Duties Act 1997 No 123

An Act to create and charge a number of duties.

Chapter 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Duties Act 1997.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 1998.

3 What does this Act do?

This Act creates and charges a number of duties.

Note. Each duty is dealt with in a separate Chapter of this Act. The Contents pages list the Chapters and their subject-matter.

4 What is a duty?

A duty charged by this Act is, when a liability to pay the duty is created, a debt due to the State of New South Wales.

5 Arrangements for payment of duties

This Act does not contain all the provisions concerning duties. This Act is to be read together with the Taxation Administration Act 1996. The Taxation Administration Act 1996 contains provisions that deal with, for example:

- how assessments of duty are made
- how assessments can be challenged
- what happens if duty is not paid on time
- how unpaid duty may be recovered
- what records must be kept by taxpayers
- how decisions made under this Act can be challenged
- the investigative powers of tax administrators.
6 Meaning of words and expressions used in this Act

Words and expressions used in this Act (or in any particular provision of this Act) that are defined in the Dictionary at the end of this Act have the meanings set out in the Dictionary.

7 Notes in the text

Notes included in this Act are explanatory notes and do not form part of this Act.
Chapter 2 Transactions concerning dutiable property

Part 1 Introduction and overview

8 Imposition of duty on certain transactions concerning dutiable property

(1) This Chapter charges duty on:

(a) a transfer of dutiable property, and

(b) the following transactions:

(i) an agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property,

(ii) a declaration of trust over dutiable property,

(iii) a surrender of an interest in land in New South Wales,

(iv) a foreclosure of a mortgage over dutiable property,

(v) a vesting of dutiable property by or as a consequence of an order of a court of this or another jurisdiction, whether inside or outside Australia,

(vi) the enlargement of a term in land into a fee simple under section 134 of the Conveyancing Act 1919,

(vii) a vesting of land in New South Wales by, or expressly authorised by, statute law of this or another jurisdiction, whether inside or outside Australia, (viii) a lease in respect of which a premium is paid or agreed to be paid.

(c) (Repealed)

Note. There are other provisions in this Act that deem certain transactions to be a transfer of dutiable property under this Chapter, for example:

(a) section 9A, which provides for certain circumstances in which a transfer of a partnership interest is taken to occur, and

(b) section 9B, which provides for certain circumstances in which a transfer of an option to purchase land is taken to occur, and

(c) section 9C, which provides for circumstances in which a novation of an agreement for the lease of land in New South Wales is taken to be a transfer of dutiable property, and

(d) Part 2 of Chapter 3, which treats a transfer or assignment of an option to purchase dutiable property as a transfer of the dutiable property in certain circumstances.

(2) Such a transfer or transaction is a dutiable transaction for the purposes of this Act.

(3) In this Chapter:

declaration of trust means any declaration (other than by a will or testamentary instrument) that any identified property vested or to be vested in the person making the declaration is or is to be held in trust for the person or persons, or the purpose or purposes, mentioned in the declaration although the beneficial owner of the property, or the person entitled to appoint the property, may not have joined in or assented to the declaration.

lease means a lease of land in New South Wales or an agreement for a lease of land in New South Wales.

premium, in respect of a lease entered into pursuant to an option, includes an amount paid or payable for the grant of the option.

transfer includes an assignment, an exchange and a buy-back of shares in accordance with Division 2 of Part 2J.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

8A Vesting of land in New South Wales by statute law

(1) Without limiting section 8 (1) (b) (vii), land in New South Wales is vested under statute law if the law vests the land in an entity that the law states is the successor in law of, continuation of or same entity as, the entity in which the land was previously vested.

(2) However, land in New South Wales is not vested under statute law on the registration of a company under Part 5B.1 of Chapter 5B of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

(3) The merger of a corporation (company A) with and into another corporation (company B) in circumstances where neither subsection (4) nor subsection (5) applies is taken to be a vesting of the land in New South Wales of company A in company B by statute law.

(4) A merger of corporations (the merging corporations) in circumstances where another corporation (company C) results as a consequence of the merger is taken to be a vesting of the land in New South Wales of the merging corporations in company C by statute law.

(5) A merger of corporations (the merging corporations) with and into each other in circumstances where each of the merging corporations continues in existence is taken to be a vesting in the merging corporations, jointly, of 50% (in value) of the land in New South Wales of the merging corporations by statute law.

9 Imposition of duty on dutiable transactions that are not transfers

(1) The duty charged by this Chapter on a dutiable transaction referred to in section 8 (1) (b) is to be charged as if each such dutiable transaction were a transfer of dutiable property.

(2) Accordingly, for the purpose of charging duty under this Chapter, in relation to a dutiable transaction specified in Column 1 of the following Table:

(a) the property specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 2 is taken to be the property transferred (and a reference in this Act to property transferred includes a reference to such property), and

(b) the person specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 3 is taken to be the transferee of the dutiable property (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person), and

(c) the transfer of the dutiable property is taken to have occurred at the time specified opposite the dutiable transaction in Column 4 (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time).

9A Transfer of partnership interest occurring on change in partnership arrangements

(1) A transfer of a partnership interest is taken to occur when a change in partnership arrangements occurs.

(2) A change in partnership arrangements occurs if:

(a) a partner in an existing partnership retires so that a new partnership is formed (with or without the admission of new partners), or

(b) a new partner is admitted to an existing partnership so that a new partnership is formed.

(3) A new partnership is formed when a partner in an existing partnership retires, unless the partnership is wound up on that retirement (sometimes referred to as a general dissolution of the partnership).

(4) A new partnership is formed whenever a new partner is admitted to an existing partnership.

(5) For the purposes of this Act:

(a) if a change in partnership arrangements occurs because of the retirement of a partner in an existing partnership, the retiring partner’s partnership interest is taken to be transferred to the partners in the new partnership (a retirement transfer), and
(b) if a change in partnership arrangements occurs because of the admission of a new partner to an existing partnership, the new partner’s partnership interest is taken to be transferred to the partners in the new partnership (an admission transfer).

(6) If a change in partnership arrangements results in both one or more retirement transfers and one or more admission transfers, duty is chargeable only on:

(a) the retirement transfer or retirement transfers, if the dutiable value of the retirement transfer or retirement transfers exceeds the dutiable value of the admission transfer or admission transfers, or

(b) the admission transfer or admission transfers, if the dutiable value of the admission transfer or admission transfers exceeds the dutiable value of the retirement transfer or retirement transfers.

(7) This section does not affect liability for duty on a transfer of a partnership interest that occurs otherwise than because of a change in partnership arrangements.

Note. For example, a transfer of a partnership interest from one partner to another partner in an existing partnership will also be dutiable under this Chapter.

(7A) To avoid doubt, a transfer of a partnership interest that is taken to occur under this section is a transfer of dutiable property and a reference in this Act to a transfer of dutiable property or a dutiable transaction includes a reference to such a transfer.

(8) In this section, retirement of a partner includes retirement as a consequence of the death of a partner.

9B Transfer of option occurring on nomination or other change

(1) A transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales is taken to occur if, for valuable consideration:

(a) another person is nominated to exercise the option, or

(b) another person is nominated as purchaser or transferee of the land the subject of the option on or before the exercise of the option, or

(c) the option holder agrees to a novation of the option, or otherwise relinquishes rights under the option, so that another person obtains a right to exercise the option or to purchase the land.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, in a case referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b):

(a) the option is taken to be transferred when the nomination is made (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time), and

(b) the person nominated is taken to be the transferee of the option (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person).

(3) For the purposes of this Act, in a case referred to in subsection (1) (c):

(a) the option is taken to be transferred when the option holder agrees to the novation or otherwise relinquishes rights under the option (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time), and

(b) the person who obtains a right to exercise the option or to purchase the land is taken to be the transferee of the option (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person).

(4) This section applies regardless of when the option is exercisable.

(5) For the purposes of this section, anything done by a person under a power of appointment or other authority granted by an option holder is taken to have been done by the option holder.

(6) To avoid doubt, a person who has a right to accept an offer to sell land has a right to purchase the land.

(7) To avoid doubt, a transfer of an option to purchase land that is taken to occur under this section is a transfer of dutiable property and a reference in this Act to a transfer of dutiable property or a dutiable transaction includes a reference to such a transfer.

(8) In this section:

option holder, in relation to an option to purchase land in New South Wales, means a person who has a right to purchase the land under the option (whether vested or contingent).

9C Novation of agreement for lease

(1) A novation of an agreement for the lease of land in New South Wales is taken to be a transfer of dutiable property as if:

(a) the lessee’s interest in the agreement were dutiable property, and

(b) the novation of the agreement were a transfer of that dutiable property.

(2) For the purposes of this Act:

(a) the transfer is taken to occur when the agreement for lease is novated (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time), and

(b) the new lessee is taken to be the transferee of the dutiable property (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person).

(3) A reference in this Act to dutiable property includes, in relation to a transfer that is taken to occur under this section, a reference to a lessee’s interest in an agreement for the lease of land in New South Wales.

(4) To avoid doubt, a reference in this Act to a dutiable transaction includes a reference to a transfer of dutiable property that is taken to occur under this section.

10 Form of dutiable transaction is immaterial

The duty charged by this Chapter is payable whether or not a dutiable transaction is effected by an instrument or by any other means.
11 What is “dutiable property”?

(1) Dutiable property is any of the following:

(a) land in New South Wales,

(b) transferable floor space (also known as heritage floor space), being floor space area that:
   (i) is recorded on a register kept by a local government council in New South Wales, and

   (iii) may, subject to obtaining all necessary consents and approvals, be utilised in the development of other land in New South Wales,

(e) units in a unit trust scheme, being units:
   (i) registered on a register kept in New South Wales, or
   (ii) that are not registered on a register kept in Australia, but in respect of which the manager (or, if there is no manager, the trustee) of the unit trust scheme is a NSW company or is a natural person resident in New South Wales,

Notes. Units is defined in the Dictionary to include rights to units.
Some units (namely, units quoted on the ASX or a recognised stock exchange) are not dutiable property—see subsection (2).

(f) (Repealed)

   (i) the goodwill of a business, if the business has supplied goods in New South Wales, or provided services in New South Wales, to a customer of the business during the previous 12 months, or
   (ii) intellectual property that has been used or exploited in New South Wales during the previous 12 months, but only if the intellectual property is the subject of an arrangement that includes a dutiable transaction over goodwill referred to in subparagraph (i), or
(iii) a statutory licence or permission under a Commonwealth law, if the rights under the licence or permission have been exercised, during the previous 12 months, in respect of New South Wales or in an area that includes New South Wales or a part of New South Wales,

Note. Intellectual property is defined in the Dictionary. Business assets are subject to apportionment under section 28.

(iv) goods held or used in connection with land used for primary production,

(v) livestock,

(l) an interest in any dutiable property referred to in the preceding paragraphs of this section, except to the extent that:

(i) it arises as a consequence of the ownership of a unit in a unit trust scheme and is not a land use entitlement, or

(ii) it is, or is attributable to, an option over dutiable property, or

(iii) it is an interest in a marketable security, being an interest that is traded on the Sydney Futures Exchange.

Note. In relation to interests in land, see clause 4 of the Dictionary.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the following marketable securities are not dutiable property:

(a) shares, or units in a unit trust scheme, that are quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange or a recognised stock exchange,

(b) an interest in shares, or an interest in units in a unit trust scheme, if:
(i) the shares or units are quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange or a recognised stock exchange, or

(ii) the interest is quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange or a recognised stock exchange.

(3) In the definition of business asset in this section, a reference to services provided to a customer includes a reference to anything done for a customer pursuant to a contractual obligation.

Note. Part 4 of this Chapter provides for the abolition, on 1 July 2016, of duty on transfers of some of the types of dutiable property listed above.

The following types of dutiable property cease to be dutiable property on 1 July 2016:

(a) shares and units referred to in subsection (1) (d) and (e),

(b) business assets referred to in subsection (1) (g),

(c) statutory licences or permissions referred to in subsection (1) (h),

(d) gaming machine entitlements referred to in subsection (1) (h1).
If a dutiable transaction is completed or evidenced by an instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs, the requirement to lodge a statement and pay duty under this Chapter or Chapter 2A in respect of the statement may be satisfied by the lodgment of and payment of duty on the instrument within 3 months after the date on which the dutiable transaction occurs.

16 Lodging instrument or written statement with Chief Commissioner

(1) A transferee who is liable to pay duty under this Chapter or Chapter 2A in respect of a dutiable transaction must, within 3 months after the liability arises, lodge with the Chief Commissioner:

(a) the instrument that effects the dutiable transaction or, if there is more than one such instrument, each one of them as provided by sections 18 (1) and 104X (1), or

(b) the written statement made in compliance with section 15.

(2) If the instrument is in a digital form, the instrument must be lodged with the Chief Commissioner in a form and manner approved by the Chief Commissioner.

16A Lodging purchaser’s declaration with Chief Commissioner

A transferee who is liable to pay duty in respect of a dutiable transaction under this Chapter or Chapter 2A must lodge a declaration in the approved form with the instrument or written statement lodged under section 16.

17 When must duty be paid?

(1) A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

(2) (Repealed)

18 No double duty

(1) If a dutiable transaction is effected by more than one instrument, one instrument is to be stamped with the duty payable on the dutiable transaction and each other instrument is chargeable with duty of $50.

Note. Instrument includes a written statement.

(2) The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable property made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the dutiable property is $10 if the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement has been paid.

(3) The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable property that is not made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the dutiable property is $10 if:

(a) the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement has been paid, and

(b) the transfer would be in conformity with the agreement if the transferee was the purchaser under the agreement, and

(c) the transfer occurs at the same time as, or proximately with, the completion or settlement of the agreement, and
(d) at the time the agreement was entered into, and at the completion or settlement of the agreement:

(i) the purchaser under the agreement (other than a purchaser who purchased as a trustee) and the transferee under the transfer were related persons, or

(ii) if the purchaser purchased as a trustee (other than as a trustee of a self managed superannuation fund)—the transferee and the beneficiary were related persons, or

(iii) if the purchaser purchased as a trustee of a self managed superannuation fund—the transferee under the transfer was the custodian of that trustee.

Note. Section 64C also provides for a duty concession in respect of a transfer of dutiable property that is made in partial conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the property. The concession applies if the interest in the property transferred to the transferee is not identical to the interest agreed to be transferred to the transferee under the agreement.

(4) The duty chargeable on a transfer to a trustee of dutiable property subject to a declaration of trust is $10 if ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been paid on the declaration of trust in respect of the same dutiable property.

(5) The duty chargeable on a transfer of dutiable property as a consequence of a foreclosure order is $10 if ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been paid on the foreclosure.

(6) The duty chargeable on a declaration of trust that declares the same trusts as those upon and subject to which the same dutiable property was transferred to the person declaring the trust is $10 if ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been paid on the transfer.

(6A) The duty chargeable on a declaration of trust is $50 if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the declaration of trust supersedes another declaration of trust in respect of which duty under this Chapter has been paid and declares the same trusts as were declared under the superseded declaration of trust, and

(b) the beneficiary under the declaration of trust is the same as under the superseded declaration of trust, and

(c) the dutiable property subject to the declaration of trust:

(i) is wholly or substantially the same as the property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(ii) represents the proceeds of re-investment of property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(iii) is property to which both subparagraphs (i) and (ii) apply.

(7) A dutiable transaction in respect of marketable securities that confer a land use entitlement is taken to be a dutiable transaction in respect of the land use entitlement only. If duty has been paid on the dutiable transaction in accordance with a law of another Australian jurisdiction, the duty charged by this Chapter on the dutiable transaction is to be reduced by the amount of the duty so paid.
Despite subsection (1), if a single dutiable transaction is effected by more than one electronic registry instrument it is sufficient that one of those instruments is duly stamped with the duty chargeable on the dutiable transaction.

Note. See section 290.

19 What is the rate of duty?

Duty is charged on the dutiable value of the dutiable property subject to the dutiable transaction at the relevant rate set out in Part 3.

20 Concessions and exemptions from duty

Concessions and exemptions from duty charged by this Chapter are dealt with in Parts 6, 7 and 8.

Part 2 Dutiable value

21 What is the “dutiable value” of dutiable property?

(1) The dutiable value of dutiable property that is subject to a dutiable transaction is the greater of:

(a) the consideration (if any) for the dutiable transaction (being the amount of a monetary consideration or the value of a non-monetary consideration), and

(b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.

(2) The dutiable value of dutiable property transferred by way of foreclosure is the unencumbered value of the dutiable property and not the value of the debt secured by the mortgaged property.

(3) The dutiable value of a business asset to which section 28 applies is to be determined in accordance with that section.

(4) The dutiable value of a partnership interest referred to in section 29 is to be determined in accordance with that section.

(5) The dutiable value of leased property transferred by way of a lease is taken to be the amount of the premium paid or payable in respect of the lease.

22 What is the consideration for the transfer of dutiable property?

(1) The consideration for the transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the amount or value of all encumbrances, whether certain or contingent, subject to which the dutiable property is transferred.

(2) The consideration for the transfer of the interest of a transferee under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property is taken to include the balance of the amount or value of the consideration that would be required from the transferee under the agreement in order to complete it in accordance with its terms.

(3) The consideration for the transfer of the goodwill of a business is taken to include the amount or value of the consideration for any restraint of trade arrangement entered into in connection with the transfer of the goodwill.

(4) The consideration for a transfer of land in New South Wales that occurs as a consequence of the exercise of an option to purchase land is taken to include the amount or value of the consideration provided by or on behalf of the transferee for the option (whether for its grant, transfer, exercise or otherwise).

Note. This section extends to an agreement for sale or transfer of dutiable property. Under sections 8 and 9 such agreements are treated as transfers of dutiable property.

23 What is the “unencumbered value” of dutiable property?

(1) The unencumbered value of dutiable property is the value of the property determined without regard to any encumbrance to which the property is subject.

(2) The unencumbered value of the goodwill of a business is taken to include the value of any restraint of trade arrangement entered into by the vendor in order to protect the value of the goodwill.

(3) If, before land is transferred to a transferee, the transferee has made improvements to the land, the unencumbered value of the land is to be determined as if those improvements had not been made.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to improvements made to the land for or on behalf of the transferee by the transferor.

24 Interests, agreements and arrangements that reduce the dutiable value

(1) In determining the dutiable value of dutiable property under this Part, any interest, agreement or arrangement (other than an encumbrance) granted or made in respect of the dutiable property that has the effect of reducing the dutiable value is to be disregarded, subject to subsection (2).

(2) An interest, agreement or arrangement is not to be disregarded if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that it was not granted or made as a part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable on the dutiable transaction.

(3) In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner may have regard to:

(a) the duration of the interest, agreement or arrangement before the dutiable transaction, and

(b) whether the interest, agreement or arrangement has been granted to or made with an associated person, and

(c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the granting of the interest or the making of the agreement or arrangement other than to reduce duty, and

(d) any other matters the Chief Commissioner considers relevant.

25 Aggregation of dutiable transactions

(1) Dutiable transactions relating to separate items of dutiable property, or separate parts of, or interests in, dutiable property are to be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction if:

(a) they occur within 12 months, and

(ab) the transferor is the same or the transferors are associated persons, and
(b) the transferee is the same or the transferees are associated persons, and

(c) the dutiable transactions together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially, one arrangement relating to all of the items or parts of, or interests in, the dutiable property.

Note. Associated person is defined in the Dictionary.

(2) Dutiable transactions are not to be aggregated under this section if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the dutiable property to which the transactions relate are comprised of separate allotments of vacant land, and

(b) the transferee is a person authorised to contract to do residential building work under the Home Building Act 1989, and

(c) the transferee intends to construct residential premises on the allotments for the purposes of sale to the public.

(3) The dutiable value of aggregated dutiable property is the sum of the dutiable values of the items or parts of, or the interests in, the dutiable property as at the time at which each dutiable transaction occurs.

(4) The amount of duty payable in accordance with this section is to be reduced by the amount of any ad valorem duty under this Chapter paid on a prior dutiable transaction that is, or prior dutiable transactions that are, aggregated in accordance with this section.

(4A) The amount of duty payable on dutiable transactions aggregated in accordance with this section is to be calculated at the rate applicable under this Chapter at the time at which the earliest of the aggregated dutiable transactions occur.

(5) Duty may be apportioned to the instruments effecting or evidencing the dutiable transactions, or may be charged in accordance with section 18 (1), as determined by the Chief Commissioner.

(6) A transferee to whom this section applies must disclose to the Chief Commissioner, in writing, at or before the time at which an instrument or statement relating to the dutiable transactions is lodged for stamping, details known to the transferee of:

(a) all of the items or parts of, or interests in, the dutiable property included or to be included in the arrangement referred to in subsection (1), and

(b) the consideration for each item or part of, or interest in, that dutiable property.

Maximum penalty (subsection (6)): 100 penalty units.

Note. An offence against subsection (6) committed by a corporation is an executive liability offence attracting executive liability for a director or other person involved in the management of the corporation—see section 121 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(7) The reference in this section to dutiable property does not include a reference to marketable securities.

(8) In this section:
vacant land includes land that the Chief Commissioner considers is substantially vacant apart from there being on that land the remnant of any building, or any other object or structure, that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied has been preserved because of its heritage significance.

26 Certain transactions concerning goods and other property

(1) If a dutiable transaction involves goods and other dutiable property, the Chief Commissioner may disregard the value of the goods in the transaction if the dutiable value of the other property does not exceed 10% of the dutiable value of all the dutiable property in the transaction.

(2) This section does not enable the Chief Commissioner to disregard the value of goods used in connection with a business in respect of which the goodwill of the business is, or is part of, the dutiable property.

26A (Repealed)

27 Apportionment—dutiable property and other property

(1) If a dutiable transaction relates to dutiable property and property that is not dutiable property, it is chargeable with duty under this Chapter only to the extent that it relates to dutiable property.

(2) If a dutiable transaction relates to different types of dutiable property for which different rates of duty are chargeable under this Chapter, the dutiable transaction is chargeable with duty under this Chapter as if a separate dutiable transaction had occurred in relation to each such type of dutiable property.

28 Apportionment—business assets in this and other jurisdictions

(1) Business assets to which this section applies This section applies to a business asset referred to in section 11 (1) (g), being:

(a) the goodwill of a business, if the business has also supplied goods outside New South Wales, or provided services outside New South Wales, to a customer of the business during the previous 12 months, or

(b) intellectual property that has also been used or exploited in one or more other Australian jurisdictions during the previous 12 months, or

(c) a statutory licence or permission under a Commonwealth law if the rights under the licence or permission have been exercised during the previous 12 months in respect of one or more other Australian jurisdictions.

(2) How is the dutiable value of a business asset determined? The dutiable value (DV) of a business asset to which this section applies is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

\[ DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y} \]

where:

\( A \) is the unencumbered value of the business asset, or so much of the consideration for the dutiable transaction as relates to the business asset, whichever is the greater, and

\( X \) is the gross amount (expressed in Australian dollars) of goods supplied, and services provided, in New South Wales by the business to customers of the business during the last 3 completed
The dutiable value of a partnership interest \( DV \) is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

where:

- \( A \) is the value of the partnership interest, or so much of the consideration for the dutiable transaction as relates to the partnership interest, whichever is the greater, and
- \( X \) is the unencumbered value of all dutiable property of the partnership, and
- \( Y \) is the unencumbered value of all assets of the partnership.

For the purposes of this section and despite subsection (1), the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is a business asset to which section 28 applies is the dutiable value of the business asset determined in accordance with section 28.

If the property of a partnership includes a land-related asset and an interest in the land-related asset is transferred as a result of the transfer of the partnership interest, the dutiable value of the partnership interest is to be reduced by the dutiable value of the interest in the land-related asset that is transferred, but only if ad valorem duty under this Chapter has been paid or is payable on the transfer of the interest in the land-related asset.

Note. For example, 3 partners jointly hold land valued at $9 million and other non-dutiable property valued at $3 million. The partnership has liabilities of $6 million. One partner retires, and is paid $2 million for his or her partnership interest. The retiring partner transfers a one-third interest in the land to the remaining partners. Duty is payable at an ad valorem rate on the transfer of the one-third interest in the land. The transfer of the interest in land has a dutiable value of $3 million. Under this section, the partnership interest has a dutiable value of $1.5 million \( (DV = $2M \times $9M/$12M) \). As the dutiable value of the interest in land transferred exceeds the dutiable value of the partnership interest transferred, the minimum duty would be payable on the transfer of the partnership interest.

(3A) The minimum duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of a partnership interest to which subsection (3) applies is $50.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), each of the following items of dutiable property is a land-related asset:

(a) land in New South Wales,

(b) transferable floor space,

(c) a land use entitlement,

(d) an interest in an item of dutiable property referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

30 Partitions

(1) What is a partition? For the purposes of this section, a partition occurs when dutiable property comprised of land in New South Wales that is held by persons jointly (as joint tenants or tenants in common) is transferred or agreed to be transferred to one or more of those persons.

(2) Single dutiable transaction For the purposes of this section and sections 16, 18 and 104X, a partition is taken to be a single dutiable transaction.

(3) Dutiable value The dutiable value of a partition is the greater of:

(a) the sum of the amounts by which the unencumbered value of the dutiable property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to a person by the partition exceeds the unencumbered value of the interest held by the person in the dutiable property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to each person by the partition immediately before the partition, and

(b) the sum of any consideration for the partition paid by any of the parties.

