2 Commencement

These Rules commence on the establishment day.

3 Object of Rules

The object of these Rules is to give effect to the guiding principle for the PIC Act and the Commission rules in their application to proceedings in the Commission.

Note. Section 42 of the PIC Act provides that the guiding principle for the PIC Act and the Commission rules, in their application to proceedings in the Commission, is to facilitate the just, quick and cost effective resolution of the real issues in the proceedings.

4 Definitions

- (1) The Dictionary defines words used in these Rules.

Note. The Personal Injury Commission Act 2020 and the Interpretation Act 1987 contain definitions and other provisions affecting the interpretation and application of these Rules.

- (2) Words used in these Rules in relation to proceedings under enabling legislation have the same meaning as in the enabling legislation concerned, except to the extent they are defined differently in these Rules or the context or subject-matter indicates or requires a different meaning.

Part 2 Application

5 Proceedings to which Rules apply

- (1) The purpose of this rule is to define the different kinds of proceedings to which provisions of these Rules may apply.
- (2) Each of the following are applicable proceedings—
 - (a) Commission proceedings,
 - (b) mediation proceedings,
 - (c) medical assessment proceedings,
 - (d) merit review proceedings,
 - (e) panel review proceedings.
- (3) Commission proceedings are proceedings before the Commission under the PIC Act or enabling legislation.
- (4) Mediation proceedings are proceedings before a mediator under enabling legislation.
- (5) Medical assessment proceedings are proceedings before a medical assessor under enabling legislation.
- (6) Merit review proceedings are proceedings before a merit reviewer under enabling legislation.
- (7) Panel review proceedings are proceedings before a panel under enabling legislation for an appeal against, or a review of, a decision made in medical assessment proceedings or merit review proceedings.

6 Dispensing with requirements of Rules

- (1) The Commission may, by order, dispense with a requirement of these Rules in relation to particular Commission proceedings if satisfied it is appropriate to do so.
- (2) The President may, by order, dispense with a requirement of these Rules in relation to particular applicable proceedings, or particular kinds of applicable proceedings, if satisfied it is appropriate to do so.
- (3) The power given to the President by subrule (2) extends to a requirement of Part 5 of the Act applied to applicable proceedings, other than Commission proceedings, by a provision of these Rules.
- (4) A requirement may be dispensed with under this rule before or after the occasion for compliance with the requirement arises.

7 Directions in circumstances not covered by Rules

- (1) The Commission may give directions in relation to particular Commission proceedings concerning an aspect of practice or procedure for which these Rules or the procedural directions do not provide.
- (2) The President may give directions in relation to particular applicable proceedings, or particular kinds of applicable proceedings, concerning an aspect of practice or procedure for which these Rules or the procedural directions do not provide.
- (3) The power given to the President by subrule (2) extends to a requirement of Part 5 of the Act applied to applicable proceedings, other than Commission proceedings, by a provision of these Rules.

8 Irregularities in Commission proceedings

- (1) If these Rules are not complied with in relation to the commencement or conduct of Commission proceedings, the failure to comply is to be treated as an irregularity and does not nullify the proceedings or a decision in the proceedings unless the Commission determines otherwise.
- (2) The Commission may deal with an irregularity by wholly or partly setting aside—
 - (a) the proceedings, or
 - (b) a step taken in the proceedings, or
 - (c) a decision in the proceedings.

9 Procedural orders by non-presidential members and merit reviewers

A non-presidential member or merit reviewer to whom applicable proceedings are referred may make any order relating to the procedure to be followed in the proceedings, including an order striking out the proceedings or any step in the proceedings, that could be made by the President.

10 Relationship between Rules and procedural directions

- (1) These Rules are intended to be read together with the procedural directions.
- (2) However, these Rules prevail over the procedural directions to the extent the directions are inconsistent with these Rules.

Part 3 Administration

- (2) The Registry is to be under the control and direction of the principal registrar, subject to the general control and direction of the President.

