert instead:

(4) Before cancelling any such recording, the Registrar-General must:
   (a) serve a notice of intention to cancel the recording, personally or by post, on:
      (i) where the instrument creating the easement does not allow the identification of the land benefited by the easement—any person that the Registrar-General considers should receive such a notice taking into consideration the nature and location of the easement, the circumstances surrounding the creation of the easement and the physical characteristics of any relevant land, or
(ii) in any other case—all persons having a registered estate or interest in land benefited by the easement, and

(b) consider any submission made by those persons (but only if the submission is made by the date specified in the notice, being a date later than one month from the date on which the notice is served).

(4A) However, the Registrar-General may give notice of the intention to cancel a recording to some or all of the persons referred to in subsection (4) (a) by advertisement in a newspaper rather than by personal or postal service if the Registrar-General is of the opinion that:

(a) it is appropriate in the circumstances to give notice by advertisement in a newspaper, and

(b) the relevant easement is unlikely to be of real benefit to the land benefited by the easement because the land benefited is no longer connected to the land burdened by the easement in a way that allows access to the site of the easement.

[4] Section 56C

Insert after section 56B:

56C Confirmation of identity of mortgagor

(1) Mortgagee must confirm identity of mortgagor

Before presenting a mortgage for lodgment under this Act, the mortgagee must take reasonable steps to ensure that the person who executed the mortgage, or on whose behalf the mortgage was executed, as mortgagor is the same person who is, or is to become, the registered proprietor of the land that is security for the payment of the debt to which the mortgage relates.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the mortgagee is to be considered as having taken reasonable steps to ensure the identity of the mortgagor under subsection (1) if the mortgagee has taken the steps prescribed by the regulations.

(3) Record-keeping requirements

A mortgagee must keep the following for a period of 7 years from the date of registration of the mortgage under this Act (or for such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations):

(a) a written record of the steps taken by the mortgagee to comply with subsection (1),
(b) a copy of any document obtained by the mortgagee to comply with subsection (1).

(4) Mortgagee to answer questions and produce documents

The Registrar-General, in determining whether or not this section has been complied with, may at any time require the mortgagee:

(a) to answer questions in relation to the steps taken by the mortgagee to comply with subsection (1), and

(b) to produce for inspection any records kept under subsection (3).

(5) If a person fails to comply with a requirement made under subsection (4), the Registrar-General may:

(a) in relation to a registered mortgage—make a recording in the Register, with respect to the relevant land, to that effect, and

(b) in relation to a mortgage that has not been registered—refuse to register, or reject, the mortgage in accordance with section 39 (1A) or refuse to make any recording or entry in the Register or take any other action in respect of the mortgage.

(6) Cancellation of recordings in the Register

The Registrar-General may cancel, in such manner as the Registrar-General considers appropriate, any recording in the Register with respect to a mortgage if the Registrar-General is of the opinion:

(a) that the execution of the mortgage involved fraud against the registered proprietor of the mortgaged land, and

(b) that the mortgagee:

(i) has failed to comply with subsection (1), or

(ii) had actual or constructive notice that the mortgagor was not the same person as the person who was, or was about to become, the registered proprietor of the land that is security for the payment of the debt to which the mortgage relates.

(7) Before cancelling a recording of a mortgage in the Register under subsection (6), the Registrar-General must give notice of the proposed cancellation to the mortgagee and may also give notice to any other person that the Registrar-General considers should be notified of the cancellation. Section 12A (2) and (3) apply to and with respect to a notice given under this section.
(8) Application to transferee of a mortgage

This section applies to the transferee of a mortgage in the same way that it applies to a mortgagee (that is, requiring the transferee of a mortgage to take reasonable steps to ensure that the person who executed the mortgage as mortgagor is the same person who is, or is about to become, the registered proprietor of the land that is security for the payment of the debt to which the mortgage relates). Accordingly, a reference in this section to:

(a) the presentation of a mortgage includes a reference to the presentation of a transfer of mortgage, and

(b) the mortgagee includes a reference to the transferee of the mortgage, and

(c) the date of the registration of the mortgage includes a reference to the date of registration of the transfer of mortgage.