(3A) (Repealed)

(4) Minimum duty The minimum duty chargeable on a transaction that effects a partition is $50.

(5) Who is liable to pay the duty? Duty charged by this section is payable by the persons making the partition or any one or more of them.

(6) Anti-avoidance criteria This section does not apply in respect of a partition if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the partition is part of a scheme to avoid duty on an exchange of land that was not jointly held by the parties before the scheme was entered into.

31 Effect of alteration in purchase price

(1) If after an agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property is entered into and before the property is transferred:

(a) the consideration under the agreement is reduced and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the consideration was reduced, or

(b) the consideration under the agreement is reduced because the parties have agreed not to transfer some of the dutiable property previously agreed to be transferred and the reduced consideration is not less than the unencumbered value of the dutiable property that remained to be transferred when the consideration was reduced, or

(c) the consideration under the agreement is increased and the dutiable value when the consideration was increased is greater than the dutiable value when the agreement was entered into, the Chief Commissioner must assess or reassess the liability to duty of the agreement in accordance with the change in the consideration.

(2) The liability to pay additional duty arising from an increase in the consideration occurs on the date the consideration is agreed to be increased.

Division 1 Preliminary

32AA Definitions

In this Part:

\textit{adjustable amount} means an amount specified in this Part as an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 3.

\textit{base amount} means the amount specified for a threshold range in Column 4 of the table to section 32
(1).

\textit{fixed rate} means the rate specified for a threshold range in Column 5 of the table to section 32 (1).

\textit{maximum threshold amount} means the amount specified for a threshold range in Column 3 of the table to section 32 (1).

\textit{minimum threshold amount} means the amount specified for a threshold range in Column 2 of the table to section 32 (1).

\textit{premium base amount}—see section 32A (2).

\textit{threshold range}—see section 32 (2).

Division 2 Rates of duty

32 General rate

(1) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction is the base amount for the threshold range that applies to the dutiable transaction plus the amount determined at the fixed rate in respect of the dutiable value of the dutiable property involved in the transaction.

\begin{tabular}{|c|c|c|c|c|}
\hline
Threshold range & Minimum threshold amount & Maximum threshold amount & Base amount & Fixed rate \\ \hline
\end{tabular}
(2) For the purposes of this Part, a threshold range applies to a dutiable transaction if the dutiable value of the dutiable property involved in the transaction is more than the minimum threshold amount but not more than the maximum threshold amount (if any) specified for that threshold range.

(3) The rate of duty provided for by this section applies unless other provision is made by this Chapter.

(4) Each minimum threshold amount and maximum threshold amount is an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 3.

32A Premium rate for residential land with dutiable value exceeding $3,000,000

(1) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land that has a dutiable value exceeding $3,040,000 is the premium base amount plus $7 for every $100, or part, by which the dutiable value of the residential land exceeds $3,040,000.

(2) The premium base amount is the amount of duty chargeable in respect of a dutiable transaction involving dutiable property that has a dutiable value of $3,040,000, determined in accordance with section 32.

Note. The premium base amount in respect of a dutiable transaction occurring in the financial year commencing on 1 July 2019 is $152,502.

(2A) The rate of duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land that has a dutiable value not exceeding $3,040,000 is as provided for by section 32.

(2B) If the dutiable property subject to a dutiable transaction comprises 2 or more individual items of residential land and 1 or more of those items has a dutiable value exceeding $3,040,000, the rate of duty chargeable on the dutiable transaction is as follows:

(a) for each item of residential land that has a dutiable value exceeding $3,040,000—premium base amount plus $7 for every $100, or part, by which the dutiable value of the item exceeds $3,040,000,

(b) for the rest of the dutiable property—the rate provided for by section 32.

(2C) The amount of $3,040,000 specified in any provision of this section is an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 3.

(3) For the purposes of this section, residential land means:

(a) a parcel of land on which there is one single dwelling or one flat, or a parcel of land on which there is a building under construction that, when completed, will constitute one single dwelling or one flat, or

(b) a strata lot, if it is lawfully occupied as a separate dwelling, or suitable for lawful occupation as a separate dwelling, or

(c) a land use entitlement, if it entitles the holder of the land use entitlement to occupy a building, or part of a building, as a separate dwelling, or

(d) a parcel of vacant land that is zoned or otherwise designated for use under an environmental planning instrument (within the meaning of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979) for residential or principally for residential purposes.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3) (a), land does not cease to be regarded as land on which there is one single dwelling, or one flat, merely because the land is also used or is capable of being used for the purpose of one other residential occupancy, if that residential occupancy is an excluded residential occupancy.

(5) This section does not apply to a case in which section 32B or 32C applies.

(6) In this section:

excluded residential occupancy means:

(a) one room, or

(b) one suite of rooms (not being a flat) each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, or

(c) one flat, or

(d) one suite of rooms (not being a flat) each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, and one room, or

(e) one flat and one room, or

(f) 2 rooms, each of which is separately occupied.

flat means a room or suite of rooms (whether or not forming part of a building or a detached building):

(a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or
(b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling,

but does not include a single dwelling, a strata lot or a dwelling, or portion of a building, that is occupied under a land use entitlement.

Single dwelling means a house:

(a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or

(b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling,

but does not include a strata lot or a property commonly known as a shop and dwelling.

32B Rate for residential land used for other purposes

1. If a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land has a dutiable value exceeding $3,040,000, and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the residential land is used for purposes other than residential purposes, duty is to be charged at the rate of $7 for every $100, or part, of the premium value of the residential land.

2. The premium value of the residential land is the amount (if any) by which the dutiable value of the residential land, when reduced by the apportionment factor, exceeds $3,040,000.

2A. The amount of $3,040,000 specified in subsections (1) and (2) is an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 3.

3. The apportionment factor is:

   (a) if the land is mixed development land or mixed use land and there is an apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land under Division 5 or 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916—that apportionment factor, or

   (b) if paragraph (a) is not applicable—such other apportionment factor as the Chief Commissioner considers fair and reasonable to reflect the use of the land for non-residential purposes, subject to subsections (4) and (5).

4. If there is no apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land, and the land is mixed development land or mixed use land, the Chief Commissioner may request the Valuer-General to determine the apportionment factor in respect of the land concerned.

5. If a request is made under subsection (4):

   (a) the Valuer-General must determine the apportionment factor concerned and enter it in the Register of Land Values under the Valuation of Land Act 1916, and

   (b) that apportionment factor is to be applied in respect of the residential land.

Note. Divisions 5 and 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916 allow objections to be made against the amount of an apportionment factor.
(6) Duty is to be charged, at the rate set out in section 32, in respect of the dutiable value of the dutiable property transferred reduced by the premium value of the residential land.

(7) In this section:

mixed development land has the same meaning as in Division 5 of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

mixed use land has the same meaning as in Division 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

residential land has the same meaning as in section 32A.

32C Rate for large parcels of residential land

(1) If a dutiable transaction in respect of residential land that is a parcel of land has a dutiable value exceeding $3,040,000, and the area of the parcel of land exceeds 2 hectares, duty is to be charged at the rate of $7 for every $100, or part, of the premium value of the residential land.

(2) The premium value of the residential land is the amount (if any) by which the dutiable value of the residential land, when multiplied by the apportionment factor, exceeds $3,040,000.

(2A) The amount of $3,040,000 specified in subsections (1) and (2) is an adjustable amount for the purposes of Division 3.

(3) The apportionment factor is the proportion that 2 hectares bears to the total area of the parcel of land in hectares.

(4) Duty is to be charged, at the rate set out in section 32, in respect of the dutiable value of the dutiable property transferred reduced by the premium value of the residential land.

(4A) This section does not apply in respect of residential land if section 32B applies to the land.

(5) In this section:

residential land has the same meaning as in section 32A.

33 Shares, units, derivatives and interests (marketable securities)

(1) The rate of duty chargeable on dutiable transactions in respect of marketable securities is 60 cents per $100, or part, of the dutiable value of the marketable securities.

(2) (Repealed)

(3) A minimum rate of duty of $10 is chargeable under this section in respect of a transfer of shares of a corporation that is not the legal or beneficial owner of land in New South Wales.

(4) A rate of duty chargeable under this section does not apply to a dutiable transaction that confers a land use entitlement.

(5) If a provision of this Chapter provides that a duty of $50 is chargeable in respect of a transfer of marketable securities, and the duty charged at the rate provided for by subsection (1) would be less than $50, the duty chargeable is that lesser amount.
(6) This section is subject to section 273, which provides for a minimum duty of $10.

Note. Transactions in respect of shares or units that are quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange or a recognised stock exchange, or interests in such shares or units, are not dutiable transactions (see section 11 (2)).

33A Shares in share management fisheries

The rate of duty chargeable on dutiable transactions in respect of shares in a share management fishery (within the meaning of the Fisheries Management Act 1994) is 60 cents per $100, or part, of the dutiable value of the shares.

Division 3 Indexation of amounts

33AB Interpretation

(1) In this Division:

CPI number means the Consumer Price Index (All Groups Index) for Sydney published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics in the latest published series of that index.

(2) If, after 1 July in any year, the Australian Statistician publishes a CPI number in respect of the latest March quarter in substitution for a CPI number previously published in respect of that quarter, the publication of the later CPI number is to be disregarded for the purposes of any adjustment under this Division.

33AC Adjustable amounts

(1) Each adjustable amount is to be adjusted for the year commencing on 1 July 2020, and each subsequent year, in accordance with this section.

(2) The adjustable amounts that are to apply for a year are to be calculated by multiplying the adjustable amounts that applied before any adjustment under this Division by A/B where:

A is the CPI number for the March quarter in the year immediately preceding the year for which the amount is calculated.

B is the CPI number for the March quarter of 2019.

A/B is calculated to the nearest 3 decimal places (and a fourth decimal place of 5 is to be rounded up).

(3) An adjustable amount determined in accordance with this section is to be rounded to the nearest $1,000 (and an amount of $500 is to be rounded up).

(4) However, if the adjustable amount calculated for any year is less than the amount that applied for the previous year, then the amount for that previous year applies instead.

33AD Base amounts

(1) Each base amount for a threshold range is to be adjusted for the year commencing on 1 July 2020, and each subsequent year, so that it is equal to the sum of all fixed rate amounts determined for the preceding threshold ranges.

(2) The fixed rate amount for a threshold range is the amount determined at the fixed rate in respect of dutiable property that has a dutiable value equal to the maximum threshold amount for the threshold range.

(3) An adjusted base amount determined in accordance with this section is to be rounded to the nearest dollar (and an amount of 50 cents is to be rounded down).

33AE References to adjustable amounts and base amounts

(1) The adjustable amounts and base amounts adjusted for a year in accordance with this Division replace the amounts that applied for the previous year.

(2) Accordingly, a reference to a rate or amount of duty as provided for by, or determined in accordance with, section 32 is a reference to the rate or amount subject to any adjustment under this Division.

33AF Publication of adjusted amounts

(1) The Chief Commissioner is to publish a notice on the NSW legislation website before the start of each year commencing on 1 July specifying the following amounts that are to apply for that year:

(a) each adjustable amount, as adjusted in accordance with this Division,
(b) each base amount, as adjusted in accordance with this Division,
(c) the premium base amount, determined by reference to any relevant amount adjusted in accordance with this Division.

(2) However, failure to publish the notice or late publication of the notice does not affect the validity of an adjustment under this Division.

Part 4 Abolition of various duties

34 Abolition of duty on transfers of marketable securities and commercial fishery shares

(1) On and from 1 July 2016, marketable securities and commercial fishery shares are not dutiable property (despite section 11).

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any transfer or transaction with respect to marketable securities or commercial fishery shares that occurs before 1 July 2016 and, accordingly, does not affect any requirement to pay duty under this Chapter in respect of the transfer or transaction.

(3) In this section:

commercial fishery share means a share in a share management fishery (within the meaning of the Fisheries Management Act 1994).

35 Abolition of duty on transfers of business assets

(1) On and from 1 July 2016, a business asset is not dutiable property (despite section 11).

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any transfer or transaction with respect to business assets that occurs before 1 July 2016 and, accordingly, does not affect any requirement to pay duty under this Chapter in respect of the transfer or transaction.

36 Abolition of duty on transfers of statutory licences or permissions and gaming machine entitlements

(1) On and from 1 July 2016, a statutory licence or permission, or a gaming machine entitlement, is not dutiable property (despite section 11).

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of any transfer or transaction with respect to statutory licences or permissions, or gaming machine entitlements, that occurs before 1 July 2016 and, accordingly, does not affect any requirement to pay duty under this Chapter in respect of the transfer or transaction.

(3) In this section:

gaming machine entitlement means a gaming machine entitlement within the meaning of the statutory licence or permission means a statutory licence or permission under a New South Wales law.

37 Anti-avoidance measures

Section 35 or 36 does not apply in respect of a transfer or transaction that occurs on or after 1 July 2016 if:

(a) the transfer or transaction replaces a transfer or transaction involving the same business asset, statutory licence or permission, or gaming machine entitlement, that occurred before 1 July 2016, or

(b) the transfer or transaction is made or entered into pursuant to an option to purchase the business asset, statutory licence or permission, or gaming machine entitlement, that was granted before 1 July 2016, or

(c) the transfer or transaction was made or entered into pursuant to another arrangement, made before 1 July 2016, the only or main purpose of which was to defer the transfer or transaction until 1 July 2016, or later, so that duty would not be chargeable under this Chapter on the transfer or transaction.

38–48A (Repealed)

Part 5 Special provisions

49 Interim payment of duty

(1) If the full dutiable value of dutiable property subject to an agreement for sale or transfer cannot, in the Chief Commissioner’s opinion, be immediately ascertained, the Chief Commissioner may make an assessment by way of estimate under section 11 (2) of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) An instrument effecting or evidencing the sale or transfer may be stamped “interim stamp only”.

Duties Act 1997 No 123 [NSW]
(3) The Chief Commissioner must, when the full dutiable value of the dutiable property has been ascertained, reassess the duty payable in respect of the instrument.

(4) If no further duty is payable, the interim stamp is to be cancelled and any amount paid in excess of the amount assessed is to be refunded.

(5) If further duty is payable, liability for the further duty arises when a notice of assessment is issued, despite any other provision of this Act.

(6) On payment of the balance of the duty (and any interest or penalty tax), the instrument is to be stamped with the amount of the balance and marked to indicate that duty has been duly paid.

49A Purchases “off the plan”

(1) Liability for duty on an off the plan purchase agreement arises:

(a) on completion of the agreement, or

(b) on the assignment of the whole or any part of the purchaser’s interest under the agreement, or

(c) on the expiration of 12 months after the date of the agreement, whichever first occurs.

(1A) This section applies in relation to an off the plan purchaser agreement only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied, when assessing liability for duty after the agreement is lodged for stamping, that the purchaser or transferee under the agreement (or, if there is more than one purchaser or transferee, at least one of them) intends to use and occupy the residence to which the agreement relates as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement.

(1B) The residence must be used and occupied by the purchaser or transferee (or, if there is more than one purchaser or transferee, at least one of them) as the purchaser or transferee’s principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with occupation commencing no later than 12 months (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may approve) after completion of the sale or transfer. This requirement is referred to as the residence requirement.

(1C) If the residence requirement is not complied with in relation to the residence, this section is taken never to have applied in relation to the off the plan purchase agreement, including for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) This section applies despite section 12.

(3) Nothing in this section prevents the Chief Commissioner from accepting payment of duty and stamping an off the plan purchase agreement at any time after the agreement has been executed.

(3A) This section does not apply in relation to an off the plan purchase agreement if any purchaser or transferee under the agreement is a foreign person (within the meaning of Chapter 2A).

(4) In this section:

off the plan purchase agreement means an agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property, being land on which a residence is to be erected or developed before completion of the sale or transfer.

50 Cancelled agreements

(1) An agreement for the sale or transfer of dutiable property that is cancelled is not liable to duty under this Chapter if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied:

(a) that the agreement was not cancelled to give effect to a subsale, or

(b) that the purchaser or transferee under the agreement is a promoter of a named company proposed to be incorporated and that the company is the purchaser or transferee of the dutiable property under a subsequent agreement, or

(c) that the purchaser or transferee under the agreement and the purchaser or transferee under a subsequent agreement relating to the same dutiable property were related persons when the agreement that is cancelled was entered into.

(2) If duty has been paid on an agreement that is not liable to duty under this Chapter because of this section, the Chief Commissioner must reassess and refund the duty if an application for a refund is made within:

(a) 5 years of the initial assessment, or

(b) 12 months after the agreement is cancelled, whichever is the later.

(3) In this section, cancelled means rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion.

50A Cancelled transfers of dutiable property

(1) A transfer of dutiable property that is effected by an instrument is not liable to duty under this

(2A) Duty of $50 is chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable trust property to any of the following as a consequence of the retirement of a trustee or the appointment of a new trustee if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the transfer is not part of a scheme to avoid duty that involves conferring an interest, in relation to the dutiable trust property, on a new trustee or any other person (whether or not as a beneficiary) so as to cause any person to cease holding the whole or any part of a beneficial interest (or potential beneficial interest) in that property:

  (a) a licensed trustee company that is not a special trustee,

  (b) a trustee of a self managed superannuation fund,

  (c) a trustee of a special disability trust.

If the Chief Commissioner is not so satisfied, the transfer is chargeable with the same duty as a transfer to a beneficiary under and in conformity with the trusts subject to which the property is held, unless subsection (3A) applies.

(3A) Duty of $50 is chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable trust property as a consequence of the retirement of a responsible entity of a managed investment scheme or the appointment of a new responsible entity of a managed investment scheme if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the only beneficial interest acquired by a person in relation to the dutiable trust property as a result of the transfer is a beneficial interest acquired by the replacement or new responsible entity solely because of its appointment as responsible entity for the scheme.

(3B) Duty of $50 is chargeable in respect of a vesting of land in New South Wales by, or expressly authorised by, statute law (as referred to in section 8 (1) (b) (vii)) in a person or responsible entity if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that subsection (2), (2A), (3) or (3A) would apply in respect of the dutiable transaction if it were a transfer of dutiable property.

      (i) the dutiable property is property, or part of property, vested in the apparent purchaser upon trust for the real purchaser, and
      (ii) the real purchaser provided the money for the purchase of the dutiable property and for any improvements made to the dutiable property after the purchase.

(1A) For the purposes of subsection (1), money provided by a person other than the real purchaser is taken to have been provided by the real purchaser if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the money was provided as a loan and has been or will be repaid by the real purchaser.

(1B) This section applies whether or not there has been a change in the legal description of the dutiable property between the purchase of the property by the apparent purchaser and the transfer to the real purchaser.

the duty chargeable on the transfer of the dutiable property back to the transferor is $50.

(2) If duty of $50 has been paid on a transfer under subsection (1), the initial transfer to the trustee is also chargeable with duty of $50. The Chief Commissioner must reassess the initial transfer and refund any duty paid in excess of $50 if an application for a refund is made within:

(2) The dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the transfer or agreement is to be calculated by deducting from the unencumbered value of the dutiable property or the consideration for the transfer or agreement, whichever is the greater, the proportion of that amount that is the same as the proportion of the purchaser’s beneficial interest in the dutiable property immediately before the transfer or agreement.

(iii) no duty was chargeable on the acquisition of the term in the land by the transferee because of section 68.
64A Amalgamation of Western Lands leases

(1) This section applies to the transfer of, or an agreement to transfer, a Western lands lease (within the meaning of Schedule 3 to the Crown Land Management Act 2016), being a lease for a purpose specified in an order of the Governor made for the purposes of this section and published in the Gazette.

Editorial note. For orders published under this section see Gazette No 92 of 13.8.1999, p 5743.

(2) The duty chargeable on a dutiable transaction, being the transfer of, or an agreement to transfer, a lease to which this section applies is to be reduced if:

(a) the transferee has transferred another Western lands lease within 3 years before the dutiable transaction, and

(b) the land subject to the dutiable transaction adjoins land held by the transferee under a Western lands lease.

(3) The duty chargeable on the dutiable transaction is to be reduced by the amount of duty paid on the transfer of, or the agreement to transfer, the other lease within 3 years before the dutiable transaction.

64B Reduction of duty on transfer of marketable securities—payment in non-Australian jurisdiction

(1) The amount of duty chargeable under this Chapter on a transfer of marketable securities is to be reduced by the amount of duty of a similar kind paid in relation to the transfer in accordance with the law of a place outside Australia.

(2) In this section, a reference to a transfer of marketable securities includes a reference to a dealing or arrangement affecting marketable securities by means of a dutiable transaction other than a transfer.

64C Transfers made in partial conformity with agreements

(1) The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of dutiable property is to be calculated in accordance with this section if:

(a) the transfer is made in partial conformity with an agreement for transfer or sale of the dutiable property, and

(b) the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement has been paid.

(2) A transfer is made in partial conformity with an agreement for transfer or sale if the transfer conforms with the agreement, apart from the fact that a share in the dutiable property transferred to one or more of the transferees under the transfer exceeds the share agreed to be transferred to the relevant transferee under the agreement.

(3) Duty is to be charged only on the excess proportion of the dutiable value of the dutiable property transferred.

(4) The excess proportion is the proportion, or the total of the proportions, by which the share or shares in the dutiable property transferred to each transferee exceed the share or shares in the dutiable property (if any) agreed to be transferred to each transferee.
(5) If a share in dutiable property is transferred to a transferee who was not a transferee under the agreement for transfer or sale, this section applies as if the share agreed to be transferred to that transferee is nil.

(6) This section does not apply if section 18 (3) applies in respect of the transfer.

Note. Example 1: An agreement provides for the transfer of dutiable property to 3 purchasers as equal tenants in common. Accordingly, the share of the dutiable property agreed to be transferred to each purchaser is one-third each. When the property is transferred, it is transferred to only 2 of the purchasers so that each purchaser acquires a one-half share. The shares transferred exceed the shares agreed to be transferred. That is, each purchaser has acquired a one-half share in the property instead of a one-third share. The excess proportion is the total of the proportions by which the shares transferred to the transferees exceed the shares agreed to be transferred. The total of (one-half minus one-third) and (one-half minus one-third) is one-third. Duty is charged on one-third of the dutiable value of the property transferred.

Example 2: An agreement provides for the transfer of dutiable property to 2 purchasers as equal tenants in common. Accordingly, the share of the dutiable property agreed to be transferred to each purchaser is one-half each. When the property is transferred, it is transferred to 3 transferees so that each transferee acquires a one-third share. The 2 one-third shares transferred to the original purchasers under the agreement do not exceed the shares agreed to be transferred. The excess proportion is the proportion by which the share transferred to the new transferee (one-third) exceeds the share agreed to be transferred (nil). Duty is charged on one-third of the dutiable value of the property transferred.

64D Transfers made on exercise of option to purchase land

The duty chargeable in respect of a transfer of land in New South Wales that occurs as a consequence of the exercise of an option to purchase land is to be reduced by the amount of duty (if any) paid by the transferee on the transfer of the option to the transferee.

   (ii) the parties to the marriage have separated, and there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed, or

The Chief Commissioner is required to have regard to any such declaration in exercising his or her functions under this section.

Part 8 Other exemptions and concessions

Division 1 First Home Buyers Assistance Scheme

69 The nature of the scheme

This scheme is intended to help people who are acquiring their first home. Under the scheme, the acquisition is subject to a concession or exemption from duty.

70 Commencement

The following transactions and instruments are eligible for consideration under the scheme:

(a) agreements for sale or transfer entered into on or after 1 July 2017,

(b) transfers that occur on or after 1 July 2017 (other than transfers made in conformity with an agreement for sale or transfer entered into before 1 July 2017).

(c) (Repealed)

71 Restrictions on eligibility—previous ownership of residential property or first home concession

(1) A purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer may apply under the scheme, but will be eligible only if the purchaser or transferee is a first home owner.

(2) A first home owner is an individual:

(a) who has not at any time owned residential property in Australia (either solely or with someone else) and has not previously been a party to an application under the scheme that was approved by the Chief Commissioner, and

(b) whose spouse (if any) has not at any time owned residential property in Australia (either solely or with someone else) and has not previously been a party to an application under the scheme that was approved by the Chief Commissioner.

(3) (Repealed)

(4) For the purpose of this section, a person is the spouse of another person if:

(a) they are legally married, or

(b) they are living together as a couple in a de facto relationship.

(5) If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that, at the time of making an application under the scheme, a purchaser or transferee:

(a) is legally married but not cohabiting with the person to whom the applicant is legally married, and

(b) has no intention of resuming cohabitation, the person to whom the purchaser or transferee is legally married is not to be regarded as the applicant’s spouse.

For the purpose of determining eligibility, the ownership at any time of residential property, or a previous application under the scheme, is to be disregarded if the residential property owned by the purchaser or transferee is or was vested in the purchaser or transferee on trust, or as an executor under a will, or the application was made by the purchaser or transferee in his or her capacity as trustee or executor.

The fact that a purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer is not a first home owner does not prevent the agreement or transfer from being eligible under the scheme if:

(a) one or more of the purchasers or transferees under the agreement or transfer is a first home owner, and

(b) the total ownership share in the property to which the application relates that is being acquired by purchasers or transferees who are not first home owners does not exceed 5%.

Note. A purchaser or transferee is not considered to be a first home owner unless both the purchaser or transferee, and his or her spouse (if any), have not owned residential property before. See subsection (2).

