Fines Amendment Bill 2017

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill is to amend the Fines Act 1996 to allow the Commissioner of Fines Administration:

- (a) to take civil enforcement action against a fine defaulter who is an individual without first suspending or cancelling the fine defaulter's driver licence or vehicle registration, and
- (b) to take enforcement action to recover an amount payable under a confirmed order for restitution made by the Commissioner of Victims Rights against an offender or another person (a restitution amount).

The Bill also makes amendments to the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 related to the enforcement and recovery of restitution amounts by the Commissioner of Fines Administration.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Fines Act 1996 No 99

Civil enforcement action without prior suspension or cancellation of driver licence or vehicle registration

Schedule 1 [5] allows the Commissioner of Fines Administration to take civil enforcement action against a fine defaulter who is an individual without first suspending or cancelling the fine defaulter's driver licence or vehicle registration. Civil enforcement action consists of making an order to seize property of the fine defaulter, making an order to garnishee the fine defaulter's debts, wages or salary, or registering a fine enforcement order as a charge on the fine defaulter's land.

At present, the Commissioner of Fines Administration may only take civil enforcement action against a fine defaulter who is an individual after the Commissioner has suspended or cancelled the fine defaulter's driver licence or vehicle registration. Schedule 1 [5] allows civil enforcement action to be taken against an individual without first suspending or cancelling the fine defaulter's driver licence or vehicle registration, but only if the Commissioner is satisfied that suspension or cancellation of the fine defaulter's driver licence or vehicle registration is unlikely to be successful in satisfying the fine or would have an excessively detrimental impact on the fine defaulter.

Schedule 1 [1]–[4] and [6]–[8] make consequential amendments.

Enforcement of restitution amounts

The enforcement of restitution amounts by the Commissioner of Fines Administration was previously conducted on a trial basis for 1 year (see Part 10 of the Fines Act 1996 as in force between 1 December 2013 and 30 November 2014). (A restitution amount is an amount payable under a confirmed order for restitution, which is generally made by the Commissioner of Victims Rights against a person convicted of an offence related to an act of violence in respect of which an approval for the giving of victims support under the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 has been given.) This Bill proposes to re-establish those arrangements, in a modified and extended form, on a permanent basis. Specifically, Schedule 1 [9]:

- (a) requires the Commissioner of Victims Rights to refer an unpaid restitution amount to the Commissioner of Fines Administration for the making of a court fine enforcement order, and
- (b) allows the Commissioner of Fines Administration to take enforcement action under the Fines Act 1996 to recover the restitution amount, and
- (c) re-enacts provisions from the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 that enable the enforcement of a restitution amount by attachment of prison earnings, and
- (d) requires enforcement costs to be paid from a restitution amount, or part of a restitution amount, that is recovered before the balance of the restitution amount is paid into the Victims Support Fund under the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 (Schedule 1 [12] makes a consequential amendment), and
- (e) allows the Commissioner of Fines Administration to enter into arrangements with the Commissioner of Victims Rights with respect to the recovery of restitution amounts, and
- (f) provides for related matters (by, for example, deeming a restitution amount to be a fine imposed by a court for the purposes of the Fines Act 1996 and modifying that Act in its application to a restitution amount).

Schedule 1 [10] permits the Commissioner of Fines Administration to disclose, to a person engaged in the administration or execution of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013, personal information about a person liable for a restitution amount in connection with a matter that is referred to the Commissioner of Fines Administration. Schedule 1 [11] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 No 37

Schedule 2 [26] allows the Commissioner of Victims Rights, following the confirmation of an order for restitution, to serve a debt notice on a person liable to pay the relevant restitution amount. A debt notice informs the person that the restitution amount is a debt payable to the Commissioner of Victims Rights and specifies a due date for payment. The debt notice also advises that, if the person does not pay the amount before the due date for payment, enforcement action for recovery of the amount may be taken under the Fines Act 1996 and additional enforcement costs may become payable under that Act if that enforcement action is taken. Schedule 2 [26] also revises and reorders existing provisions relating to confirmation of, and the amount payable under, an order for restitution. Schedule 2 [25] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2 [30] provides that, rather than a restitution amount being deemed a judgment debt recoverable by the Commissioner of Victims Rights, the Commissioner of Victims Rights must instead refer an unpaid restitution amount to the Commissioner of Fines Administration for the making of a court fine enforcement order, and the taking of enforcement action, under the Fines Act 1996 to recover the amount. Schedule 2 [1], [4], [5], [16], [22], [24], [29] and [33] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 2 [3] allows the Commissioner of Victims Rights to enter into arrangements with the Commissioner of Fines Administration with respect to the recovery of restitution amounts. Schedule 2 [2] allows the expenses payable to the Commissioner of Fines Administration under such an arrangement to be paid from the Victims Support Fund.

Schedule 2 [15] extends the circumstances in which the Commissioner of Victims Rights may confirm an order for restitution to include when the person subject to the order agrees to its confirmation and seeks (and is granted) time to pay the relevant restitution amount under the Fines Act 1996.