[5] Section 106

Omit the section. Insert instead:

106 Execution of instruments by corporations

For the purposes of this Act, the provisions of sections 127–129 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth are taken to apply to the execution of instruments as if:

(a) those provisions formed part of this Act, and

(b) any reference in those provisions to a company were a reference to a corporation that is not a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

Note. Sections 127–129 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth apply to companies under that Act as a matter of federal law.

[6] Section 117 Certificate of correctness

Omit section 117 (1) (b). Insert instead:

(b) a certificate (signed by each witness to the execution of the application, dealing or caveat) to the effect that:

(i) the witness is an eligible witness, and

(ii) the application, dealing or caveat was executed by the person to whose execution of the application, dealing or caveat the witness is attesting in the presence of the witness.
[7] Section 117 (4) and (5)
Insert after section 117 (3):

(4) In this section, eligible witness, in relation to the execution of an application, dealing or caveat, means a person who:
   (a) is at least 18 years of age, and
   (b) is not a party to the application, dealing or caveat, and
   (c) has known the person to whose execution of the application, dealing or caveat the witness is attesting for more than 12 months or has taken reasonable steps to ensure the identity of that person.

(5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4) (c), a witness is to be considered as having taken reasonable steps to ensure the identity of the person to whose execution of the application, dealing or caveat the witness is attesting if the person has taken the steps prescribed by the regulations.

[8] Section 120 Proceedings for compensation
Omit “may take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of damages” from section 120 (1).
Insert instead “may commence proceedings in the Supreme Court for the recovery of damages”.

[9] Section 120 (2)
Insert “only” after “taken”.

[10] Section 127 Barring of actions where claimant on notice
Insert after section 127 (3):

(4) Proceedings based on the abandonment of an easement do not lie against the Registrar-General where the person alleging loss from that abandonment, or any previous registered proprietor of the land benefited by that easement:
   (a) had notice (by personal service or otherwise) or was otherwise aware that the Registrar-General intended to cancel a recording relating to the easement in the Register, and
   (b) had omitted to lodge a caveat forbidding the grant of the application or had allowed such a caveat to lapse.

(5) Proceedings based on the correction of the Register in accordance with this Act by the Registrar-General do not lie against the Registrar-General where the person alleging loss from that correction:

(a) had notice (by personal service or otherwise) or was otherwise aware that the Registrar-General intended to correct the Register, and

(b) had failed to serve on the Registrar-General or give the Registrar-General written notice of an order made by the Supreme Court restraining the action.

[11] Section 128 Definitions

Insert in alphabetical order in section 128 (1):

insurer means a professional indemnity insurer and any other person who carries on an insurance business within the meaning of the Insurance Act 1973 of the Commonwealth.

[12] Section 129 Circumstances in which compensation payable

Omit “licensed conveyancer or real estate agent” from section 129 (2) (b) (i). Insert instead “licensed conveyancer, real estate agent or information broker”.

[13] Section 129 (2) (e)–(i)

Omit “to the extent to which” wherever occurring. Insert instead “where”.

[14] Section 129 (2) (j)–(o)

Insert at the end of section 129 (2) (i):

, or

(j) where the loss or damage arises from the person’s failure, as mortgagee or transferee of a mortgage, to comply with section 56C or from the cancellation of a recording with respect to a mortgage in accordance with section 56C (6), or

(k) where the loss or damage arises from the recording of a Registrar-General’s caveat in the Register under section 12 (1) (e) or (f) or the removal of such a caveat by the Registrar-General, or

(l) where the loss or damage arises from the execution of an instrument by an attorney (under a power of attorney) acting contrary to, or outside of, the authority conferred on him or her by the power of attorney, or

(m) where the loss or damage is the result of an easement not being recorded in the Register (except where the easement is not recorded in the Register due to an error of the Registrar-General, or
(n) where the loss or damage arises from the improper exercise of a power of sale, or
(o) where the loss or damage arises from the operation of section 129 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

Insert after section 129 (3):

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2) (m), an error of the Registrar-General does not extend to the Registrar-General’s failure, in relation to the creation of a qualified folio of the Register under Part 4A, to make searches or inquiries as to the existence of any easement.