For the purposes of this section, a person who is, or has at any time been, the holder of a leasehold interest granted by the Commonwealth in residential property in the Australian Capital Territory is taken to own or have owned that residential property.

72 (Repealed)

73 Ineligible persons

(1) Companies, partnerships, and persons in their capacity as trustees, are not eligible.

(2) However, a trustee is eligible if:

(a) the trustee is the guardian of a person under a legal disability and the person under a legal disability is a first home owner who will be occupying the home to which the agreement or transfer relates as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement under section 76, or

(b) the trustee is an apparent purchaser of a kind referred to in section 55 and the real purchaser is a first home owner.

(3) A purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer who is under 18 years of age is not eligible.

(4) Despite subsection (3), the Chief Commissioner may determine that a purchaser or transferee under 18 years of age is eligible if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the home to which the agreement or transfer relates will be occupied by the purchaser or transferee as his or her principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement under section 76, and

(b) the application does not form part of a scheme to circumvent limitations on, or requirements affecting, eligibility under the scheme.

(5) A purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer is not eligible unless the person is an Australian citizen or a permanent resident, subject to subsection (6).
(6) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer and at least one of them is a first home owner who is an Australian citizen or permanent resident, the other purchasers or transferees are exempt from compliance with subsection (5).

(7) (Repealed)

73A Application of eligibility criteria to joint purchasers and transferees

(1) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer, they may apply under the scheme, but the agreement or transfer will be eligible under the scheme only if all of the purchasers or transferees are eligible under the scheme.

(2) If the agreement or transfer is entered into, or occurs, under an approved shared equity scheme, it does not matter that the approved equity partners are not eligible under the scheme, as long as the other purchasers or transferees are eligible.

(3) This section does not affect section 78B.

74 Eligible agreements or transfers

(1) The agreement or transfer must be for the acquisition of a first home or for the acquisition of a vacant block of residential land intended to be used as the site of a first home.

(2) The agreement or transfer must be for the whole of the property.

(3) The dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer must be less than:

(a) $800,000 if the property has a private dwelling built on it, or

(b) $450,000 if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land.

Note. The dutiable value of dutiable property is the greater of:

(a) the consideration (if any) for the dutiable transaction (being the amount of a monetary consideration or the value of a non-monetary consideration), and

(b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.

(4) (Repealed)

74A Application of scheme to multiple occupancy contracts

(1) The provisions of this Part apply in respect of an agreement for the sale or transfer of a parcel of land on which 2 or more homes are built or being built (a multiple occupancy contract) as if:

(a) the multiple occupancy contract were a separate agreement or transfer in relation to each home built or to be built on the land as an exclusive occupancy, and

(b) the purchasers or transferees who will be entitled to occupy a home as an exclusive occupancy are the only purchasers or transferees under the separate agreement or transfer relating to the home.

(2) Any such separate agreement or transfer is taken to be an agreement or transfer for the whole of the property if it is for all of the land to be used or occupied for the purposes of the exclusive
(3) In this Part, a reference to the dutiable property the subject of the agreement or transfer is a reference to that part of the land that is to be used or occupied for the purposes of the exclusive occupancy.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a home that is being acquired or built under a multiple occupancy contract is an exclusive occupancy only if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that a person is or will be entitled to occupy the home as a place of residence to the exclusion of other persons who, under the contract, are to occupy the other home or homes built or being built on the relevant land.

75 Ineligible agreements and transfers

(1) An agreement or transfer is not eligible if it involves the acquisition of a business or business premises. However, an agreement for the purchase, or a transfer, of a farming property on which there is a private dwelling is not excluded.

(2) An agreement for the purchase, or a transfer, of a holiday home is not eligible.

(3) (Repealed)

76 Residence requirement

(1) The home must be occupied by the first home owner or one of the first home owners who is acquiring it as a principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may approve) after completion of the agreement or transfer. This requirement is referred to as the residence requirement.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may, if satisfied there are good reasons to do so in a particular case:

(a) modify the residence requirement by approving a shorter period of occupation by a first home owner, or

(b) exempt a first home owner from the requirement to comply with the residence requirement.

(3) In the case of an agreement or transfer for the acquisition of a vacant block of residential land, it is sufficient that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the vacant block is intended to be used as the site of a home to be occupied by the first home owner or one of the first home owners who is acquiring it as a principal place of residence.

(4) (Repealed)

(5) For the purpose of this section, an agreement or transfer is completed when a purchaser or transferee becomes entitled to possession of the home and, if the interest in the land acquired by the purchaser or transferee is registrable under a law of the State, the interest is so registered.

(6) The residence requirement does not apply to an application under the scheme if, on the date of the agreement or transfer:

(a) the applicant or, if there are 2 or more of them, at least one of the applicants is a member of the Permanent Forces of the Australian Defence Force (within the meaning of the Defence
(b) the applicant or, if there are 2 or more of them, each of the applicants is enrolled to vote in State elections (under the Electoral Act 2017).

76A Approval of application in advance of satisfaction of residence requirement

(1) The Chief Commissioner may approve an application in anticipation of compliance with the residence requirement under section 76 if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that each applicant required to comply with the residence requirement intends to occupy the home as his or her principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 6 months, with that occupation starting within 12 months after completion of the agreement or transfer or within a longer period approved by the Chief Commissioner.

(2) If an application is approved in anticipation of compliance with the residence requirement, the approval is given on condition that, if the residence requirement is not complied with, the applicant must within 14 days after the end of the period allowed for compliance:

(a) give written notice of that fact to the Chief Commissioner, and

(b) pay the relevant duty to the Chief Commissioner.

(3) The relevant duty is the difference between the total amount of duty that would have been payable on the transactions and instruments the subject of the application, if they had not been eligible under the scheme, and the total amount of duty (if any) paid in respect of those transactions and instruments.

(4) A person who fails to comply with the condition prescribed by this section is guilty of an offence.

   Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

(5) A failure to comply with the condition prescribed by this section is a tax default for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

77 (Repealed)

78 Making of applications

(1) An application is made to the Chief Commissioner by completing a declaration in an approved form.

(2) (Repealed)

(3) The Chief Commissioner may at any time (whether before or after the approval of an application) require the applicant or applicants to provide such further information as the Chief Commissioner may consider necessary for the proper administration of the scheme.

78A Duty payable if application approved

(1) If an application concerning an eligible agreement or transfer is approved and the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer is not more than the following amounts, no duty is chargeable on the agreement or transfer:
(a) $650,000 if the property has a private dwelling built on it, or

(b) $350,000 if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land.

(2) If an application concerning an eligible agreement or transfer is approved and subsection (1) does not apply to the agreement or transfer, duty is chargeable on the agreement or transfer as follows:

(a) if the property has a private dwelling built on it—at the rate of 21% of the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer, less $136,510, or

(b) if the property comprises a vacant block of residential land—at the rate of 15.74% of the dutiable value of the dutiable property that is the subject of the agreement or transfer, less $55,090.

(3) This section does not apply in respect of an agreement or transfer that is eligible under the scheme only for a shared equity concession.

78B Special concession for shared equity arrangements

(1) If there is more than one purchaser or transferee under an agreement or transfer, and one or more of them is a first home owner, but the agreement or transfer is not eligible under the scheme because one or more of the other purchasers or transferees is not eligible under the scheme, the agreement or transfer may still be eligible for a duty concession under the scheme (a shared equity concession).

(2) In order to be eligible for a shared equity concession:

(a) the purchasers or transferees who are first home owners must acquire not less than a 50% share in the ownership of the property, and

(b) the agreement or transfer must be an agreement or transfer that would be eligible under the scheme if the first home owners were the sole purchasers or transferees under the agreement or transfer.

(3) If an application concerning an agreement or transfer that is eligible under the scheme for a shared equity concession is approved, duty is chargeable as follows:

where:

\( D \) is the duty chargeable.

\( R \) is the duty that would be chargeable on the dutiable value of the property if this Division did not apply in respect of the agreement or transfer.

\( E \) is the ownership share in the property of the first home owner or owners, expressed as a percentage.

\( C \) is the duty (if any) that would be chargeable under section 78A on the agreement or transfer if that section applied in respect of the agreement or transfer.

(4) Despite anything to the contrary in this section, an agreement or transfer under which one or more of the purchasers or transferees is a company is not eligible under the scheme for a shared equity concession if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the application relating to that agreement or transfer should not be approved for any good reason.

(5) To avoid doubt, a reference in this Division (except section 78A) to an application that has been approved under the scheme includes an application that has been approved under the scheme because of eligibility for a shared equity concession.

(6) This section does not apply to an agreement or transfer that is entered into, or occurs, under an approved shared equity scheme.

Note. An agreement or transfer that is entered into, or occurs, under an approved shared equity scheme is eligible under the scheme, even though not all the purchasers or transferees are eligible (see section 73A).

79 Reassessment of duty payable where duty concession wrongly applied

(1) The Chief Commissioner may reassess the duty chargeable in respect of an agreement or transfer that is initially approved under the scheme if the Chief Commissioner forms the opinion that the agreement or transfer is not eligible under the scheme (because of failure to comply with the residence requirement or otherwise).

(2) The Chief Commissioner may issue a notice of assessment, based on the reassessment, for the duty chargeable in respect of the agreement or transfer.

80 Charge on land for duty liability of applicant

(1) Any duty liability that an applicant has under the scheme in respect of an agreement or transfer is a charge on the applicant’s interest in the land that is the subject of the agreement or transfer.

(2) An applicant has a duty liability under the scheme in respect of an agreement or transfer if the applicant is required to pay an amount of duty to the Chief Commissioner, in respect of an agreement or transfer that is initially approved under the scheme:

(a) under a condition of approval referred to in section 76A, or

(b) under a notice of assessment referred to in section 79.

(3) The charge created by this section gives the Chief Commissioner an interest in the land and, accordingly, the Chief Commissioner may lodge a caveat in respect of the land under the Real Property Act 1900 to protect that interest.

(4) The caveat must be withdrawn when the amount of the duty liability has been paid.

(5) The amount of the duty liability is the amount of duty that the applicant is required to pay to the Chief Commissioner in respect of the relevant agreement or transfer, together with any interest or penalty tax payable.

(6) In this section:

(3) If approval of an application is revoked, and the agreement or transfer was chargeable with duty of less than $5,000, or not chargeable with duty, a person to whom the new home grant was paid under the approval is liable to repay the amount of the grant, as duty, to the Chief Commissioner.

voting entitlement has the meaning given by section 95.

95 Meaning of “voting entitlement”

(1) A person’s voting entitlement in a corporation is that proportion of the total voting rights of all shareholders entitled to vote at general meetings of the corporation which the person is entitled to exercise, as a shareholder, at general meetings of the corporation.

(2) A person is to be considered to have a voting entitlement in a corporation (corporation A) if the person has a voting entitlement in another corporation (corporation B) which itself has a voting entitlement in corporation A.

(3) In a case to which subsection (2) applies, the person’s voting entitlement in corporation A is the proportion which results from multiplying the person’s voting entitlement in corporation B by corporation B’s voting entitlement in corporation A.

(4) If a person has a voting entitlement in the same corporation under different provisions of this section, or under different applications of the same provision of this section, the person’s voting entitlement in the corporation is the aggregate of those entitlements.

(5) In determining a person’s voting entitlement for the purposes of this section, proxies and other authorities to vote held by a shareholder are to be disregarded.

96 Transfer by corporation of principal place of residence to principal shareholder or spouse

(1) A transfer of land by a corporation is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

(a) the corporation owned the land on 11 September 1990, and

(b) the transferee or each of the transferees is a principal shareholder in the corporation or the spouse of such a principal shareholder (whether or not the principal shareholder is one of the transferees), and

(c) had the transferee or each of the transferees been an owner of the land within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.

(2) If land is transferred by a corporation to two or more persons jointly, each of those persons is, for the purposes of this section (but without affecting any entitlement to be considered to be a principal shareholder apart from this subsection), to be considered to be a principal shareholder in the corporation if:

(a) each of the persons has a voting entitlement in the corporation, and

(b) the aggregate of the voting entitlements in the corporation of each of those persons would be sufficient to qualify any one person as a principal shareholder in the corporation.

97 Transfer of principal place of residence by special trust to beneficiary etc

A transfer of land subject to a special trust is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

(a) the land was subject to the special trust on 11 September 1990, and

(b) the transferee or each of the transferees was:

(i) the settler of the land or the person who actually paid the purchase money for the land when the land was acquired by the trustee under the trust, or

(ii) a beneficiary of the special trust immediately before the transfer took effect and a beneficiary of the trust when the land was acquired by the trustee under the trust, or

(iii) the spouse of a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii), and

(c) the transferee or each of the transferees will hold the land beneficially, and

(d) had the transferee or each of the transferees been an owner of the land within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land transferred would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.

98 Transfer of principal place of residence by corporation to beneficiary of special trust

A transfer of land by a corporation (not acting in the capacity of a trustee) is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

(a) the corporation owned the land on 11 September 1990, and

(b) the transferee or each of the transferees is a person, or the spouse of a person, who is a beneficiary under a special trust and was a beneficiary under the trust when the land was acquired by the corporation, and

(c) the trustee under the special trust is a principal shareholder in the corporation (or would, if the trustee were not a corporation, be a principal shareholder in the corporation) at the time of the transfer, and

(d) had the transferee or each of the transferees been the owner within the meaning of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 on 31 December that last preceded the date of the transfer, the land transferred would, by the operation of section 10 (1) (r) of the Land Tax Management Act 1956, be exempt from land tax in respect of the year in which the transfer took effect.

99 Transfer by special trust to corporation

(1) A transfer of land to a corporation by a person in the person’s capacity as trustee of a special trust is eligible for exemption under this Division if:

(a) the land was subject to the special trust on, and at all times between, 31 December 1986 and 11 September 1990, and

(b) Division 122 of Part 3-3 of the Commonwealth Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 applies to the disposal of land effected by the transfer, and

(c) pursuant to that section, Part IIIA (Capital Gains and Capital Losses) of that Act (except that section) does not apply to that disposal.

(2) Chapter 3 (Certain transactions treated as transfers) and Chapter 4 (Acquisition of interests in landholders) do not apply to the issue or allotment of shares in a corporation pursuant to a transfer for which an exemption from the payment of duty is granted under this Division.

100 Transfer of land not used and occupied solely as a principal place of residence

If:

(a) a transfer of land would be eligible for exemption under section 96, 97 or 98 but for the fact that the land is not land to which section 96 (1) (c), 97 (d) or 98 (d) applies because it was not used and occupied solely as a principal place of residence at the relevant time, and

(b) the land value of the land was entitled to be reduced under section 9C or 9D of the Land Tax Management Act 1956 at the relevant time, the amount on which the transfer is to be charged with ad valorem duty is to be reduced in the same proportion as the land value was entitled to be reduced under section 9C or 9D of the Land Tax Management Act 1956.

101 Making of applications

(1) An application under this Division is to be made to the Chief Commissioner in an approved form.

(2) If the land to which the transfer relates is or includes land under the Real Property Act 1900, the application must be accompanied by an undertaking from the transferee in an approved form that:

(a) the duty that would be payable on the transfer but for the granting of an exemption under this Division will be paid if the transferee does not become the registered proprietor of the land within 3 months (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may at any time determine and notify in writing to the transferee) after the transfer is stamped as exempt from the payment of duty, and

(b) the transferee will, within 1 month after becoming the registered proprietor of the land (or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may at any time determine and notify in writing to the transferee), provide evidence of that fact to the satisfaction of the Chief
102 Determination of applications

(1) (Repealed)

(2) An application is not to be granted unless the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that all land tax payable in respect of the land (including any additional land tax payable by way of penalty or otherwise) has been paid.

(3) If the application is granted, the Chief Commissioner is to stamp the transfer as exempt from the payment of duty.

103 Reassessment of duty if undertaking not met

If a requirement of an undertaking from a transferee is not met, the Chief Commissioner may reassess the duty payable on the transfer as if this Division does not apply.

104 Application of scheme to land use entitlements

This Division applies to the transfer of a land use entitlement in the same way as it applies to a transfer of land, with such modifications as may be necessary.

Division 4 Transfers between married couples and de facto partners

104A Meaning of “residential land”

(1) In this Division, residential land means:

(a) a parcel of land on which there is:

(i) one single dwelling or one flat, or

(ii) one single dwelling, or one flat, and a shop, or

(iii) a building under construction that, when completed, will constitute one single dwelling or one flat (or one single dwelling, or one flat, and a shop), or

(b) a strata lot, if it is lawfully occupied as a separate dwelling, or suitable for lawful occupation as a separate dwelling, or

(c) a land use entitlement, if it entitles the holder of the land use entitlement to occupy a building, or part of a building, as a separate dwelling, or

(d) a parcel of vacant land that is zoned or otherwise designated for use under an environmental planning instrument (within the meaning of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979) for residential or principally residential purposes.

(2) Land does not cease to be regarded as land on which there is one single dwelling, or one flat, merely because the land is also used or is capable of being used for the purpose of one other residential occupancy, if that residential occupancy is an excluded residential occupancy.

(3) In this section:
excluded residential occupancy means:

(a) one room or one flat, or

(b) one room and one flat, or

(c) one suite of rooms (not being a flat), each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, or

(d) one suite of rooms (not being a flat), each room of which all occupants of the suite are entitled to occupy, and one room, or

(e) 2 rooms, each of which is separately occupied.

flat means a room or suite of rooms (whether or not forming part of a building or a detached building):

(a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or

(b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling, but does not include a single dwelling, a strata lot or a dwelling, or portion of a building, that is occupied under a land use entitlement.

single dwelling means a house:

(a) occupied or used as a separate dwelling, or

(b) so constructed, designed or adapted as to be capable of being occupied or used as a separate dwelling,

104B Exemption—transfer of residential land

(1) No duty is chargeable under this Chapter on a transfer, or an agreement for the sale or transfer, of residential land if:

(a) as a result of the transfer or agreement, the property is or will be held by a married couple or de facto partners as joint tenants or as tenants in common in equal shares, and

(b) the residential land:

(i) is land on which there is a dwelling that, when the transfer of dutiable property occurs, is used as the principal place of residence of the married couple or de facto partners, or

(ii) is a parcel of vacant land, or land on which there is a building under construction, and the married couple or de facto partners intend to use the residential land as the site of a dwelling to be used as their principal place of residence, and

(c) the residential land is used solely for residential purposes and not for any other purpose (such as a commercial, industrial or professional purpose), and

(d) both the transferor and the transferee are the married couple or one of them or the de facto partners or one of them and no other person is a party to the transfer, and

(e) in the case of de facto partners, the parties to the relationship have lived in the relationship for at least 2 years before the date of the transfer.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (c), the use of not more than one room on the land for a non-residential purpose is to be disregarded, if the use relates to a business or undertaking that is primarily conducted elsewhere.

(3) Land may be the subject of an exemption under this section even if it is partly held by another person who is not a part of the married couple or one of the de facto partners.

104C Concession—transfer of land used as principal place of residence and for other purposes

(1) If a transfer or agreement for transfer of residential land would be exempt from duty under section 104B, but for the fact that the land has been used or is intended to be used for a purpose other than a residential purpose, the duty chargeable on the transfer or agreement is to be calculated after reducing the dutiable value of the land by the residential apportionment factor.

(2) The residential apportionment factor is calculated by subtracting the non-residential apportionment factor from 1.

(3) The non-residential apportionment factor is:

(a) if the land is mixed development land or mixed use land and there is an apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land under Division 5 or 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916—that apportionment factor, or

(b) if paragraph (a) is not applicable—such other apportionment factor as the Chief Commissioner considers fair and reasonable to reflect the use of the land for non-residential purposes, subject to subsections (4) and (5).

(4) If there is no apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land, and the land is mixed development land or mixed use land, the Chief Commissioner may request the Valuer-General to determine the apportionment factor in respect of the land concerned.

(5) If a request is made under subsection (4):

(a) the Valuer-General must determine the apportionment factor concerned and enter it in the Register of Land Values under the Valuation of Land Act 1916, and

(b) that apportionment factor is to be applied as the non-residential apportionment factor in respect of the residential land.

Note. Divisions 5 and 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916 allow objections to be made against the amount of the apportionment factor.

(6) Duty on the transfer or agreement is to be charged at the general rate provided for by section 32. Sections 32A–32C do not apply.

(7) In this section:
mixed development land has the same meaning as in Division 5 of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

mixed use land has the same meaning as in Division 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

Division 5 Concession for persons who have transferred property affected by loose-fill asbestos insulation to State

104D Definitions

1. In this Division:

   - authority of the State has the same meaning as in the Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991.

   - owner, in relation to residential property, means:

     - (a) a registered proprietor of the property, or

     - (b) in the case of a land use entitlement—a person having ownership of shares or units through which the entitlement is conferred.

   residential property means:

     - (a) a parcel of land (including a strata lot) on which a dwelling is erected, or on which there is a building under construction that, when completed, will constitute a dwelling, or

     - (b) a land use entitlement—if it entitles the holder of the land use entitlement to occupy a building, or part of a building, as a separate dwelling.

   vacant residential land means a parcel of vacant land that is zoned or otherwise designated for use under an environmental planning instrument (within the meaning of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979) for residential or principally for residential purposes.

2. For the purposes of this Division, residential property is LFAI-affected if the dwelling erected on the land comprised in the residential property (or to which the residential property relates) contains, or is part of a building containing, loose-fill asbestos insulation (within the meaning of Division 1A of Part 8 of the Home Building Act 1989).

104E Concession

1. The purchaser or transferee under an agreement for the sale or transfer, or the transfer, of residential property or vacant residential land is entitled to be granted a duty concession under this Division in respect of the agreement or transfer if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

   - (a) the purchaser or transferee (or at least one of the purchasers or transferees if there is more than one purchaser or transferee) is the owner of residential property that will be acquired by an authority of the State (or was the owner from whom the authority of the State acquired the property), and

   - (b) the authority of the State has entered into a binding agreement to acquire (or has acquired) that residential property because it is or was LFAI-affected.
(2) Despite subsection (1) (a), the Chief Commissioner may grant a duty concession under this Division to a purchaser or transferee who is not or was not (at any time or at the applicable time) the owner (or the only owner) of the LFAI-affected property concerned if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that it would be fair and reasonable for the duty concession to be granted to the purchaser or transferee.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner may be satisfied that it would be fair and reasonable for a duty concession to be granted to a purchaser or transferee who is or was an owner, but not the only owner, of the LFAI-affected property concerned if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that each other owner has consented to the making of the application for the duty concession.

(4) If a duty concession is granted under this Division in respect of an agreement or transfer, any ad valorem duty chargeable under this Chapter on the agreement or transfer is to be reduced by the amount of ad valorem duty that (but for section 308) would be (or would have been) chargeable to the authority of the State on:

(a) the transfer to the authority of the State of the LFAI-affected property concerned, or

(b) any other dutiable transaction effected to acquire the LFAI-affected property.

(5) Duty cannot be reduced under this Division to less than $0.

(6) Only one duty concession may be granted under this Division for each acquisition of LFAI-affected property by an authority of the State.

104F Application

(1) An application for a duty concession under this Division is to be made to the Chief Commissioner in the approved form and contain, or be accompanied by, such particulars and other information as the Chief Commissioner may require.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may at any time (whether before or after the approval of an application) require the applicant or applicants to provide such further information as the Chief Commissioner may consider necessary for the proper administration of the concession scheme established by this Division.

Except as provided by this Chapter or Chapter 2, Chapter 2 does not apply in relation to duty charged by this Chapter.

Note. See, for example, sections 15, 16 and 16A.

foreign person means a person who is a foreign person within the meaning of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 of the Commonwealth, as modified by this section.

foreign trustee means a person who is a foreign person because of the person’s capacity as the trustee of a trust.

(2) The definition of foreign person in the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 of the Commonwealth is modified as follows:

(a) an Australian citizen is taken to be ordinarily resident in Australia, whether or not the person is ordinarily resident in Australia under that definition,

(b) a New Zealand citizen who holds a special category visa, within the meaning of section 32 of the Migration Act 1958 of the Commonwealth, at any particular time is taken at that time to be an individual whose continued presence in Australia is not subject to any limitation as to time imposed by law.

Note. Section 5 of the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 of the Commonwealth provides that an individual who is not an Australian citizen is ordinarily resident in Australia at a particular time (and is therefore not a foreign person) if and only if:

(a) the individual has actually been in Australia during 200 or more days in the period of 12 months immediately preceding that time, and

(b) at that time:

(i) the individual is in Australia and the individual’s continued presence in Australia is not subject to any limitation as to time imposed by law, or

(ii) the individual is not in Australia but, immediately before the individual’s most recent departure from Australia, the individual’s continued presence in Australia was not subject to any limitation as to time imposed by law.

(3) For the purposes of charging surcharge purchaser duty on a surcharge duty transaction, a person is taken to be a foreign person if the person is a foreign person when a liability for duty charged by Chapter 2 on the transaction arises (or would arise but for section 53A or a concession or exemption from duty under that Chapter).

Note. See section 12.

104K Meaning of “residential-related property” (cf section 11)

(i) it arises as a consequence of the ownership of a unit in a unit trust scheme and is not a land use entitlement, or

(ii) it is, or is attributable to, an option over residential-related property, or

(iii) it is a marketable security,

(d) a partnership interest (being an interest in a partnership that has partnership property that is residential-related property elsewhere referred to in this section).