Schedule 2 [6]–[14], [19], [23], [27], [28], [31] and [32] make related changes to the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013, primarily by removing the concept of “provisional order” (which is an order for restitution that has not been confirmed). Instead, the new provisions make it clear that an order for restitution cannot be enforced under the Fines Act 1996 until it is confirmed.

Schedule 2 [17], [18], [20] and [21] clarify the procedure by which an order for restitution is confirmed.

Schedule 2 [34] makes savings and transitional provisions consequent on enactment of the proposed Act.

112C Restitution amounts taken to be court imposed fines	32
(1) For the purposes of this Act, a restitution amount is taken to be a fine imposed by a court.	33 34

(3) The court fine enforcement order may be in a form that is appropriate to the circumstances of the case.	40 41

(1)	A person may apply for time to pay a restitution amount, and a time to pay order may be made in relation to a restitution amount, whether or not the person is in receipt of a Government benefit.	16 17 18
(2)	A requirement imposed by this Act that an applicant for time to pay must be a person who is in receipt of a Government benefit is to be disregarded for the purposes of this Part.	19 20 21
(3)	Accordingly, a restitution amount is to be referred to the Commissioner for the making of a court fine enforcement order if the person seeks a time to pay order in relation to the restitution amount.	22 23 24
112F	Joint and several liability	25
	If 2 or more persons are jointly and severally liable to pay a restitution amount:	26
	(a) a separate court fine enforcement order for the restitution amount may be made against any of those persons, and	27 28
	(b) any person against whom an order is made is liable to pay any enforcement costs payable under the order made against him or her.	29 30
Division 2	Attachment of prison earnings	31

(3)	An attachment order may be made only if:	38
	(a) a restitution amount payable by a person has not been paid as required by a court fine enforcement order, and	39 40
	(b) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment or children's detention for a relevant offence in connection with which the order requiring payment of the restitution amount was imposed.	41 42 43
(4)	An attachment order is to be in the approved form.	44

(5)	The Commissioner is to serve notice of an attachment order on the appropriate custodial officer.	1 2
(6)	An attachment order may be made in the absence of, and without notice to, a fine defaulter.	3 4
(7)	This section does not limit the Commissioner's functions under Part 4.	5
112H	Deductions under attachment order	6
(1)	An appropriate custodial officer may make deductions from a person's prison earnings as authorised by an attachment order.	7 8
(2)	The deductions are to be paid to the Commissioner.	9

(2)	The Commissioner may cancel an attachment order at any time for any good reason.	13 14
Division 3	Miscellaneous	15
112J	Effect of appeals	16
(1)	The Commissioner must not commence enforcement action under this Part, and is to suspend any enforcement action already taken, in respect of a restitution amount payable by a person if the Commissioner of Victims Rights notifies the Commissioner of a relevant appeal by the person.	17 18 19 20
(2)	Subsection (1) has effect until the appeal proceedings have been finally determined.	21 22
(3)	The Commissioner suspends enforcement action as follows:	23
(a)	by directing Roads and Maritime Services to cease enforcement action under Division 3 of Part 4, Note. See section 65 (4).	24 25 26
(b)	by cancelling any property seizure order that has already been made in relation to the restitution amount that has not been executed,	27 28
(c)	by cancelling any garnishee order for payment of the restitution amount that has already been made in relation to the debts due and accruing to the person,	29 30 31
(d)	by cancelling any attachment order that has already been made against the person for payment of the restitution amount.	32 33
(4)	However, any property obtained as a result of enforcement action is not required to be returned, and a charge on land created under Part 4 need not be cancelled, unless the relevant court fine enforcement order is withdrawn.	34 35 36
(5)	The suspension of enforcement action by the Commissioner does not prevent further enforcement action being taken after the appeal proceedings have been finally determined.	37 38 39
(6)	On the final determination of the appeal proceedings, the Commissioner may, by order, vary a court fine enforcement order in accordance with the outcome of the appeal.	40 41 42
(7)	Notice of the variation is to be served on the fine defaulter in the same way as notice of a court fine enforcement order.	43 44

(8)	In section 69, a reference to an appeal against conviction includes, in relation to a court fine enforcement order for a restitution amount, a reference to a relevant appeal.	1 2 3
(9)	In this section: relevant appeal means:	4 5
(a)	an application to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal for an administrative review under the Administrative Decisions Review Act 1997 of the decision to make the order for restitution, or	6 7 8

(c)	an appeal against conviction for a relevant offence in respect of which the order for restitution was imposed or an application under Part 2 of the Crimes (Appeal and Review) Act 2001 to annul conviction for the relevant offence.	13 14 15 16
112K	Payment of money recovered	17
(1)	Any amount recovered under a court fine enforcement order made under this Part is to be applied as follows:	18 19
(a)	firstly, towards enforcement costs payable under the court fine enforcement order,	20 21
(b)	secondly, towards payment of the restitution amount.	22
(2)	Money applied towards payment of the restitution amount, after payment of enforcement costs, is money recovered under this Act for the purposes of section 15 of the Victims Rights and Support Act 2013 . Accordingly, that money is payable into the Victims Support Fund under that Act.	23 24 25 26
(3)	Section 122C applies to any overpayment under a court fine enforcement order.	27 28