(5) The entitlement to compensation under subsection (1) does not confer any entitlement to compensation for personal injury.

(6) In this section, information broker means a person who has entered into an agreement with the Registrar-General to make information in the Register available in accordance with the conditions determined by the Registrar-General under section 96B (2).

[16] Sections 129A and 129B
Insert after section 129:

129A Limits on amount recoverable generally
The total compensation that is payable under this Part, in relation to loss or damage suffered by a person as a result of the person being deprived of land or any estate or interest in land, is limited to the market value of the land at the date on which compensation is awarded to that person plus any legal, valuation or other professional costs reasonably incurred by the person in making the claim.

129B Limits on amount recoverable in respect of mortgage obtained by fraud
(1) This section applies only in circumstances where:
(a) a claim for compensation is made as a result of the registration of a mortgage and the execution of the mortgage involved, in the opinion of the Registrar-General, fraud against a registered proprietor of the mortgaged land, and

(b) a person would be entitled to compensation under this Part for deprivation of the mortgaged land as a consequence of fraud if the position of that person is not otherwise rectified, and

(c) as a result of the registration of the mortgage, the mortgagee is entitled to exercise a power of sale in respect of the land mortgaged.

(2) Section 129A does not apply in the circumstances in which this section applies.

(3) The total compensation that is payable to a mortgagee is limited to the market value of the land at the date on which compensation is awarded to the mortgagee less the amount secured by any other mortgage affecting the same land (including a mortgage that is registered as a result of fraud) that has, or would have had, more priority.

(4) Subsections (5) and (6):

(a) apply to limit the interest and costs components of a claim, and

(b) apply despite anything to the contrary in the mortgage (including any associated document).

(5) The rate of interest to be applied in calculating the interest component of a claim on any particular day must not exceed:

(a) if the interest rate specified in the mortgage is no greater than the official cash rate applicable on that day plus 2%—the interest rate specified in the mortgage, or

(b) if the interest rate specified in the mortgage is greater than the official cash rate applicable on that day plus 2%—the official cash rate plus 2%.

(6) The costs component (being the costs incurred by the mortgagee in relation to the mortgage) of a claim is limited to the reasonable costs incurred by the mortgagee in directly protecting the mortgagee’s interest in respect of the land mortgaged.

(7) In this section, official cash rate means the official cash rate specified by the Reserve Bank of Australia.

[17] Section 131 Administrative proceedings for recovery of compensation

Insert “(including information verified by statutory declaration)” after “information” in section 131 (7) (a).
[18] Section 131 (7A)
Insert after section 131 (7):

(7A) Without limiting subsection (6), the following information is information that is required to enable the Registrar-General to assess the validity of a claim, assess compensable loss and make an informed offer of compensation:

(a) details of any potential claims that the claimant may have against other parties to which the Registrar-General may be subrogated,

(b) details of any proceedings relating to the circumstances which gave rise to the claim (including the outcome of any such proceedings and whether any party to the proceedings has subrogated another person).

[19] Section 131 (8A)
Insert after section 131 (8):

(8A) Without limiting the power of the Registrar-General to refuse a claim in accordance with subsection (4), the Registrar-General may refuse a claim on the ground that a claimant has failed to comply with a request made under subsection (7) if:

(a) the request was made by notice in writing, and

(b) at least 2 months have elapsed since the notice was given to the claimant.

[20] Section 131 (9)
Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

(9) For the purposes of section 132, a claim is taken to have been refused if it is not determined within 12 months after the claim was made. However, if at the end of that period the claimant has failed to provide information in fulfilment of the duty imposed by subsection (6), the claim is only taken to have been refused if it is not determined within 2 months after that information is provided.