104L Transactions on which surcharge purchaser duty is charged (cf section 8)

(1) Surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on the following dutiable transactions:

(a) a transfer of residential-related property to a foreign person,

(b) the following transactions:

(vi) the enlargement of a term in residential land into a fee simple under section 134 of the Conveyancing Act 1919 where the person who acquires the estate in fee simple (or, if there is more than one such person, at least one of those persons) is a foreign person, (viii) a lease of residential land to a foreign person, being a lease in respect of which a premium is paid or agreed to be paid.

(2) Such a transfer or transaction is a surcharge duty transaction for the purposes of this Act.

Note. The above listed transfers and transactions are all also dutiable transactions under Chapter 2. Generally speaking, a transferee (including a person taken to be a transferee under sections 9 and 104N) who is a foreign person is liable to pay duty on those transactions under Chapter 2 and under this Chapter.

(3) A reference in subsection (1) (b) (ii) to a person who, because of a declaration of trust, is a foreign trustee in respect of the trust includes a reference to a person who would be a foreign trustee in respect of the trust if any identified property to be vested in the person were actually vested in the person when the declaration is made.
(4) In this Chapter:

declaration of trust and premium have the same meanings as in Chapter 2.

Note. See section 8 for definitions of the above expressions.

lease or lease of residential land means a lease of residential land in New South Wales or an agreement for a lease of residential land in New South Wales.

transfer includes an assignment and an exchange.

Note. See also sections 104N and 104O in relation to transactions treated as transfers.

104M Vesting of land in New South Wales by statute law

(1) Section 8A is to be applied, for the purposes of this Chapter, in determining whether or not residential land is vested in New South Wales under statute law and in identifying a person in whom residential land is so vested.

(2) For those purposes, a reference in section 8A to section 8 (1) (b) (vii) is taken to include a reference to section 104L (1) (b) (vii).

104N Imposition of surcharge purchaser duty on transactions that are not transfers (cf section 9)

(1) The duty charged by this Chapter on a surcharge duty transaction referred to in section 104L (1) (b) is to be charged as if each such surcharge duty transaction were a transfer of residential-related property.

(2) Accordingly, for the purpose of charging duty under this Chapter, in relation to a surcharge duty transaction specified in Column 1 of the following Table:

(a) the property specified opposite the surcharge duty transaction in Column 2 is taken to be the property transferred (and a reference in this Act to property transferred includes a reference to such property), and

(b) the person specified opposite the surcharge duty transaction in Column 3 is taken to be the transferee of the residential-related property (and a reference in this Act to a transferee includes a reference to such a person), and

(c) the transfer of the residential-related property is taken to have occurred at the time specified opposite the surcharge duty transaction in Column 4 (and a reference in this Act to the time at which a transfer occurs includes a reference to such a time).

104O Other transactions taken to be transfers

(1) Sections 9A–9C apply, subject to this section and to any other necessary modifications, for the purpose of charging surcharge purchaser duty under this Chapter.

(2) For that purpose:

(a) a change in partnership arrangements that is of a kind referred to in section 9A is taken to be a transfer of a partnership interest (within the meaning of this Chapter) if the partnership has partnership property that is residential-related property, and

(b) a transaction of a kind referred to in section 9B in respect of an option to purchase residential land in New South Wales is taken to be a transfer of an option to purchase residential land, and

(c) a transaction of a kind referred to in section 9C that is a novation of an agreement for the lease of residential land in New South Wales is taken to be a transfer of residential-related property as if:

(i) the lessee’s interest in the agreement were residential-related property, and

(ii) the novation of the agreement were a transfer of that residential-related property.

(3) Surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on any such transfer if any of the persons taken to be transferees by section 9A, 9B or 9C (as the case may be) are foreign persons.

(4) To avoid doubt:

(a) this section does not affect liability for surcharge purchaser duty on a transfer of a partnership interest that occurs otherwise than because of a change in partnership arrangements, and

(b) a reference in this Act to a transfer of residential-related property includes a reference to a transaction taken to be a transfer by this section, and

(c) a reference in this Act to a surcharge duty transaction includes a reference to a transaction chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty under this section, and

(d) a reference in this Act to residential-related property includes, in relation to a transfer that is taken to occur under subsection (2) (c), a reference to a lessee’s interest in an agreement for the lease of residential land in New South Wales.

104P What form must a surcharge duty transaction take?

To avoid doubt, section 10 extends to dutiable transactions that are surcharge duty transactions.

104Q When does a liability for duty arise?

(1) Section 12 applies in respect of surcharge purchaser duty in the same way as it applies in respect of duty charged by Chapter 2.

(2) For that purpose, references in section 12 are to be read as follows:

(a) a reference to duty charged by Chapter 2 is to be read as a reference to surcharge purchaser duty,

(b) a reference to dutiable property is to be read as a reference to residential-related property,

(c) a reference to a dutiable transaction is to be read as a reference to a surcharge duty transaction.

104R Who is liable to pay surcharge purchaser duty? (cf section 13)

(1) The person liable to pay surcharge purchaser duty is the transferee.

(2) Only transferees who are foreign persons are liable to pay surcharge purchaser duty.

104S Liability for surcharge purchaser duty on certain trust-related transactions

(1) This section applies to a surcharge duty transaction that is:

(a) a transfer, or an agreement for the sale or transfer, of residential-related property where the transferee is acquiring the residential-related property in a trustee capacity, or

(b) a declaration of trust over residential-related property by a person who, because of the declaration, is a foreign trustee in respect of the trust.

(2) The transferee is only liable to pay surcharge purchaser duty on any such surcharge duty transaction if the transferee is a foreign trustee in respect of the trust.
In applying the provisions of this Chapter to a surcharge duty transaction referred to in subsection (1) (a), the transferee is not to be treated as a foreign person unless the transferee is a foreign trustee.

Note. For example, a trustee who is not a foreign trustee will not be liable for surcharge purchaser duty, even if the trustee is otherwise a foreign person.

104T Property purchased by apparent purchaser

(1) This section applies to a transfer, or an agreement for the sale or transfer, of residential-related property if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the transferee is an apparent purchaser and that the money for the purchase has been or will be provided by the real purchaser.

(2) In applying the provisions of this Chapter in relation to a transfer or agreement to which this section applies:

(a) the apparent purchaser is taken to be acquiring the residential-related property in a trustee capacity, and

(b) if any of the real purchasers are foreign persons, the apparent purchaser is taken to be a foreign trustee in respect of the trust.

(3) Accordingly, section 104S (3) applies in relation to the apparent purchaser.

(4) For the purposes of this section, money provided by a person other than the real purchaser is taken to have been provided by the real purchaser if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the money was provided as a loan and has been or will be repaid by the real purchaser.

(5) This section applies whether or not there has been a change in the legal description of the residential-related property between the purchase of the property by the apparent purchaser and the transfer to the real purchaser.

Note. For example, if the residential-related property is land, this section continues to apply if there is a change in the legal description of the residential-related property as a consequence of the subdivision of the land.

104U Charging of duty at relevant rate (cf section 19 and Part 3 of Chapter 2)

(1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, surcharge purchaser duty is to be charged on the dutiable value of the residential-related property subject to the surcharge duty transaction at a rate of 8% of the dutiable value of the residential-related property.

(2) If any of the transferees are not foreign persons, surcharge purchaser duty is to be charged only on the proportion of the dutiable value of the residential-related property that is the same as the proportion of the share or shares in that property transferred to foreign persons.

(3) If the surcharge duty transaction consists of a partition and any of the transferees are not foreign persons, surcharge purchaser duty is to be charged only on the proportion of the dutiable value of the partition that is the same as the proportion of the share or shares in the residential land transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to foreign persons.

(4) In this section:

partition has the same meaning as in section 30.
104V The liability of joint tenants

(1) Section 14 applies in respect of surcharge purchaser duty in the same way as it applies in respect of duty charged by Chapter 2.

(2) For that purpose, a reference in section 14 to duty charged by Chapter 2 is to be read as a reference to surcharge purchaser duty.

104W When must surcharge purchaser duty be paid? (cf section 17)

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if surcharge purchaser duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

104X No double surcharge purchaser duty (cf section 18)

(1) If a surcharge duty transaction is effected by more than one instrument, one instrument is to be stamped with the surcharge purchaser duty payable on the surcharge duty transaction and each other instrument is not chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty.

(2) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a transfer of residential-related property made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the residential-related property if:

(a) surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the agreement, and

(b) no surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable under section 104Y on the transfer.

(3) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a transfer of residential-related property that is not made in conformity with an agreement for the sale or transfer of the residential-related property if:

(a) surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the agreement, and

(b) no surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable under section 104Y on the transfer, and

(c) the transfer would be in conformity with the agreement if the transferee was the purchaser under the agreement, and

(d) the transfer occurs at the same time as, or proximately with, the completion or settlement of the agreement, and

(e) at the time the agreement was entered into, and at the completion or settlement of the agreement:

(i) the purchaser under the agreement and the transferee under the transfer are related persons, except as provided by subparagraph (ii), or

(ii) if the purchaser purchased as a trustee, the transferee and the beneficiary are related persons.

(4) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a transfer to a trustee of residential-related property subject to a declaration of trust if surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the declaration of trust in respect of the same residential-related property.

(5) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a transfer of residential-related property as a consequence of a foreclosure order if surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the foreclosure.

(6) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a declaration of trust that declares the same trusts as those upon and subject to which the same residential-related property was transferred to the person declaring the trust if surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the transfer.

(7) Surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on a declaration of trust if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the declaration of trust supersedes another declaration of trust in respect of which surcharge purchaser duty has been paid and declares the same trusts as were declared under the superseded declaration of trust, and

(b) the beneficiary under the declaration of trust is the same as under the superseded declaration of trust, and

(c) the residential-related property subject to the declaration of trust:

(i) is wholly or substantially the same as the property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(ii) represents the proceeds of re-investment of property that was the subject of the superseded declaration of trust at the time of the declaration of the superseded declaration of trust, or

(iii) is property to which both subparagraphs (i) and (ii) apply.

(8) Despite subsection (1), if a single surcharge duty transaction is effected by more than one electronic registry instrument, it is sufficient that one of those instruments is duly stamped with the duty chargeable on the surcharge duty transaction.

Note. See section 290.

104Y Change in proportion of share transferred to foreign persons

(1) If the share or shares in the residential-related property agreed to be sold or transferred to foreign persons are less than the share or shares actually transferred to foreign persons, surcharge purchaser duty is to be charged on the additional proportion of the share or shares transferred to foreign persons.

(2) If the share or shares in the residential-related property agreed to be sold or transferred to foreign persons exceed the share or shares actually transferred to foreign persons under the transfer and surcharge purchaser duty was paid on the agreement:

(a) surcharge purchaser duty is not chargeable on the transfer, and

(b) the Chief Commissioner is to reassess the agreement, by calculating the surcharge purchaser duty chargeable in proportion to the share or shares in the residential-related property actually transferred to foreign persons, and refund any excess surcharge purchaser duty paid.

Note. Section 104ZF provides for a full refund in cases where no surcharge purchaser duty is payable on the actual transfer because the transferees are no longer foreign persons.
Part 2 Dutiable value

104Z  What is the “dutiable value” of residential-related property? (cf section 21)

(1)  Part 2 of Chapter 2 applies, subject to this Part and to any other necessary modifications, in respect of surcharge duty transactions and surcharge purchaser duty in the same way as it applies in respect of dutiable transactions and the duty chargeable under Chapter 2.

(2)  For the purposes of this Chapter, references in Part 2 of Chapter 2 are to be read as follows:

(a) a reference to a dutiable transaction is to be read as a reference to a surcharge duty transaction,

(b) a reference to dutiable property is to be read as a reference to residential-related property,

(c) a reference to duty chargeable under Chapter 2 or to ad valorem duty is to be read as a reference to surcharge purchaser duty.

(3)  Sections 21 (3) and (4), 25, 26, 28, 29 and 30 (5) do not apply in respect of surcharge duty transactions.

104ZA  What is the “dutiable value” of a partnership interest? (cf section 29)

The dutiable value of a partnership interest ($DV$) is to be determined in accordance with the following formula:

$$DV = A \times \frac{X}{Y}$$

where:

$A$ is the value of the partnership interest, or so much of the consideration for the surcharge duty transaction as relates to the partnership interest, whichever is the greater, and

$X$ is the unencumbered value of all residential-related property of the partnership, and

$Y$ is the unencumbered value of all assets of the partnership.

104ZB  Reduction of dutiable value of land used for non-residential purposes

(1)  If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the residential land to which the residential-related property relates is used for purposes other than residential purposes, the duty chargeable under this Chapter is to be calculated after reducing the dutiable value of the residential-related property by the apportionment factor.

(2)  The apportionment factor is:

(a) if the land is mixed development land or mixed use land and there is an apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land under Division 5 or 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916—that apportionment factor, or

(b) if paragraph (a) is not applicable—such other apportionment factor as the Chief
Commissioner considers fair and reasonable to reflect the use of the land for non-residential purposes, subject to subsections (3) and (4).

(3) If there is no apportionment factor entered in the Register of Land Values in respect of the land value of the land, and the land is mixed development land or mixed use land, the Chief Commissioner may request the Valuer-General to determine the apportionment factor in respect of the land concerned.

(4) If a request is made under subsection (3):

(a) the Valuer-General must determine the apportionment factor concerned and enter it in the Register of Land Values under the Valuation of Land Act 1916, and

(b) that apportionment factor is to be applied in respect of the residential land.

Note. Divisions 5 and 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916 allow objections to be made against the amount of an apportionment factor.

(5) In this section:

- mixed development land has the same meaning as in Division 5 of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

- mixed use land has the same meaning as in Division 5A of Part 1B of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

104ZC Transfer of property subject to a statutory trust to a beneficial owner (cf section 56A)

(1) This section applies if residential-related property that is vested in a person as trustee of a statutory trust as a consequence of the making of an order under section 66G of the Conveyancing Act 1919 is transferred or agreed to be transferred by the trustee to one or more of the beneficial owners of the residential-related property who are foreign persons.

(2) For the purposes of calculating surcharge purchaser duty on the vesting of the residential-related property, the dutiable value of the residential-related property is to be calculated by deducting from the unencumbered value of the residential-related property or the consideration for the transfer or agreement, whichever is the greater, the proportion of that amount that is the same as the proportion of any foreign transferee’s beneficial interest in the residential-related property immediately before the transfer or agreement.

(3) A reference in this section to a foreign transferee is a reference to a transferee who is a foreign person.

104ZD Deceased estates where trusts under will are varied (cf section 63 (2) and (2A))

(1) This section applies if a transfer of residential-related property is made by a legal personal representative of a deceased person to a foreign beneficiary under an agreement (whether or not in writing) between the foreign beneficiary and one or more other beneficiaries to vary the trusts contained in a will of the deceased person or arising on intestacy.

(2) For the purposes of calculating surcharge purchaser duty on the transfer, the dutiable value of the residential-related property is to be reduced by the portion of the dutiable value that is referable to the residential-related property to which the foreign beneficiary had an entitlement arising under the trusts contained in the will or arising on intestacy.

(3) A transmission application made in respect of residential-related property by a beneficiary under a will, with the consent of the legal personal representative of a deceased person, is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be a transfer of residential-related property by the legal personal representative to the beneficiary.

(4) In this section:

Foreign beneficiary means a beneficiary who is a foreign person.

Part 3 Refunds and special provisions

104ZE Cancelled agreements and transfers

(1) The following transactions are not liable to surcharge purchaser duty if they are not liable to duty under Chapter 2 because of section 50 or 50A:

(a) an agreement for the sale or transfer of residential-related property that is cancelled (within the meaning of section 50),

(b) a transfer of residential-related property that is effected by an instrument.

(2) Section 50 (2) extends to surcharge purchaser duty that has been paid on an agreement that is not liable to surcharge purchaser duty because of this section.

(3) Section 50A (2) and (3) extend to surcharge purchaser duty that has been paid on a transfer that is not liable to surcharge purchaser duty because of this section and to any transfer instrument in respect of which the application for a refund is made.

104ZF Refund if property transferred to persons who are no longer foreign on transfer

If surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on an agreement for the sale or transfer of residential-related property and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that none of the transferees in respect of a transfer made in conformity or partial conformity with the agreement are foreign persons, the Chief Commissioner must reassess and refund that duty if an application is made within 5 years of the initial assessment.

104ZG Transfers back from a nominee

The Chief Commissioner must reassess, and refund any surcharge purchaser duty paid on, an initial transfer to a trustee referred to in section 56 (2) if the Chief Commissioner is required by that subsection to reassess, and refund any duty under Chapter 2 paid on, the initial transfer.

104ZH Break-up of marriages, de facto relationships or domestic relationships

The Chief Commissioner must reassess, and refund any surcharge purchaser duty paid on, a transfer or agreement referred to in section 68 (4), (4AA) or (4A) if the Chief Commissioner is required by that subsection to reassess, and refund any duty under Chapter 2 paid on, the transfer or agreement.

104ZI Possessory applications

(1) A possessory application under the Real Property Act 1900 in respect of residential land that is chargeable with ad valorem duty under Chapter 2 because of section 52 is chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty, as a transfer of the land, if any of the applicants are foreign persons.

(2) For that purpose:

(a) the dutiable value of the land is the land value of the land within the meaning of the Valuation of Land Act 1916, and

(b) applicants who are foreign persons are liable to pay the surcharge purchaser duty.

104ZJ Applications to bring land under Real Property Act 1900

(1) An application to bring residential land under the Real Property Act 1900 that is chargeable with ad valorem duty under Chapter 2 because of section 53 is chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty if any of the persons liable to pay duty under Chapter 2 on the application are foreign persons.

(2) The surcharge purchaser duty chargeable is to be determined by applying section 53 as if a reference in that section to duty or ad valorem duty were a reference to surcharge purchaser duty.

(3) Any foreign persons liable to pay duty under Chapter 2 on the application are liable to pay the surcharge purchaser duty.

104ZJA New home development by Australian-based developers that are foreign persons

(1) An Australian corporation that is the transferee under a transfer of residential-related property is entitled to a refund of surcharge purchaser duty paid by the transferee that is chargeable on the transfer if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) a new home has been constructed on the land concerned by the transferee or a related body corporate after completion of the transfer to the transferee and then sold by the transferee to a person who is not an associated person of the transferee without the home having been used or occupied for any purpose (other than as a display home) before the completion of that sale, or

(b) the land concerned has been subdivided by the transferee for the purpose of its use for new home construction and then sold by the transferee after the issue of a subdivision certificate (as referred to in section 109C of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979) for the subdivision.

(2) The amount of the refund to which a transferee is entitled under this section is the amount that is determined in accordance with an order made by the Treasurer for the purposes of this section and published in the Gazette. The amount of the refund may be the full amount of duty paid or a lesser amount (as determined in accordance with the order).

(3) The Chief Commissioner may approve a person as an exempt transferee for a particular transfer or class of transfers if the Chief Commissioner is of the opinion that the person is likely to become entitled under this section to a refund of the full amount of surcharge purchaser duty chargeable on a transfer to which the approval applies.

(4) No surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on a transfer of residential-related property if the transferee under the transfer is approved as an exempt transferee for the transfer at the time liability for duty would otherwise have arisen.
(5) The approval of a person as an exempt transferee is subject to the following provisions:

(a) an approval may be given subject to conditions and the approval operates subject to any such conditions,

(b) the conditions of an approval may be varied by the Chief Commissioner at any time by notice to the person,

(c) an approval remains in force until it is revoked and can be revoked by the Chief Commissioner at any time by notice to the person,

(d) the revocation of an approval can be backdated to extend to a transfer in respect of which liability for surcharge purchaser duty would (but for the approval) have arisen before the revocation is notified (an exempted transfer),

(e) if the revocation of an approval is backdated to extend to an exempted transfer, surcharge purchaser duty is payable and is to be assessed or reassessed as if the approval had never applied to the transfer and as if liability for duty arose when revocation of the approval was notified.

(6) Surcharge purchaser duty may be refunded under this section only if an application for the refund is made within 12 months after the completion of the sale of the new home or the issue of the subdivision certificate to which the application relates and no later than 10 years after completion of the transfer of the residential-related property to the Australian corporation.

(7) This section does not apply to a transfer of residential-related property that is a surcharge duty transaction referred to in section 104L (1) (b) except an agreement for the sale or transfer of residential-related property.

(8) In this section:

Australian corporation means a corporation that is incorporated or taken to be incorporated under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.

new home has the same meaning as in the First Home Owner Grant (New Homes) Act 2000.

Part 4 Exemptions and concessions

104ZK Transactions exempt from ad valorem duty under Chapter 2

(1) Subject to this Part, no surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on a surcharge duty transaction if:

(a) ad valorem duty is not chargeable on the transaction as a dutiable transaction under Chapter 2 because of any of the provisions of Parts 6 and 7 of that Chapter (other than sections 55, 57, 62, 62A and 62B), or

(b) the transaction is a relevant transfer to which section 61 applies, or

(c) the transaction is a dutiable transaction to which section 62 applies, or

(d) the transaction is a transfer, or an agreement for the sale or transfer, of residential-related property and a duty concession is granted under Division 5 of Part 8 of Chapter 2 in respect of the transaction.
(2) To avoid doubt, the exemptions and concessions provided for in Part 8 of Chapter 2 do not (except as provided by subsection (1) (d)) apply in respect of surcharge purchaser duty.

104ZKA Exemption for certain permanent residents in respect of principal place of residence

(1) No surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on a transfer, or an agreement for the sale or transfer, of residential-related property if each transferee under the transfer or agreement who would otherwise be liable to pay that duty is an exempt permanent resident.

(2) A transferee under a transfer or agreement is an exempt permanent resident if:

(a) the transferee is a permanent resident when a liability for duty charged by Chapter 2 on the transfer or agreement arises (or would arise but for a concession or exemption from duty under that Chapter), and

(b) the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the transferee intends to use and occupy the residential land to which the residential-related property relates as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement.

(3) If there is more than one transferee under the transfer or agreement who is a foreign person (a foreign transferee) and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that at least one, but not all, of those transferees is an exempt permanent resident:

(a) surcharge purchaser duty is to be reduced in proportion to the share or shares in the residential-related property transferred to foreign transferees who are exempt permanent residents, and

(b) none of those exempt permanent residents is liable to pay surcharge purchaser duty on the transfer or agreement.

(4) The residential land must be used and occupied by the exempt permanent resident as his or her principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least 200 days within the first 12 months after the liability date. This requirement is referred to as the residence requirement.

(5) The liability date is the date on which liability to surcharge purchaser duty first arose in respect of the share in the residential-related property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to the exempt permanent resident.

(6) If the residence requirement is not complied with in relation to the residential land, the Chief Commissioner must assess or reassess the surcharge purchaser duty chargeable on the transfer or agreement as if the exemption under this section had never applied.

(7) A reference in this section to the use and occupation of residential land as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement includes:

(a) in the case of a land use entitlement, a reference to the use and occupation of the building or part of the building to which the entitlement relates, as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement, and

(b) in the case of a utility lot (within the meaning of the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015), a reference to the use of the utility lot in conjunction with a strata lot used and occupied as a principal place of residence in accordance with the residence requirement.
104ZKB  Exemption for retirement visa holders in respect of principal place of residence

Section 104ZKA applies to a retirement visa holder in the same way as it applies to a permanent resident, subject to any modifications prescribed by the regulations.

104ZL  Change in trustees

(1) This section applies to a surcharge duty transaction if:

(a) the transaction is a transfer of residential-related property to a person as a consequence of the retirement of a trustee or the appointment of a new trustee, and

(b) as a consequence of section 54 (3), the transfer is chargeable with the same duty under Chapter 2 as a transfer to a beneficiary under and in conformity with the trusts subject to which the property is held.

(2) Surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on the surcharge duty transaction if ad valorem duty is chargeable on the transaction as a dutiable transaction.

104ZM  Reduction of duty on transactions involving apparent purchasers

(1) Any surcharge purchaser duty chargeable on a declaration of trust to which section 55 (1) (a) applies is to be reduced by the amount of surcharge purchaser duty (if any) paid on the transfer, or agreement for the sale or transfer, of the identified residential-related property to the apparent purchaser.

(2) Any surcharge purchaser duty chargeable on a transfer to which section 55 (1) (b) applies from an apparent purchaser to the real purchaser is to be reduced by the amount of surcharge purchaser duty (if any) paid on:

(a) any declaration of trust to which section 55 (1) (a) applies made by the apparent purchaser in respect of the residential-related property, and

(b) the transfer, or agreement for the sale or transfer, to the apparent purchaser.

104ZN  Exemption for property passing to beneficiaries  (cf section 57)

(1) No surcharge purchaser duty is chargeable on a transfer for no consideration of residential-related property to a beneficiary made under and in conformity with the trusts contained in a declaration of trust, subject to subsections (2) and (3).

(2) Subsection (1) applies only to the extent that the property being transferred is property that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied is:

(a) wholly or substantially the same as the property the subject of the declaration of trust and that:

(i) any surcharge purchaser duty has been paid on the declaration of trust over that property, or

(ii) the declaration of trust is exempt from surcharge purchaser duty, or

(b) dutiable property representing the proceeds of re-investment of property referred to in paragraph (a), or
(c) property to which both paragraphs (a) and (b) apply.

