State Records Amendment (Destruction of Prints) Regulation 2014

under the

State Records Act 1998

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the State Records Act 1998.

DOMINIC PERROTTET, MP
Minister for Finance and Services

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to exclude fingerprints or palm prints taken in connection with an application for a licence under the Tattoo Parlours Act 2012 from the protection measures of the State Records Act 1998 to allow for the destruction of those prints in accordance with section 13 of the Tattoo Parlours Act 2012. That section provides that the fingerprints and palm prints, and any copies, are to be destroyed as soon as practicable after an application for a licence is withdrawn or refused.

This Regulation is made under the State Records Act 1998, including sections 21 and 81 (the general regulation-making power).