[21] Section 132 Court proceedings for the recovery of compensation
Omit section 132 (2). Insert instead:

(2) Any such court proceedings may only be commenced:

(a) if administrative proceedings have been commenced and determined in relation to the compensable loss, or
(b) by leave of the court or with the consent of the Registrar-General.

(2A) Court proceedings commenced in accordance with subsection (2) (a) must be commenced within 3 months of the date on which the administrative proceedings have been determined in relation to the compensable loss.

[22] Section 132 (3)
Omit “12 months referred to in subsection (2) (b)”.
Insert instead “3 months referred to in subsection (2A)”.

[23] Section 132 (5)
Insert “(less any interest awarded in relation to the period after the date of the offer)” after “by the court”.

[24] Section 132 (6)–(8)
Insert after section 132 (5):

(6) If court proceedings are commenced following the refusal of a claim in accordance with section 131 (8A):
   (a) the claimant’s costs in the court proceedings are not payable by the Registrar-General, and
   (b) the Registrar-General’s costs are payable by the claimant, and
   (c) the claimant is not entitled to any interest in respect of the amount of compensation claimed from the date of the notice referred to in section 131 (8A), unless the court orders otherwise.

(7) If court proceedings are commenced with the leave of the court or the consent of the Registrar-General under subsection (2), the claimant must co-operate fully with the Registrar-General for the purpose of ensuring that the Registrar-General has sufficient information to be able:
   (a) to assess the validity of the claim, and
   (b) to assess the claimant’s compensable loss, and
   (c) to make an informed offer of compensation.

(8) If a claimant fails to comply with subsection (7):
   (a) the claimant’s costs in the court proceedings are not payable by the Registrar-General, and
(b) the Registrar-General’s costs are payable by the claimant, and
(c) where the Registrar-General has requested information in accordance with subsection (7) in writing—the claimant is not entitled to any interest on the claim from the date of that notice, unless the court orders otherwise.

[25] Section 133 Subrogation of rights to claim compensation
Omit “A professional indemnity insurer” from section 133 (1).
Insert instead “An insurer”.

[26] Section 133 (2)
Omit the subsection. Insert instead:
(2) If administrative proceedings or court proceedings are commenced in relation to a claimant’s compensable loss, the Registrar-General is subrogated to the claimant in respect of the claimant’s rights and remedies against any person in relation to that loss.

[27] Section 133 (5)
Omit “Legal Profession Act 1987”.
Insert instead “Legal Profession Act 2004”.

[28] Section 133A
Insert after section 133:

133A Repayment of certain amounts
(1) If a claimant:
(a) receives a payment from the Torrens Assurance Fund in respect of the claim, and
(b) receives or recovers from another source or sources a payment on account of the compensable loss, and
(c) there is a surplus after deducting the amount of the compensable loss from the total amount received or recovered by the claimant from both or all sources, the amount of the surplus is a debt payable by the claimant to the Torrens Assurance Fund.
(2) However, the amount payable by the claimant cannot exceed the amount the claimant received from the Torrens Assurance Fund in respect of the claim.

[29] Section 138A

Insert after section 138:

138A Registrar-General may take steps to rectify Register in case of fraud

(1) The Registrar-General may, in relation to the settlement of a claim in accordance with section 135, take any of the steps set out in subsection (2) that are required to rectify the Register (including by registering a person as proprietor of land) if the Registrar-General is satisfied that:

(a) the person has been deprived of land, or an estate or interest in land, as a result of fraud, and

(b) the current registered proprietor acquired the estate or interest in land through fraud.

(2) The Registrar-General may do one or more of the following:

(a) cancel or amend a folio of the Register,

(b) cancel, amend or make a recording in a folio of the Register,

(c) create a new folio of the Register,

(d) create a new edition of a computer folio,

(e) issue a new certificate of title.