(3) Subsection (1) applies only if the transferee was a beneficiary at the time at which duty became chargeable on the declaration of trust.

104ZO Reduction of duty on transfers made on exercise of option to purchase land (cf section 64D)

The surcharge purchaser duty chargeable on a transfer of residential land in New South Wales that occurs as a consequence of the exercise of an option to purchase the land is to be reduced by the amount of surcharge purchaser duty (if any) paid on the transfer of the option to the transferee.

Part 5 Stamping and enforcement

104ZP Definition of “purchaser duty”

For the purposes of this Part, purchaser duty is the duty (if any) payable in respect of a dutiable transaction under Chapter 2.

104ZQ Stamping and endorsement of surcharge duty transactions

(1) If an instrument that effects or evidences a dutiable transaction that is also a surcharge duty transaction is stamped under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be stamped in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate that surcharge purchaser duty has been paid.

(2) If an instrument that effects or evidences a dutiable transaction that is also a surcharge duty transaction is endorsed under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be endorsed in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate that surcharge purchaser duty has been paid.

Note. See section 289A, which allows stamping to occur by means of an endorsement.

(3) An instrument that effects or evidences a dutiable transaction that is also a surcharge duty transaction is not duly stamped unless it is stamped or endorsed in accordance with this section.

104ZR Stamping of surcharge duty transactions not chargeable with duty

(1) If a surcharge duty transaction is not chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty, an instrument that effects or evidences the surcharge duty transaction must be stamped in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate that the transaction is not chargeable with surcharge purchaser duty.

(2) If a surcharge duty transaction is not chargeable with purchaser duty, an instrument that effects or evidences the transaction must be stamped in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate that the transaction is not chargeable with purchaser duty.

Note. See section 301 in relation to the registration of an instrument that effects or evidences a surcharge duty transaction.

104ZS Interim payment of duty

(1) In this section:
relevant dutiable transaction means an agreement for sale or transfer that is a dutiable transaction.

relevant surcharge duty transaction means an agreement for sale or transfer that is a surcharge duty transaction.

(2) Section 49 applies in respect of residential-related property subject to a relevant surcharge duty transaction in the same way as it applies in respect of dutiable property subject to a relevant dutiable transaction.

(3) For that purpose, references in section 49 are to be read as follows:

(a) a reference to the dutiable value of dutiable property is to be read as a reference to the dutiable value of residential-related property, determined in accordance with this Chapter,

(b) a reference to duty is to be read as a reference to surcharge purchaser duty.

104ZT Duplicates or counterparts

The duty chargeable under section 271 in respect of a duplicate or counterpart of an instrument is not payable in respect of any duplicate or counterpart of an instrument that effects or evidences a surcharge duty transaction.

Chapter 3 Certain transactions treated as transfers

Part 1 Preliminary

105 Introduction and overview

(1) This Chapter charges duty at the same rate as for a transfer of dutiable property under Chapter 2 on certain transactions which are not “dutiable transactions” under Chapter 2.

(2) This Chapter also charges duty on certain transactions involving foreign persons that are not “surcharge duty transactions” under Chapter 2A, at the same rate under that Chapter as for a transfer of residential-related property to a foreign person.

Part 2 Transactions involving put and call options

106 Definitions

In this Part:

assign or assignment includes transfer, and a reference to the assignment of a right under a call option includes a reference to a transfer of the call option.

call option means a right to require a person to sell dutiable property that is conferred by an agreement or arrangement (being an agreement or arrangement that is not a dutiable transaction).

put option means a right to require a person to purchase dutiable property that is conferred by an agreement or arrangement (being an agreement or arrangement that is not a dutiable transaction).

residential land has the same meaning as in Chapter 2A.
107 Assignment of rights under call option dutiable as transfer

(1) If a person (A) who has a right under a call option to require another person (B) to sell dutiable property assigns that right, so that the option is exercisable by a third person (C), duty under Chapter 2 is chargeable on that assignment as if the assignment were a transfer of the dutiable property concerned. The duty chargeable on that assignment is referred to in this Part as call option assignment duty.

(1A) Duty under Chapter 2A is also chargeable on the assignment if A is a foreign person and the dutiable property concerned is residential-related property. The duty chargeable on that assignment is additional to call option assignment duty and is referred to in this Part as surcharge call option assignment duty.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) if A enters into an agreement or arrangement under which A, for valuable consideration, relinquishes the right under a call option to require B to sell dutiable property and a call option to require B to sell the dutiable property is granted to a third person (C), A is to be treated as having assigned that right under the call option so that the option is exercisable by C, and

(b) if, on or in connection with the exercise of a call option, A, for valuable consideration, enters into an agreement or arrangement under which A nominates a third person (C) as the purchaser or transferee of dutiable property the subject of a call option, A is to be treated as having assigned the right under the call option to require B to sell the dutiable property so that the option is exercisable by C.

(3) An assignment is chargeable with duty as a consequence of this Part only if the person who may be required under the call option to sell the dutiable property (that is, B) has a right under a put option to require A, an associated person of A or an assignee of A to purchase the dutiable property.

(4) If the assignment is chargeable with call option assignment duty, Chapter 2 applies in respect of the assignment in the same way as it applies to other transfers of dutiable property, and a reference in this Act to a dutiable transaction includes such an assignment, subject to this Part.

(4A) If the assignment is chargeable with surcharge call option assignment duty, Chapter 2A applies in respect of the assignment in the same way as it applies to other transfers of residential-related property, and a reference in this Act to a surcharge duty transaction includes such an assignment, subject to this Part.

(5) For the purposes of Chapters 2 and 2A, the transfer of dutiable property (including dutiable property that is residential-related property) is taken to occur when the assignment is made.

(6) This section applies regardless of when the call option or put option is exercisable.

(7) An assignment of a right under a call option to purchase dutiable property, as referred to in subsection (1) or (2), is referred to in this Part as a call option assignment.

108 Person liable to pay call option assignment duty

(1) The call option assignment duty chargeable on a call option assignment is payable by the person who assigns the right under the call option to require another person to sell dutiable property (the option holder).

(2) Accordingly, the option holder is taken, for the purpose of charging duty under Chapter 2, to be the transferee of the dutiable property.

(3) The call option assignment duty payable by the option holder is additional to the duty (if any) payable under Chapter 2 by a transferee on the transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.

(4) However, the call option assignment duty payable by the option holder as a consequence of this Part is to be reduced by the amount of duty (if any) paid by the option holder under Chapter 2 on the transfer of the call option to the option holder.

(5) (Repealed)

Note. The following is an example of how this Part operates:

B grants A a call option that confers a right on A (or any assignee of A) to require B to sell land. A also grants B a put option that confers on B a right to require A (or any assignee of A) to purchase the land from B. No duty is payable at this point.

A then transfers the call option to C. Duty is payable as follows:

(a) A (as the option holder) must pay call option assignment duty, as a consequence of this Part, as if the transfer of the option were a transfer of the land. Duty is payable on the dutiable value of the land (determined as provided for by this Part),

(b) C (as the transferee of the option) must pay duty under Chapter 2 on the transfer of the option. Duty is payable on the dutiable value of the option (determined as provided for by Chapter 2).

C then transfers the option to D. C (as the option holder) is required to pay call option assignment duty as if the option were a transfer of the land. However, in this case C will receive a credit for the duty paid by C on the transfer of the option to C. D (as the transferee of the option) is required to pay duty under Chapter 2 on the transfer.

108A Person liable to pay surcharge call option assignment duty

(1) Surcharge call option assignment duty on a call option assignment is payable by any foreign person who assigns the right under the call option to require another person to sell residential-related property (the foreign option holder).

(2) Accordingly, the foreign option holder is taken, for the purposes of charging duty under Chapter
2A, to be the transferee of the residential-related property.

(3) The duty payable by the foreign option holder is additional to the duty (if any) payable under Chapter 2A by a transferee on the transfer of an option to purchase residential land in New South Wales.

(4) However, the duty payable by the foreign option holder as a consequence of this Part is to be reduced by the amount of duty (if any) paid by the foreign option holder under Chapter 2A on the transfer of the call option to the foreign option holder.

109 Determination of dutiable value of transfer

For the purposes of Chapters 2 and 2A, the dutiable value of dutiable property (including residential-related property that is dutiable property) that is subject to a call option assignment is taken to be the greater of:

(a) the sum of the consideration for the assignment of the right under the call option and the consideration payable in the event that the call option is exercised (being in either case the amount of monetary consideration or the value of non-monetary consideration), and

(b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property.

110 Stamping or endorsement of transactions

(1) If an instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales also effects or evidences a call option assignment, and it is stamped under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be stamped in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate the type of duty (that is, purchaser duty, surcharge purchaser duty, call option assignment duty or surcharge call option assignment duty) that has been paid.

(2) If an instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales also effects or evidences a call option assignment, and it is endorsed under this Act to indicate payment of duty, it must be endorsed in a manner approved by the Chief Commissioner to indicate the type of duty (that is, purchaser duty, surcharge purchaser duty, call option assignment duty or surcharge call option assignment duty) that has been paid.

(3) An instrument that effects or evidences a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales and a call option assignment is not duly stamped unless it is stamped or endorsed in accordance with this section.

(4) In this section:

purchaser duty means the duty (if any) payable under Chapter 2 by a transferee on the transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.

111 Exemptions

(1) No duty is chargeable as a consequence of this Part on a call option assignment if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the call option and put option were granted by the parties concerned for the sole purpose of obtaining finance, or

(aa) the call option is assigned to a body established solely for the purpose of raising funds in relation to an investment scheme promoted by the person who assigns the call option, or

(b) the call option and the put option form part of a scheme of call options and put options granted by proprietors of a business that:

(i) were granted for the sole purpose of facilitating the continuation of the business by one or more of the proprietors (the continuing proprietors), and

(ii) are not exercisable except on the occurrence of a specified event that would cause the continuing proprietors to seek to acquire the interest of one or more of the other proprietors of the business, or the dutiable property the subject of the call option is land and the call option is assigned by a person authorised to contract to do residential building work under the Home Building Act 1989 who:

(i) has built or is building residential premises on the land for the purposes of sale, or

(ii) has an agreement with the person to whom the call option is assigned to build residential premises on the land, or

(d) the call option is assigned by a corporation that is a member of a group of corporations to another corporation that is a member of the same group.

(2) This section does not affect the duty payable under Chapter 2 or 2A (if any) by the transferee on a transfer of an option to purchase land in New South Wales.

(2A) For the purposes of this section, corporations are members of the same group of corporations if:

(a) one corporation is a wholly owned subsidiary of the other corporation (that is, the other corporation holds, otherwise than as trustee, not less than 90% of the issued share capital of the first corporation and is in a position to control not less than 50% of the maximum number of votes that might be cast at a general meeting of the first corporation), or

(b) the corporations are wholly owned subsidiaries (within the meaning of paragraph (a)) of the same corporation.

(2B) If a corporation that is a wholly owned subsidiary (within the meaning of subsection (2A) (a)) of another corporation (the parent corporation) holds shares, otherwise than as trustee, in a third corporation, then, for the purposes of determining whether the parent corporation and the third corporation are members of the same group of corporations, the shares held by the wholly owned subsidiary in the third corporation are taken also to be shares held by the parent corporation in the third corporation.

Note. The effect of subsection (2B) is that the third corporation will be considered to be a wholly owned subsidiary of the parent corporation if the shareholdings of the parent corporation in the third corporation (if any) together with the shareholdings of any wholly owned subsidiary in the third corporation are sufficient to satisfy subsection (2A) (a).

(3) In this section:

proprietor of a business means:

(a) in the case of a business carried on by a partnership, a partner, or

(b) in the case of a business carried on by a company, a shareholder, or

(c) in the case of a business carried on by a unit trust scheme, a unit holder, or

(d) in any other case, a person the Chief Commissioner determines to be a proprietor of the business.

Chapter 4 Acquisition of interests in landholders

Part 1 Preliminary

145 Overview

This Chapter charges duty on certain transactions that are not “dutiable transactions” under Chapter 2 or “surcharge duty transactions” under Chapter 2A.

Note. Duty is chargeable under this Chapter on the acquisition by a person of a significant interest in a landholder at the same rate as the transfer duty chargeable under Chapter 2. Part 2B of this Chapter charges additional duty, at the same rate as the surcharge purchaser duty chargeable under Chapter 2A, if the person acquiring the significant interest is a foreign person and the landholder concerned is a private landholder.

146 Meaning of “landholder”

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a landholder is a unit trust scheme, a private company or a listed company that has land holdings in New South Wales with a threshold value of $2,000,000 or more.

(2) A landholder is a private landholder if the landholder is a private unit trust scheme or private company.

(3) A landholder is a public landholder if the landholder is a public unit trust scheme or a listed company.

146A Threshold value of land holdings

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the threshold value of the land holdings of a unit trust scheme, private company or listed company is the total value of all land holdings in New South Wales of the unit trust scheme or company.

(2) For a land holding that consists of an estate in fee simple in land (other than a strata lot), the value of the land holding is the registered land value of the land as at 1 July in the previous year.

(3) For a land holding that consists of a proportionate interest in an estate in fee simple in land (other than a strata lot), the value of the land holding is the amount determined by applying that proportion to the registered land value of the land as at 1 July in the previous year.

(4) For a land holding that consists of an estate in fee simple in a strata lot, the value of the land holding is an amount that bears to the registered land value of the relevant parcel (as at 1 July in the previous year) the same proportion as the unit entitlement of the lot bears to the aggregate unit entitlement.

(5) For a land holding that consists of a proportionate interest in an estate in fee simple in a strata lot, the value of the land holding is the amount determined by applying that proportion to the amount determined under subsection (4).

(6) The proportionate interests of joint tenants in an estate in fee simple are to be determined as if they were tenants in common in equal shares.

(7) For any land holding for which a value cannot be obtained under the above provisions, the value of the land holding is the unencumbered value of the land holding, determined in the same way...
as it is for dutiable property under Chapter 2.

(8) For the purposes of this section, the registered land value of land (including a parcel) is the land value of the land as entered in the Register of Land Values kept by the Valuer-General under section 14CC of the Valuation of Land Act 1916.

(9) For the purposes of this section, a strata lot means a lot in a freehold strata scheme under the Strata Schemes Development Act 2015, and expressions used in this section in relation to such a lot have the same meanings as they do in that Act.

147 What are the “land holdings” of a landholder?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a land holding is an interest in land other than the estate or interest of a mortgagee, chargee or other secured creditor, subject to this section.

(2) An interest in land is a land holding of a unit trust scheme only to the extent that the interest is held by the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as trustee of the scheme, by a custodian of the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as custodian or by a sub-custodian of the custodian of the trustee of the unit trust scheme in its capacity as sub-custodian.

(3) An interest in land is not a land holding of a company if the company holds the land on trust, but only if the company is not a beneficiary of the trust.

(4) This section is in aid of, but does not limit, the operation of any provision of this Chapter providing for constructive ownership of interests.

Note. In relation to interests in land, see also clause 4 of the Dictionary.

Part 2 Charging of duty on acquisitions of interests in landholders

148 When does a liability for duty arise?

A liability for duty charged by this Part arises when a relevant acquisition is made.

149 What is a “relevant acquisition”?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person makes a relevant acquisition if the person:

(a) acquires an interest in a landholder that is of itself a significant interest in the landholder, or

(b) acquires an interest in a landholder that (when aggregated with other interests in the landholder held by the person or an associated person) results in an aggregation that amounts to a significant interest in the landholder, or

(c) already having a significant interest, or an interest described in paragraph (b), in a landholder, acquires a further interest in the landholder.

(1A) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person also makes a relevant acquisition if the person acquires an interest in a landholder that (when aggregated with other interests in the landholder acquired by the person or other persons under acquisitions that form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is substantially one arrangement between the acquirers) results in an aggregation that amounts to a significant interest in the landholder.
In determining whether acquisitions form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is substantially one arrangement between the acquirers, the following circumstances are to be taken into account:

(a) whether any of the acquisitions are conditional on entry into, or completion of, any of the other acquisitions,

(b) whether the parties to any of the acquisitions are the same,

(c) whether any party to an acquisition is an associated person of another party to any of the other acquisitions,

(d) the period of time over which the acquisitions take place,

(e) whether, before or after the acquisitions take place, the interests were, are or will be used together or dependently with one another,

(f) any other relevant circumstances.

(2) An acquisition of an interest in a private landholder under an arrangement that results in the private landholder ceasing to be a private landholder is not a relevant acquisition because of subsection (1A).

(3) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder is a trustee for 2 or more trusts, any interests in the landholder acquired or held by the person for different trusts are to be treated as if they were acquired or held independently by separate persons.

(4) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder is a life company, any interests in the landholder acquired or held by the life company for different statutory funds are to be treated as if they were acquired or held independently by separate persons.

(5) If a life company acquires or holds an interest in a landholder otherwise than for a statutory fund, that interest is to be treated as if it were acquired or held independently of, and by a separate person to, any interest acquired or held by the life company for a statutory fund.

(6) In this section:

statutory fund has the meaning given by the Life Insurance Act 1995 of the Commonwealth.

150 What are “interests” and “significant interests” in landholders?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person has an interest in a landholder if the person, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder, would be entitled (without regard to any liabilities of the landholder) to any of the property distributed.

(1A) However, an entitlement that arises merely because a person has a debt interest in a landholder, is not an interest in a landholder.

(2) A person who has an interest in a landholder has a significant interest in the landholder if the person, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder immediately after the interest was acquired, would be entitled (without regard to any liabilities of the landholder) to:

(a) in the case of a private landholder—50% or more of the property distributed, or
How may an interest be “acquired”?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a person acquires an interest in a landholder if the person obtains an interest, or the person’s interest increases, in the landholder regardless of how it is obtained or increased.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a person may acquire an interest in a landholder in the following ways:

(a) the purchase, gift or issue of a unit or share,

(b) the cancellation, redemption or surrender of a unit or share,

(c) the abrogation or alteration of a right for a unit or share,

(d) the payment of an amount owing for a unit or share,

(e) if the person holds an interest in the landholder (whether or not as trustee for another person) and the capacity in which the person holds the interest changes (including if there is a change in the beneficial ownership of an interest held by a person as trustee).

Note. For example, the capacity in which a person holds a unit or share in a landholder changes if the person declares a trust in respect of the unit or share.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a person may acquire an interest in a landholder without acquiring units or shares in the landholder.

Acquisition statements

(1) A person who has made a relevant acquisition must prepare a statement (an acquisition statement) and lodge it with the Chief Commissioner within 3 months after the relevant acquisition is made.

(2) The acquisition statement is to be prepared in an approved form and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and address of the person who has acquired the interest,
(b) in relation to each interest acquired, the date on which it was acquired,

(c) if the relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, particulars of the interests acquired by the person and any associated persons on the date of the relevant acquisition,

(d) particulars of the total interest of the person and any associated person in the landholder at that date.

(3) The acquisition statement must also contain the following additional information:

(a) the unencumbered value of all land holdings and goods in New South Wales of the landholder as at the date of the relevant acquisition and, if the landholder is a private landholder, as at the date of acquisition of each interest acquired in the landholder during the statement period,

(b) such other information as the Chief Commissioner may require.

(4) The additional information referred to in subsection (3) is not required in relation to any exempt acquisition.

(5) The statement period is the period commencing 3 years before the date of the relevant acquisition and ending on the date of the relevant acquisition.

(6) However, if the relevant acquisition is related to an acquisition of an interest in the landholder that was made before the start of that 3-year period (an earlier acquisition), the statement period is the period commencing on the date that earlier acquisition was made (or, if there is more than one, the first of them) and ending on the date of the relevant acquisition.

(7) For the purposes of this section, a relevant acquisition is related to an earlier acquisition if it is made as a result of an arrangement entered into at the time of, or in connection with, the earlier acquisition.

Note. In ascertaining whether or not a liability to lodge a statement under this section exists, it is necessary to have regard to provisions of Part 3 that deal with how a person may be taken to have acquired an interest in a landholder because of the interests in a linked entity.

153 When must duty be paid?

(1) A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

(2) However, in the case of a relevant acquisition resulting from the application of section 161 (1) and (2AA) to an agreement to purchase or issue a share in a landholder, a tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the agreement is completed.

154 Who is liable to pay the duty?

(1) Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by the person who makes the relevant acquisition, except as provided by subsection (2).

(2) If a relevant acquisition results from an aggregation of the interests of associated persons, the person who made the relevant acquisition and the associated person or persons are jointly and severally liable for payment of the duty.

155 How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions—private landholders

(1) If an acquisition statement that discloses a relevant acquisition in a private landholder does not disclose any other acquisitions during the statement period, duty is chargeable, at the general rate, on the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all land holdings and goods of the landholder in New South Wales (calculated at the date of acquisition of the interest acquired) by the proportion of that value represented by the interest acquired in the relevant acquisition.

(2) If a relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, the reference in subsection (1) to the interest acquired includes a reference to any interests acquired by associated persons on the same date.

(3) If an acquisition statement disclosing a relevant acquisition in a private landholder also discloses one or more other acquisitions during the statement period, duty is chargeable, at the general rate, on the aggregate of amounts severally calculated, in the manner provided by subsection (1), in respect of each interest required to be disclosed in the statement.

(4) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by the sum of the duty paid or payable under this Act in respect of an acquisition, during the statement period, by the person or any associated person of an interest in the same landholder, but only in proportion to the extent to which the duty paid or payable is attributable to the amount of the duty payable under this section.

(5) Duty payable under this section is to be reduced by the sum of the amounts severally calculated, in accordance with the following formula, in respect of each acquisition of an interest in the landholder made by the person, or an associated person, during the statement period:

$$\frac{A}{B} \times C$$

where:

$A$ is the unencumbered value of the land holdings and goods in New South Wales of the landholder at the time the acquisition was made, and

$B$ is the unencumbered value of all property of the landholder at that time, and

$C$ is the sum of:

(a) the duty under this Act paid or payable in respect of:

(i) a dutiable transaction in relation to the units or shares acquired, or

(ii) a capital reduction or a rights alteration under Part 3 of Chapter 3 by which an interest in the landholder was acquired, or

(iii) an allotment of shares under Part 5 of Chapter 3 by which an interest in the landholder was acquired, and

(b) any duty of a like nature so paid or payable under a law of another Australian jurisdiction.
(6) If a relevant acquisition is made owing to the aggregation of the interests of associated persons, but the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the associated persons acquired their respective interests independently, the Chief Commissioner may assess and charge duty on each separate acquisition without aggregating the interests of the person who made it with the interests of associated persons.

(7) Duty is not chargeable under this section on the acquisition of an interest in a landholder that is required to be disclosed in an acquisition statement if the acquisition is an exempt acquisition.

(8) This section is subject to Part 3.

156 How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions—public landholders

(1) If an acquisition statement discloses a relevant acquisition in a public landholder, the duty chargeable on the relevant acquisition is 10% of the duty that would be chargeable, at the general rate, on a transfer of all the land holdings and goods of the landholder in New South Wales (calculated as if the transfer had occurred at the date of relevant acquisition).

(2) For that purpose, the dutiable value of the land holdings and goods is the unencumbered value of land holdings and goods at the date of the relevant acquisition.

(3) If an acquisition disclosed in an acquisition statement is an exempt acquisition, the duty chargeable under this section is to be calculated after deducting from the dutiable value of the land holdings and goods the proportion of that value represented by the value of the interest acquired in the exempt acquisition.

(4) If the public landholder is a widely held trust, the duty payable under this section is also to be reduced by the following amounts (if applicable):

(a) the amount of duty under this Act paid or payable in respect of a dutiable transaction in relation to the units concerned,

(b) the amount of any duty of a like nature so paid or payable under a law of another Australian jurisdiction.

(5) If duty is chargeable in respect of a relevant acquisition made by a person in a public landholder, no duty is chargeable in respect of any further acquisition made by that person in that landholder.

(6) This section is subject to Part 3.

157 What is the “general rate” of duty?

For the purposes of this Chapter, the general rate is the rate of duty specified in section 32 for a transfer of dutiable property.

Part 2A Charging of duty on acquisitions made by trustees

157A Application of Part

(1) This Part applies for the purposes of determining liability for duty under this Chapter where a person acquires or holds an interest in a landholder as bare trustee for another person.
(2) In this Part, a bare trustee includes a custodian.

157B Beneficial owner—meaning

(1) If a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder acquires or holds that interest as bare trustee for another person, the other person is a beneficial owner of that interest in the landholder.

(2) If a person who is a beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder (whether as a result of subsection (1) or as a result of one or more applications of this subsection) holds that interest as bare trustee for another person, that other person is also a beneficial owner of that interest in the landholder.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder is any beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder who does not hold that interest as bare trustee for another person.

157C Beneficial owners liable for duty on acquisitions in landholders

(1) Any interest in a landholder that is acquired or held by a person (the legal owner) as bare trustee for another person is taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to have been acquired by, or to be held by, the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder, rather than the legal owner.

(2) Accordingly, the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest acquired by the legal owner will be liable to lodge an acquisition statement, and to pay any duty chargeable under this Chapter, in respect of any relevant acquisition made as a result of that acquisition by the legal owner.

Note. For example, A acquires an interest in a landholder as bare trustee for B. A is the legal owner and B is a beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder. B holds that interest as bare trustee for C. As a result, C is also a beneficial owner of the interest in the landholder acquired by A. If C does not hold the interest as bare trustee for another person, C is the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest and will be liable for any duty chargeable on the acquisition.

