EXPLANATORY NOTE

The object of this Regulation is to repeal and remake the Gaming and Betting (Racecourse Licensing) Regulation 1991 in consequence of the repeal and re-enactment of Part 4 of the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 (which deals with racecourses and race meetings).

This Regulation does the following:

- (a) it prescribes the way in which an application for a racecourse licence is to be made—clause 4;
- (b) it specifies certain conditions to which a racecourse licence is subject—clause 5;
- (c) it prescribes certain racecourses for the purposes of section 57 of the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 (which provides that the maximum number of days in any financial year on which meetings for horse racing may be held at a racecourse so prescribed is the number of days specified in the racecourse licence)—clause 6;
- (d) it makes provisions of a technical nature—clauses 1-3 and 7.

This Regulation is made under the Gaming and Betting Act 1912 and, in particular, under sections 53 (Applications for racecourse licences), 57 (Maximum number of race days allowed for racecourses) and 59 (the general regulation-making power).

This Regulation is also made in connection with the staged repeal of subordinate legislation under the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989. It comprises matters of a machinery nature.