(3) The Registrar-General may, if he or she considers it appropriate to do so, require the current registered proprietor to deliver up the certificate of title for the purpose of it being cancelled, by notice in writing to the current registered proprietor.

(4) If the current registered proprietor fails to respond to such a notice within a reasonable time or cannot be found for the giving of such a notice, the Registrar-General may, if the Registrar-General considers it appropriate, dispense with the production of the certificate of title or take action under the authority conferred upon the Registrar-General by section 111 (3).
[30] Schedule 3 Savings and transitional provisions

Insert at the end of clause 1 (1):

Real Property and Conveyancing Legislation Amendment Act 2009

Schedule 3, Part 8

Insert at the end of the Schedule:

Part 8 Real Property and Conveyancing Legislation Amendment Act 2009

20 Definition

In this Part, amending Act means the Real Property and Conveyancing Legislation Amendment Act 2009.

21 Confirmation of identity of mortgagor

Section 56C, as inserted by the amending Act, does not apply in respect of any mortgages accepted for lodgment before the insertion of that section.

22 Limits on compensation payable from Torrens Assurance Fund

Sections 129A and 129B, as inserted by the amending Act, do not apply in respect of claims lodged before the insertion of those sections but extend to claims lodged after such insertion regardless of whether the loss or damage occurred before or after such insertion.

23 Time limits for commencement of proceedings for the recovery of compensation

Section 132 (2), (2A) and (3), as substituted, inserted and amended, respectively, by the amending Act, do not apply in relation to a matter if administrative proceedings were determined in that matter before the substitution, insertion or amendment.
Schedule 2 Amendment of Conveyancing Act 1919 No 6

[1] Section 23G Exceptions to section 23F
Insert after section 23G (b):

(b1) a transaction, initiated by the Crown, that redefines a boundary of Crown land that was brought under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1900 on the application of the Registrar-General under section 13D of that Act,

[2] Section 89 Power of Court to modify or extinguish easements, profits à prendre and certain covenants
Insert after section 89 (1):

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1) (b), an easement may be treated as abandoned if the Court is satisfied that the easement has not been used for at least 20 years before the application under subsection (1) is made.

[3] Section 89 (5)
Omit the subsection. Insert instead:

(5) An order under this section that is registered in accordance with this section is binding on persons (whether or not of full age or capacity and whether or not such persons are parties to the proceedings or have been served with notice) who:

(a) are, or become, entitled to the easement or profit à prendre or interested in enforcing the restriction or obligation, and

(b) have, or obtain, an estate or interest in the land burdened by the easement, profit à prendre, restriction or obligation.

[4] Section 111A
Insert after section 111:

111A Duties of mortgagees and chargees in respect of sale price of land

(1) A mortgagee or chargee, in exercising a power of sale in respect of mortgaged or charged land, must take reasonable care to ensure that the land is sold for:

(a) if the land has an ascertainable market value when it is sold—not less than its market value, or

(b) in any other case—the best price that may reasonably be obtained in the circumstances.
(2) Subsection (1) applies to an agent appointed by a mortgagee or chargee to sell the mortgaged or charged land in the same way as it applies to a mortgagee or chargee exercising a power of sale in respect of mortgaged or charged land.

(3) Nothing in section 112 (7) or 115 (2) of this Act, or in section 58 (1) of the Real Property Act 1900, affects the duty imposed by this section.

(4) The title of the purchaser cannot be challenged on the ground that the mortgagee or chargee has committed a breach of any duty imposed by this section, but a person who suffers loss or damage as a result of the breach of the duty has a remedy in damages against the mortgagee or chargee exercising the power of sale or selling the land.

(5) This section has effect despite any stipulation to the contrary.

(6) Nothing in this section affects the operation of any rule of law relating to the duty of the mortgagee or chargee to account to the mortgagor or chargor.

(7) This section applies to mortgages and charges whether made before or after the commencement of this section but only in relation to a sale arising as a consequence of a default occurring after the commencement of this section.

(8) This section extends to mortgages and charges under the Real Property Act 1900.