(3) For the purpose of determining whether an acquisition is a relevant acquisition, section 149 applies as if a reference to a person who acquires or holds an interest in a landholder were a reference to the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest, rather than the legal owner.

(4) That is, the acquisition is to be aggregated with other interests held by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person of the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest, rather than with other interests held by the legal owner or associated persons of the legal owner.

Part 2B Charging of surcharge duty on acquisitions made by foreign persons

157D Meaning of “residential land holding”

(1) In this Part:

residential land holding means any land holding that is an interest in residential land (within the meaning of Chapter 2A).

(2) For the purposes of charging duty under this Part in respect of a relevant acquisition in a landholder, a person is taken to be a foreign person if the person is a foreign person when the relevant acquisition is made.

157E Circumstances in which surcharge duty is chargeable

Duty is chargeable under this Part on a relevant acquisition in a private landholder if:

(a) the private landholder has any residential land holding in New South Wales, and

(b) any person who makes the relevant acquisition (or, if a relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of interests of associated persons, any of the associated persons) is a foreign person on the date of the relevant acquisition.

157F Relationship with Part 2

(1) This Part charges duty in addition to any other duty chargeable under Part 2 on a relevant acquisition.

(2) Part 2 applies in respect of duty charged by this Part, subject to this Part and any necessary modifications, in the same way as it applies in respect of duty charged by Part 2.

(3) Sections 154–157 do not apply in respect of duty charged by this Part.

157G Who is liable to pay the duty?

(1) Duty chargeable under this Part is payable by any foreign person who makes the relevant acquisition, except as provided by subsection (2).

(2) If a relevant acquisition results from an aggregation of the interests of associated persons, any foreign person who made the relevant acquisition and any associated person who is a foreign person is jointly and severally liable for payment of the duty.

157H How duty is charged on relevant acquisitions by foreign persons

(1) If an acquisition statement that discloses a relevant acquisition in a private landholder does not disclose any other acquisitions by a foreign person during the statement period, duty is chargeable, at 8% (the general surcharge rate), on the amount calculated by multiplying the unencumbered value of all residential land holdings of the landholder in New South Wales (calculated at the date of acquisition of the interest acquired) by the proportion of that value represented by the interest acquired in the relevant acquisition.

(2) If a relevant acquisition results from the aggregation of the interests of associated persons who are foreign persons, the reference in subsection (1) to the interest acquired includes a reference to any interests acquired by any such associated persons on the same date.

(3) If an acquisition statement disclosing a relevant acquisition in a private landholder also discloses one or more other acquisitions by a foreign person during the statement period, duty is chargeable, at the general surcharge rate, on the aggregate of amounts severally calculated, in the manner provided by subsection (1), in respect of each interest required to be disclosed in the statement that is an interest of a foreign person.

(4) Duty payable under this Part is to be reduced by the sum of the duty paid or payable under this Part in respect of an acquisition, during the statement period, by the foreign person or any associated person who is a foreign person of an interest in the same landholder, but only in proportion to the extent to which the duty paid or payable is attributable to the amount of the duty payable under this Part.

(5) Duty is not chargeable under this Part on the acquisition of an interest in a landholder that is required to be disclosed in an acquisition statement if the acquisition is an exempt acquisition.

Part 3 General principles to be applied under this Chapter

158 Meaning of “linked entity”

(1) A linked entity of a private unit trust scheme or private company (a principal entity) means an entity (other than a public unit trust scheme or a listed company) that is part of a chain of entities:

(a) that starts with the principal entity and is comprised of one or more links, and

(b) in which one or both of the following apply:

(i) at each link between 2 entities in the chain—one of the entities would be entitled, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the other entity (and without regard to any liabilities of any entity in the chain), to receive not less than 50% of the value of the property of the other entity,

(ii) in the event of the distribution of all of the property of entities in the chain (except for the principal entity)—the principal entity would be entitled (without regard to any liabilities of any entity in the chain) to receive not less than 50% of the value of that property.

(2) A linked entity of a public unit trust scheme or listed company (a principal entity) means an entity that is part of a chain of entities:

(a) that starts with the principal entity and is comprised of one or more links, and

(b) in which, at each link between 2 entities in the chain—one of the entities would be entitled, in the event of a distribution of all the property of the other entity (and without regard to any liabilities of any entity in the chain), to receive not less than 50% of the value of the property of the other entity.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) a trust is to be regarded as entitled to receive property (whether as a principal entity or as a linked entity of a principal entity) if a trustee of the trust is entitled to receive the property in its capacity as a trustee, and

(b) a partnership or other unincorporated body is to be regarded as entitled to receive property, as a linked entity of a principal entity, if a member of the partnership or other unincorporated body is entitled to receive the property as a member of the partnership or the other unincorporated body.

(4) In this section and in section 158A:

entity means any of the following:

(a) a corporation,
(b) a unit trust scheme,
(c) a trust,
(d) a partnership or other unincorporated body.

(5) In this section and in section 158A:
(a) a reference to a trust includes a reference to a unit trust scheme, and
(b) a reference to a trustee of a trust includes a reference to a custodian of the trustee of the trust in its capacity as custodian or a sub-custodian of the custodian of the trustee of the trust in its capacity as sub-custodian.

158A Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property through linked entities

(1) In addition to any interest in land or other property that it may hold in its own right, a unit trust scheme, private company or listed company is taken, for the purposes of this Chapter, to hold an interest in land or other property held by a linked entity of the unit trust scheme or company.

(2) The value, for duty purposes, of the interest in property that the unit trust scheme or company is taken, by this section, to hold because of a holding by a linked entity of the unit trust scheme or company is that portion of the interest’s unencumbered value to which the unit trust scheme or company would be entitled (without regard to any liabilities of the linked entity or any other entity in the chain) in the event of a distribution of all the property of each entity in the chain.

(3) For the purposes of this section:
(a) a trust is taken to hold an interest in property, as a linked entity of a principal entity, if a trustee of the trust holds the property in its capacity as a trustee, and
(b) a partnership or other unincorporated body is taken to hold property, as a linked entity of a principal entity, if a member of the partnership or other unincorporated body holds the property as a member of the partnership or the other unincorporated body.

(4) If a person holds property as a trustee, custodian or sub-custodian in relation to 2 or more trusts the person is to be treated as a separate person in relation to each of those trusts and the property held under each trust is to be treated as a separate property holding.

159 Constructive ownership of land holdings and other property: discretionary trusts

(1) A person or a member of a class of persons in whose favour, by the terms of a discretionary trust, capital the subject of the trust may be applied:
(a) in the event of the exercise of a power or discretion in favour of the person or class, or
(b) in the event that a discretion conferred under the trust is not exercised, is, for the purposes of this section, a beneficiary of the trust.

(2) A beneficiary of a discretionary trust is taken to own or to be otherwise entitled to the property the subject of the trust.

(3) For the purposes of this Chapter, any property that is the subject of a discretionary trust is taken to be the subject of any other discretionary trust:

(a) that is, or

(b) any trustee of which (in the capacity of trustee) is,

a beneficiary of it.

(4) Subsection (3) extends to apply to property that is the subject of a discretionary trust only by the operation of that subsection.

(5) In this section, person includes a landholder.

Note. Discretionary trust is defined in the Dictionary.

159A Inclusion of land holdings recently transferred or agreed to be transferred

(1) For the purposes of determining whether a person who acquires an interest in a private unit trust scheme or private company makes a relevant acquisition, the land holdings of the unit trust scheme or company are taken to include any land holdings of the unit trust scheme or company, or of a linked entity of the unit trust scheme or company, that were recently transferred (or agreed to be transferred):

(a) to the person, or

(b) to a person who is an associated person when the acquisition occurs and was an associated person when the transfer of the land holding occurred.

(2) A land holding is recently transferred (or agreed to be transferred) if, within 12 months before the acquisition is made:

(a) the land holding is transferred to the person, or

(b) an agreement for the sale or transfer of the land holding to the person is entered into and the agreement is or is to be completed after the acquisition is made.

(3) The duty payable under this Chapter in respect of the acquisition is to be reduced by the amount of ad valorem duty (if any) paid in respect of the transfer, or agreement for sale or transfer, under Chapter 2.

160 Agreements for sale or transfer of land

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the transferor and the transferee under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of land are taken to be separately entitled to the whole of the land.

Note. If duty is charged on an acquisition that relates to a land holding to which subsection (1) applies, the Chief Commissioner may defer payment of duty under section 47 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) If:

(a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the landholder was the vendor under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of land, and
(b) the agreement is subsequently completed, the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the landholder.

(2A) Subsection (2) does not apply if section 159A applies in respect of the acquisition.

(3) If:

(a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the landholder was the purchaser under an uncompleted agreement for the sale or transfer of land, and

(b) the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion,

the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement as though the land the subject of the agreement was not, at the time of the acquisition concerned, a land holding of the landholder.

(3A) In this section:

call option and put option have the same meanings as in Part 2 of Chapter 3.

transferee includes a person who, at the time of a relevant acquisition, was the grantor of a put option or grantee of a call option.

transferee includes a person who, at the time of a relevant acquisition, was the grantee of a put option or grantor of a call option.

uncompleted agreement includes an arrangement that includes both a put option and a call option.

(4) In this section:

(a) a reference to a landholder includes a reference to a linked entity of the landholder, and

(b) a reference to a landholder, or linked entity of a landholder, that is a vendor or a purchaser is, in the case of a landholder or linked entity that is a unit trust scheme, a reference to a vendor or purchaser, as the case may be, acting in the capacity of a trustee of the unit trust scheme, and

(c) a reference to a linked entity of a landholder that is a vendor or a purchaser is:

(i) in the case of a linked entity that is a trust—a reference to a vendor or purchaser, as the case may be, acting in the capacity of a trustee of the trust, or

(ii) in the case of a linked entity that is a partnership or other unincorporated body—a reference to a vendor or purchaser, as the case may be, acting as a member of the partnership or the other unincorporated body.

161 Agreements for sale or issue of shares or units in landholder

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, if an agreement is made to purchase or issue a share or unit in a landholder, then, on and from the agreement liability date:
(a) the purchaser or person to whom the unit or share is to be issued is taken to have an entitlement to a distribution of property of the landholder in the event of a distribution of all the property of the landholder (as if the purchase or interest acquired by the person were registered on the agreement liability date), and

(b) in the case of an agreement to purchase a share or unit, the registered interest of the vendor in the unit or share is to be disregarded.

Note. Accordingly, the purchaser or person to whom a share or unit is issued under an agreement for the sale or issue of a share or unit in a landholder acquires an interest in the landholder on the agreement liability date.

(2) The agreement liability date is the date on which the following occurs (whichever occurs first):

(a) the agreement is completed,

(b) the necessary transfer or title documents are delivered to the person acquiring the share or unit,

(c) the consideration for the purchase or issue is paid,

(d) the period of 12 months beginning on the date of first execution of the agreement, or such longer period as the Chief Commissioner may approve, expires.

(2AA) Despite subsection (2), the agreement liability date is the date on which the agreement is made if the company or unit trust scheme concerned is a landholder on that date and is not a landholder on the agreement liability date as determined under that subsection.

(2A) If:

(a) at the time of acquisition of an interest by any person in a landholder that necessitates the lodgment of an acquisition statement under this Chapter, the person was the purchaser or person to whom a unit or share was to be issued under an uncompleted agreement for the purchase or issue of a share or unit in a landholder, and

(b) the agreement is subsequently rescinded, annulled or otherwise terminated without completion,

the Chief Commissioner is to assess or reassess the statement on the basis that the purchaser or person to whom the unit or share was to be issued did not have an interest in the landholder as a result of the agreement.

(3) This section does not apply in respect of shares or units in a landholder which is a listed company or a listed trust.

162 Valuation of property

(1) Subject to this Chapter, the provisions of this Act for ascertaining the value of transfers chargeable with ad valorem duty extend to an acquisition statement under this Chapter and the unencumbered value of land holdings and goods mentioned in it.

(2) In determining the unencumbered value of land holdings or goods under this Chapter, any arrangement made in respect of the land holdings or goods that has the effect of reducing the unencumbered value is to be disregarded, subject to subsection (3).
An arrangement is not to be disregarded if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the arrangement was not made as part of an arrangement or scheme with a collateral purpose of reducing the duty otherwise payable in relation to the relevant acquisition.

In considering whether or not he or she is satisfied for the purposes of subsection (3), the Chief Commissioner may have regard to:

(a) the duration of the arrangement before the relevant acquisition, and

(b) whether the arrangement has been made with an associated person, and

(c) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the making of the arrangement other than to reduce duty, and

(d) any other matters the Chief Commissioner considers relevant.

163 Maximisation of entitlements on distribution of property

(1) This section applies to any calculation, for the purposes of this Chapter, of the entitlement of a person (the interested person) to participate in a distribution of the property of a landholder.

(2) A calculation is to be made based, firstly, on a distribution carried out in accordance with the constitution of the landholder, and with any law relevant to the distribution, as in force at the time of distribution, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.

(3) Next, a calculation is to be made based on a distribution carried out after the interested person, and any other person whom the interested person has power to direct with respect to such a distribution or who is, in relation to the interested person, an associated person, had exercised all powers and discretions exercisable by them by reason of having acquired an interest in the landholder concerned:

(a) to effect or compel an alteration to the constitution of the landholder, and

(b) to vary the rights conferred by units or shares in the landholder, and

(c) to effect or compel the substitution or replacement of units or shares in the landholder with other units or shares in it, in such a manner as would maximise the value of the entitlement, and the entitlement of the interested person is to be evaluated accordingly.

(4) The results obtained by an evaluation of the interested person’s entitlement in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) are then to be compared, and whichever evaluation results in a greater entitlement is the correct evaluation, for the purposes of this Chapter, of the entitlement, unless the Chief Commissioner, being satisfied that the application of this subsection in the particular case would be inequitable, determines otherwise.

Part 4 Exemptions and concessions

163A General exemptions

(1) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt acquisition:
(a) if the interest was acquired in the person’s capacity as:

(i) a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, or

(ii) a liquidator, or

(iii) an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased person, or

(b) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the making of a compromise or arrangement with creditors under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth that has been approved by a court, or

(c) if the interest concerned is acquired solely from a pro rata increase or decrease in the interests of all unit holders or shareholders, or

(d) if the interest was acquired solely as the result of the distribution of the estate of a deceased person, whether effected in the ordinary course of execution of a will or codicil or administration of an intestate estate or as the result of the order of a court, made under Chapter 3 of the Succession Act 2006 or otherwise, varying the application of the provisions of a will or codicil or varying the application of the rules governing the distribution of the property of an intestate estate, or

(e) if the land holding of the landholder comprises land used for primary production and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that, had the landholder transferred the land to the person acquiring an interest as a result of the acquisition immediately before that acquisition, the transfer of the land would not be chargeable with duty under this Act because of the application of section 274, or

(f) if the acquisition of an interest in a landholder would be chargeable with duty of $50 under section 54 or 54A if the property being acquired were land in New South Wales and the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition is not part of a scheme to avoid duty under this Chapter, or

(g) if the interest concerned was acquired before the landholder held land in New South Wales, or

(h) if the interest concerned is an interest in a private unit trust scheme acquired before 10 June 1987, or

(i) if the interest concerned is an interest in a private company acquired before 21 November 1986, or

(j) if the interest concerned is an interest in a private landholder acquired before 1 July 2009 and, at the time of its acquisition, the private landholder was not a land rich landholder within the meaning of Chapter 4A (as in force before its repeal by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act 2009), or

(k) if the interest concerned is an interest in a public landholder acquired before 1 July 2009.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), an acquisition by a foreign person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt acquisition for the purposes of duty chargeable under Part 2B if the interest concerned is an interest in a private landholder acquired before 21 June 2016.
163B Exemption—break-up of marriages and other relationships

(1) An acquisition by a person of an interest in a landholder is an exempt acquisition:

(a) if the interest was acquired by the parties to a marriage that is dissolved or annulled, or in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner has broken down irretrievably, or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, as a result of a transfer made in accordance with:

(i) a financial agreement made under section 90B, 90C or 90D of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth that, under that Act, is binding on the parties to the agreement, or

(ii) an order of a court made under that Act, or

(iii) an agreement that the Chief Commissioner is satisfied has been made for the purpose of dividing matrimonial property as a consequence of the dissolution, annulment or breakdown of the marriage, or

(b) if the interest was acquired by the parties to a de facto relationship that has, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, broken down irretrievably, or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, as a result of a transfer made in accordance with:

(i) a financial agreement made under section 90UB, 90UC or 90UD of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth that, under that Act, is binding on the parties to the agreement, or

(ii) an order of a court made under that Act, or

(c) if the interest was acquired by the parties to a domestic relationship that has, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, been terminated, or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, as a result of a transfer made in accordance with:

(i) an order of a court made under the Property (Relationships) Act 1984, or

(ii) a termination agreement within the meaning of section 44 of the Property (Relationships) Act 1984 that has been certified in accordance with section 47 of that Act, or

Note. Domestic relationship (defined in the Dictionary) has the same meaning as in the Property (Relationships) Act 1984.

(d) to the extent that:

(i) for purposes of or ancillary to the acquisition of an interest referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), the acquisition consists of the transfer of a share that is matrimonial property or relationship property to a person not a party to the relevant marriage or relationship, in order to comply with a requirement of or prescribed under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth, or

(ii) the acquisition consists of a declaration of trust by the transferee of a share transferred as referred to in subparagraph (i) for the benefit of a party to the marriage or... relationship.

(2) If:

(a) duty was paid on the acquisition of matrimonial property by the parties to a marriage or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, and

(b) the interest acquired was acquired as a result of a transfer made in accordance with an agreement or order referred to in subsection (1) (a), and

(c) the marriage has been dissolved or annulled or has broken down irretrievably, the person who paid the duty is entitled to a refund of it.

(3) If:

(a) duty was paid on the acquisition of relationship property by the parties to a de facto relationship or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, and

(b) the interest acquired was acquired as a result of a transfer made in accordance with an agreement or order referred to in subsection (1) (b), and

(c) the de facto relationship has broken down, the person who paid the duty is entitled to a refund of it.

(4) If:

(a) duty was paid on the acquisition of relationship property by the parties to a domestic relationship or by either of them, or by a child or children of either of them or a trustee of such a child or children, and

(b) the interest acquired was acquired as a result of a transfer made in accordance with an order or agreement referred to in subsection (1) (c), and

(c) the domestic relationship has been terminated,

the person who paid the duty is entitled to a refund of it.

(5) A party to a marriage, de facto relationship or domestic relationship may provide a declaration, in an approved form, to the Chief Commissioner to the effect that:

(a) in the case of a marriage:
   (i) the party intends to apply for a dissolution or an annulment of the marriage, or
   (ii) the parties to the marriage have separated, and there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed, or

(b) in the case of a de facto relationship or domestic relationship, the relationship has broken down or been terminated.
(6) The Chief Commissioner is required to have regard to any such declaration in exercising his or her functions under this section.

(7) Subsection (6) does not limit the functions of the Chief Commissioner under section 72 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(7A) This section applies in respect of vested bankruptcy property (within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth) of a party to a marriage or de facto relationship in the same way as it applies to matrimonial property or relationship property.

(8) In this section:

marriage includes a void marriage.

matrimonial property means property in relation to the parties to a marriage or of either of them (within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth), including any property treated as property in relation to the parties or of either of them as a result of an order made under that Act.

party to a marriage includes a person who was a party to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled, in Australia or elsewhere.

relationship property:

(a) in relation to a de facto relationship, means property in relation to the parties to the de facto relationship or of either of them (within the meaning of the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth), including any property treated as property in relation to the parties or of either of them as a result of an order made under that Act, or

(b) in relation to a domestic relationship, means property of the parties to the relationship or of either of them.

163C (Repealed)

163D Concession for primary producers—continuation of land rich requirement

(1) Duty is chargeable under this Chapter in respect of an acquisition of an interest in a primary producer only if, when the acquisition is made, the primary producer is land rich.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a primary producer is a landholder whose land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, wholly or predominantly comprise land used for primary production or land that would be considered to be land used for primary production if it were land in New South Wales.

(3) A primary producer is land rich if:

(a) it has land holdings in New South Wales with an unencumbered value of $2,000,000 or more, and

(b) its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, comprise 80% or more of the unencumbered value of all its property.

(4) If at any time within the period of 5 years after an acquisition of an interest in a primary producer is made, the landholder in whom the acquisition is made ceases for any length of time to be a primary producer:

(a) the person who made the acquisition must immediately notify the Chief Commissioner:
   (i) that the landholder has ceased to be a primary producer, and
   (ii) of the date on which the landholder ceased to be a primary producer, and

(b) duty is chargeable under this Chapter in respect of the acquisition on the date on which the landholder ceased to be a primary producer, and

(c) the Chief Commissioner must make an assessment of the duty so chargeable.

(5) Property is not to be counted in calculating the unencumbered value of the property of a primary producer for the purposes of this section if the primary producer is unable to satisfy the Chief Commissioner that the property was obtained otherwise than to reduce, for the purposes of this Chapter, the ratio of its land holdings in all places, whether within or outside Australia, to the unencumbered value of all its property.

163E  Concession for acquisitions securing financial accommodation

(1) If the person lodging an acquisition statement under this Chapter in relation to the acquisition of an interest in a landholder:

(a) informs the Chief Commissioner at the time the statement is lodged that the acquisition is effected for the purpose of securing financial accommodation, and

(b) the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the acquisition is effected for that purpose, the statement, in so far as it relates to that acquisition, is not chargeable with duty, except as provided by subsection (2).

(2) The statement is chargeable with duty at the expiration of the period of 5 years after the date of the acquisition (or such longer period as may be determined by the Chief Commissioner in the particular case) if the interest concerned is not:

(a) re-acquired by the person from whom it was acquired, or

(b) in the case of an acquisition by way of mortgage, conveyed by the mortgagee to a third person in exercise of the mortgagee’s power of sale, within that period (or that longer period).

(3) A person is not required to lodge an acquisition statement with the Chief Commissioner in respect of a re-acquisition by the person of the interest concerned.

163F  Concession for redemption and re-issue arrangements

(1) This section applies if:

(a) the trustee of a unit trust scheme that is a widely held trust redeems any units in the trust, and
(c) as a result of the redemption, the scheme would, but for this section, cease to be a widely held trust because a unit holder, individually or together with any associated person, is entitled to more than 20% of the units in the trust.

(2) For a period of 30 days beginning on and including the day on which the redemption occurs, the trust is taken to continue to be a widely held trust, but only if the trust continues to have not less than 300 unit holders none of whom, individually or together with any associated person, is entitled to more than 25% of the units of the trust.

(3) If, at the end of that 30-day period, a unit holder, individually or together with any associated person, is entitled to more than 20% of the units in the unit trust scheme:

(a) the trust is taken to have ceased to be a widely held trust from the beginning of that 30-day period (as if subsection (2) had never applied), and

(b) the Chief Commissioner must make an assessment of the duty chargeable under this Act as if the unit trust scheme had ceased to be a widely held trust scheme at the beginning on that 30-day period, and

(c) a tax default occurs for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if the whole of any duty assessed under paragraph (b) is not paid to the Chief Commissioner within 3 months after the assessment.

163FA Concession for acquisitions in connection with persons changing superannuation funds

(1) This section applies to a relevant acquisition that results wholly from a relevant transfer and occurs in connection with a person:

(a) ceasing to be a member of, or otherwise ceasing to be entitled to benefits in respect of, a superannuation fund that is a complying superannuation fund or was a complying superannuation fund within the period of 12 months before the acquisition was made, and

(b) becoming a member of, or otherwise becoming entitled to benefits in respect of, another superannuation fund that is also a complying superannuation fund or will, in the opinion of the trustees of both funds concerned, be a complying superannuation fund within 12 months after the acquisition is made.

(2) For the purposes of this section, each of the following is a relevant transfer:

(a) a transfer of property from a trustee of a superannuation fund, or a custodian of the trustee, to the trustee of another superannuation fund, or to a custodian of the trustee of another superannuation fund,

(b) a transfer of property from a trustee of a superannuation fund to a custodian of the trustee, or from a custodian of the trustee of a superannuation fund to the trustee,

(c) a transfer of a share or a unit in a unit trust scheme from the trustee of a pooled superannuation trust, made in exchange for a redemption of units in the trust, to the trustee of a superannuation fund, or a custodian of the trustee of a superannuation fund,

(d) a transfer of a share or a unit in a unit trust scheme from the trustee of a superannuation fund, or a custodian of the trustee of a superannuation fund, made in exchange for the issue of units in a pooled superannuation trust, to a trustee of the pooled superannuation trust,

(e) a transfer of a share or a unit in a unit trust scheme from a life company or custodian for a life company to the trustee of a superannuation fund or a custodian of the trustee of a superannuation fund if the transfer is made in consideration of the surrender or termination, by the trustee of the superannuation fund of which the person has ceased to be a member, of a policy of life insurance issued by the life company,

(f) a transfer of a share or a unit in a unit trust scheme from the trustee of a superannuation fund or a custodian of the trustee of a superannuation fund to a life company or custodian for a life company if the transfer is made in consideration of the issue, by the life company, of a policy of life insurance to the trustee of the superannuation fund of which the person has become a member.

(3) The duty chargeable under this Chapter on a relevant acquisition to which this section applies is $500.