- (2) A delegation or subdelegation is to be included in the register—

- (b) if given on or after the establishment day—as soon as is reasonably practicable after it is given.
- (3) The President is to arrange for information in the register to be published on the Commission website.
- (4) A failure to comply with this rule in relation to a delegation or subdelegation does not affect its validity.

15 Use of ECM system

 - (c) a person authorised to use the ECM system by an Australian legal practitioner or agent representing a party to the proceedings.
- (2) The President may establish a protocol for the use of an ECM system that applies generally or for particular proceedings.
- (3) The protocol may provide for public access to information held by the Commission, but not to the contents of a document held by the Commission in relation to particular proceedings.
- (4) Subject to subrule (3), the protocol may provide for—
 - (a) the specification of the level of access to the system to which persons generally or persons of specified classes are entitled, and
 - (b) the conditions of use of the system applicable to persons generally or persons of a specified class.
- (5) The level of access to an ECM system to which a person is entitled, and the conditions of use that apply to a person, are subject to any order or direction of the President.

A document in a language other than English lodged with or served on the Commission must be accompanied by—

- (a) an English translation, and
- (b) a declaration in the approved form by the translator that the translation is an accurate translation.

Division 4.2 Amendment of documents

19 Leave to amend documents

- (1) The Commission may, on the application of a party to applicable proceedings, give the party leave to amend a document lodged by the party in the proceedings if the Commission considers the amendment to be necessary to avoid an injustice.
- (2) However, the Commission must not give leave to amend a document if the amendment would have the effect of substantially altering the parties to the proceedings unless the Commission considers the amendment to be necessary in the interests of justice.
- (3) An amendment may be made during the proceedings, including after the commencement or purported commencement of the proceedings, and on any terms the Commission thinks fit.

- (4) This rule does not apply to the amendment of information or a document that is required to be lodged by rule 67.

20 Amendment of documents

- (1) An application by a party to applicable proceedings for leave to amend a document lodged by the party must be in writing and fully set out the grounds for the application.

- (3) A party who wishes to object to the amendment must, within 2 working days of being served with the application—
 - (a) lodge written notice of the objection with reasons, and
 - (b) serve the notice of objection on the other parties.
- (4) If the application is made before the Commission is constituted to deal with the proceedings, the President is to determine the application, subject to subrule (8)(b).
- (5) If the application is made after the Commission is constituted to deal with the proceedings, the Commission is to determine the application.
- (6) An application may be determined solely on the basis of the written application and any written notice of objection.
- (7) Without limiting subrule (6), the President or Commission may, when considering an application, seek further oral or written information from a party.
- (8) The President may, when considering the application—
 - (a) list the application for hearing before the President, or
 - (b) refer the application to a member for determination.
- (9) The Commission may, when considering an application, list the application for hearing before the Commission.

21 Minor or agreed amendments of documents

- (1) This rule applies if the amendment of a document in Commission proceedings for which leave is sought is—
 - (a) of a minor nature and will not have a substantive effect on the case to be put by any party, or
 - (b) consented to by all parties to the proceedings.
- (2) If the application for leave is made before the Commission is constituted to deal with the proceedings, the President may grant leave even though the party applying has not complied with rule 20.
- (3) If the application for leave is made after the Commission is constituted to deal with the proceedings, the Commission as constituted may grant leave even though the party applying has not complied with rule 20.
- (4) To avoid doubt, the requirements of rule 20 continue to apply to leave granted in accordance with this rule.

22 Directions concerning amendment of documents

If the Commission gives leave to amend a document—

- (a) the Commission may give directions as to the conduct of the Commission proceedings consequent on the amendment, and

25 Lodging of statutory declarations by ECM system

- (1) If a statutory declaration is lodged by an Australian legal practitioner or agent of a party by means of an ECM system, the practitioner or agent is taken to have undertaken to the Commission that, if the Commission directs, the practitioner or agent will lodge the original statutory declaration in accordance with the direction.

- (2) If a statutory declaration is lodged otherwise than by an Australian legal practitioner or agent of a party by means of an ECM system, the original statutory declaration must be lodged if the Commission directs.
