Schedule 1  Savings, transitional and other provisions  9

Schedule 2  Amendment of Acts relating to relationship register  10

Schedule 3  Amendment of Acts and instruments relating to de facto partners  13
An Act with respect to the registration of de facto relationships; and for other purposes. [Assented to 19 May 2010]
The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act
   This Act is the Relationships Register Act 2010.

2 Commencement
   (1) This Act commences on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation, except as provided by subsection (2).
   (2) Schedule 2.2 and Schedule 3 commence on the date of assent to this Act.

3 Object of Act
   The object of this Act is to provide for the legal recognition of persons in a relationship as a couple, regardless of their sex, by registration of the relationship.

4 Definitions
   (1) In this Act:
       adult means a person of or above the age of 18 years.
       corresponding law means a law of another State or a Territory providing for the registration or recognition of relationships that is prescribed by the regulations.
       interstate registered relationship—see section 16.
       Register means the Register established under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.
       registered relationship means a relationship that is registered under this Act.
       Registrar means the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages within the meaning of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995.
   (2) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.
Part 2  Registration of relationships

5  Eligibility for registration

(1) Two adults who are in a relationship as a couple, regardless of their sex, may apply to the Registrar for registration of their relationship.

(2) A relationship cannot be registered unless at least one of the adults resides in New South Wales.

(3) A relationship cannot be registered if:
   (a) either adult is married, or
   (b) either adult is registered under this Act or a corresponding law as being in a registered relationship or an interstate registered relationship, or
   (c) either adult is in a relationship as a couple with another person, or
   (d) the adults are related by family.

(4) Two adults are related by family if:
   (a) one is the child (including an adopted child) of the other, or
   (b) one is another descendant of the other (even if the relationship between them is traced through an adoptive parent), or
   (c) they have a parent in common (including an adoptive parent of either or both of them).

(5) Subsection (4) applies:
   (a) even if an adoption has been declared void or is of no effect, and
   (b) to adoptions under the law of any place (whether in or out of Australia) relating to the adoption of children.

6  Applications for registration

An application for registration of a relationship is to be made in the form approved by the Registrar and must be accompanied by the following:

(a) a statutory declaration by each person in the relationship stating the following:
   (i) that the person wishes to register the relationship,
   (ii) that the person is in a relationship as a couple with the other person,
   (iii) that the person is not married,
   (iv) that the person is not registered under this Act or a corresponding law as being in a registered relationship or an interstate registered relationship,
Section 7  Relationships Register Act 2010 No 19

Part 2  Registration of relationships

(v) that the person is not in a relationship as a couple with a person other than the other applicant,
(vi) that the person does or does not reside in New South Wales,
(vii) that the person is not related to the other applicant by family,
(b) evidence of the identity and age of each person in the relationship,
(c) the fee prescribed by the regulations,
(d) any other documents and information prescribed by the regulations.

7 Registrar may require further information

The Registrar may require applicants for registration of a relationship to provide any further information that the Registrar requires to determine the application.

8 Cooling off period for registration

(1) The Registrar must not register a relationship before the end of the cooling off period for the registration application.

(2) An applicant for registration of a relationship may withdraw the application before the relationship is registered by giving the Registrar a withdrawal notice in the form approved by the Registrar.

(3) The cooling off period for a registration application is the period ending 28 days after the application is made.

9 Determination of registration applications

The Registrar must register a relationship in the Register as soon as practicable after the end of the cooling off period, if the Registrar is satisfied that the relationship may be registered under this Act and the application has not been withdrawn.

Note. Part 8 of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 provides for the registration of relationships in the Register, including correction of the Register, access to information in the Register and the issue of certificates and other services provided by the Registrar relating to registrable events.
Part 3 End of registration of relationships

10 Revocation of registration by events

The registration of a registered relationship is revoked in the following circumstances:
(a) on the death of a person in the relationship,
(b) on the marriage of a person in the relationship.

11 Applications for revocation of registration by parties

(1) One or both persons in a registered relationship may apply to the Registrar to revoke the registration of the relationship.

(2) The application is to be in the form approved by the Registrar and to be accompanied by the following:
(a) a statutory declaration by at least one of the persons stating that the person wishes to revoke the registration,
(b) if only one person makes the application, proof of service of notice of the application on the other person and particulars of that notice,
(c) the fee prescribed by the regulations,
(d) any other documents and information prescribed by the regulations.

(3) The Registrar may dispense with the obligation to give notice of the application to the other person, or approve alternative means of giving notice, if the Registrar is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to give notice of the application in the manner required by or under this Act.

12 Cooling off period for revocation applications

(1) The Registrar must not revoke the registration of a relationship before the end of the cooling off period for a revocation application.

(2) An applicant for revocation of registration of a relationship may withdraw the application before the registration is revoked by giving the Registrar a withdrawal notice in the form approved by the Registrar.