(4) In this section, complying superannuation fund includes a complying approved deposit fund and an eligible rollover fund.

163G Significant holdings in goods

If the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the unencumbered value of all goods in New South Wales of a landholder comprises not less than 90% of the total unencumbered value of all land holdings and goods in New South Wales of a landholder, the Chief Commissioner may disregard the value of the goods in determining the duty chargeable under this Chapter.

163H Discretion to grant exemption or concession

(1) The Chief Commissioner may, if satisfied that the application of this Chapter to an acquisition in a particular case would not be just and reasonable:

(a) grant a full exemption in respect of the acquisition, or

(b) grant a partial exemption in respect of the acquisition.

(2) If the Chief Commissioner grants a full exemption in respect of the acquisition, the acquisition is an exempt acquisition.

(3) If the Chief Commissioner grants a partial exemption in respect of the acquisition, the Chief Commissioner may make any reduction in the duty chargeable in respect of the acquisition that the Chief Commissioner considers just and reasonable in the circumstances.

Chapter 7 Mortgages

Part 1 Introduction and overview

203A Abolition of mortgage duty

(1) Mortgage duty is abolished on and from 1 July 2016 (the abolition date).

(1A) (Repealed)

(2) However, mortgage duty remains chargeable, and this Chapter continues to apply, in respect of the following:

(a) a mortgage first executed before the abolition date (including any advances or further advances made in respect of the mortgage before that date),

(b) an instrument of security referred to in section 208 (3) that first affects land in New South Wales before the abolition date,

(c) an instrument of security referred to in section 208 (3A) that first affects relevant property in New South Wales before the abolition date,

(d) an instrument that first becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage, as referred to in section 208 (4), before the abolition date.

(3) A mortgage does not become liable to the additional duty referred to in section 208 (2) in respect of an advance or further advance that is made on or after the abolition date (even if the mortgage was first executed before that date).

204 Imposition of duty

This Chapter charges duty on instruments that fall within the definition of a mortgage. Duty chargeable under this Chapter is called mortgage duty.

Notes.

(1) Mortgage duty is calculated, in most cases, according to “the amount secured by the mortgage”. Contingent liabilities may also be included. This is dealt with in Part 2.

(2) Ad valorem duty is only chargeable on one of a package of mortgages securing the same advance. This is dealt with in section 214.

(3) Provision is also made for the apportionment, for duty purposes, of the amount secured by any mortgage over property in different Australian jurisdictions. This is dealt with in section 216.

205 What is a mortgage?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, an instrument is a mortgage if it is:
(a) a security by way of mortgage or charge over property wholly or partly in New South Wales at the liability date, or

(b) (Repealed)

c) a security by way of a transfer or conveyance of any property in New South Wales that is held in trust to be sold or otherwise converted into money, redeemable before such a sale or conversion either by express stipulation or otherwise, except where the transfer or conveyance is made for the benefit of creditors who accept the transfer or conveyance in full satisfaction of debts owed to them, or

d) an instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title to property in New South Wales or instruments creating a charge on property in New South Wales, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage.

(2) Clause 22A of Schedule 1 to the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009 does not apply, and is taken to have never applied, in respect of this Chapter.

Note. Certain instruments that would otherwise be caught by this definition are exempted under Part 4.

206 What is an advance?

In this Chapter, advance means the provision or obtaining of funds by way of financial accommodation, by means of:

(a) a loan, being:

(i) an advance of money, or

(ii) the payment of money for or on account of, or on behalf of, or at the request of, any person, or

(iii) a forbearance to require the payment of money owing on any account whatever, or

(iv) any transaction (whatever its terms or form) that in substance effects a loan of money, or

(b) a bill facility, being one or more agreements, understandings or arrangements as a consequence of which a bill of exchange or promissory note:

(i) is drawn, accepted, endorsed or made, and

(ii) is held, negotiated or discounted to obtain funds, whether or not the funds are obtained from the person who draws, accepts, endorses or makes the bill of exchange or promissory note and whether or not the funds are obtained from a person who is a party to any such agreement, and includes contingent liabilities of the kind referred to in section 215.

207 Who is liable to pay the duty?

The person liable to pay mortgage duty is the mortgagor or the person bound.
208 When does a liability arise?

(1) A mortgage becomes liable to duty on the date of its first execution.

(2) A mortgage becomes liable to additional duty on the making of an advance or further advance if, as a result of that advance or further advance, the amount secured by the mortgage exceeds the amount secured by the mortgage at the time a liability to duty last arose under this Act.

Note. Section 219 exempts some further advances from duty.

(3) An instrument of security that does not affect property in New South Wales at the date of first execution but that affects land in New South Wales at any time within 12 months after that date becomes liable to duty as a mortgage on the date on which it first affects the land, unless it is exempt from duty.

(3A) An instrument of security that does not affect property in New South Wales at the date of first execution but that, at any time after execution, affects relevant property in New South Wales identified in the instrument or identified under an arrangement in place when the instrument was first executed, becomes liable to duty on the date it first affects that property, unless it is exempt from duty.

(4) An instrument that, on the deposit of documents of title to property in New South Wales or instruments creating a charge on property in New South Wales, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage becomes liable to duty as a mortgage on the deposit of the documents or instruments.

(5) A reference in subsection (3) to land does not include a reference to an interest in land that is held by way of security.

(6) For the purposes of this section, relevant property means any property, excluding land and the following kinds of property:

(a) a marketable security that is quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange,

(b) an interest in a marketable security referred to in paragraph (a), or an interest in a marketable security if the interest is quoted on the Australian Securities Exchange,

(c) an interest in a unit trust scheme, being a unit trust scheme in respect of which units in the scheme have been issued to the public and 50 or more persons are beneficially entitled to units in the scheme,

(d) property the Chief Commissioner is satisfied is of a similar nature to property referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

209 When must duty be paid?

A tax default does not occur for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 if duty is paid within 3 months after the liability to pay the duty arises.

210 How is mortgage duty charged?

(1) The amount of duty chargeable on a mortgage is calculated by reference to the amount secured by it at the liability date, as determined under Part 2.
(2) The amount of duty is:

(a) $5.00, if no amount is secured by the mortgage or the amount secured by the mortgage is not more than $16,000, or

(b) if the amount secured by the mortgage is more than $16,000—$5.00, plus a further $4.00 for every $1,000, or part, by which the amount secured exceeds $16,000.

(3) The amount of duty chargeable on the mortgage at a liability date is to be reduced by the amount of ad valorem duty (if any) for which the mortgage has already been duly stamped under this Act.

(4) No refund of duty is payable because the amount of ad valorem duty for which a mortgage has already been duly stamped under this Act exceeds the duty chargeable under subsection (2) on the amount secured by the mortgage at a liability date.

211 Consequences of non-payment of duty

A mortgage on which duty is required by this Chapter to be paid is unenforceable to the extent of any amount secured by the mortgage on which duty has not been paid.

212 Where is property located?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, property in the following forms is taken to be located in the place specified:

(a) shares in or securities of a body corporate:

(i) in the case of a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth—in the place where the company is taken to be registered for the purposes of that Act, or

(ii) in any other case—in the place of incorporation of the body corporate,

(b) units in a unit trust scheme:

(i) in the place where the register on which the units are registered is kept, or

(ii) in the place of residence of the manager of the unit trust scheme, if the register on which the units are registered is not kept in Australia,

(c) debt securities of a Government of a State or Territory of the Commonwealth—in the State or Territory concerned.

(2) Subsection (1) (a) is declared to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth in relation to section 1070A (4) of that Act.

Part 2 Calculating the amount secured by a mortgage

213 Amount secured by mortgage

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, the amount secured by a mortgage is the amount of any advances made under an agreement, understanding or arrangement for which the mortgage is security (even if the amount of advances made exceeds the amount of advances recoverable under the mortgage).

(2) A reference in this Chapter to an advance secured by or made under a mortgage includes a reference to any advance made under an agreement, understanding or arrangement for which the mortgage is security (whether or not the advance is recoverable under the mortgage).

(3) To avoid doubt, an advance made under an agreement, understanding or arrangement includes any advance made as a consequence of a variation to that agreement, understanding or arrangement.

214 Mortgage packages

(1) The Chief Commissioner must, at the liability date for a mortgage, assess the mortgage, together with any other instruments of security, as a mortgage package if the mortgage and other instruments secure or partly secure the same money.

(2) This section applies regardless of when the other instruments of security were first executed.

(3) Duty on a mortgage package is to be assessed under this Part as if the instruments comprising the mortgage package, to the extent that they secure the same moneys, were a single mortgage.

(4) One of the mortgages in the mortgage package is to be stamped, or upstamped, with any ad valorem duty paid under this Act for the mortgage package and each other mortgage in the mortgage package is to be stamped as a collateral mortgage.

(5) If any of the mortgages in the mortgage package partly secures other moneys, that mortgage is to continue to be treated as a separate mortgage under this Chapter in respect of the other moneys that it secures and may be stamped for the duty chargeable in respect of those other moneys.

215 Contingent liabilities

(1) A mortgage that is used or is capable of being used (whether directly or through a chain of relationships) to recover the whole or any part of an amount contingently payable in connection with an advance:

(a) by a guarantor or indemnifying party under a guarantee or indemnity, or

(b) by another party under another instrument of a different kind,

is liable to duty as if the amount of the contingent liability under the guarantee, indemnity or other instrument (or, where there is more than one guarantee, indemnity or other instrument, the greatest contingent liability) were a separate advance made under the agreement, understanding or arrangement for which the mortgage is security.

(2) In the case of a mortgage that is part of a chain of relationships referred to in subsection (1), a reference in that subsection to a contingent liability is a reference to a contingent liability limited to the amount of any advance by any party in the chain, and does not include a reference to any other kind of contingent liability.

(3) This section does not apply if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that there is no connection between the mortgage and any advance by any party to the arrangements.
(4) Nothing in this section requires duty to be paid more than once in respect of an advance.

216 Mortgages over property not wholly within New South Wales

(1) Mortgage duty is to be assessed for a mortgage over property that is partly within and partly outside New South Wales as if the amount secured by the mortgage were only the dutiable proportion.

(2) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated in accordance with the following formula:

\[ DP = \frac{AS \times V}{T} \]

where:

- DP is the dutiable proportion.
- AS is the amount secured by the mortgage on which duty would, but for this section, be charged at the liability date.
- V is the value of the property in New South Wales affected by the mortgage.
- T is the value of all property affected by the mortgage.

(3) The dutiable proportion is to be calculated by reference to any relevant document that provides, or relevant documents that together provide, the value of all property affected by the mortgage, subject to this section.

(4) A relevant document is any of the following prepared within 12 months before the liability date for the mortgage:

(a) an independent valuation of the secured property,

(b) a statement of the mortgagee based on information obtained by the mortgagee in deciding to make the advance to the mortgagor,

(c) property valuations used by the mortgagor in preparing an annual return to be lodged under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth,

(d) a financial report of the mortgagor or a group of which the mortgagor is a member, certified by an independent auditor as presenting a true and fair view of a corporation’s or group’s financial position,

(e) agreed property valuations that form the basis of the mortgagor’s insurance policies,

(f) another document the Chief Commissioner considers to be appropriate for calculating the dutiable proportion.

(5) If more than one relevant document is available for determining the value of the same property, the Chief Commissioner is to give preference to the most recently prepared document, subject to this section.

(6) If a mortgagor is a member of a group, and a financial report comprising the consolidated accounts of the group is available, and is a relevant document, the dutiable proportion is to be calculated primarily by reference to that relevant document, unless the Chief Commissioner does not consider it appropriate to do so. In such a case, the only debt or equity to be taken into account in calculating the dutiable proportion is the debt and equity as disclosed in that financial report.

(7) (Repealed)

216A Calculation of dutiable proportion—goodwill and intellectual property

For the purposes of this Chapter, if the property secured by a mortgage includes the goodwill of a business or intellectual property, the goodwill or intellectual property is taken to be property in New South Wales to the extent that it would have comprised a business asset under Chapter 2 if it had been transferred to the mortgagor immediately before the liability date, which has a value equivalent to the dutiable value of such a transfer.

217 Collateral mortgages—minimum duty

A collateral mortgage is chargeable with a minimum duty of $50.

217A, 218 (Repealed)

218A Security

(1) A stamped mortgage or a collateral mortgage that was, but is no longer, part of the same mortgage package and no longer secures the same money secured by that package is not security for any other advance unless duty in respect of the other advance has been paid.

(2) The withdrawal of a mortgage from a mortgage package will not, for the purposes of this Chapter, affect the amount for which the remaining mortgage or mortgages are security.

218B, 218BA (Repealed)

218C Multi-jurisdictional statement

(1) If mortgage duty is imposed on the dutiable proportion of a mortgage (whether for a mortgage over property not wholly in New South Wales, a mortgage package or on initial or subsequent advances), the mortgagor and mortgagee must, within 3 months after the liability arises:

(a) make a written statement, in an approved form, about the location and value of the secured property, and

(b) lodge the statement with the Chief Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

Note. An offence against subsection (1) committed by a corporation is an executive liability offence attracting executive liability for a director or other person involved in the management of the corporation—see section 121 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) The making and lodging of a statement under subsection (1) by either the mortgagor or the mortgagee relieves the other person from complying with that subsection.

(3) The statement may be taken to be the mortgage, or mortgages comprising the mortgage package.
Part 3 Duty concessions

218D Concession for advances charged with duty under corresponding Acts

(1) If the total of the amount of ad valorem duty chargeable under this Act in respect of the amount secured by a mortgage at a liability date and the amount of duty paid under a corresponding Act in respect of the mortgage exceeds the maximum duty charge in respect of the mortgage, the amount of ad valorem duty chargeable on the mortgage at the liability date is to be reduced by the amount necessary to ensure that the maximum duty charge is not exceeded.

(2) The maximum duty charge in respect of the mortgage is the amount of ad valorem duty that would be chargeable in respect of the amount secured by the mortgage at the liability date if:

(a) it were a single mortgage over property wholly within New South Wales (that is, disregarding section 216), and

(b) it had not previously been stamped under this Act for any ad valorem duty.

(3) The amount of duty paid under a corresponding Act in respect of the mortgage is the total of all ad valorem duty already paid in respect of the amount secured by the mortgage under any corresponding Act.

(4) If a mortgage has already been duly stamped under this Act for an amount of duty, any reduction in the amount of duty chargeable on the mortgage at the liability date that is made under section 210 (3) is to be made after making any reduction required by this section.

(5) To avoid doubt, this section extends to a mortgage package assessed as a single mortgage.

219 Additional advances of not more than $10,000 in 12 months

Duty is not chargeable on additional advances secured by or under a mortgage if the total of the additional advances so secured does not exceed $10,000 in any 12-month period, not being the period of 12 months following the making of the initial advance.

220 Refinancing of loans

(1) In this section:

- land used for aquaculture means land subject to an aquaculture permit (within the meaning of the Fisheries Management Act 1994).

- refinancing mortgage means a mortgage that:

  (a) secures the amount of the balance outstanding under an earlier mortgage that is discharged or to be discharged as part of the arrangements for the new mortgage, and

  (b) is created to secure an advance to the same borrower as under the earlier mortgage, and

  (c) is over the same or substantially the same property or part of the property as the earlier mortgage.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), mortgages are created to secure an advance to the same borrower if, either directly by the mortgages themselves or indirectly through one or more collateral arrangements, the same person obtains the advances secured by them.
(3) A refinancing mortgage is taken to have been stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of the duty-free refinancing amount, except as provided by subsection (5).

(3A) For the purposes of this section, the duty-free refinancing amount is the lesser of the following amounts:

(a) the amount secured by the earlier mortgage on which duty has been paid under this Act or in relation to which an exemption from duty has been obtained,

(b) $1,000,000.

(3B) However, if the refinancing mortgage is over land used for primary production or land used for aquaculture, the duty-free refinancing amount is the maximum amount payable under or secured by the earlier mortgage (being an amount in relation to which mortgage duty has been paid or in relation to which an exemption from duty has been obtained).

Note. “Land used for primary production” is defined in the Dictionary.

(4) If an advance is refinanced by more than one lender, so that mortgages given to the lenders together secure the balance outstanding under an earlier mortgage, the definition of refinancing mortgage in subsection (1) is to be construed as though:

(a) the reference to a mortgage securing the outstanding balance were a reference to the aggregate of such mortgages, and

(b) the reference to property were a reference to the property securing the aggregate of refinancing advances made by the lenders under their combined mortgages, to the intent that, if the requirements of the definition, as so construed, are satisfied, each lender is taken, for the purposes of this section, to be the holder of a refinancing mortgage.

(5) If, as provided by subsection (4), each of a number of lenders is the holder of a refinancing mortgage, a refinancing mortgage held by each lender is taken to have been duly stamped with ad valorem duty as a mortgage in respect of an amount equal to the same proportion of the duty-free refinancing amount as the amount secured by that mortgage bears to the total amount secured by the refinancing mortgages held by all the lenders.

(6) If each of two or more refinancing mortgages severally secures the same advance:

(a) the provisions of subsection (3) or (5), as the case may be, apply to such one of the mortgages as the Chief Commissioner determines, and

(b) no duty is chargeable in respect of any of the others.

(7) (Repealed)

(8) Duty at the rate of $4 per $1,000 or remaining part of $1,000 is payable on the amount by which the advance made under a refinancing mortgage (not being a mortgage on which, by virtue of subsection (6) (b), no duty is chargeable) exceeds:

(a) the duty-free refinancing amount, or

(b) the proportion of that amount referred to in subsection (5), in the case of a refinancing to which subsection (4) applies.
(8A) If a borrower is a related body corporate of a borrower under an earlier mortgage, the firstmentioned borrower is taken to be the same borrower or the same person for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2).

(9) If a borrower under an earlier mortgage dies, or is a party to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled or, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, has broken down irretrievably or is party to a de facto relationship that, in the opinion of the Chief Commissioner, has been terminated, the remaining borrower is, or the remaining borrowers are, taken to be the same borrower or the same person for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2).

(10) A party to a marriage or de facto relationship may provide a statement to the Chief Commissioner, in the form of a statutory declaration, to the effect that:

(a) in the case of a marriage:
   (i) the party intends to apply for a dissolution or an annulment of the marriage, or
   (ii) the parties to the marriage have separated, and there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed, or

(b) in the case of a de facto relationship, the de facto relationship has been terminated.

The Chief Commissioner is required to have regard to any such statement in exercising his or her functions under subsection (9).

(11) Subsection (10) does not limit the functions of the Chief Commissioner under section 72 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

221 (Repealed)

(9) A determination made by the Chief Commissioner under this section:

(a) may be varied or revoked by the making of a further determination, and

(6) For the purposes of section 210, a transferred mortgage is not considered to have been duly stamped in respect of any duty paid before the transfer on advances made before the transfer.

228 Stamping counterpart or collateral instrument if mortgage is lost, destroyed or cannot be produced

A counterpart of a mortgage or a collateral security for an amount secured by a mortgage is taken to be the mortgage and may accordingly be stamped or upstamped for mortgage duty purposes if, on application by or on behalf of a person who is a party to the mortgage, the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the mortgage has been lost or destroyed or, because of being deposited in the Land Titles Office or from other reasonable cause, cannot conveniently be produced.

Chapter 8 Insurance

Part 1 General insurance

229 Imposition of duty

(1) This Part charges duty on the amount of the premium paid in relation to a contract of insurance that effects general insurance (whether or not it also effects other kinds of insurance).

(2) The amount of duty is required to be paid each time a premium is paid in relation to a contract of insurance that effects general insurance.

Notes.
(1) General insurance is defined in section 230.
(2) Premium is defined in section 231.
(3) The time at which a premium is paid is determined by section 232.
(4) Generally, the insurer to whom the premium is paid is the person liable to pay the duty. But there are circumstances in which the person insured is liable to pay the duty. These circumstances are set out in section 236.
(5) To facilitate payment of duty, insurers must register themselves with the Chief Commissioner, submit a monthly return showing the total amount of premiums paid to them for general insurance during the preceding month and pay the appropriate amount of duty when submitting the return. The provisions that deal with this are in Part 3.

230 What is “general insurance”?

(1) General insurance is any kind of insurance that is applicable to:

(a) property in New South Wales, or

(b) a risk, contingency or event concerning an act or omission that, in the normal course of events, may occur within, or partly within, New South Wales, or both.

(2) General insurance does not include life insurance, a life insurance rider or insurance that is exempt from duty by Part 5 or 5A.

(2) A premium or instalment of a premium (apart from the case where the premium or instalment is received directly by an insurer) is taken to have been received by an insurer if it is received by another person on the insurer’s behalf.

233 Types of general insurance

(1) For the purpose of charging duty, general insurance is divided into 3 types, Type A insurance, Type B insurance and Type C insurance.

(2) Type A insurance is general insurance other than Type B insurance or Type C insurance.

(2A) Type B insurance is:

   (a) motor vehicle insurance, being insurance covering any one or more of the following:

in respect of fees or charges for hospital treatment, or for health care ancillary to hospital treatment, if the liability is not covered by a private health insurer within the meaning of the general insurance, if the insurance is effected or renewed on or after 1 January 2018.

(3) Type C insurance is crop insurance or livestock insurance.

234 What duty is payable?

(1) The amount of duty chargeable on the premium paid in relation to a contract of insurance is 9% of the amount of the premium to the extent to which the premium is paid to effect Type A of this section.

(5) In this section:

premium means any amount paid in connection with insurance to a person who is not a registered insurer that would be a premium under this Part if the person to whom it was paid was a registered insurer.

Note. Because this section imposes liability for duty on an insured person if the insured person arranges insurance with an insurer who is not registered, it would always be prudent to check the registered status of the insurer. This may be done by inspecting the register kept under section 252 by the Chief Commissioner.

237 Records to be kept

A person to whom section 236 applies must maintain records that contain information as to:

(a) the nature and location of the property insured, and

(a) 5% of the first year’s premium on the policy, and

245 Circumstances in which duty is payable by the insured person

1. This section applies to a person (not being a registered insurer) who effects a policy of life insurance or life insurance rider as an insured person with a person who is not a registered insurer.

2. A person to whom this section applies must, within 21 days after the end of the month in which the policy of life insurance or life insurance rider was effected:

   (b) pay to the Chief Commissioner as duty the amount calculated in accordance with section 243.

3. A person to whom this section applies is taken to have complied with this section if the person’s duty under this section is discharged by another person acting on the person’s behalf.

This may be done by inspecting the register kept under section 252 by the Chief Commissioner.

If a premium is refunded to a person because the person cancels a policy of life insurance within 30 days after receiving the policy, a person who has paid duty in respect of the policy is entitled to a refund of the duty.

(ii) a transfer of securities of the head corporation to, or an acquisition of those securities by, a holder of securities of the affected corporation.

(2) A transfer, or an acquisition of an interest in a landholder, is not a corporate consolidation transaction if, immediately before the transfer or acquisition occurred, the head corporation held dutiable property or a vehicle or an interest in a corporation.

(3) A transfer, or an acquisition of an interest in a landholder, is not a corporate consolidation transaction unless, immediately after the issue or transfer of the head corporation’s securities:

is taken, for the purposes of a corporate reconstruction transaction, to be a transaction between the corporations as members of the same group.

(5A) A reference in subsection (5) to a trustee includes, in the case of a trustee of a unit trust scheme that is a managed investment scheme, a reference to a custodian of the trustee of the scheme acting as custodian of the trustee of that scheme.

(6) A corporation is not a member of a corporate group for the purposes of a corporate reconstruction transaction if the corporation is acting in the capacity of trustee of:

(4) The Chief Commissioner must reassess any duty charged on a transaction if an exemption is granted after the date of assessment of the transaction.

(5) The Chief Commissioner may revoke an exemption for a corporate reconstruction transaction if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied, because of new information not disclosed in the application for exemption, that the exemption should not have been granted.

Chapter 11A Tax avoidance schemes

284C Object of Chapter

The object of this Chapter is to deter artificial, blatant or contrived schemes to reduce or avoid liability for duty.

284D Payment of duty avoided as a result of tax avoidance scheme

(1) A person is liable to pay the amount of duty avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme that is of an artificial, blatant or contrived nature.
(2) For the purposes of this Chapter, the amount of duty avoided by a person as a result of the tax avoidance scheme is the amount of duty, or the amount of additional duty, that, if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into or made:

(a) would have been payable by the person, or

(b) it is reasonable to expect would have been payable by the person, assuming that a reasonable alternative to entering into or making the scheme had been adopted (being an alternative that would have achieved the same economic or commercial result as the scheme, other than the result of avoiding or reducing duty).

(3) The Chief Commissioner may make an assessment, or reassessment, of a liability for duty on the basis of the person’s liability under this Chapter to pay an amount of duty avoided by the person.

284E What is a tax avoidance scheme?

(1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a tax avoidance scheme is any scheme that a person, whether alone or with others, enters into, makes or carries out for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling liability for duty to be avoided or reduced.

(2) It does not matter that the scheme is entered into, made or carried out wholly or partly outside New South Wales.

(3) In determining the sole or dominant purpose for which a scheme is entered into, made or carried out, any purpose related to avoiding, reducing or postponing a liability for foreign tax is to be disregarded.

(4) In this section:

foreign tax means a duty, tax or other impost imposed under a law of another State, a Territory, the Commonwealth or a jurisdiction outside Australia.

