Children (Detention Centres) Amendment (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 2018

under the

Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987

His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987.

DAVID ELLIOTT, MP
Minister for Corrections

Explanatory note

The Parole Legislation Amendment Act 2017, among other things, amended the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987 to make specific provision for the parole of juvenile offenders, which apply to offenders who were under 18 years when they committed an offence and when they first become eligible for parole and cease to apply once offenders reach 18 years (unless that age is reached during the last 12 weeks of the parole period).

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Children (Detention Centres) Regulation 2015 to provide that references in existing parole orders (made before the amendments to the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987) to community corrections officers or supervision by community corrections officers include references to juvenile justice officers or supervision by juvenile justice officers.

This Regulation is made under the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987, including section 109 (the general regulation-making power) and clause 1A of Schedule 1.
