No. 17, 1963

Sec. 168.
(Historic inns.)

(3) (a) Upon the application of any owner of any premises which are or have been licensed premises under this Act or any prior Act regulating the sale of liquor the Governor may by order published in the Gazette declare such premises to be an historic inn if satisfied that the premises or any substantial part thereof are or is of national, special historic or architectural interest and should be preserved for the benefit of the public generally. Upon any such order being made and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Governor may, subject to such conditions as he may impose—

- (i) sanction and authorise the issue by the licensing court of a license for the sale of liquor at an historic inn which is not already licensed under this Act;
- (ii) exempt any historic inn, the owner and the licensee thereof from such provisions of this Act as he may determine.

(b) Subject to any conditions imposed by the Governor and exemptions as aforesaid the provisions of this Act relating to publicans' licenses, the holders thereof, licensed premises and persons resorting thereto, shall in respect of any license issued in respect of an historic inn apply, mutatis mutandis, to and in respect of any such license, the holder thereof, the premises in respect of which such license is issued and persons resorting thereto.

(c) The Governor may, before declaring any premises to be an historic inn under this subsection, refer the matter to the licensing court for inquiry and report. Any preservation society shall be entitled to be heard and represented before the licensing court on any such reference.