284F Matters relevant to whether scheme is tax avoidance scheme

The following matters are to be taken into account in determining whether a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme, and whether it is of an artificial, blatant or contrived nature:

(a) the way in which the scheme was entered into, made or carried out,

(b) the form and substance of the scheme, including:

(i) the legal rights and obligations involved in the scheme, and

(ii) the economic and commercial substance of the scheme,

(c) when the scheme was entered into or made and the length of the period during which the scheme was carried out,

(d) the purpose of this Act or any provision of this Act, whether or not that purpose is expressly stated,

(e) the effect that this Act would have in relation to the scheme apart from this Chapter,

(f) any change in any person’s financial position, or other circumstances, that has resulted, will result, or may reasonably be expected to result, from the scheme,

(g) the nature of any connection, whether of a business, family or other nature, between the person whose liability for duty is avoided or reduced as a result of the scheme and any other person whose financial position or other circumstances have changed, will change, or may reasonably be expected to change, as a result of the scheme,

(h) the circumstances surrounding the scheme.

284G When does a liability to pay avoided duty arise?

(1) A liability to pay an amount of duty avoided by a person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme is taken to arise on the date the amount of duty avoided would have been payable if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into or made.

(2) Accordingly, a tax default is taken to have occurred, for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, on the date the amount of duty avoided would have been payable if the tax avoidance scheme had not been entered into or made.

Note. This means that interest and penalty tax may be charged in addition to the amount of duty avoided.

(3) This section applies only if the Chief Commissioner issues a notice of assessment, or reassessment, of liability for duty on the basis that a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme of an artificial, blatant or contrived nature.

284H Reasons for decision to be given

A notice of assessment, or reassessment, of liability for duty that is issued by the Chief Commissioner on the basis that a scheme is a tax avoidance scheme of an artificial, blatant or contrived nature is to be accompanied by a statement of the Chief Commissioner’s reasons for making the assessment or reassessment.

284I Innocent participants

(1) A person is liable under this Chapter to pay an amount of duty avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme whether or not the person entered into, made or carried out the relevant tax avoidance scheme.

(2) However, a person is not liable to pay an amount of duty avoided by the person as a result of a tax avoidance scheme if the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that the person did not know that the scheme was a tax avoidance scheme.

284J Meaning of “scheme”

(1) In this Chapter, a scheme means:

(a) a trust, contract, agreement, arrangement, understanding, promise or undertaking (including all steps and transactions by which it is carried into effect):

(i) whether entered into or made orally or in writing, and

(ii) whether express or implied, and

(iii) whether or not it is, or is intended to be, enforceable by legal proceedings, or
(b) a scheme, plan, proposal, action, course of action or course of conduct.

(2) A scheme may be a unilateral scheme.

(3) This Chapter applies in relation to a part of a scheme in the same way as it applies to a scheme. For that purpose, a reference in this Chapter to a scheme includes a reference to a part of a scheme.

Chapter 12 Miscellaneous

Part 1 Stamping instruments

285 Provision of stamps

The Chief Commissioner may provide stamps or such other equipment as may be required for:

(a) stamping instruments, or

(b) otherwise denoting the payment of duty, in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

286 Limitation on use of designated stamps

(1) A stamp that by its terms is limited to an instrument of a specified kind must not be used for an instrument of a different kind.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

Note. An offence against subsection (1) committed by a corporation is an executive liability offence attracting executive liability for a director or other person involved in the management of the corporation—see section 121 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) An instrument of a specified kind for which a particular stamp is specified is taken not to be duly stamped unless it is stamped with the stamp so specified.

287 Form of stamps to be used

(1) An instrument that is required to be stamped by this Act is to be stamped by means of an impressed stamp or a unique transaction identifier or reference number.

(2) However, another form of stamping may be used if its use is authorised by this Act or the Chief Commissioner.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the Chief Commissioner may authorise the endorsement or certification of an instrument as referred to in section 289A or 290.

288 Stamping of instruments

The Chief Commissioner must stamp an instrument in respect of which duty is chargeable under this Act, or that effects or evidences a dutiable transaction, and that has been lodged for stamping with the Chief Commissioner if the duty, and any interest or penalty tax under Part 5 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, is paid in full.

Note. In relation to dutiable transactions that are surcharge duty transactions, see Part 5 of Chapter 2A.
288A  (Repealed)

289  When is an instrument duly stamped?

An instrument is duly stamped if it is stamped in accordance with this Act.

289A  Stamping by means of endorsement

(1) An instrument is duly stamped if it is endorsed in accordance with an arrangement, approved by the Chief Commissioner under Division 2 of Part 6 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, under which:

(a) information concerning an instrument (rather than the instrument itself) is lodged with the Chief Commissioner, and

(b) the information is used by the Chief Commissioner to assess the duty payable on the instrument, and

(c) a number, or other information, is issued by the Chief Commissioner, in respect of the instrument, for endorsement on the instrument.

(2) Section 297 applies in respect of an instrument endorsed in accordance with an arrangement referred to in this section as if the instrument had been stamped by the Chief Commissioner, and section 42 (3) of the Taxation Administration Act 1996 does not apply.

(3) However, the endorsement of an instrument in accordance with an arrangement referred to in this section does not affect any liability for payment of the duty in relation to the instrument under this Act.

(4) A notice of assessment or statement of confirmation issued by the Chief Commissioner in relation to the assessment of an instrument as referred to in this section may include any of the information provided to the Chief Commissioner on which the assessment of the instrument was based.

290  Special procedures for electronic registry instruments

(1) The Chief Commissioner may approve procedures for the payment of duty in respect of electronic registry instruments and the endorsement or certification of those instruments in a way that indicates that duty has been paid, is payable or is not chargeable.

(2) An electronic registry instrument is taken to be duly stamped if the instrument is endorsed or certified in accordance with such a procedure.

(3) An approved procedure may permit the endorsement or certification of an instrument before it is digitally signed but, in that case, the instrument is taken to be duly stamped only when the instrument is digitally signed in accordance with the Electronic Conveyancing National Law (NSW).

(4) The endorsement or certification of an instrument under this section:

(a) is not evidence of an assessment of the duty payable under this Act in respect of the instrument, and
(b) does not affect any liability for payment of the duty in relation to the instrument under this Act.

(5) Particulars of any procedure approved under this section are to be published on the website of Revenue NSW.

(6) A person who endorses or certifies an electronic registry instrument otherwise than under and in accordance with a procedure approved under this section so as to suggest or imply that the instrument has been endorsed or certified in accordance with the procedure is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

291–292 (Repealed)

293 Reassessments—failed instruments

(1) An instrument that fails in its intended operation and becomes useless is not chargeable with duty under this Act.

(2) The Chief Commissioner must make a reassessment of duty in respect of such an instrument if an application for a reassessment is made within:

(a) 5 years after the initial assessment, or

(b) 12 months after the instrument has failed,

whichever is the later.

(3) The instrument in respect of which the application is made must be produced to the Chief Commissioner unless the Chief Commissioner dispenses with its production.

(4) This section does not apply in respect of an instrument that effects a transfer of dutiable property.

Note. See Part 5 of Chapter 2 for refunds of duty under Chapter 2 on failed instruments. See Part 3 of Chapter 2A for refunds of surcharge purchaser duty on failed instruments.

294 Instruments to be separately charged with duty in certain cases

An instrument that contains or relates to several distinct matters for which different duties are chargeable under this Act is to be separately and distinctly charged with duty in respect of each such matter, as if each matter were expressed in a separate instrument.

295 Execution of instruments

(1) For the purposes of this Act, an instrument is taken to be first executed the first time that it is signed and sealed, or signed (as the case may be) by any party to it.

(2) However, a contract made by acceptance of an offer contained in an instrument is taken to be first executed when the offer is accepted.

(3) If an instrument is ineffective by reason of a failure of the necessary parties to execute it, a refund may be made of any money paid for stamping.
296 Stamping of instruments after execution

(1) Except where otherwise expressly provided by this or another Act, a person liable with respect to any instrument chargeable with duty or any dutiable transaction must cause the instrument, or an instrument that effects or evidences the transaction, to be duly stamped or, in accordance with the provisions of this Act marked “interim stamp only” within 6 months after it was first executed.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

Note. An offence against subsection (1) committed by a corporation is an executive liability offence attracting executive liability for a director or other person involved in the management of the corporation—see section 121 of the Taxation Administration Act 1996.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a written statement that is required to be stamped is taken to be first executed when the transaction to which the statement relates occurs.

297 Stamping taken to constitute assessment

(1) For the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, the stamping of an instrument by the Chief Commissioner is taken to constitute an assessment of the duty payable under this Act in respect of the instrument or the dutiable transaction effected or evidenced by that instrument.

(2) If the Chief Commissioner does not issue a notice of assessment at the time that the instrument is stamped, the stamped instrument is taken, for the purposes of the Taxation Administration Act 1996, to be a notice of assessment.

Note. The Taxation Administration Act 1996 provides that an objection to an assessment must be lodged within 60 days of service of the notice of assessment (unless late lodgment is permitted by the Chief Commissioner).

298 Deferred payments for certain stamped instruments

(1) The Minister may:

(a) in circumstances in which (in the course of an industrial dispute involving persons engaged in the administration of this Act) an instrument liable to duty is not stamped by reason of the refusal of those persons to exercise functions relating to the administration of this Act or of any other law, and

(b) in such other circumstances as the regulations may prescribe, authorise the stamping of instruments on which duty is payable, even though the duty has not yet been paid, if an undertaking, in an approved form, has been given by a prescribed person, or a person belonging to a prescribed class of persons, as to the payment of duty in respect of the instrument.

(2) The Minister’s authorisation must provide for the manner in which, and the time within which, unpaid duty is to be paid in respect of instruments stamped under the authorisation.

(3) An instrument that has been stamped under the Minister’s authorisation is, except for the purposes of the recovery of any unpaid duty (including any interest or penalty with which the instrument is charged under the Taxation Administration Act 1996) in respect of the instrument, taken to be duly stamped.
If the duty payable in respect of an instrument that has been stamped under the Minister’s authorisation is not paid in accordance with the terms of the authorisation, the Taxation Administration Act 1996 applies to the payment of that duty in the same manner as if the instrument had not been so stamped.

For the purposes of subsection (1), the following persons are prescribed persons:

(a) a person who is liable to pay duty in respect of an instrument,

(b) a person who is authorised (whether by a person who is liable to pay duty in respect of an instrument or by another person) to arrange for the stamping of the instrument on behalf of a person who is liable.

299 Copies of instruments

(1) A copy of an original instrument is chargeable with duty as if it had been executed in the same way as the original instrument and had been first executed at the same time as the original instrument unless the Chief Commissioner is satisfied:

(a) that the original instrument has been duly stamped, or

(b) that a copy of the original instrument has been duly stamped in accordance with this section.

(2) If a copy of an original instrument is duly stamped in accordance with this section, the original instrument is taken to be duly stamped.

(3) In this section:

- copy of an original instrument means an unexecuted instrument in which, in the Chief Commissioner’s opinion, the matter contained in the original instrument is wholly or substantially reproduced, whether or not the matter reproduced has the same appearance as the matter contained in the original instrument, but does not include a replica within the meaning of section 272.

- original instrument means an instrument that is chargeable with duty otherwise than under this section.

300 Calculation of time

(2) A month is taken to be a period commencing at the beginning of a day of one of the 12 named months (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1987) and ending:

(a) at the end of the corresponding day of the next named month, or

(b) if there is no such corresponding day, at the end of the next named month.

(3) A period of 2 or more months is taken to be a period commencing at the beginning of a day of one of the 12 named months (within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1987) and ending:

(b) if there is no such corresponding day, at the end of that named month.

(4) Section 36 (except subsection (1)) of the Interpretation Act 1987 applies to the calculation of a period of time to which this section applies.

Part 2 Enforcement

with arrangements approved by the court or tribunal, or

(2) If a mortgage is stamped on or after the introduction date, and before the date of assent to the amending Act, for an amount exceeding the amount for which it may be stamped under section 218, as amended by the amending Act, it is taken to be duly stamped, but only for an amount of an advance secured by the mortgage that does not exceed the value of the property affected by the mortgage at the date of the referable point.

(3) If a mortgage stamped before the date of assent to the amending Act becomes chargeable with duty, or additional duty, under Chapter 7 as a consequence of the amendment made to section 218 by the amending Act or this clause, the liability to pay the duty is taken, for the purposes of section 209, to arise on the date of assent to that Act.

(4) In this clause:

introduction date means the date the Bill for the amending Act was introduced into the Legislative Assembly.
57 Closure of debenture concession

(1) Section 226 (3B), as in force immediately before its substitution by the amending Act, continues to apply in respect of an advance or further advance referred to in that subsection that was made before the debenture concession closure date. Accordingly, section 226, as in force immediately before the debenture concession closure date, continues to have effect in relation to those advances or further advances.

(2) Any liability to pay duty, or additional duty, under Chapter 7 that arises under section 226 (as amended by the amending Act) because of the making of an advance or further advance on or after the debenture concession closure date but before the date of assent to the amending Act, being a liability that would not arise but for the amendments made to that section by that Act, is taken, for the purposes of section 209, to arise on the date of assent to that Act.

(3) In this clause:

debenture concession closure date means the date the Bill for the amending Act was introduced into the Legislative Assembly.

58 Abolition of duty on leases

(1) The abolition of duty on lease instruments (effective 1 January 2008) does not affect any obligation to pay duty under Chapter 5 in respect of a lease instrument executed before 1 January 2008 and that Chapter continues to apply in respect of such an instrument.

(2) Sections 169 (2) and 178 do not apply to or in respect of a variation of a lease instrument referred to in subclause (1) if the variation is made on or after 1 January 2008.

(3) If any lease executed before 1 January 2008 has any unascertainable cost components for which there is an estimate date on or after 1 January 2008:

(a) the Chief Commissioner must, on the first of those estimate dates to occur on or after 1 January 2008 (the final estimate date), make a final estimate of the cost of the lease, and

(b) the lease instrument is chargeable with duty under this Act as if that final estimate were the full cost of the lease, and

(c) no further estimates of the cost of the lease are to be made (despite section 173 (5)).

(4) Section 173 (6) applies only to the final estimate date or an estimate date that occurs before the final estimate date.

(5) Section 173 (7) and (8) do not apply in respect of any period after the final estimate date.

(6) For the purposes of this clause, estimate date means any of the estimate dates for a lease determined under section 173 (5).

59 Duty on lease premiums

(1) The amendments to sections 8 and 9 made by the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes)
(relating to leases) apply only in respect of leases that are first executed on or after 1 July 2006.

(2) Sections 170 (2) and 179 (5), as in force immediately before their repeal by the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes) Act 2006, continue to apply in respect of lease instruments executed before the repeal of those provisions.

60 Changes to mortgage duty provisions

(1) The mortgage duty amendments do not apply to a mortgage or instrument of security first executed before 1 July 2006 unless an advance or further advance is made in respect of the mortgage or instrument on or after that date (and in such a case apply in respect of the advance or further advance).

(2) If the amount secured by a mortgage executed before 1 July 2006 is a definite and limited sum, but the amount of advances actually secured by the mortgage immediately before 1 July 2006 was less than the definite and limited sum, section 214, as inserted by the mortgage duty amendments, and not section 213, applies in respect of any advance or further advance made after 1 July 2006 which does not result in the total amount of advances actually secured by the mortgage exceeding that definite and limited sum. This subclause extends to a mortgage to which section 226 applies.

(3) A reference in section 213 or 214, as inserted by the mortgage duty amendments, to an amount on which duty has been paid under section 213 or 214 extends to an amount on which duty has been paid under Chapter 7 as in force immediately before 1 July 2006.

(4) Section 213 (3), as inserted by the mortgage duty amendments, extends to a variation to a mortgage made on or after 1 July 2006 in respect of a mortgage first executed before that date.

(5) For the purposes of this clause, the mortgage duty amendments means Schedule 1 [26], [27] and [31]–[41] to the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes) Act 2006.

61 Abolition of duty on hire of goods—commercial hire businesses

(1) The repeal of Chapter 6 (effective 1 July 2007) by the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes) Act 2006 does not affect any obligation to pay duty under Part 2 of that Chapter in respect of hiring charges received in any month before July 2007 and, for that purpose, that Part is taken to continue to apply in respect of such hiring charges.

(2) In particular, section 199, as in force immediately before its repeal by the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes) Act 2006, is taken to continue to apply to a commercial hire business, so that, after the repeal of that section:

(a) a commercial hire business continues to be required to lodge a return in accordance with that section (but only in respect of the months before July 2007), and

(b) a commercial hire business may request a reassessment of duty under section 199 (6).

62 Abolition of duty on hire of goods—other persons

(1) The repeal of Chapter 6 (effective 1 July 2007) by the Duties Amendment (Abolition of State Taxes) Act 2006 does not affect any obligation to pay duty under Part 3 of that Chapter in respect of a hire of goods entered into before 1 July 2007.
(2) For that purpose, Part 3 of that Chapter is taken to continue to apply to a hire of goods entered into before 1 July 2007, but only if the first, or only, payment of hiring charges is paid, or becomes payable, before that date. Accordingly, if the first payment of hiring charges is paid, or become payable, before 1 July 2007, no refund of duty is payable in respect of any part of the hiring charges that is paid or becomes payable on or after 1 July 2007.

(3) Subclause (2) does not prevent a reassessment of duty being made under section 199 (6) (as in force immediately before its repeal).

63 Transactions involving put and call options

The amendments made to Part 2 of Chapter 3 by the State Revenue Legislation Amendment (Tax Concessions) Act 2006 do not operate to impose duty on a call option assignment (within the meaning of that Part) that would not, immediately before the commencement of those amendments, have been chargeable with duty if the call option or put option to which the assignment relates was granted before the commencement of those amendments.

Part 26 Provisions consequent on enactment of Duties Amendment (First Home Plus One) Act 2007

(b) transfers that occur on or after 1 May 2007 (except where made in conformity with an agreement for sale or transfer entered into before 1 May 2007),

(c) mortgages over land the subject of those agreements or transfers.

(2) Accordingly, a shared equity concession under Subdivision 1 of Division 1 of Part 8 of Chapter 2 applies only in respect of the agreements, transfers and mortgages referred to in subclause (1), despite section 70.

(3) Anything done or omitted to be done on or after 1 May 2007 and before the date of assent to the Duties Amendment (First Home Plus One) Act 2007 that would have been validly done or omitted if the First Home Plus amendments had been in force at the time that it was done or omitted is taken to have been validly done or omitted.

(2) For the purposes of this clause:

- effective date of an exemption provision means the date on and from which the exemption provided for by the exemption provision takes effect, as set out in the exemption provision.

- exemption provision means section 221B or 221C, as inserted by the State Revenue and Other Legislation Amendment (Budget) Act 2007.

Part 28 Provisions consequent on enactment of State Revenue Legislation Amendment Act 2008

66 Repeal of vendor duty and other obsolete provisions

An amendment made to this Act by the State Revenue Legislation Amendment Act 2008 does not affect any liability for duty under this Act that arose before the commencement of that amendment, and this Act, as in force before that amendment, continues to have effect in respect of any such liability.

67 Repeal of Stamp Duties Act 1920

(1) The repeal of the Stamp Duties Act 1920 by the State Revenue Legislation Amendment Act 2008 does not affect any liability for duty that arose before that repeal, and that Act, as in force immediately before that repeal, continues to have effect in respect of any such liability, subject to this clause.

(2) If, immediately before the repeal of the Stamp Duties Act 1920, a lease to which section 78D of that Act applies has one or more redetermination dates that have not yet occurred:

(a) the Chief Commissioner must, on the first redetermination date to occur on or after the repeal of the Stamp Duties Act 1920 (the final redetermination date), make a final estimate of the total rent payable for the term of the lease, and

(b) the lease is chargeable with duty under that Act as if that final estimate were the total rent payable for the term of the lease, and

(c) section 78D (2) (e) of the Stamp Duties Act 1920 applies in respect of that redetermination, and

(d) no further redetermination of the duty payable in respect of the lease is to be made.

(3) For the purposes of this clause, a redetermination date means a date on which the Chief Commissioner is required under section 78D of the Stamp Duties Act 1920, as in force immediately before its repeal, to make a redetermination of the duty payable in respect of a lease (or would have been required to do so if that Act had not been repealed).

(4) Section 78D (2) (c) of the Stamp Duties Act 1920, as in force immediately before its repeal, continues to apply only to the final redetermination date and to any redetermination date that occurred before the final redetermination date.

(5) A reference in any Act or in any instrument made under any Act to the Stamp Duties Act 1920 is to be read as including a reference to the Duties Act 1997.

(6) A reference in any other instrument to the Stamp Duties Act 1920 is to be read as including a reference to the Duties Act 1997 unless a contrary intention appears.

75 Changes to duty on acquisitions in landholders

(1) The duty chargeable under new Chapter 4 is chargeable on any relevant acquisition in a private landholder made as a consequence of a person acquiring an interest in a private landholder on or after 1 July 2009.

(2) If a person acquires an interest in a private landholder on or after 1 July 2009, acquisitions made before 1 July 2009 are to be counted for the purpose of determining whether the person has made a relevant acquisition in the private landholder under new Chapter 4.

(2A) However, in calculating the duty payable in respect of any acquisition made before 1 July 2009, the unencumbered value of the goods of the landholder in New South Wales is to be disregarded.

(2B) Similarly, in applying section 155 (5) to an acquisition made before 1 July 2009, the value of “A” is to be determined disregarding the unencumbered value of the goods in New South Wales of the landholder.

(3) Former Chapter 4A continues to apply in respect of any relevant acquisition in a land rich landholder (within the meaning of that Chapter) made as a consequence of a person acquiring an interest in the land rich landholder before 1 July 2009.

(4) An interest that is acquired in a private company or private unit trust scheme on or after 1 July 2009 as a result of an agreement entered into, or option executed, before 11 November 2008 is to be treated, for the purposes of this clause, as if it were acquired before 1 July 2009.
Accordingly, former Chapter 4A applies to a relevant acquisition made as a result of such an acquisition, but the acquisition may still be counted for the purposes of determining whether a relevant acquisition is made under new Chapter 4.

(5) The duty chargeable under new Chapter 4 is chargeable on any relevant acquisition in a public landholder made as a consequence of a person acquiring an interest in the public landholder on or after 1 October 2009.

(6) If a person acquires an interest in a public landholder on or after 1 October 2009, acquisitions made before 1 October 2009 (including any made before 1 July 2009) are to be counted for the purpose of determining whether the person has made a relevant acquisition in the public landholder under new Chapter 4.

Note. However, acquisitions made in public landholders before 1 July 2009 are exempt acquisitions for duty purposes.

(7) Duty is not chargeable under new Chapter 4 on a relevant acquisition made by a person in a public landholder if the person’s intention to make the acquisition was announced to the market before the date on which the Bill for the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act 2009 was introduced into the Legislative Assembly.

(3) Any increase in the amount of advances recoverable under a mortgage first executed before 1 July 2009 is taken to be a further advance for the amount of the increase.

(4) A mortgage with a liability date occurring on or after 1 July 2009 may be assessed as part of the same mortgage package as other mortgages or instruments of security, in accordance with the amendments to Chapter 7, even if one or more of the other mortgages or instruments of security were first executed before 1 July 2009.
(5) The amendments do not affect the assessment of duty in respect of a liability date occurring before 1 July 2009.

77 Mortgages for definite and limited sum first executed before 1 July 2009

(1) If the amount of advances recoverable under a mortgage first executed before 1 July 2009 is a definite and limited sum, the amount secured by the mortgage is taken, for the purpose of determining whether the mortgage becomes liable to additional duty on the making of an advance or further advance on or after 1 July 2009, and determining the amount of duty chargeable, to be the total of the following:

(a) the definite and limited sum,

(b) the amount of any advance or further advance made on or after 1 July 2009 in excess of that definite and limited sum.

(2) The amount secured by any such mortgage at the time a liability to duty last arose under this Act is taken to be the total of the following:

(2) However, section 163A, as in force immediately before its amendment by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009, continues to apply in respect of an interest acquired by a person in a landholder if the person’s intention to make the acquisition was announced to the market before the date on which the Bill for the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009 was introduced into the Legislative Assembly.

(3) The amendments to section 161 made by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009 apply to agreements first executed on or after the commencement of Schedule 1 to that Act.

81 Liability of beneficial owners for landholder duty

(1) The landholder liability amendments apply to an interest in a landholder that is acquired on or after the commencement of the amendments.

(2) If the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder acquires an interest in a landholder on or after the commencement of the amendments, an acquisition of an interest in a landholder made before that commencement (a pre-commencement acquisition) that would have been treated as an acquisition made by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person if the landholder liability amendments had been in force at the time that the acquisition was made is to be counted for the purpose of determining whether a relevant acquisition has been made.

(3) For that purpose, such a pre-commencement acquisition is treated as an acquisition made by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest or an associated person (as the case requires) and must be disclosed in an acquisition statement by the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest.

(4) However, a pre-commencement acquisition disclosed in an acquisition statement by the ultimate beneficial owner of an interest in a landholder is an exempt acquisition if, but for subclause (3), the acquisition would not have to be disclosed in that statement.

(5) Expressions used in this clause have the same meanings as they have in the landholder liability amendments.

(6) In this clause, the landholder liability amendments means the provisions of Part 2A of Chapter 4, as inserted by the State Revenue Legislation Further Amendment Act (No 2) 2009.