(3) The cooling off period for a revocation application is the period ending 90 days after the application is made.

13 Revocation on application by one or both persons

The Registrar must revoke the registration of a registered relationship as soon as practicable after the end of the cooling off period, if an application is made in accordance with this Part and the Registrar is satisfied that the application has not been withdrawn.

14 Void registrations

(1) Registration of a registered relationship is void if:

(a) when the relationship was registered, registration under this Act was prohibited, or

(b) the agreement of one or both of the persons in the relationship to the registration was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means, or

(c) when the relationship was registered, either party was mentally incapable of understanding the nature and effect of the registration.

(2) Any court may, of its own motion, make an order declaring the registration of a registered relationship void by operation of this section if a question arises in proceedings as to the registration.

15 Notation of revocation or void registration in Register

If the registration of a registered relationship is revoked or is void, the Registrar must note that fact on the Register.
Part 4 Miscellaneous

16 Recognition of interstate registered relationships

The regulations may declare that a class of relationships registered or recognised under a corresponding law are interstate registered relationships for the purposes of this Act.

17 Regulations

(1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) In particular, regulations may be made for or with respect to the following:
   (a) prescribing fees for the purposes of this Act,
   (b) the refund or waiver of fees under this Act,
   (c) the notification of registrations under this Act, or related events, to relevant registration authorities in other States or Territories,
   (d) notes on the Register about interstate registered relationships,
   (e) the service of notices under this Act.

(3) A regulation may create an offence punishable by a penalty not exceeding 5 penalty units.

18 Applications to Administrative Decisions Tribunal for review

A person may apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of a decision of the Registrar made in the exercise or purported exercise of functions under this Act.

Note. Section 38 (1) of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 provides that the Tribunal has jurisdiction to review a decision (or a class of decisions) if an Act or statutory rule provides that applications may be made to it for a review of any such decision (or class of decisions).

19 Disclosure of information

A person must not disclose any information obtained in connection with the administration or execution of this Act unless that disclosure is made:
   (a) with the consent of the person from whom the information was obtained, or
   (b) in connection with the administration or execution of this Act, or
   (c) for the purposes of any legal proceedings arising out of this Act or of any report of any such proceedings, or
(d) in accordance with a requirement imposed under the Ombudsman Act 1974, or
(e) with other lawful excuse.
Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or 12 months imprisonment, or both.

20 Nature of proceedings for offences

Proceedings for an offence under this Act or the regulations may be dealt with summarily before the Local Court.

21 Review of Act

(1) The Minister is to review this Act to determine whether the policy objectives of the Act remain valid and whether the terms of the Act remain appropriate for securing those objectives.

(2) The review is to be undertaken as soon as possible after the period of 5 years from the date of assent to this Act.

(3) A report on the outcome of the review is to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 12 months after the end of the period of 5 years.
Schedule 1  Savings, transitional and other provisions

Part 1  General

1  Regulations

(1) The regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the following Acts:

this Act

(2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to the Act concerned or a later date.

(3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:

(a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

(b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

21C References to de facto partners and de facto relationships

(1) Meaning of “de facto partner”

For the purposes of any Act or instrument, a person is the de facto partner of another person (whether of the same sex or a different sex) if:

(a) the person is in a registered relationship or interstate registered relationship with the other person within the meaning of the Relationships Register Act 2010, or

(b) the person is in a de facto relationship with the other person.

(2) Meaning of “de facto relationship”

For the purposes of any Act or instrument, a person is in a de facto relationship with another person if:

(a) they have a relationship as a couple living together, and

(b) they are not married to one another or related by family.

A de facto relationship can exist even if one of the persons is legally married to someone else or in a registered relationship or interstate registered relationship with someone else.

(3) Determination of “relationship as a couple”

In determining whether 2 persons have a relationship as a couple for the purposes of subsection (2), all the circumstances of the relationship are to be taken into account, including any of the following matters that are relevant in a particular case:

(a) the duration of the relationship,

(b) the nature and extent of their common residence,

(c) whether a sexual relationship exists,

(d) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangements for financial support, between them,

(e) the ownership, use and acquisition of property,

(f) the degree of mutual commitment to a shared life,

(g) the care and support of children,
(h) the performance of household duties,
(i) the reputation and public aspects of the relationship.

No particular finding in relation to any of those matters is necessary in determining whether 2 persons have a relationship as a couple.

(4) Meaning of “related by family”

For the purposes of subsection (2), 2 persons are related by family if:

(a) one is the child (including an adopted child) of the other, or
(b) one is another descendant of the other (even if the relationship between them is traced through an adoptive parent), or
(c) they have a parent in common (including an adoptive parent of either or both of them).

This subsection applies:

(a) even if an adoption has been declared void or is of no effect, and

(b) to adoptions under the law of any place (whether in or out of Australia) relating to the adoption of children.
